

ARMED ROBBERS ENLARGING THEIR TERRITORY

Rustenburg – “Rustenburg as a community needs to stand together and not allow these rotten apples to infiltrate our beautiful city,” The Square Centre’s press release reads. This is after a 37-year-old man is currently in a serious condition after he was shot by armed robbers in the busy parking lot of Rustenburg Square on Tuesday 9 November.

After withdrawing money at the Waterfall Mall, the victim and a passenger noticed that they were being tailed. They drove around for a while until they thought they lost them. They stopped in the Rustenburg Square parking area to go and have breakfast at Milaneza.

Police spokesperson captain Elsabé Augoustides said: “Before they could even exit their vehicle, the robbers were standing next to them, one at each side pointing their guns and demanding cash. The passenger reacted and got out of the vehicle whereafter a struggle ensued. When the driver got out of the vehicle, he was shot in his left thigh.”

The suspects fled the scene with an undisclosed amount of cash in a white Kia Rio with fake number plates.

Security at the Rustenburg Square centre immediately raised the alarm. The police and ER24 were summoned who arrived shortly after. ER24 found the man laying on his stomach on the walkway in front of Milaneza where bystanders were attending to him.

SAPS’ forensic team collected evidence on site. The man, said to be a Hungarian national who own several internet cafes and gambling parlours in town, was taken to hospital after by ER24.

“The Square Centre management and security want to thank all of the bystanders who assisted the victim, as well as SAPS and ER24 who responded swiftly. We would like to reassure our clients that The Square together with our security team will strive to keep The Square Centre safe to the best of our abilities,” the Rustenburg Square centre’s statement concluded.

Herdsmen shot and killed during cattle robbery

Lefaragatlhe/ Rustenburg – A herdsman was shot and killed in Serutube village near Rustenburg on Thursday 4 November during a cattle robbery incident.

A manhunt launched by Phokeng Detectives and Stock Theft Unit immediately after the incident, led to the recovery of 21 cattle in the Lefaragatlhe village. Eleven of these cattle were positively identified and linked with the incident. At the site police also discovered two cows and calves that had been stolen a week ago in Serutube.

Refilwe Tau (45) and her son Kgalalelo Tau (18) were arrested and charged for the possession of stolen livestock.

At their first court appearance before the Bafokeng Magistrates' Court, they were each granted R2,000 bail and are expected back in the court on Monday 20 December.

It is alleged that on 4 November at around 17:00 three men were herding cattle in Serutube village when the three men emerged from the bushes.

"The trio caught one of the herdsmen and tied his hands with a rope. They robbed him of his money and a cell phone. The suspects went to another herdsman (25) and tied his hands and robbed him of his cell phone and cash," police spokesperson captain Aafje Botma said.

"The suspects then demanded the cattle and shot and killed the 25-year-old. They also assaulted his colleagues with the butt of a firearm. The suspects then drove out a herd of cattle from the cattle post," Botma explained.

Here we go again...

Bulldozers were once again sent to demolish the illegal structures.

Rustenburg – The latest 'eviction' or rather 'destruction of recently erected zinc structures' took place on Wednesday 10 November. Bulldozers were sent in to portion 1 of the farm Rietvlei 271, Rustenburg (along the N4 close to Ananda), to flatten the latest result of activities at this spot. It has become a popular get-together spot, or team-building session...? ...where people from various provinces in South Africa flock to regularly.

The Rustenburg Local Municipality's Public Safety Directorate in collaboration with South African Police Service (SAPS), dispersed the people and started bulldozing the structures following the previous eviction order which was granted on 3 October and effected on 6 October, just for the structures to be erected again the very same evening.

The illegal occupation of this land has been an ongoing struggle since 2016 and it has been a continuous back and forth.

In a press release by the RLM spokesperson Thapelo Matebesi said: "The Municipality will continue to execute the High Court order until the rule of law is upheld."

Democratic Alliance ward 16 councillor Johan Cronje thanked the RLM for their cooperation and for continuing to ensure that the rule of law is being upheld. He also commended them for acting in the interest of the people of Donkerhoek and Rietvlei.

THINKING OF SELLING YOUR TERMITE INFESTED HOME?

Rustenburg – Termites are known as the silent destroyers and are a homeowner's worst nightmare. Imagine moving into your brand-new house just to find out these little pests have been chomping away at the structure of your dream home and the previous owner failed to disclose it...

In one case where a seller failed to disclose that they had a termite infestation, the buyer turned to the courts for help. The plaintiff sued for compensation for expenses incurred in repairing the house and ensuring its structural integrity. The services of an expert witness had to be called in and Vivienne Uys, the termite taxonomist at the National Collection of Insects was subpoenaed by the Magistrates' Court in the District of Rustenburg to testify. The Court ruled in favour of the plaintiff following expert testimony provided by the ARC entomologist.

Termites can enter buildings from under concrete slabs, brick walls and pavers. Conditions that put properties at risk of termites often involve moisture and warmth and the areas that are usually attacked include:

- decking timbers/ bearers, joists, and decking boards
- timber cladding
- fences and garden edges
- stored timber items (stored firewood, building timbers, play equipment etc.)
- structural framing timbers (roof voids)
- electrical wiring and built-in units
- carpets and furniture
- books and wall hangings
- clothing

Platinum Weekly spoke to Mostert Pest Control Rustenburg to find out what steps you can take to prevent termites from moving in and what to do when you suspect you have termites.

"It is important to treat your foundation beneath your building structure for subterranean termites before construction. It is always better to take preventative measures to avoid termites from infesting your home," Mostert Pest Control branch manager Lindiwe Dichabe said.

Soil poisoning can be conducted in two ways: Pre and Post construction with a five-year guaranteed certificate. Subterranean termites are controlled in pre-construction foundation trenches and under solid floor areas. In post construction, they can be treated by drilling the entire outside building wall one metre apart and the solution of termiticides injected according to label direction. The control of harvester termites is normally accomplished by establishing where their shallow nest is, and then solution of termiticides is injected into numerous nests.

Signs that you might have termites:

- Hollowed out skirtings and door frames
- Damage underneath wooden furniture
- Cracking walls – this is a sign of a huge infestation
- Heaps of hard soil attached to the walls, and it contains small pieces of glass if you break them
- Small holes appearing in the carpet

Lindiwe added: "Termites can easily spread through neighbourhoods so if you suspect that you have termites, call in an expert. I also recommend that you get your house inspected before selling or buying so that you are not stuck with these critters feasting on your home."

A black cloud of smoke covered the area as the fire raged for hours on end.

Fire causes R5.7 million in damages

Rustenburg/ Shylock – A fire that broke out on a farm located in the Shylock area on the N4/ Swaruggens Road, and which burned a massive store and its contents to the ground, continued to burn until the following day. The fire started at around 11:00 after an Eskom overhead electric cable broke loose and came into contact with the store. The fire raged on for the next 36 hours. Neighbours reported that explosions of gas cylinders could be heard from kilometres away and that the dark cloud of smoke could be seen from afar for hours. One of the gas cylinders which exploded flew into the air and landed on a nearby thatch roof. Luckily it could be extinguished in time. Even though a few nearby buildings could be saved, the initial estimated damage is about R5.7 million. Luckily no one was injured during the incident. The owner of the farm, Manny Fernandes extended his gratitude to the Rustenburg Fire Department and the community members who rushed to his aid.

A historic international partnership [Letter to the editor]

President Cyril Ramaphosa recently announced a historic partnership with several other countries to support a just transition to a low carbon economy and a climate resilient society in South Africa. This could be the turning point for South Africa to uphold every person's right to unpolluted air and water and to avert the worst of climate change. The last few months have been so disappointing as South Africa has been considering unsustainable projects like the Karpowership deal and the Musina-Makhado

Special Economic Zone that will only degrade our natural heritage. Could it be that policy makers finally understand what science and even our own experience is showing us? Good news for North West and Limpopo is that many minerals will be needed to support the technology required for renewables. The mining sector must be held responsible to conduct progressive rehabilitation of land as per existing legislation. We just need the right people to do the right thing!

Environmental Warrior

In preparation for COP26, South Africa submitted a revised Nationally Determined Contribution (NDC) to reduce domestic carbon emissions within a target range for emissions of between 420 CO2-eq and 350 CO2-eq by 2030. This revised target is compatible with the ambitious goals of the Paris Agreement and represents our country's best effort to confront climate change, which will have a devastating impact on sub-Saharan Africa without large-scale mitigation and adaptation efforts. Through the Political Declaration issued on 2 November, to establish this partnership, partner countries will mobilise an initial $8.5 billion (R131 billion) over the next three to five years through a range of instruments, including grants and concessional finance, to support the implementation of our revised NDC through a just transition to a low carbon and climate resilient economy. Bold and ambitious actions are required from all countries to confront climate change and South Africa has consistently argued that developed economies must support a just transition in developing economies. Today's Political Declaration represents a first-of-its kind partnership to turn these commitments into reality, and a model for similar forms of collaboration globally. At the heart of this partnership is the importance of a just transition, which includes support for workers and communities affected by the transition away from coal and enables the creation of quality green jobs. For the transition to be just, decarbonisation must be implemented in a manner that promotes and sustains employment, livelihoods and economic inclusion for historically marginalised communities and sectors of our society. A joint taskforce will be established to take forward the partnership over the coming months.

where they are. Simply download the FNB App, then register to use QR Speedpoint® for FREE.

For more complex and higher volume business needs, there is also a Standalone Speedpoint® device that is user-friendly and cost-effective. It allows business owners to accept card payments within a single outlet or sales environment. Plus, on top of the convenience and simplicity of the Standalone Speedpoint® device, you also get special benefits, like reporting of each transaction, fewer visits to a branch, and chargeable batteries that keep the device working during load shedding.

WHAT'S Cooking?

Romeo Tshisi shared his roast chicken recipe that he likes to cook for his family.

Whole roast chicken

Rustenburg – Spending time with family over the dinner table is one of Romeo Tshisi's favourite ways to build lasting memories. "In our home, food and family always go together. My mother has always been a pro in the kitchen while taking care of her family. So, every now and then, I like to treat her to a delicious dinner so that she doesn't have to cook."

Romeo like to cook a roast chicken. "This is a family favourite and because you can add any vegetables, it's perfect for a Sunday lunch," he said.

Ingredients:

- 1,5kg whole chicken
- 3 tablespoons butter, melted
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 3/4 teaspoon salt, or to taste
- 1 teaspoon dried basil
- 1/2 teaspoon dried thyme

- 1/4 ground black pepper
- 1 tablespoon mustard powder
- ½ teaspoon paprika
- 1 lemon, quartered
- 4 cloves garlic, peeled
- 1 teaspoon crushed dried rosemary

Tip: You can use your favourite herbs and spice for chicken, but these make for a delicious aromatic taste.

Instructions:

1. Preheat oven to 220°C.
2. Remove giblets from inside of the chicken's cavity.
3. Thoroughly dry the chicken with paper towels.
4. Place the chicken, breast side up, in a shallow roasting pan.
5. Cover the chicken in melted butter and rub garlic all over the chicken.
6. In a bowl, combine all your herbs (except for the rosemary). Then rub the spices and salt onto the chicken.
7. Add some salt to the inside of the cavity and fill the cavity with lemon slices, rosemary, and garlic cloves.
8. Roast, uncovered, for 10 minutes.
9. Reduce oven temperature to 180°C and continue to cook until done; about 1 more hour and 10 minutes, or until internal temperature of chicken reaches 75°C.
10. Remove from oven and baste the chicken with the juices.
11. Let it rest for about 15 to 20 minutes before cutting.

Have your say / Sê jou sê

Have you ever killed an animal or bird – to eat it?

Hunting for sport? Or kill pray for food and survival...?

No, I haven't. It's not in my nature to kill anything. I actually feel sorry for the animals that are killed for food.

Liana Nagel

Yes, when I was younger, I killed animals and birds. It was something that I grew up with. Now that I'm older, I think about it differently. What does it mean to take a life of a creature? What about the animals who suffer the loss of their family and friends? We need to factor in their points of view as well, it might feel like losing our own family members... Clearly, just like humans, animals don't like the emotional distress, anxiety, and fear of being stalked.

The SPCA needs your help

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA) aims to serve and protect all animals, to uplift their welfare and to ensure that the protection they have under South African law is upheld and respected. Our local SPCA is a non-profit organisation that covers a vast area which includes large, impoverished areas. The SPCA's people must always be proactive, respond to reports of cruelty, neglect or abuse and react to emergencies involving animals. For them to carry out their duties effectively, they require the community to chip in and play their part from time to time. At the moment, they are in urgent need of puppy food, adult dog food, cat litter, tin food to administer medicine, teff, teff pellets, hay, carrots and dip for dogs. Any financial donations will also go a long way to assist. Not only do they have to feed the animals in their care... but they also have fuel, municipal costs, salaries, and veterinary accounts that must be paid. For more information contact SPCA Rustenburg on 014 592 3181 or manager Marisa Kruger on 084 885 5173.

PSALM 4 VERSE 1 - 8

¹Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness! You have relieved me in my distress; Have mercy on me, and hear my prayer. ²How long, O you sons of men, Will you turn my glory to shame? How long will you love worthlessness And seek falsehood? Selah ³But know that the LORD has [c]set apart for Himself him who is godly; The LORD will hear when I call to Him. ⁴Be[d] angry, and do not sin. Meditate within your heart on your bed, and be still. Selah ⁵Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, And put your trust in the LORD. ⁶There are many who say, "Who will show us any good?" LORD, lift up the light of Your countenance upon us. ⁷You have put gladness in my heart, More than in the season that their grain and wine increased. ⁸I will both lie down in peace, and sleep; For You alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety.

AUTUMN NATIONS SERIES

Ierland vs Japan

Die Iere het goed wraakgeneem vir die skokkende neerlaag teen die Janners in die wêreldbeker toernooi twee jaar gelede. Hulle klop die Janners oortuigend met 60-5 en druk nege drieë.

Vir die Ierse losskakel en cappie Jonathan Sexton, was die oorwinning ekstra spesiaal want hy draf in sy honderdste game uit in die Ierse trui. Die begaafde speler druk ook 'n drie en behaal nege punte met sy skopstewel vir sy bydrae van veertien punte.

Die Iere se volgende game is teen die All Blacks en wat 'n riller gaan dit nie wees nie ou grote!

Italië vs Nieu-Seeland

Met 'n oorwinning van 47-9 sal enige coach tevrede wees ou grote, maar dit was seker een van die Kiwi's se swakste vertonings vanjaar. Na 28 minute verswak die Italianers se verdediging en die All Black skrummies duik oor vir die eerste punte in die toets. Die Azzurris het soos Trojane verdedig en was gedurig in die Kiwi's se gesigte.

Dan was die balhantering van die Kiwi's nie soos 'n mens gewoond is nie. Hulle sal baie meer gefokus moet wees vir hulle toets teen Ierland die komende Saterdag. Die span wat teen die Iere uitdraf sal skrummie Aaron Smith en ander gereelde spelers insluit.

Die All Blacks het twee rugby wêreld rekords by hulle prestasies bygevoeg. Hulle staan nou op 96 drieë in een kalenderjaar en verbeter Argentinië se rekord 92 opgestel in 2003. Dan verbeter hulle ook die Springbokke se 658 in 2007 na 675 in een kalenderjaar. Die rekord gaan nog groei want die Silwer Varings moet nog in twee toetse vanjaar speel...

Skotland vs Australië

Op Murrayfield was daar duisende Skotte wat die allermooiste volkslied uit volle bors gesing het ou grote, die Flower of Scotland – hoenderveis mooi! En hulle geliefde span het hulle nie in die steek gelaat nie. Skotse bravade aan die orde van die dag en hulle klop die Aussies 15-13. Halftyd was die telling 7-3 in die guns van die Skotte. Die skrum, met Pierre Schoeman een van die 'vories' het die berugte Wallabies se voorry laat knor. Oli Kebble het ook sterk geskrum. Duhan van der Merwe het ook die Aussies geëister met sy kraglopies. Die spel van Quade Cooper is verseker gemis in die Aussie-span.

Die Skotte se volgende toets is teen die Springbokke met die Aussies wat teen Engeland gaan uitdraf.

Wallis vs Suid-Afrika

In Cardiff moes die Bokke vir tagtig minute in gietende reën spook en spartel om tog uiteindelik met 23-18 as oorwinnaars weg te stap. Die Bokke het eers in die 73ste minuut die knoop deurgehaak toe Bok haker Malcolm Marx oorgebars het vir sy drie. Maar die man van die dag was François Steyn wat Damian Willemse na sowat 17 minute vervang het. Steyn het 'n skitterende game gehad en slaag ook met 'n reuse strafskop van 54 meter. Cobus Reinach het ook 'n ander dimensie na die spel gebring toe hy in die tweede helfte vir Herschel Jantjies vervang op skrumskakel. Voorlans het Kwagga Smith en Eben Etzebeth die pap dik aangemaak.

Na slegs een skrum in die eerste helfte het die Bok voorry die Rooi Drake pap geskrum – ook in die tweede helfte ou grote. Dit is goeie nuus vir bok se kind want die Skotte wag vir hulle op Murrayfield.

Ander uitslae:

- Frankryk 29-20 Argentinië
- Engeland 69-3 Tonga
