The unique experience of freedom on a 16-foot Hobie Cat.

Olifantsnek – Human Rights Day on 21 March is a time to appreciate the rights and privileges we so often take for granted. We must always ensure that the country's most vulnerable and marginalised people are not forgotten or neglected. Ben Trevelyan, John Fourie, Sydney Mitchell, and Morné and Clinton Graham of the Olifantsnek Yacht Club decided to celebrate Human Rights Day on Monday 22 March by providing a sailing experience to differently abled people in our community. Brenda Klopper and Nikolas Slater were grateful for this big-hearted initiative.

Freed from the confines of her wheelchair Brenda told Platinum Weekly that she could have sailed the whole day watching the clouds building up for an afternoon storm and listening to the lapping water of the Olifantsnek dam. Although Nikolas, aged 11, could not express how he felt in words, his beaming smile especially when the wind picked up and the hobi cat went faster, was confirmation that he was having the time of his life. To support Brenda Klopper on her journey to walk please visit www.backabuddy.co.za/champion/project/brenda-klopper

EDUCATION FIRST!

[LETTER TO THE EDITOR]

Kroondal – South Africa lately experiences high rates of public protests that have an impact on the rights of children to basic education, but in recent days, the community protests have been about ensuring that education is put first.

Parents were protesting for the basic health and safety of their children at the local school in Ikemeleng, Kroondal. The school classes, staff offices, and even the toilets are vandalised. Sibanye Stillwater mine have offered land to build a new school where the school infrastructure could be secured, and the learners protected but the Department of Basic Education needs to approve the plans. The protests have prevented school from taking place and tyres have been burnt on the roads.

Proper education needs parents to be involved. Educators realise that the success of their efforts depend largely on parents cooperating. The current delays to provide a school environment conducive to learning is a human rights violation. Slow and inadequate response by government departments to water and power issues that affect schools also lead to ongoing protest actions.

There is a need for government departments, especially at local levels to better engage with communities.

People must find better ways of expressing their concerns so that their actions do not result in a negative impact the rights of others, such as education.

I appeal to you to put our learners first. Enough is enough.

THIEVES TARGET TRAILERS

Rustenburg – Police in Rustenburg are concerned with the recent increase in theft of trailers. “High volumes of cases were reported around Modderfontein, Rhenosterfontein, and Zuurplaat,” said police spokesperson sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi.

TO PROTECT AND SERVE

Swartruggens – Two Swartruggens police officers showed the true meaning of serving the community when they assisted a driver who was stuck next to the road on Thursday 18 March.

Iprotect was called out to trace a truck that was suspectedly hijacked after it lost all communication just outside Swartruggens at around 22:00. They were escorted by police and found that the truck had broken down due to a faulty airline. The area where it got stuck is a known ‘dead zone’ where there is no radio or cellphone reception whatsoever. For that reason, it’s a well-known dangerous hotspot where travellers often get hijacked or robbed.

The police arranged for the parts needed to repair the truck and even got on the ground to fix the truck. Iprotect general manager Tony Dobson said: “Even though the officers asked to remain anonymous, we would like to give them credit for going the extra mile. We commend them for their service and dedication to someone in need.”

Swartruggens police officers assisted a stationary truck when its breaks' airline broke.

ILLEGAL GOLD-DEALING DUO NABBED

NW – Two suspects are expected to appear before the Orkney Magistrates’ Court for the illegal possession of gold-bearing material and illegal possession of ammunition. The pair, a 35-year-old man and a 33-year-old woman, was arrested in Kanana near Orkney on Wednesday 24 March by the South African Police Service’s illicit mining team. “The pair was nabbed after police searched a house in Kanana near Orkney and found seven 9mm live ammunition and gold-bearing material worth R1.2 million. The police also seized more than R300,000,” said police spokesperson brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone. Investigations into the case have since been taken over by the Hawks.

Two suspects were caught with gold-bearing material.

More than R300,000 in cash was seized by the police.

HUMBLE HERO

Rustenburg/ Buffelspoort – Iprotect security officer Thato Ramasimong was casually doing his rounds around midnight on Thursday 11 March when he noticed a glowing light in the distance. He was the guard on duty at Buffelspark Complex near Buffelspoort. As he went closer to investigate, he saw that it was a truck that was on fire. This quick-thinking hero ran to the garage to request help and then to the truck to see if the driver was okay. The driver had fallen asleep inside the vehicle, so Thato started to throw rocks and sticks at the window to wake him up – but his attempts were futile. The personnel of the garage nearby rushed to the scene with fire extinguishers and the fire was doused before anyone got hurt. The driver finally woke up – unaware that his life had just been saved by a vigilant security guard. In an interview with Platinum Weekly Thato said: “I just saw the flames and knew I had to do something, and quickly as the driver was still inside the truck. I’m just very happy that we managed to douse the fire before anyone got hurt.”

However, for Thato it was just another day on the job. His bosses only found out about his bravery when a witness phoned them to congratulate them on their watchful employee. “Thato is a very hard worker and very humble. We are proud to have him as part of our team. Even though he did not tell us, we weren’t surprised. He is just a ‘beyond the call of duty’ kind of guy,” said Iprotect general manager Tony Dobson. Well done to the humble hero Thato for saving a truck driver from a fiery death.

Iprotect security officer Thato Ramasimong’s quick thinking saved a man’s life.

Are your human rights being trampled on because one or more of your convictions differ from the mainstream?

South Africans celebrated Human Rights Day on 21 March. One of our fundamental rights is the freedom of expression.

“I feel that my human rights are being trampled upon because the focus is only put on fighting violence against women. I’m not saying that this is not important – because it is. There is too much violence against women! However, as a man, I also have the right to be protected against a woman or anyone else who might act violently towards me. Everyone’s rights are important and must be upheld equally.”

Antonio Moropa

“Human rights are important because it is important to treat people in a dignified manner. As a woman, however, I do not feel that safe because of the many incidents of rape and physical abuse that are being reported. This is a difficult time for many women because we always have to be alert when we are walking in the streets. I often feel scared, and therefore I make sure that I’m at home, no later than 17:00 every day. I feel that my right to freedom is being trampled on.”

SPCA FACING CLOSURE

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA) aims to serve and protect all animals, to uplift their welfare and to ensure that the protection they have under South African law, is upheld and respected.

Our local SPCA is a non-profit organisation that covers a vast area which includes large, impoverished areas. The SPCA’s team must always be proactive, respond to reports of cruelty, neglect or abuse, and react to emergencies involving animals.

To keep their doors open, they urgently need assistance. They are facing a dire financial crisis. Not only do they have to feed the animals in their care... but they also have fuel, municipal costs, salaries, and veterinary accounts that must be paid. In their current situation, they will not be able to make it to month end.

The Rustenburg SPCA takes in hundreds of animals per month and without this SPCA, the lost, abandoned, unwanted, and abused animals would have nowhere to go.

The solution is meaningful support.

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

- Sponsor a kennel for only R200 a month.
- Donate.
- Volunteer.
- Adopt from the SPCA.

They also have various projects that you can get involved in...

BE MY EASTER BUDDY?

Spoil a pet this Easter by donating R100. You can choose your kennel number and ensure that your four-legged friend can get the treatment it deserves. You will also receive a cool photo from your Easter Buddy and one lucky person will receive a big prize.

The winner’s photo will be featured on the Rustenburg SPCA’s Facebook cover page for a month and Platinum Weekly will do a feature article on the pet and its owner.

You can also follow their Facebook page for more information on their fundraising events and see the lovely animals that are up for adoption or contact their office on 014 592 3181 or admin@spcartb.co.za.

GOOD HOPE CENTRE NEEDS YOUR HELP

Brits – Good Hope Centre, a non-profit organisation (NPO) registered with the Department of Social Development, is in urgent need of assistance to provide for the more than 150 children in their care. Although the NPO has been taking care of children from disadvantaged backgrounds for more than 10 years, the financial costs of providing food, school shoes, clothes and other necessities for the minors are overwhelming. “We have 15 volunteers working here and they help the children in their studies, offer them food and also take part in their play activities,” Tshidi Kgaje, a coordinator at the centre, said. “For the past two years, we have not received any funding from the department. We have been getting help from KFC through their Add Hope initiative, but we need more support.” While the centre briefly received assistance from two mining houses, the rising cost of living has affected their ability to care for the children in a negative way. “Many of the children’s parents are not working,” Kgaje explained. “We are in need of containers for our library, food items, school shoes, as well as stipends for our volunteers.”

For more information, visit Good Hope Centre at B072, New Stands Section, Modderspruit. Alternatively contact Tshidi Kgaje on 072 660 1612 or email cyliagoodhope@gmail.com.

Pioneers of excellence!

[Letter to the editor]

No educator or parent could have asked for more than the 100% pass rate of the matric class of 2020. They will be known as the pioneers of excellence at Platinum Village Secondary School. Getting 100% was not easy and needed the support of a dedicated teaching staff. Thank you also to Impala Platinum Mining for providing the learners with a conducive study environment.

Patricia Molokoli (principal)

Learners at Platinum Village Secondary School jumped for joy on hearing their matric results.

Jeni Starling Visser shows that vegan food does not need to compromise taste.

Vegan mushroom-cashew stem

Rustenburg – Jeni Visser is someone that you would want to get stuck with on a desert island as her positive approach to life always finds the best outcomes in any situation.

She works at Lebone II College of the Royal Bafokeng TLC assisting children to overcome learning challenges. She enjoys hiking and yoga, practices kinesiology and has committed to vegan food choices to reduce her planetary impact.

- Prep time: 10 minutes
- Cook time: 30 minutes
- Total time: 40 minutes
- Serves: 6

Equipment

- Food blender
- Cutting board
- Sharp knife
- 2 medium-sized-pots
- Measuring spoons
- Wooden spoon
- Measuring cup

Ingredients

- 1/2 cup unsalted cashew nuts
- 1 cup unsweetened, original almond milk
- Clove of garlic (or more if you enjoy garlic)
- 200 to 250 grams of Portobellini mushrooms (the smaller the better)
- 6 to 10 sundried tomatoes preserved in oil
- 1 tbsp of coconut or olive oil
- 1 tbsp of nutritional yeast (a great addition to a vegan dish as it gives a creamy texture)
- 1 tsp of onion powder
- 1 tsp of Origanum (optional)
- 250 grams gnocchi boiled in salted water

Instructions

1. Use a blender to blitz the cashews, almond milk and garlic.
2. In a medium sized pot, sauté the mushrooms whole in coconut or olive oil. If you don't like the texture of mushrooms they can be sliced up.
3. Once the mushrooms are browned and dehydrated a little, add the cashew sauce.
4. Stir it all up with a wooden spoon and add the onion powder, nutritional yeast and chopped up sundried tomatoes. Add enough sundried tomatoes to make it slightly sweet.
5. Add salt and pepper to taste.
6. If you like Origanum, it goes well with the flavours and can be added now.
7. Mix in the pre-cooked gnocchi and enjoy!

Silver medal for talented Caitlin

Rustenburg – This past weekend saw the 2021 National Road Championships take place in Swellendam in the Western Cape. Allthe top contenders streamed down to the small Western Cape town to contend for the much-coveted national titles. Our very own Caitlin Thompson, from Rustenburg Cycling Club, was one of the riders looking to put her many hard months of training in action in pursuit of the Junior Women's titles. The event kicked off with the Individual Time Trial on Friday 19 March. This event is an all-out effort over a specified route against the clock. The junior women were tasked with a challenging 15km out and back course in very wet and cold conditions. Caitlin had the misfortune of being sent off second on the course. Ideally in these events you want to go off last or close to last. She has however put this obvious disadvantage behind her and set off to prove a point having been overlooked earlier in the year for the African Road Championships team. She managed to set a blistering time of Caitlin Thompson is the SA National Junior Women Individual Time Trial Champion and Road Silver medalist.

25 minutes flat and in doing so won the event ahead of the reigning African Individual Time Trial champion.

She also went on to take on the 80km road race on Sunday. With the junior women seemingly looking to ride very conservatively in the hopes of leaving the racing to the final kilometer. Caitlin was forced to work hard on the front for most of the event in an effort to stress the rider's legs and possibly shrink the group. With a prevailing headwind on the last half of the race, the option of a solo break away was off the cards. She did however out of frustration attempt to break away on the 2nd last climb of the route but was unable to make it stick. This left the race to the final 1km climb and it came down to her and one other girl attacking at the base of the climb. She finished with the silver medal some 5 seconds off the winner. This is Caitlin's first year as a junior and she will have the privilege of defending the National Time Individual Trial Champions title next year and hopefully also look to secure the National Road Champions title.

¹In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ²He was in the beginning with God. ³All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. ⁴In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. ⁵And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. ⁶There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. ⁷This man came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all through him might believe. ⁸He was not that Light but was sent to bear witness of that Light. ⁹That was the true Light which gives light to every man coming into the world.

Sakke vol proppies!

Die leerders en gemeenskap is vuur en vlam besig om oral doppies bymekaar te maak om die volle gewig van 450kg op te maak.

Rustenburg – Laerskool Dawid Brink is tans besig met 'n projek waar hulle koeldrankdoppies inruil ten einde 'n rolstoel vir iemand in die gemeenskap te skenk. “Ons leerders is baie opgewonde oor die projek en maak doppies bymekaar dat die biesies bewe, maar ons het nog 'n hele paar kilogram nodig,” aldus Laerskool Dawid Brink onderwyser Pieter Venter. Daar is ook vele omliggende skole wat bydra tot dié inisiatief en hopelik voor jy jou oë sal uitvee, kan hulle iemand se lewe verander. Indien jy meer inligting wil hê oor die projek of doppies wil afgee, kontak Laerskool Dawid Brink se kantoor by 014 596 5059.

- Hoof nuus in die rugbywêreld is die skok aankondiging van CJ Stander wat besluit het om sy stewels te verruil vir sy vellies. Hy keer terug na sy plaas in Suid Afrika om te kom boer en om meer tyd saam met sy gesin te kan deurbring. Vir Ierland is dit 'n geweldige terugslag want CJ was 'n toring van krag in die Ierse pak. En daar sal ook nog baie by die vuurtjie gekoukus word oor die feit dat hy kamtig te klein was om vir die Bokke te speel. CJ is een van die beste losvoorspelers op die planeet.

The importance of sterilizing your baby's bottles and leaving your kitchen sterilized.

Babies have an immature immune system so their bodies are not strong enough to fight off a range of infections. Sterilizing your baby's bottles and leaving your kitchen sterilized protects your baby against infections, in particular vomiting and diarrhoea.
