The laws are changing

Know your rights and be part of the process!

Van Velden Duffey
Inc attorney Rego
Marakalla shares his expert opinions with our readers.

SA – After the Firearm Amendment Bill was published in the Government Gazette on Friday 21 May, the country was up in arms. The proposed bill reads... “to provide that no firearm licences may be issued for self-defence purposes”. All interested persons and organisations were invited to submit written comments on the draft Bill to: comments.fcabill@csp.gov.za no later than 45 days from date of publication... which is on 4 July. Did you submit yours?

But... before all this, another amendment bill was published in the Government Gazette on 26 March which almost went unnoticed.

This was an invitation for public comments on amendments to The Promotion of Equality and Prevention of Unfair Discrimination Act (PEPUDA), 2000.

The purpose of the amendment PEPUDA is to address certain problems that have been identified following a review process of the Act. The amendments look innocent enough and the big, complicated words they use to address inequality – which is a big issue in our country make it sound very solemn. These changes are most likely very well-intentioned, but once you put it in layman's terms and you think of practical situations where this law might have an effect, the law seems to be contradictory to the values enshrined in our Constitution. You can find the full notice at <https://www.justice.gov.za/legislation/notices/2021/20210326-gg44402gen143-Equality-Comments.pdf> Platinum Weekly spoke to Van Velden Duffey Inc attorney Rego Marakalla who gave us a better understanding as to why these amendments might become problematic. Read more on page 8.

8 MINERS' BODIES IDENTIFIED

NW – The identity of 8 of the 20 miners, who died during an accident linked to alleged illegal mining activities at abandoned shafts in Orkney, has been verified. Of the 20 deceased, six of the bodies were discovered at an old unused mine shaft in Lawrence park while the remaining 14 were found near the railway line along Ariston Road. The bodies were discovered on 14 June. "The deceased, more commonly known as 'zama zamas', operated in obsolete shafts in Orkney and Stilfontein. They sustained severe body burns," police spokesperson brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone said.

The eight bodies identified, are Lesotho citizens. The Lesotho Consulate, which has been assisting police, has also confirmed this development. They are: Moeletsi Moeletsi, Thabiso Mmone, Thele Sekara, Thabo Sekara, Selani Mafi, Tankiso Sello, Tshepang Pitso and Sempe Molapo. We extend our sincerest condolences to the families and friends of the deceased. The police are investigating the possibility that the death of these men, could possibly link to a video widely circulated on social media platforms, where a man pleads for help in a smoke inhalation incident.

The police are requesting anyone with information to contact colonel Gaanakgomo on 082 568 5975, or SAPS Crime Stop number on 08600 10111. Anonymous tip-offs can also be communicated via My SAPS App. Photo: Fourteen bodies were found near a railway line along Ariston Road, Orkney.

Man en vrou sterf in een week

Annelie en Barrie Erasmus

Rustenburg – Die afsterwe van Annelie en Barrie Erasmus, eers Annelie en toe Barrie ‘n week later, het ‘n groot leemte in hul familie en die Rustenburg gemeenskap gelaat. Na Annelie se afsterwe op Dinsdag 15 Junie het almal saam met Oom Barrie en sy gesin getreur... met Oom Barrie se afsterwe op 23 Junie word ‘n hele gemeenskap in rou gedompel. Barrie was ‘n merkwaardige man, ‘n reus in die gemeenskap wat nie vir ‘n oomblik geskroom het om te help waar hy kon nie. Annelie, wie se hande vir niks verkeerd gestaan het nie, was ‘n bobaas naaldwerkster en Barrie se steunpilaar vir 46 jaar. Annelie was ‘n kreatiewe vrou wat graag geskilder het met ‘n fyn sin vir humor. Sy was ‘n liefdevolle moeder en ouma wat haar toeweiing aan die Here uitgeleef het en ‘n voorbeeld was aan almal wat haar geken het. Barrie het na 30 jaar op die myn afgetree en was op pensioen toe hy oorlede is. Sy hande het vir niks verkeerd gestaan nie! Behalwe vir bou en herstelwerk het hy selfs die kleingood gehelp met skoolprojekte en selfs wiskunde – vir hom was dit speletjies terwyl ander kop gekrap het. Vir sy kleinkinders was hy ‘n liefdevolle, “lekker” oupa wat altyd poetse kon bak. In die Rustenburg gemeenskap was Barrie vir baie jare bekend as ondervoorster van die Rustenburg Crime Combating Forum (RCCF). Hy was betrokke by die gemeenskap en het stewige bande gebou. Dit het hom baie geliefd en gerespekteer gemaak. Hoe belangrik sy rol in die gemeenskap was, het duidelik na vore gekom toe lede van die gemeenskap en verskeie buurtwagte die dag voor sy dood voor die hospitaal bymekaar gekom het en saam gebid het vir sy beterskap.

Verskeie organisasies het hul hartseer uitgespreek oor die groot verlies van so fantastiese mens:

“Dit is vir die RCCF lede ‘n groot hartseer. Ons het ‘n fantastiese mens vandag verloor. Barrie het diep spore getrap in die harte van almal wat hom geken het. Hy sal vir ‘n lang tydperk nog onthou word as ‘n baie diep, omgee mens. Barrie het as ondervoorster ‘n groot passie gehad om sy medemens te dien, en altyd daar te wees sou enige hulp verlang word. Dit kon watter tyd in die nag wees, tyd was vir hom nog nooit ‘n faktor nie. Ook op patrollies was Oom Barrie altyd op die voorpunt gewees... ‘n Dryfkrag vir baie junior lede wat hom gevolg het. Oom Barrie, jou plek staan leeg. Ons gebede gaan uit aan jou familie in die moeilike tyd.”

RCCF lede

“Rustenburg Gemeenskap Polisiëring Forum (GPF) groet ‘n reus. Ons dorp en veral ons buurtwag-gemeenskap het ‘n vriend en kameraad verloor. Oom Barrie was altyd reg met hulp en wysheid. Hy het nooit onderskeid getref tussen ras, geloof of instansie nie. Hy was ‘n vriend vir ons almal. ‘n Groot boom het geval... en die bos is stil. Innige simpatie en liefde aan ons RCCF kollegas.”

Rustenburg GPF

“Oom Barrie was een van die rotse van Rustenburg. Hy was altyd bereid om te help en was altyd eerste op toneel as ek hulp nodig gehad het. Dankie oom Barrie vir al die hulp wat oom met soveel passie gegee het.”

Demokratiese Alliansie wyk 18 raadslid Martha Lerm

“Dit was vir ons ongelooflik hartseer om te hoor van oom Barrie se dood. Hy was ‘n great mens wat altyd bereid was om te help. Hy het ons gereeld kom help as daar ‘n veiligheidskrisis by die Dierbeskerming Vereniging (DBV) se gronde was en het saam patrolleer as ons moes gaan kyk het dat alles met die diere reg is. Oom Barrie sal beslis gemis word.”

Rustenburg DBV

As ‘n joernalis by Platinum Weekly het ek die voorreg gehad om Oom Barrie persoonlik te ken. Hy was voorwaar ‘n man van inbors wat ‘n passie gehad het vir die lewe en altyd reggestaan het om te help. Hy was ‘n indrukwekkende man wat jou kon inspireer om die lewe met een hand te gryp en met die ander hand iemand op te help. Hy sal beslis gemis word.

‘n Spesiale woord van die koerant af, Danika Minnaar

Barrie en Annelie laat hul drie kinders Mandie van der Merwe, Santjie Scheepers en Hennie Erasmus asook hul drie kleinkinders Bernardo van der Merwe, Wikus van der Merwe en Liané Scheepers agter. Die familie wil graag hul dank teenoor die volgende mense uitspreek: “ER24 Rustenburg, Peglerae Life Hospitaal, Cobus Combrink van Econo Funerals, RCCF, CPF, NCA, en al ons familie, vriende en kennisse bedank. ‘n Spesiale woord van dank aan Richard (Henry) Opperman, ons neef, wat op elke gebied moontlik help en bydra, asook sielkundige Elize Steyn wat ons emosioneel help. Dankie aan almal wat gaar etes stuur en elke lieue boodskappie en oproep. Ons wil niemand uitlaat nie, verskoon asseblief as ons nie al die name hier lys nie, daar is net te veel om op te noem.”

Besonderhede van Barrie en Annalie se begrafnis sal later bekend gemaak word.

Die troosdiens van wyle Nico van Wyk (55) wat op Vrydag 18 Junie oorlede is, het op 24 Junie vanuit die Hervormde Kerk Suidgemeente plaasgevind. ## ‘n Oud Rustenburger sterf

Rustenburg – Louis Pieterse, ‘n bekende in die vuurwapenopleiding kringe, is op 22 Junie na ‘n kort siekbed oorlede. Oom Louis of Oupa Louis soos almal na hom verwys het, was ‘n kranige jagter en hengelaar. Sy kinders en kleinkinders deel almal sy liefde vir die natuur. Sy groot liefde was hengel en hy verwerf Springbokkleure in 1977 vir Ligtegereiboothengel. Oom Louis was ook vir 40 jaar ‘n aktiewe lid van die SAPS se reserviste en het uitgetree as vol Kolonel. Louis het sy lewe lank in Rustenburg gewoon en was vir 32 jaar in diens van Impala myn. Na sy aftrede in die mynbedryf het hy hom gewend tot vuurwapenopleiding en was die eienaar van REB vir 15 jaar. ‘n Jaar gelede het hy die tuig permanent neergelê en twee van sy kleinkinders het die leisels by hul oupa oorgeneem. Louis en Joan was getroud vir 61 jaar en het 5 kinders, 5 skoonkinders, 11 kleinkinders, 6 aangetroude kleinkinders en 9 agterkleinkinders.

Oupa Louis was ‘n bok vir sport en was baie lief daarvoor om sy kinders en kleinkinders te vermaak met stories uit sy jong dae. Ons herinneringe van ons baie spesiale pa sal ons vir altyd koester. Joan en die kinders wil almal bedank vir die bemoedigende boodskappe, telefoon oproepe, blomme en heerlike kos. Daar is nog geen finale begrafnisreëlings getref nie.

MANHUNT FOR BABY KIDNAPPER

NW – Police in Klerksdorp are searching for a woman who allegedly kidnapped a week-old baby from her mother on Thursday 17 June 2021.

According to information at hand, the baby was born on 14 June before being transferred to Klerksdorp Hospital the following day for a check-up. At around 14:00, as the new mommy was leaving the hospital with her baby, she was approached by a stranger who offered to buy her shoes, as she was wearing sandals.

The woman allegedly accompanied the stranger to a nearby mall. She reportedly left the baby with the stranger and went to buy the shoes. Upon her return she realised that the do-gooder and her baby is missing. She immediately reported the matter to the police, who opened a case of kidnapping. The suspect is fluent in Setswana, is 1.65m tall and was wearing black jeans with black and pink top.

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of the suspect, who is estimated to be in her early thirties, is requested to contact sergeant Kenny Ntshekane on 082 568 6909 or the SAPS Crime Stop number on 08600 10111.

The laws are changing

SA – After the Firearm Amendment Bill was published in the Government Gazette on Friday 21 May, the country was up in arms. The proposed bill reads... “to provide that no firearm licences may be issued for self-defence purposes”. All interested persons and organisations were invited to submit written comments on the draft Bill to: comments.fcabill@csp.gov.za no later than 45 days from date of publication... which is on 4 July. Did you submit yours?

But... before all this, another amendment bill was published in the Government Gazette on 26 March which almost went unnoticed.

This was an invitation for public comments on amendments to The Promotion of Equality and Prevention of Unfair Discrimination Act (PEPUDA), 2000.

The purpose of the amendment PEPUDA is to address certain problems that have been identified following a review process of the Act. The amendments look innocent enough and the big, complicated words they use to addresses inequality – which is a big issue in our country make it sound very solemn. These changes are most likely very well-intentioned, but once you put it in layman’s terms and you think of practical situations where this law might have an effect, the law seems to be contradictory to the values enshrined in our Constitution.

You can find the full notice at <https://www.justice.gov.za/legislation/notices/2021/20210326-gg44402gen143-Equality-Comments.pdf> Platinum Weekly spoke to Van Velden Duffey Inc attorney Rego Marakalla who gave us a better understanding as to why these amendments might become problematic.

“The PEPUDA Act seeks to promote equality and prevent unfair discrimination. It came about as a result of section 9 of the Constitution that broadly deals with all of us being equal, deserving of the protection of law and prohibiting unfair discrimination against anyone based on their race, sex, marital status, colour etc. The Constitution further dictated the Legislature to bring about laws to promote equality and prevent unfair discrimination. There are two sections of amendments – the first being the amendments dealing with prevention of unfair discrimination and secondly the amendments dealing with the promotion of equality.”

2. AMENDMENTS TO THE PROMOTION OF EQUALITY

Specified bodies or entities – namely organs of state, public bodies, constitutional institutions, persons under contract with the State, non-governmental organisations, community-based organisations or traditional institutions; as well as entities in the private sector – are required to comply with the promotion of equality.

In a comment submitted by the National Employer’s Association of South Africa (NEASA) against the amendments of section 24 of the Act regarding the general responsibility to promote equality, it is stated: “The second ‘leg’ of the Act, which deals with the promotion of equality by organs of state, as well as public and private bodies, is not yet in operation. The legislator, in the Background Note to the Bill, states that: “This is due, in part, to the regulatory burden placed on all sectors of society, both public and private.” The cause for the non-implementation being the regulatory burden, was so identified by the Regulatory Impact Assessment conducted by National Treasury. What the Background Note fails to address or confirm, is whether or not a Regulatory Assessment was performed on the proposed amendments themselves. Common sense would lead to the conclusion that provisions in the Act which were not set in operation, due to the regulatory burden they would create, should not be added to, extended and broadened and then served up as a solution to the initially experienced implementation and regulation problems. Why would one create an even more difficult to regulate provision for an already impossible-to-regulate and implement provision?”

On the proposed substitution of section 28 of the principal Act NEASA’s comment notes: “The sheer extent of this amended provision of State responsibility and obligation is cumbersome. The State already suffers from inefficient enactment of law and implementation of policy and legislation. To further administratively burden the State, will most certainly not achieve any goal contained in the PEPUDA.

Whilst all other bodies, apart from the Minister and State, are forced to prove their attempts and financial implications of actively promoting equality and eliminating discrimination, the Minster is allowed to discriminate against different institutions and organisations based on their size, resources and influence. If this in itself does not illustrate discrimination and inequality, then what does?”

1. PREVENTING UNFAIR DISCRIMINATION

Broadening the definition of ‘discrimination’... The current definition of “discrimination” in the Act states:

“‘discrimination’ means any act or omission, including a policy, law, rule, practice, condition or situation which directly or indirectly –
a. imposes burdens, obligations or disadvantage on; or b. withholds benefits, opportunities or advantages from, any person on one or more of the prohibited grounds.”

Amendment (changes in bold)

a. imposes burdens, obligations or disadvantage on; or b. withholds benefits, opportunities or advantages from; or c. causes prejudice to; or *d. otherwise undermines the dignity of, any person related to one or more of the prohibited grounds; irrespective of whether or not the discrimination on a particular ground was the sole or dominant reason for the discriminatory act or omission.”

The change to the definition of discrimination seeks to make it clear that it is not necessary for a person to act with intention before they can be guilty of unfair discrimination. The reason why the members of the public strongly object to this is because both elements, discrimination and unfairness, must legally be determined objectively in the light of the facts of each particular case. Discrimination could be found whether or not it had been intentional and could be direct or indirect. You cannot accidentally discriminate – for instance if you fall on the rug on the floor instead of the bed, you did not discriminate towards the bed in favour of the rug. The fall was unintentional. If a person discriminates already, he has made his choice, and there cannot be an unintentional choice. According to the proposed legislation companies would also be held liable whether the discrimination was intentional or not.

The Bill further proposes the insertion of a new section in the principal Act, after section 29:

“Special measures to promote equality with regard to race, gender and disability
29A If it is proved in the prosecution of any offence that unfair discrimination on the grounds of race, gender or disability played a part in the commission of the offence, this must be regarded as an aggravating circumstance for purposes of sentence.”

If the main focus of the equality legislation in this country is merely to regulate and adjudicate the incidences of racism and hate speech, the Act is sufficient as is, and amendments thereto would not make any difference and are consequently irrelevant and unnecessary.

Conclusion
Inequality is a burning issue for South Africa. These amendments will create loopholes. Should these amendments pass, it will go against the very fibre of our constitutional rights to equality. We will see ourselves face heavy court battles for exercising our right to religious freedom, freedom of speech and many other freedoms enshrined in our Constitution. Whether or not discrimination is fair or not, expensive litigation will be our future if this bill passes, so you better start saving now.

Make sure to submit your objections!

Due to technical problems with the email address provided an extension was granted, and objections and comments must be submitted before 30 June.

Broadening the definition of ‘equality’ The definition of “equality” in the current Act reads:

“equality’ includes the full and equal enjoyment of rights and freedoms as contemplated in the Constitution and includes de jure and de facto equality and also equality in terms of outcomes.”
Amendment (changes in bold)
“equality’ includes- a. the full and equal enjoyment of rights and freedoms as contemplated in the Constitution;
*b. equal right and access to resources, opportunities, benefits and advantages;
c. de jure and de facto equality;
d. equality in terms of impact and outcomes; and
*e. substantive equality.”

Objectivity applies in determining a defence for claims of unfair discrimination. An example of this would be banks that charge a higher interest to people who pose a higher risk of default. They would have to prove justifiability and reasonableness. Once the bill comes into force, there is a duty to eliminate discrimination. Many companies and business would find it difficult to grant the equal access to opportunities and resources and might be exposed to countless penalties. The objective criteria defence will still be available, but companies may nevertheless find it harder to show the fairness of their conduct when the definition of discrimination is so much wider than before.

Expanding the general prohibition of unfair discrimination

The current wording of section 6 of the Act regarding the general prohibition of unfair discrimination reads:

“Prevention and general prohibition of unfair discrimination
Neither the State nor any person may unfairly discriminate against any person.”

Amendment (changes in bold)

6. (1) Neither the State, a public body nor any person may unfairly discriminate against any person.
*(2) Any person who causes, encourages or requests another person to discriminate against any other person, is deemed to have discriminated against such other person.

Fair and legal discrimination

The law sets out four grounds on which discrimination is generally allowed:

- Discrimination based on affirmative action
- Discrimination based on the inherent requirement of a particular job
- Compulsory discrimination by law; and
- Discrimination based on productivity.

Discrimination based on Affirmative Action
Affirmative action measures are designed to promote employment equity (fairness in favour of the designated groups — blacks, women and disabled persons). Affirmative action aims to achieve equality at work without lowering standards and without unduly limiting the prospects of existing employees, for example by getting rid of discrimination in company policies, procedures and practices. Its main aim is generally to ensure that that the previously disadvantaged groups are fairly represented in the workforce of a particular employer.

Discrimination based on the inherent requirement of a job
Any discrimination based on the inherent requirement of the particular job does not constitute unfair discrimination. An inherent requirement of a job depends on the nature of the job and required qualifications. If such requirements can be shown, discrimination will be fair, for example a person with extremely poor eyesight cannot be employed as an airline pilot.

Fair compulsory discrimination by law
The law does not allow the employer to employ children under the age of 15 years, or pregnant women four weeks before confinement and six weeks after giving birth.

Discrimination based on productivity
It is also fair by law for the employer to discriminate on the basis of productivity when giving an increase, for example increases based on merit. This, of course, would be dependent on the fairness of the criteria utilised for assessing performance and productivity.

Information by LabourMan Consultants senior associate and legal advisor Wallace Albertyn.

Know your rights and be part of the process!

(3) If a worker, employee or agent of a person contravenes the Act in the course of his or her work or while acting as agent, both the person and the worker, employee or agent, as the case may be, are jointly and severally liable for a contravention and proceedings under the Act may be instituted against either or both of them unless the person took reasonable steps to prevent the worker, employee or agent from contravening the Act.”

Companies would now have to tread carefully as they might face unfair discrimination practice which is committed unintentionally by their employees, forcing them to change their policies.

This can also affect our freedom of religion like in a situation where a non-religious person attends a church meeting and feels offended by what the pastor said. He can lay a claim against the organisation. That is because the effect of the definition of discrimination would become subjective.

The non-religious person can allege discrimination and that he felt prejudiced or that his/her feelings have been hurt, and that will be all it takes to establish discrimination. That would amount to strict liability. In other terms, it will not be necessary to prove that the church was at fault (either because they acted with intent, or negligently) before they will be found guilty of ‘discrimination’. The pastor and the church can be taken to the Equality Court.

The Bill proposes the insertion of a new section, 9A:

“Prohibition of retaliation
or wishes to institute proceedings in terms of or under the Act.
9A. No person may retaliate or threaten to retaliate against a person who-
(a) Objects to a discriminatory act or omission; or
(b) Instituted

The accused (loosely used) might end up being acquitted of discrimination on several grounds of unfair discrimination but will have to cover his own legal costs as he has no right to retaliate. Whereas the complainant can receive free legal services from legal aid. This is in direct contrast to the entire concept of equality which the Act aims to achieve.

A BLANKET DONATION FOR THE COLD WINTER NIGHTS

Rustenburg – Basha-Pele Community Transformation Project chairperson Sophia Tumelo, received blankets valued at R1000 by an anonymous donor. The organisation assists the elderly, unemployed and disadvantaged members of the Tlhabane and Geelhout Park communities by aiding them with clothing, food, blankets and empowering them with

"We also run a soup kitchen which helps to keep job seekers warm," she added. Basha-Pele Community Transformation Project treasurer Ramadikwe Phosa called for more people to assist their initiatives. "We are also involved in the moral regeneration of the community and helping those who cannot find employment to start income generating projects. These activities require money," he said.

Thank you!
[Letter to the editor]

Tlhabane/ Rustenburg – I would like to extend my gratitude to the amazing staff at Tlhabane Clinic as well as the doctors and nurses at Job Shimankana Tabane Provincial Hospital (JST) for taking care of me. After a medical emergency on Sunday 23 May, I was rushed to Tlhabane Clinic. Their staff welcomed me and assisted me right through the night. The next day I was transferred to JST where I received the same treatment. During my three-day stay, I was treated with respect and care. It was evident that their long shifts had them tired, yet they still maintained their top service. I commend you! I am eternally grateful that I could return safe and healthy to my family. It is now a month later and I am alive and well thanks to them.

Hannietjie Coetzee, Rustenburg

I'm alive because of the caring staff at Tlhabane Clinic and JST.

Are you able to freely give your time and labour?

Rustenburg – Although volunteering can be hard work and take your time, it does not result in payment. Volunteers choose to freely give time and labour to assist non-profit organisations and charities in doing vital community service. Some volunteers are specialists in their field, and some like to help bake cookies for a bake-sake. Volunteers are also a physical presence to paid staff during an event or visit. They could be an extra pair of arms to carry donations into a foster home, or a voice filled with a purpose to call on businesses for donations. A volunteer in return gains life experience which can help combat loneliness, increase mindfulness, or give a CV that extra sentence that makes it stand out from the crowd of indifference.

Rustenburg SAVF, located at 212A Kruger street, urgently needs volunteers to help them. There are unemployed youth or students waiting for their studies to start in 2021 that can assist those less fortunate than themselves. Now is the opportunity to step forward and to volunteer to assist social workers and a non-profit community organisation that has been working with the most vulnerable people in the community for more than a century. If you have some extra time, please volunteer!

Glencore supports local school with R6 million project

Kroondal – True to its promise of progress together, Glencore continues to roll out initiatives that will improve the quality of life for communities near their operations. On 9 June, Glencore Ferroalloys' Kroondal Mine handed over a renovation project completed at Kroondal Primary School. The project to the value of R6.5 million is aimed at creating a more conducive learning environment for the pupils at the school. The refurbishments to the school were made in three phases; installation of a perimeter fence to enhance safety at the school, construction of a GreensSource™ soccer field which also functions as a water source for the provision of portable water to the broader community, and the construction of an ablution facility towards the promotion of health, respecting human rights and human dignity.

Kroondal Mine mine manager Vulela

Makuni said: "The refurbishments at the primary school are close to our hearts because we are passionate about investing in the youth of our country especially when it comes to their safety, personal development and education." Situated in Ikemeleng, Kroondal Primary School caters for the education needs of over 836 leaners from the community. The school's principal, Elias Sello Moroane, thanked the mine for its support, saying this was an investment in the future of the learners at the school, as well as the community at large.

"We are grateful for what Kroondal Mine has done for our school. What we are particularly excited about is our soccer field which is not only important for the development of our students but will help us provide clean water to the people in this community," he said.

Glencore's Kroondal Mine handed over a renovation project completed at Kroondal Primary School.

The GreensSource™ soccer field will also provide clean water to the people in the community.

YOUR FRIDAY
FUN FACT

Did you know?

Humans are bioluminescent and glow in the dark, but the light that we emit is 1,000 times weaker than the lowest point in the luminance range that can be detected by the human eye. How cool is that?!

Rustenburg – Impala Rugby Club's match against Eersterust – initially pencilled for Saturday 19 June – was postponed as part of measures to limit the spread of Covid-19. The Impala Rugby Club, who have managed to win two of their opening encounters, would have been at the top of the log standings if they also managed to win that match. Impala Rugby Club chairperson Wynand Burger informed Platinum Weekly about the postponement. "We will only start training again on Monday 5 July. If all goes as planned, our next match will be on 10 July. We will be playing against Correctional Services Rugby Club in Pretoria and hopefully we can win and go to the top of the log." The rugby team is in an impressive form and they look to reach the same heights of 2019 when the Impala first team did Rustenburg proud by winning the prestigious Gold Cup. On Saturday 5 June, Impala's second team registered a resounding 41-0 win over the Atteridgeville second team. Not to disappoint, the Impala first team went on to record a 48-0 victory over Atteridgeville's first team. On Saturday 12 June, both Impala teams were on the winning side once again in their matches against TUT. The second team recorded a 26-12 win, while the first team powered to a 41-31 victory. Impala head coach Joel Scherman, together with Sydney Venter and Justin St. Jerry are at the forefront of a rebuilding initiative that is aimed at taking the club back to their glory days.

Kesa, the epitome of how to live limitless

SA – Kesa Molotsane will continue her proud association with the SPAR Women's Challenge, from leading in the front during race day to shining in the virtual space.

The 2017 SPAR Grand Prix winner may miss the excitement of live racing on spectator-lined streets but refuses to allow pandemic restrictions to limit her love for the road. Molotsane, who has represented South Africa on the international stage in track and cross country, has been named SPAR Women's Virtual Challenge ambassador. The 29-year-old does not only excel on the road, the track, and off-road but is ploughing her experience back into the sport as the recently appointed vice-chairperson of the Athletics SA Athletes' commission.

Molotsane is an example of what it is to #LiveLimitless, having overcome school bullying to become one of South Africa's top distance athletes and strong female role models. Molotsane does not only talk the talk but will once again be leading from the front when she lines up for the SPAR Women's Virtual Challenge, which will be held on 4 September 2021. Entries will close on 15 August 2021 and are limited to 75,000 participants. For more information, visit sparvirtualchallenge.co.za.

Have your say / Sê jou sê

Do you have a phobia?

Pretty much everyone around the world has a fear for something, rational or irrational. When these fears become so severe that they cause tremendous anxiety and interfere with your normal life, they are called phobias.

Yes. Being robbed is my greatest fear. I was robbed in 2016 and since then, I have developed this phobia because of the thought of that experience happening again! I experienced a lot of trauma and shock when I was robbed.

Omphile Mekgwe

Yes. I am very scared of balloons. I just do not like it whenever a balloon is popped. The noise is very frightening, and this makes me get very uneasy whenever I see a balloon at a party or any other occasion.

ISAIAH 40

<sup>10</sup>Behold, the Lord God shall come with a strong hand, And His arm shall rule for Him; Behold, His reward is with Him, And His work before Him. <sup>11</sup>He will feed His flock like a shepherd; He will gather the lambs with His arm, And carry them in His bosom, And gently lead those who are with young. <sup>12</sup>Who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand, Measured heaven with a span And calculated the dust of the earth in a measure? Weighed the mountains in scales And the hills in a balance? <sup>13</sup>Who has directed the Spirit of the Lord, Or as His counselor has taught Him? <sup>14</sup>With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him, And taught Him in the path of justice? Who taught Him knowledge, And showed Him the way of understanding? <sup>15</sup>Behold, the nations are as a drop in a bucket, And are counted as the small dust on the scales; Look, He lifts up the isles as a very little thing. <sup>16</sup>And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, Nor its beasts sufficient for a burnt offering. <sup>17</sup>All nations before Him are as nothing, And they are counted by Him less than nothing and worthless. <sup>18</sup>To whom then will you liken God? Or what likeness will you compare to Him?

Carling Currie Cup rugby

Pumas vs Lions
In die Mbombela Stadium verras die Pumas en klop die Leeus in 'n wille katgeveg met 39-10. Die Pumas se hardebaarde was net te veel vir die katjies van Jo'burg. Die Leeus se swak dissipline het ook bygedra tot hul pakslae. Jimmy Stonehouse sê die Pumas gaan beslis hard brul hierdie seisoen. Die Pumas speel Vrydag om 19:00 teen die Bulle in Pretoria.

Bulls vs WP
Op Loftus gryp WP die kans aan om in die afwesigheid van die Bulle se uitsoekspan die jong outjies behoortlik te boelie ou grote. Die Blou Bul span wat Saterdag uitgedraf het, was die jongste gemiddelde ouderdom span wat nog in 'n Curriebeker game gespeel het... 21 debutante! Die Kapenaars moet weet in die tweede rondte gaan dit 'n koei van 'n ander kleur wees as die ou hande weer in die Curriebeker span terug is. Die nuweling haker van WP, JJ Kotze, het seker nie Saterdaggaand deurgeslaap nie. Hierdie fris jongman het in sy debuut game nie minder as vier drieë gedruk nie! Dit is beslis 'n rekord in SA ruggas. Dan is daar 'n nuwe ster op die horison. Evan Roos wat op agsteman uitgedraf het, was die hele veld vol en is ook beloon met 'n puik drie. Hoe die Haaie dié outjie laat gaan het, sal net hulle weet. Roos is nie net vinnig nie, maar is ook 'n dodelike verdediger. Springbok in wording!

Griekwas vs Sharks
In Kimberley wen die Haaie met 'n bonuspunt, maar die eindtelling van 30-16 in hulle guns vertel nie regtig die verhaal van die stryd nie. Die Griekwas was baie beter as wat die telbord gewys het. Vir die Haaie het hulle nuwe cappie en agsteman, Phepsi Buthelezi, 'n droom debuut gehad. Hy lei nie net sy span tot 'n oorwinning nie, maar speel self kookwater ruggas. Die Griekwas speel Saterdag tuis teen die Cheetahs.

Rainbow Beker Finaal

Benetton vs Bulls
Dewaldt Duvenage lei sy Benetton span tot 'n merkwaardige oorwinning van 35-8 oor die Bulls in Treviso. Kliniese ruggas deur die tuisspan het die besoekers verward laat voorkom. Die Benetton se haker, Corniel Els, het die Bulle voorlans goed verniel. Hy was 'n derduiwel en is ook beloon met 'n puik drie. 'n Tweede drie van Els is ongelukkig nie toegeken nie. Els was nog tot onlangs 'n Pretorianer, jy sien... Die Bulle se losskakel, Chris Smith, het dalk met die ophardloopsag teen 'n paal vasgehardloop en sy oogbank gestamp, wat potblou vertoon het. Want ai ou grote, die mannetjie speel maande lank goeie ruggas maar was ongelukkig in hierdie belangrike game heeltemal die kluts kwyt. Benetton wat nie eers regtig die beste klub in Europa is nie, het hierdie oorwinning verdien. Op die dag se spel was hulle eenvoudig in alle afdelings baas.

• Daar is bekend gemaak dat daar 'n nuwe reeks in September sal afskop... naamlik die United Rugby Championship. Suid Afrika se vier spanne wat gaan deelneem sal beslis nou notisie geneem het dat die Noordelike halfrond spanne nie sussies is nie!

Super Rugby Trans Tasman Finaal

In Auckland wen die Blues vir die eerste keer in agtien jaar weer silwerware. In 'n klipharde NZ derby klop die Blues die Highlanders met 23-15. Die wedstryd was 'n tipiese eindstryd waar dit eerder oor die wen gegaan het, en nie om aanskoulike bonuspunt ruggas te jol nie. Maar die ruggas op die dag was steeds uit die boonste rakke. Met twaalf minute se speeltyd oor was die Highlanders 15-13 voor. Maar die laaste tien minute het die Blues die bal skielik wyd begin speel en teken tien punte aan. Ses spelers van die Blues is in die All Blacks opgeneem. Een speler wat verdien om die Kiwi jersey oor sy kop te trek, is die yster flank Dalton Papalii. Hierdie jong man kan in die spore van Richie McCaw loop.

Die All Blacks het ook hulle groep aangewys vir een toets teen Tonga, gevolg deur twee toetse teen Fidji. Die Crusader staatmaker slot, Sam Whitelock, is aangewys as die nuwe All Black cappie.
