

Extracts of PFTC industry notice: 8 October 2021

PFTC serves QCTO and SASSETA with an urgent interdict application

We find ourselves in a situation where our industry has once again been purposely omitted from stakeholder consultation, and decisions have been made on our behalf that affect our industry and our training centres – without any consultation.

For those of you who have been active in our industry for longer than 10 years, you will lay testament to the tremendous growth our industry has achieved. Many may not know that the PFTC was the second professional body to be recognised in South Africa when Professional Bodies were brought into 'legislation'.

The establishment of professional bodies has been the mechanism put in place to recognise 'members' within a specific industry as professionals and awarding them professional designations. There are now more than one hundred registered professional bodies. We have worked tirelessly as an industry to meet all the requirements laid out by the regulatory bodies to both earn and maintain these designations and to have the firearms training industry recognised as a professional one. The PFTC has fought and will continue to fight to ensure that this hard work does not go to waste, ensuring that the standards in our industry are upheld and continue to stand up against international comparability studies and that the rights of our training providers and learners are upheld. We have earned the right to be called professionals, and we expect to be treated as such.

Unfortunately, this was not the case last week when I received a call from the PFTC offices requesting that I attend an urgent meeting with the QCTO "in the next 40 minutes". This was an unorthodox request as no previous correspondence had taken place surrounding this meeting or any other meetings for that matter. I was unable to attend the meeting as I was traveling out of province. I was then simply informed that a decision has been and revert back to SASSETA who had previously held this mandate. I informed and reminded the QCTO, that the PFTC have a delegation agreement that has set terms and conditions.

The intention of this Act is to change the way in which Government interacts with the people it serves.

PAJA seeks to protect the public from unlawful, unreasonable, and procedurally unfair administrative decisions. The PFTC therefore consider this decision null and void and will continue with business as usual.

Based on the above, we requested that the agreement entered into by the QCTO and SASSETA be cancelled within 48 hours, or we will seek and serve them with an urgent interdict to prevent them from doing so. The 48 hours cancellation was not complied with, and we are therefore in the process of serving the parties with notice of an urgent interdict. Depending on urgent court availability this first matter, we hope, may be heard by end of this month, thereafter we can begin with the next steps of ensuring that decisions such as these are not made without stakeholder consultations. I.E. allowing us having the opportunity to ask questions, obtain clarity, make suggestions and ultimately object as is our right as a professional and a professionally mandated body.

This withdrawal of our agreement with QCTO can have dire consequences not only to us as the firearms training industry but to the firearms industry at large. Consider the potential delays in the processing of firearms applications while applicants await certifications etc. We can only speculate about what the future would look like with SASSETA as the "quality assurer". The challenges we previously experienced would almost certainly recur, including a complete breakdown in industry consultation and trust. The PFTC is first and foremost a Professional Body and is the largest representative of firearm training industry stakeholders. The PFTC needs to do what is best for all stakeholders in our industry with careful consideration for the firearms industry at large. I ask that we all remain calm, focused and deal with this "malfunction" as we would any other, in other words lets assess the problem, find a solution, and fix the problem.

The qualification is registered until 30 June 2023. The terms I am referring to are as per the below extract (Delegation agreement dated 5th April 2013):

c) This delegation commences on the 01 April 2013 and expires once the qualification listed is reviewed and replaced by a qualification developed and registered on the Occupational Qualifications Framework (OQF) or until the qualification reaches its registration end date and teach out periods or when the qualification is withdrawn by the QCTO.

It was apparent that an agreement had already been entered into with SASSETA without any written notification, transparency, consultation, or stakeholder participation prior to this decision being made.

made by the QCTO that they will no longer work with non-regulated statutory bodies such as the PFTC nor any other professional bodies. Therefore, they have decided to cancel our mandate for quality assurance (delegation)

After consultation with Martin Hood our attorney, we agreed that we would not attend any meeting until this new agreement has been withdrawn and proper procedures are followed as prescribed in The Promotion of Administrative Justice Act, 2000 (Act No. 3 of 2000) (PAJA).

Please bear with me, the NEC and the PFTC office. We have shared all the information that we currently have. We will keep you updated and informed as this process continues to play out. I thank each and every one for the support given to the PFTC in this matter, it is going to be needed and is greatly appreciated.

Mac McGuire, Chairman: PFTC

"The professional service provided by the South African Professional Firearm Trainers Council (PFTC) enables those in the firearm training industry to provide this service in a professional manner. With the Safety and Security Sector Education and Training Authority (SASSETA) taking over, it will no longer be the case. Licences will either be issued left, right and centre, or not at all. The biggest issue here is control and they won't be able to manage this."

SUPPOSED TO PROTECT THE RHINO

Conservation official and businessman arrested for illegally dealing in rhino horn

Rustenburg – A suspected rhino horn dealing duo consisting of an official from the North West Department of Economic Development, Environment, Conservation and Tourism (DEDECT) and the owner of a security company were arrested in connection with illegal rhino horn trade on Thursday 7 October. The DEDECT official was arrested in Rustenburg. They are both charged with contravening the National Environmental Management: Biodiversity Act, the Rhino Norms and Standards. Their vehicle was also seized by a multi-departmental team comprising members of the Department's Green Scorpions, the Hawks, the DEDECT and the Northern Cape Department of Environment and Nature Conservation (DENC). According to the Department of Forestry, Fisheries and the Environment spokesperson Albi Modise, the suspects are alleged to have moved 17 individual detached rhino horns from the Northern Cape to North West in contravention of permit conditions of both provinces. The suspects appeared before the Mmabatho Magistrates' Court on 11 October.

CORPSE FOUND

Might be linked with shootout at substation

Rustenburg – The body of an unknown male was found close to the entrance to Eskom – next to the N4 towards Swartruggens (just past the first turnoff to Koster) on Monday afternoon 11 October. Police suspect that the body might be linked with a shootout the week before between security guards and alleged thieves on Eskom's premises, during which one of the security guards was killed and another was seriously injured. According to police spokesperson sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, the security guards were guarding the Eskom substation. Over the past year there has been several incidents where Eskom security guards have been killed or seriously injured.

FIX THE ECONOMY!

Rustenburg – A nationwide strike by the Confederation of South African Trade Unions (Cosatu) on Friday 8 October has been dismissed by the National Employers Association of South Africa (NEASA). NEASA described the protest as a self-serving and pointless endeavour likely to have a negative effect on local business. Chief executive officer Gerhard Papenfus described Cosatu as a marginalised worker representative body for government employees that had run out of ideas. A survey by NEASA will determine the impact of the protest action on businesses. Cosatu members in Rustenburg joined the nationwide protest in a push to pressure the government and private sector to address the country's "economic mess". Cosatu also called for a reversal of budget cuts that led to a wage freeze in the public service. As part of their nationwide demands, Cosatu also urged government to investigate the assassination of whistle-blowers and the collapse of key public services. Employment and labour minister Thulas Nxesi noted that dialogue between all the parties is important, especially in this sensitive period of mass unemployment and retrenchments.

Cosatu members protested in Rustenburg on Thursday 7 October.

ATTEMPTED KIDNAPPING OF SCHOOLGIRL

Rustenburg – Just after 14:30 on Thursday afternoon, 14 October, an attempt to kidnap a high-school girl walking home from school failed, due to the immediate response of people who were walking by and witnessed the incident. The girl is a pupil of Grenswag High School and was walking towards her home in Kerk Street, East End when the incident occurred. Apparently, a guy was walking towards her, looking like just another pedestrian. As he came close to her, a white Volkswagen Polo also slowly approached her. The guys in the car yelled 'grab her' in Setswana. The 'pedestrian' grabbed her by her schoolbag and started dragging her towards the car. Her screams alerted other pedestrians who immediately came to her rescue, an elderly lady and two young boys. The guy lost his grip of her and jumped into the Polo which sped off in the direction of the R510.

Councillor Martha Lerm who stay very close to where the incident occurred, ran outside when she heard the screams. She also contacted the girl's parents and accompanied by the elderly lady, walked the girl home. "The mother assured me that the girl will not walk home alone again," councillor Lerm says. The girl was in a state of shock. Upon the advice of councillor Lerm, the parents and the elderly lady immediately accompanied the girl to the Rustenburg police station to open a case of attempted kidnapping. Says councillor Lerm: "It's really frightening to see how many kids, even much younger than this girl walk past my house, on their own, every day. We live in a society where not even adults are safe. We need to safeguard our children. I applaud the elderly lady and the two young men who did not think twice to save the girl."

NEASA's SUBMISSION TO THE NATIONAL MINIMUM WAGE COMMISSION

SA – On 10 September 2021, the National Minimum Wage Commission ('the Commission') published an invitation for written representations by the public, regarding the review of the National Minimum Wage (NMW) for 2022, and possible adjustments thereto. These representations are considered by the Commission, prior to the drafting of its annual recommendation report to the Minister of Employment and Labour. NEASA has, after publication of this invitation, conducted a survey among employers, in order to determine what the effect of any possible adjustments to the NMW will be on their businesses, and the extent of their ability and capacity to absorb or withstand an increase. The results of this survey were processed and included in NEASA's submission to the Commission on 1 October 2021. In NEASA's submission, it clearly indicated to the Commission that, in view of the current economic climate in South Africa, the effects of the Covid-19 lockdown, as well as the recent losses due to violent lootings of mid-2021, an increase to the NMW will be catastrophic to South African businesses and the economy in general. As aptly stated in their submission, NEASA said: "The effect of any adjustments to the NMW should not, and cannot be considered lightly. In a country such as South Africa, that is already struggling with unprecedented rates of unemployment, extreme poverty, over-burdened employers and business owners, and a veneer-thin trust in Government and its ability to care for its most vulnerable citizens, an unaffordable NMW will completely maim the already crippled economy, leaving employers, business owners, their employees and their dependants destitute." NEASA strongly believes that South Africa requires a dispensation which fosters a conducive environment for economic and business growth, as well as one which welcomes the implementation of laws that encourage employment.

Showing care with cookies

Rustenburg – Rustenburg Child and Family Care has embarked on a delicious project to treat not only the children in their care, but the also the residents of Rustenburg Rusoord. They plan to have the youngsters bake cookies and decorate tins to hand over to the elderlies. It has been a particularly difficult year for the organisation as they lost their beloved chairman Dr. Sheehan Grant. Dr. Grant was not only the chairman of the Rustenburg Child and Family Care team, but also the vice-chairman of Rustenburg Rusoord. His death was a big loss to the community and his love for children, the elderly and cookies has been the driving force behind this project. “Grandpa Grant” as he was known among the children treated each one like his own grandchild with love, acceptance and respect. Rustenburg Child and Family Care’s foster home currently houses 34 children. The number of children varies depending on whether children are placed out or admitted in their care. To make this project a success, they will need tins (the tins that baby formula comes in is ideal). They will also need donations of the ingredients like flour, eggs, baking powder, Maizena, sugar, oats, syrup, coconut, apricot jam and mixed spices for the cookies. They plan to start baking in November and hand out the tins of cookies to the elderly in early December. If you would like to help them to make this dream a reality contact Rustenburg Child and Family Care social worker Louise van Zyl on 071 896 6274.

A wheelchair for Gomotsegang

Tlhabane/ Rustenburg – In the Platinum Weekly issue of Friday 17 September, we reported how 28-year-old Gomotsegang Segaaase – who completely relies on a wheelchair for mobility – could not afford one and was finding life extremely difficult because of her disability. Thanks to members of the Tlhabane community who responded generously to her call for help, she now has a brand-new wheelchair. Molotsi Foundation, a non-profit organisation (NPO) based in Tlhabane, appealed to the community to step in and help Segaaase to raise money for a wheelchair. Within just two weeks, Segaaase’s cries for help were answered. “The community responded overwhelmingly by donating a wheelchair and groceries to the Segaaase family,” Molotsi Foundation chairperson Orion Molotsi said. “We would like to thank councillor Michael Malinga, Makie Lekwape, Kelebogile Khoza as well as Foro Spar, Paint Centre and Meintjies and Neethling Orthopaedics for responding generously to our call for assistance,” he added.

A brand-new wheelchair was handed over to Gomotsegang Segaaase.

FROM MECHANIC TO BUSINESS OWNER

THARISA MINE MAKING DREAMS COME TRUE

Sam Monare is living proof of how Tharisa Mine's empowerment initiatives are helping local community members to realise their dreams through its social and labour plan (SLP).

This includes encouraging the development of black empowerment business entities as well as providing opportunities for these businesses to provide goods and services.

Monare, a 43-year-old mechanic from Marikana, is now the proud owner of SM Vehicle Solutions. The company is responsible for assessing trucks to make sure they are roadworthy and meet the required safety standards to transport chrome ore from the mine.

Monare's company – which was established after Tharisa took him through an intensive training and workshop programme – is also responsible for issuing certificates allowing truck drivers whose vehicles would have successfully gone through the assessment to carry out their duties.

On Thursday 7 October, Tharisa Mine handed over equipment that will enhance SM Vehicle Solutions' ability to effectively carry out their services. During the handover, employees from Tharisa, service providers and other stakeholders in the mining sector congratulated Monare and wished him well.

"Sam has been accredited and trained and his services will add much value to Tharisa Mine," Jaco Fick, director at NSDN said during the handover of the equipment.

A visibly excited Monare was optimistic that his company will grow in the coming years and eventually employ more people: "At the moment I am working with one person. I am determined to increase this number. I am very grateful to Tharisa and the only way to repay them is to make a success of the opportunity I have been given. I have two children and SM Vehicle Solutions will help me to give them the very best start in life."

Sam Monare is grateful for the empowerment and support he received from NSDN and Tharisa Mine.

120th commemoration of the Battle of Moedwil

Koos Olivier and Maarten Stols laying a wreath on the mass grave of British soldiers.

Moedwil/ Rustenburg – Elandsrivier Museum facilitated the commemoration of the Battle of Moedwil on Thursday 30 September. This legendary battle took place in this area exactly 120 years ago on 30 September 1901. The proceedings were led by historian Peet Coetzee who gave a detailed overview of the battle – before, during and after, to the 30 history enthusiasts who attended. A wreath was laid on a mass grave of British soldiers after Coetzee gave a brief explanation of what happened in the immediate surroundings during the battle. Afterwards a minute of silence was observed followed by the Last Post that was played. From here proceeding moved to the farm, Dwarspruit where the boers under general De la Ray gathered days before the battle of Moedwil and where the fallen boers were buried after the battle. Coetzee shared his knowledge of what transpired there. This was also followed by a wreath laying, moment of silence and playing of the Last Post. Ds Stephan Botha concluded the proceedings with a short sermon and prayer. One of the visitors, Andre Wadepohl said: “It was a great privilege to participate in the commemoration of the battle of Moedwil. A big thank you to Peet Coetzee for his detailed and extremely careful research of the battle, and also for the sensitive and even-handed way in which he handled the proceedings.” A special thanks also goes out to Johann Pretorius who facilitated the access to the two war cemeteries as well as his hospitality afterwards at his restaurant at the Moedwil filling station. If anyone would like to get more information regarding Elandsrivier Museum, the Battle of Moedwil or any other Anglo Boer War questions, please feel free to contact Maarten Stols, on 082 556 8861 or meule@vodamail.co.za.

A bright yellow sun with a smiling face and black sunglasses, set against a dark blue background with white stars. The sun has a simple, friendly expression with a curved line for a mouth and two dots for eyes behind the sunglasses. It is surrounded by several long, thin, white rays of varying lengths.

Did you know?

A camel can drink 200 litres of water in three minutes. Contrary to popular belief, they do not store the water in their humps. Camels' humps store fatty tissue and most of the water is stored in their body's cells.

Rustenburg – REC Schools and Academies held their 29th Matric farewell at Casa Bella lodge in Rustenburg on Thursday 30 September. The ladies were dressed immaculately and accompanied by dashing gentlemen!

Glitz and glamour were in the air with the learners dressed up and ready to celebrate. The theme for this elegant event was 'Indian' and the group was treated to a night they will never forget.

They would like to wish the Grade 12s of 2021 all the best for the future.

With his impressive performance he reaped in 25 medals and earned himself a spot to represent South Africa during the World Championships in Los Angeles, USA in July 2022.

Rustie-netbal presteer by onderskeie SA-kampioenskappe

Rustenburg – Baie geluk aan die Hoërskool Rustenburg netbalspelers wat gedurende die vakansie aan die SA Telkom Toernooi van Saterdag 2 Oktober tot 7 Oktober deelgeneem het; ook aan die wat aan die SA All Ages van 3 tot 6 Oktober deelgeneem het! Hulle het uitsonderlik presteer. Die volgende vier dogters is onder die top-35 speelsters by die kampioenskappe identifiseer:

- Sonika de Bruin
- Danel Gouws
- Landrie Janse van Rensburg
- J-Dene Krugel

Die NW-Impalaspan, waarin Sonika de Bruin en Danel Gouws gespeel het, het SA's gewen.

URC RUGBY CHAMPIONSHIP

Ospreys vs Sharks

In Swansea behaal die Sharks welverdiend hul eerste oorwinning en klop die Ospreys 27-13 ou grote. Met Thomas du Toit as die nuwe cappie en baie goeie kombinasies van coach Sean Everitt, het die Durbaniete goeie ruggas gespeel.

Die dag het egter aan die Sharks se nuwe jong no. 10, Boeta Chamberlain, behoort. Die mannetjie het wrintiewaar kookwaterspel opgedis. Boeta behaal nie net drie skitterskepdoele nie, maar lewer puik spel met sy balverspreiding en algemene spel.

Cappie Marcell Coetzee het ook gekook en wen deurslaggewende balbesit. Jeremy Ward het soos 'n tier verdedig en het 'n paar Ospreys lelik raakgery.

Edinburgh vs Stormers

'n Dag van verbroede kanse deur albei spanne in 'n baie opwindende game eindig gelykop met 20 punte elk.

Die tuisspan het soos 'n orkaan die Stormers in die eerste 14 minute getref en met 14-0 voorgeloop. Die Kapenaars het stelselmatig teruggeveg en die rustyd telling was 20 elk... En dis waar die punte eindig.

Die tweede helfte was meedoënloos deur beide spanne maar verdediging het koning gekraai. Vir Edinburgh was die gewese SA spelers, Jaco van der Walt, 'n doring in die vlees van die Kapenaars. Vir die Stormers het Evan Roos op agsteman gekook en die mannetjie moet verseker baie naby aan die Bokspan wees!

Glasgow vs Lions

Die Lions is Glasgow deur die Italiaanse kaartmannetjie ref, Gianluca Gnechchi, van 'n oorwinning beroof. Die drie wat hy toegeken het was duidelik kort gedruk maar Gnechchi het dit tot die verdriet en verbasing van die Leeus toegeken. En hoekom hy nie die TV ref geraadpleeg het nie, is onaanvaarbaar.

Glasgow wen 13-9 met die geluk aan hulle kant. Jaco Kriel het baie goed vir die Leeus gespeel. Agterlangs moes die EW Viljoen op losskakel diens gedoen het en met die besering spook op no. 10 in die Leeukamp. Fred Zeilinga is nader geroep om te help op losskakel.

Cardiff Blues vs Bulls

Op Arms Park behaal die Bulls hul eerste oorwinning in die URC. Die rustyd telling was 16-3 in die guns van Cardiff. Baie ondersteuners het dalk die televisie na 'n ander kanaal verander of maar in die kooi gaan klim.

Maar wat Jake White die Bulle belowe het, sal ons seker nooit weet nie ou grote... want die Bulle het behoorlik opgedaag in die tweede helfte en speel die tuisspan van hulle voete af om met 29-19 as waardige oorwinnaars van die veld te stap. Maklik was dit nie. Johan Goosen is met 'n ernstige kniebesering van die veld. Maar meneer betroubaar, Chris Smith, het gewys hy kan... maar toe hy as plaasvervanger opgestuur word behaal hy 19 punte, vyf strafdoele en twee doelskoppe. Pragtig man!

Elrigh Louw en Marcell Coetzee het voorlans die pap dik aangemaak. Veral Coetzee het op kritieke tye omgekeerde besit bewerkstellig. Madosh Tambwe het ook gewys dat daar geen antwoord vir spoed is nie, en het na hy 'n losbal deurgeskep het, soos 'n Bolt laat waai om die bal toe te val vir 'n skitterdrie.

Met die besering aan Goosen sal oom Morné Steyn homself weer by die Bulle aanmeld.
