WILL FATHER ADMIT TO RAPING DAUGHTER?

Marikana/ Rustenburg – The plea of a 60-year-old man accused of raping his biological daughter several times over an 18-month period will be heard before court in the months to come. The man, who allegedly raped his 16-year-old daughter several times since May last year, was arrested on 10 November and made his first appearance before the Marikana Magistrates' Court the following day. The state successfully opposed bail on 18 November. Spokesperson for the NPA in the North West, Henry Mamothane, said the case was postponed to 24 November to allow the man – who cannot be named to protect the identity of the victim – to consult with his attorney for bail application. The man's arrest came after his daughter, who had secretly recorded the rape ordeal on her cellphone, informed her brother about the incident. She further explained to the brother how their father had been sexually assaulting her since May 2020. The video footage, which will be presented as evidence during the trial, could seriously weaken the suspect's defence – if he decides to plead not guilty. Apart from the video recording, it is not yet clear if the state managed to collect DNA samples linking the suspect and the victim to the latest crime scene. Said police spokesperson in Rustenburg sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi: "It is alleged that in March 2020, the accused fetched his daughter from the Eastern Cape so that she could complete her studies while staying with him in Marikana. The victim alleged that her father started sexually assaulting her two months later. She also revealed how her father told her not to report the sexual violations as there was no evidence to prove the allegations." Police spokesperson captain Sam Tselanyane said the girl decided to take her cellphone to her father's bedroom on 2 November after he had summoned her. The South African National Civic Organisation (Sanco) in the North West expressed shock at the incident. "This in our view represents the worst betrayal any child could experience in their life with possible lifelong physical, emotional and psychological scars that run deep," said SANCO provincial chairperson Paul Sebegoe.

Sergeant Pheny Monchusi played a key role of bringing the suspect to book.

Justice for 14-year-old rape victim

Rustenburg – A 14-year-old rape victim and her family can begin to find some closure after a man responsible for abusing the minor in 2018 was handed a 12-year jail term. On Thursday 11 November 2021, the Rustenburg Regional Court handed the sentence to the 29-year-old man from Reutlwile informal settlement near Zinniaville after he was convicted of statutory rape. Said Rustenburg police spokesperson sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi: "It was confirmed during court proceedings that the father confronted her child after noticing her strange behaviour. She confessed everything and a case was opened." Sergeant Phemelo Monchusi of the Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences (FCS) unit played a leading role during police investigations of the case.

Getting the calf out of the pit

The Rustenburg SPCA team, community members and police joined hands to save a calf.

Rustenburg – Mahatma Gandhi: ‘The greatness of a nation and its moral progress can be judged by the way its animals are treated.’

The spirit in which members from the Rustenburg Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA), SAPS and the community came together to aid and rescue a calf in distress, is inspiring.

On Friday 12 November, SPCA’s inspector Gena-Lee Labuschagne and manager Marisa Kruger rushed to the scene next to Platinum Village near Impala Mine where a calf which wanted to quench its thirst in an earthen dam, got stuck and almost completely submerged in the mud. They were accompanied by warrant officer Mekgwe, and the SPCA’s admin clerks Molly Lodewyk and Bokamoso Manyathela and groundsman, Lucky Mokonopi, It was the first time they got to handle a situation like this, and they had to think on their feet to save the calf.

Armed with straps, Labuschagne and Kruger braved the mud and were also sucked in knee deep as they struggled to secure the straps around the calf’s body. After partially digging the calf out of the mud and pulling at its legs to free it from the mud, they started pulling the calf out with the straps. The poor thing was eventually freed, exhausted and thirsty, but alive!

These heroes proved their mettle. They dedicate their lives to protect the most vulnerable in our society – our animals.

“We would like to thank the true hero of the day, the person who didn’t turn a blind eye and called the SPCA to assist. It’s because of you that this episode turned out to be a success story. This is apparently the fourth cow that got stuck in the mud at this watering hole, and the only one that was saved,” Marisa said.

She added: “This is a concern. The owners of the farm animals will have to come up with an idea on how to protect their animals from getting stuck in the mud at this spot. We would like to urge anyone who might have an idea or good advice as to resolve this situation, to come forward and share it with us.”

The dedicated SPCA staff must face difficult situations every day. In order to keep on doing their good work and add to their success stories, they need the continuous support from the community. You can also help to keep them on the road by making a contribution towards their fuel expenses.

To report lost animals, animals being neglected or animals in trouble, contact them on 014 592 3181 during office hours and on 072 933 7723 for afterhours emergencies.

Third attack on Eskom sub-station

Rustenburg – The Eskom sub-station on the N4 just outside Rustenburg is being targeted by criminals. On more than one occasion it has been vandalised leaving residents in the area without electricity. The latest incident took place on Thursday 11 November. Security was hesitant to respond.

During two previous incidents in October, heavily armed intruders attempted to ransack the station. The first attempt claimed the life of a security guard and the corpse of what is believed to be one of the attackers was discovered later close to Eskom’s gate.

“The fact that these people do not immediately electrocute themselves when tampering with such a high voltage is cause for concern. This can only mean that they have gained the necessary experience while on the job ” a community member commented. The question now is why Eskom is not ensuring that there is enough security at such a crucial point of infrastructure that supplies electricity to a widespread area?

Eskom provincial spokesperson Sebata Zondo said: “Eskom is working with the police and also encourages the community to report the perpetrators to the police. We are working on installing security technology at the identified high-risk subs.”

WOMAN JAILED FOR STEALING BABY

Rustenburg – A woman has been jailed after she was convicted of stealing a newborn baby from a hospital and pretending the infant was her own.

Details of the date the baby was stolen and how the woman went about committing the crime were not yet available at the time of going to print.

Police spokesperson sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi said overwhelming evidence presented by the state before the Marikana Magistrates’ Court was key in securing the conviction. Mokgadi said the evidence proved how the woman, who had just given birth at a hospital in Marikana, proceeded to steal another infant.

“People at the hospital actually thought the woman had twins, only to discover that the other baby was not hers,” Mokgadi said.

Read more about this case in the next issue of Platinum Weekly newspaper.

ELDERLY COUPLE ATTACKED ON FARM

Koster – An elderly couple was attacked on their smallholding outside Koster on Wednesday 17 November.

Police spokesperson Ofentse Mokgadi confirmed that the attackers assaulted the couple, who are both in their seventies, before fleeing the scene in the couples’ vehicle. They managed to loot two rifles, two revolvers, a pistol, television sets and an undisclosed amount of cash. The vehicle was later recovered in Boitekong.

The 73-year-old woman is currently in hospital as a result of her injuries while the 75-year-old wheelchair-bound husband is recovering at home.

Successful operation to eradicate second-hand goods crimes

Rustenburg – The Police launched a successful crime prevention operation on Wednesday 10 November to address crimes involving second-hand goods.

Various multi-disciplinary agencies were involved such as SAPS’ Provincial Second-Hand Goods, Rapid Rail, K9, Crime Intelligence, Mounted Unit, Vehicle Crime Investigation Unit, District Designated Police Officials, Employee Health and Wellness, Detectives and Communication personnel and representatives from Transnet, Home Affairs, Telkom CPI, and the Motor Industry Ombudsman.

Four undocumented citizens were arrested during the operation. Compliance inspections were conducted and fines of R22,000 were issued. Various second-hand dealerships, as well as scrap metal dealers and recyclers were visited.

Bojanala acting district commissioner, brigadier Reginah Ntoagae expressed her gratitude to members of all of the sectors and the police officers involved.

More of these compliance inspections are on the cards. Second-hand dealerships are warned to refrain from buying second-hand goods of which the origin cannot be confirmed. SAPS will clamp down methodically to ensure compliance. Businesses buying and dealing in second-hand goods have certain registers to complete and prescribes to keep to. They must also report any suspicious goods offered to them. Don’t be caught on the wrong side of the law.

Disturbing the dead?

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) is investigating the conduct of workers who were allegedly spotted cutting down trees inside the cemetery adjacent to the Rustenburg Crematorium. Motorists travelling along Watsonia Road on 11 November raised the alarm after they allegedly saw workers from the RLM’s Parks and Cemeteries Unit chopping down the trees inside the cemetery. Chopping down, not pruning... During a visit by Platinum Weekly to the cemetery, one of the employees said: “We are cutting the branches of the trees because they must be pruned. The owners of the graves often come to us and express their unhappiness at how some of the tree branches hang over the graves. If we leave them, the tree branches can fall on the tombstones and cause damage.” However, completely chopping down a tree versus pruning and maintaining the area, are two separate issues. The wood is also being used for cooking purposes. “When we cut the branches, we take the dry wood and use it to cook our food,” the worker added. The municipality, however, expressed its concern at what it fears could be uncontrolled cutting down of trees. Said RLM spokesperson Thapelo Matebesi: “According to the Unit Manager for Parks and Cemeteries, Linda Jele, the municipality has not commissioned any work to cut trees at the cemetery adjacent to the crematorium. The municipality is therefore investigating the activity to establish who commissioned it so that we can apply appropriate municipal bylaws.” To report suspected illegal tree felling activities, contact the RLM customer care centre WhatsApp number 072 3790 969 or Public Safety on 014 590 3444.

The RLM is investigating the conduct of workers responsible for maintaining the cemetery near the Rustenburg Crematorium.

BRIGHT AND BRAVE!

Masego appointed as Jnr Deputy Provincial Commissioner

Phokeng/ Rustenburg – Masego Ntsie, a 15-year-old learner at Lebone II College of the Royal Bafokeng, is destined for a bright future in leadership if her performance in the SAPS Provincial Junior Commissioner project can be anything to go by! This SAPS initiative invests in young people by promoting their leadership skills.

Ntsie’s speech on bullying – presented in Potchefstroom on Friday 12 November during the provincial competition – was among four of the nine presentations that won the hearts of the adjudicators. Her powerfully delivered speech, which advised educators and learners about how to confront bullying, resulted in her appointment to the position of Junior Deputy Provincial Commissioner: Support Services.

In an interview with Platinum Weekly, the bright and brave Ntsie said: “I am the head of house for the junior boarding house, and I have learned that leading is about serving. A good leader must always listen to people and help them to overcome the challenges they are facing.”

Lebone II College of the Royal Bafokeng deputy principal Dave Ryan described Masego as a multi-talented learner. “She was very enthusiastic right from the start of the project and proved outstanding during the district and regional stages of the competition. We are elated that she made such an impression at the provincial competition because this is a shining example for other learners,” Ryan said. “Masego is also part of the school athletics team and competes in the 100m and 200m events.

We will help her discharge her duties in her new leadership role by posting anti-bullying videos on social media,” Ryan added. Watch this space!

Social media and cellphones has made it so much easier to keep in contact with friends. However, finding the time to do so is not always easy...

Yes. Friends are important. That's why I always make a point to keep in touch with them. With Covid-19, it has been difficult to remain in touch, but how can you cope without contacting your friends?

PROVERBS 3 VERSE 1 - 14

¹My son, do not forget my law, But let your heart keep my commands; ²For length of days and long life And peace they will add to you. ³Let not mercy and truth forsake you; Bind them around your neck, Write them on the tablet of your heart, ⁴And so find favor and high esteem In the sight of God and man. ⁵Trust in the LORD with all your heart, And lean not on your own understanding; ⁶In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He shall direct your paths. ⁷Do not be wise in your own eyes; Fear the LORD and depart from evil. ⁸It will be health to your flesh, And strength to your bones. ⁹Honor the LORD with your possessions, And with the first fruits of all your increase; ¹⁰So your barns will be filled with plenty, And your vats will overflow with new wine. ¹¹My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD, Nor detest His correction; ¹²For whom the LORD loves He corrects, Just as a father the son in whom he delights. ¹³Happy is the man who finds wisdom, And the man who gains understanding; ¹⁴For her proceeds are better than the profits of silver, And her gain than fine gold.

Do you wear sunscreen regularly?

Sunscreen protects your skin from ultraviolet (UV) rays. UV radiation is part of the natural energy produced by the sun. On the electromagnetic spectrum, UV light has shorter wavelengths than visible light, so your eyes can't see UV, but your skin can feel it. Make yourself heard by sending an email to news@platinumweekly.co.za or a WhatsApp to 081 579 7000 with the following information before 17:00 on Tuesday 23 November:

- Yes, I wear sunscreen regularly, or,
- No, I don't wear sunscreen regularly.
- The reason for your answer.
- A recent photo of yourself (optional) – that we can publish with your answer.

LIGGIES VIR LEWE-FEES 2021, 28 NOVEMBER TOT 1 DESEMBER

Rustenburg – NG Proteapark se jaarlikse Liggies vir Lewe-Fees vind hierdie jaar van 28 November tot 1 Desember plaas. Die tema van hierdie jaar se fees is: ONS GEE.

Die Rustenburg-gemeenskap word hartlik uitgenooi om hierdie opelug skouspel te kom besigtig. Die Liggiefees-projek het in 2015 ontstaan toe NG Proteapark se kerkgebou vir die eerste keer deur liggies versier is. Hierdie jaar word nuwe liggies bygevoeg – dit is meer as drie kilometer se liggies!

NG Proteapark nooi almal oor om die geboorte van Jesus en die betekenis van Sy sterwe wat uitgebeeld word in liggies, te aanskou – 'n besondere Kerservaring. Daar sal weer uitstallers wees by die fees; en nie een stalletjie verkoop dieselfde produkte nie. Dit is tussen 16:00 en 21:00 om die atmosfeer van 'n nagmark te skep. Dis 'n fees van liggies en uitstallings! Kom kry sommer ook jou aandete by die verskeie kosstalletjies.

- Sondag, 28 November tree Ruhan du Toit op, waarna die liggies aanskakel sal word. Die optrede begin om 18:30. Dis gewoonlik 'n besondere geleentheid wat menige mense na hul asems laat snak.

- Maandag, 29 November om 17:00 word daar "laser tag" in die Teatro vir oud en jonk aangebied. Bring jou vriende en daag mekaar uit!
- Dinsdag, 30 November om 17:30 kom kuier 'Bee Bee die By' vir die kleinspan! Pryse word uitgegee vir die oulikste bytjies!
- Woensdag, 1 Desember om 16:00 word daar 'n Sterkmankompetisie aangebied. Kom wys jou spiere en wys jou krag! Daarna, om 18:30, word die Liggies vir Lewe-Fees afgesluit met Kersliedere. 'n Nuweling in die musiekwêreld, Thabang Malan, is deel van die Kerssangskouspel – moet dit nie misloop nie!

Tussendeur alles gaan NG Proteapark se gewilde treintjie, die Liggie-Express, weer die kleingoed rondrits. Kom wees deel van hierdie besondere geleentheid en laat jou liggie helder vir Jesus skyn! Die kerk se liggies kan elke aand tot en met 25 Desember besigtig word.

SHAPING FUTURE LEADERS TODAY

Lekalong/ Rustenburg – The Goldrush Foundation handed over a brand-new classroom to Tsunyane School in Lekgalong village (about 25km from Rustenburg) on Tuesday 9 November. The classroom, creating a better learning environment for the school's foundation phase learners, is a modified container constructed at a cost of R400,000. The sturdy classroom is equipped with basic items like chairs, tables, a blackboard and an aircon. Says Goldrush Foundation group compliance manager and trustee Raymond Thakuli: "Education is one of the main priorities at Goldrush. We do not view this as a donation. Rather, it's an investment." Each year, the Goldrush Foundation channels between R3 to R4 million towards various social investment initiatives in South Africa. Activities and projects supported by Goldrush are identified according to guidelines of the company's corporate social investment (CSI) policy.

Goldrush Foundation group compliance manager and trustee Raymond Thakuli expressed his satisfaction with the standard of the work.

Glencore Ferroalloys donates sanitary pads to help fight scarcity in local schools.

At the beginning of August 2021, Glencore Ferroalloys sought out to empower and uplift young girls in their communities by rolling out sanitary pad donations and saying no to girl children missing school due to a lack of sanitary pads. The initiative which began with a partnership between Glencore and the Imbumba foundation was aimed at providing over 6 700 sanitary pads to girls around Glencore operations.

"Imbumba is a non-profit organisation that was established to bring about social change and economic upliftment within rural and economically marginalised communities. We found great synergy between Glencore and ourselves because they too have shown that they are committed to making a difference in the communities where they operate. Having seen what we have managed to achieve through this partnership has been really affirming for us at Imbumba and we look forward to making an even bigger impact in the future," said the founder of Imbumba, Richard Mabaso.

Since the beginning of the initiative, Glencore and Imbumba have reached at least 55 schools in the North West and Limpopo provinces, which have all been provided with sanitary pads. We have successfully completed our first phase of distribution whereby each girl was given six packs of sanitary pads which will last for six months. Our second phase of distribution of another six packs is planned for February/ March 2022, and will form part of the Back-to-School campaign. The sanitary pads are sourced from Imbumba's flagship Caring4Girls, which was established with the aim to support indigent girls with sanitary towels, puberty education and menstrual hygiene to keep them in school. To date, the programme has empowered over 1 million girl children across South Africa and neighbouring countries.

"When we found out what Imbumba was doing to keep girl children in schools, we knew we had to partner with them so we could ensure that girls within the communities around our operations never face such a challenge again. Education is absolutely key in giving these girls a better future and sanitary pad poverty should not be a stumbling block. We are proud to have reached so many young girls through this partnership and we are extremely optimistic about their future." Glencore Ferroalloys' Enterprise & Supplier Development Superintendent, Ms Charlin Ntuli said.

Mr Malekane who is the principal at Gobetse High School, one of the schools that received the sanitary pad donations, thanked both Imbumba and Glencore for the initiative, saying it was a great necessity in their community. "Having access to sanitary pads should be a basic human right but unfortunately so many of our young girls find themselves unable to do so because their guardians simply cannot afford them. When Glencore approached us to say they would like to help our girl pupils, I was so grateful because this gives them a fair chance to really work towards getting themselves educated and to help improve their lives and those of their families," he added.

To date, the initiative has donated 62 556 packs of pads to almost 10 426 girls from around Glencore's operations. Glencore has also made one of their nurses available to help educate the girls on menstrual hygiene and puberty as and when they require it.

Well-known actor, Clement Maosa, from Skeem Saam who was present at one of the handovers, told the young girls to never stop striving for their dreams. "Quote from Clement"

Through this initiative and many others, Glencore continues to remain committed to creating progress together in their communities and beyond.

GLENCORE

Ingrid Gloy perfected the art of macaron making. Macarons are a delicious French dessert.

French Macarons

Rustenburg – Anyone who has ever tried to make macarons will tell you... it's no easy task! But Ingrid Gloy from Rustenburg was determined to learn how to make this delicious French dessert. "After a lot of research on Google and YouTube and many flops after... I eventually managed to get it right. You must have patience to make macaroons and every step must be followed to the letter T, or else you will have to start over again. But once you get it right, you won't be able to stop!"

- ### Ingredients:
- Shells
- 200g confectioners' sugar
 - 100g finely ground almond flour
 - 120g egg whites (at room temperature)
 - 1/8 teaspoon salt
 - 40g granulated sugar (sifted)
 - 1/2 teaspoon flavouring
 - 1 to 3 drops liquid or gel food colouring (optional)
- Filling
- 1/4 cup unsalted butter (softened)
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
 - 1 tablespoon milk/almond milk
 - 1 and 1/2 cup confectioners' sugar
 - 1 small pinch salt (optional)

- ### Instructions:
1. Sift the confectioners' sugar and almond flour together, and set aside.
 2. Beat the egg whites and salt together on medium speed for 1 minute. Switch to high speed and beat until stiff peaks form (check every 30 seconds so you don't overbeat the egg whites – it takes about 1 minute).
 3. Gently fold in your sifted granulated sugar 1 tablespoon at a time.
 4. On low speed, beat in any flavouring or colouring of your choice – only mix until it is combined so you do not overmix.
 5. Using a rubber spatula, gently fold in the confectioners' sugar/almond flour mixture until combined. Be very gentle as you fold in the dry ingredients. Once combined your mixture will be smooth, sticky and glossy. Do not use a hand mixer or stand mixer for this step!
 6. Let batter sit uncovered at room temperature for 10-30 minutes.
 7. As the batter sits out, prep your piping bag using a 1.3cm circle tip for piping.
 8. Fill the piping bag with batter and pipe even round circles onto the baking sheets. Traditionally, silicone baking sheets are preferred but parchment paper parchment covered baking sheets can also work. Keep a piping bag close to the baking sheet, holding it upright to get an even circle as you pipe. Make each circle about 5cm. The batter will slightly spread as you pipe. Gently tap the bottom of baking sheets after your finished the piping to remove any large air bubbles.
 9. Let your piped macaroon shells sit out to form a dry shell for 45 minutes to 1 hour. This step is super important so don't skip it!
 10. Preheat oven to 160°C (do not preheat until macaroons have finished sitting out so you do not create a lot of humidity in your kitchen).
 11. Bake macaroons for 9-10 minutes, one baking sheet at a time. If you have a convection oven do not use the fan. Just stick to it as a normal oven.
 12. Allow macaroons to cool completely on the baking sheet before removing and filling.

Sick of constant water interruptions!

[Letter to the editor]

I stay in Geelhoutpark and lately, our struggle with water supply interruptions has gone from bad to worse. We either have no water pressure or no water at all! How is anyone supposed to live like this? Every time we report it, they have a different excuse. We rarely get any notifications and sometimes we get the notices after the water has been repaired. When we report it, we are ignored. After enquiry after enquiry, I was told that Magalieswater is not supplying the right quota of water to the area. Apparently when the industrial area's water level is low, the pump to Geelhoutpark is turned off to get their levels up again... there is a lot of politics involved that can take years to resolve but, in the meantime, we have to suffer. We live in a modern age where you can share information with millions of people with just a click. Can't they just sent out a notification when they plan to turn off the pump so that residents can know to use water more sparingly and not wash their driveways when we know a water shortage is coming?

Thank you Tlhabane CPF

[Letter to the editor]

They broke into my house on Thursday 11 November. I live in Rustenburg Noord. The next morning when I left for work, I saw a vehicle with five people in front of my house. I found them suspicious. I thought it better not to confront them. Our house is like a commune. I was worried. One of the ladies were still home, with the guys sitting outside watching the house. A colleague of mine advised that I contact the Tlhabane Community Policing Forum (CPF). I spoke to the chairperson

Israel Maimane and explained my situation to him. He said that he would go and have a look. Within minutes I was informed that he was at the house and the suspect vehicle took off. Maimane also said that they will patrol in the area over the weekend for in case the guys decided to return. I would really like to commend him for his extremely swift reaction. What they are doing for our community is great and I can sleep a little better knowing that they keep watch. A Grateful Citizen

WHAT'S THE CHEAPEST CIGARETTE OUT THERE?

SA – In a national study commissioned by the British American Tobacco South Africa (BATSA) published on 5 November, research was carried out into the cheapest purchase prices in the tobacco cigarette market. The study took place from 8 October to 3 November. Researchers were briefed to ask the following question: "I want to by the cheapest 20 pack available", and/or "I want to buy the cheapest carton available". No price negotiations were allowed.

- The cheapest pack purchased was R8.00 and was purchased in Gauteng Wholesale. The R10.00 price point was prevalent in Western Cape, Free State, and Gauteng Provinces, with the Wholesale, Spaza, Tabletop/ Hawker channels where it was most prevalent.
- The foreign brand, Remington Gold (owned by or licensed to GLTC Zimbabwe) is the most widely accessible brand at the cheapest price point, at 59% selling below R21.60 and a purchase universe of 441 stores out of 748 stores.

- Pine (owned by or licensed to KTNG), had a higher incidence of R21.60 and below, although off a lower base, when in comparison to Remington Gold.
- Pall Mall (owned by or licensed to BAT) has a high prevalence in sample stores, however the brand is not sold at the cheapest price points.
- New brands, not purchased in the previous studies in 2021 and new to the cheapest prices purchase list, include Liberty (R18.00), Roxbury (R10.00 and R15.00), Chief (R10.00 to R18.00), Ecco Nano (R18.000), and GMB (R10.00).

The cheapest carton purchased was R70.00 in Gauteng, within a wholesale trader. Isn't that interesting... Visit www.batsa.co.za to access the full study results.

Platinum Mark, 24 November - 4 Desember 2021

Rustenburg – Die Platinum Mark word elke jaar aangebied as die Gereformeerde Kerk Rustenburg-Wes se hoofondsinsameling, evangelisasie- en kuiergeleentheid. 'n Deel van die fondse word gebruik vir uitreik en ondersteuning, en word teruggeploeg in die Rustenburg-gemeenskap.

Met die 2020 markfonds is die volgende instansies gehelp: G-Om, Hospice, Huis Sering, Laerskool David Brink, Rustenburg Skool vir Buitengewone Onderwys, Spes-Bona, Solidariteit Helpende Hand Platinum Mark Beursfonds. Die Platinum Mark komitee wil elkeen bedank wat die Mark kom besoek het en dit vir ons moontlik maak om 'n verskil te maak in ons gemeenskap.

Ten spyte van al die omwentelinge in ons daaglikse lewe, is dit lekker om uit te sien na die alombekende Platinum Mark 2021! Die jaarlikse mark gaan vanjaar plaasvind vanaf 24 November tot 4 Desember by die Gereformeerde Kerk Rustenburg-Wes op die hoek van Kloppe- en Zandstraat.

Die markorganiseerders sê dat vanjaar se marktema 'Getrouheid - vrug van die Gees' is, en as 'n reënboog uitgebeeld word.

Dit is nie net vir die hoë gehalte produkte waarvoor almal gaan praat nie, maar ook die heerlike vermaak elke aand asook die byvoegings op die spyskaart by die kiosk. Daar is vanjaar heelwat nuwe produkte beskikbaar, maar markgangers kan ook uitsien na ou bekende uitstallers se handgemaakte items, heerlike eetgoed, juwele, geskenke, boeke en dies meer. ‘n Engel sonder vlerke

Die NG Kerk Proteapark belydenisklas het gehelp om mure te verf en dit geniet om tyd saam met die leerders te spandeer.

Sheri Brynard, 'n bekende Down-sindroom ambassadeur kuier by die skool.

Rustenburg – Christelle Herbst en haar span van die NG Kerk Proteapark het uitgereik na Rustenburg Skool vir Buitengewone Onderwys om werklik 'n verskil te maak. Hier het hulle moue opgerol en hard aan die werk gespring deur verskeie projekte te loods om die skool en sy leerders by te staan. 'n Anonieme donateur in hul gemeente het vir die skool 'n 'nuwe baadjie aangetrek'. Dié Samaritaan het hul draadheining vervang met 'n precon-muur wat reg rondom die skool strek. Daar is ook voorsiening gemaak vir al die ou geboue se dakke om reggemaak en geverf te word. Vir Hemelvaartdag het NG Kerk Proteapark 'n spesiale boodskap by die skool gaan lewer. Die kerk bied ook elke jaar die Liggiefees aan waardeur hulle fondse insamel om die gemeenskap by te staan. Aan die begin van die jaar het die skool R5,400 ontvang uit die 2020 Liggie-fonds. Daar is ook vir die jongspan nagklere geskenk en gereël dat Sheri Brynard, 'n bekende Down-sindroom ambassadeur, by hulle skool gaan kuier. Onder leiding van Christelle het die belydende klas op Vrydag 29 Oktober, kwas in die hand by die skool gaan help om te verf.

Tussendeur die verfwerk het hulle ook tyd gemaak om saam met die kinders by die na-skool te gaan speel en hulle bederf met pizza. Na 'n bye kolonie hulself tuisgemaak het op die perseel, het Christelle in 'n japtrap 'n plan gemaak om die bye te laat verwyder sodat die kinders veilig kan speel. Die kerk help ook gereeld die meisies van die skool met spesiale pakkies. Die inisiatief vorm deel van Projek Lea waar meisies 'n pakkie ontvang met sanitêre doekies, 'n waslap, lyfseep, deodorant, tandepasta, 'n tandeborsel, Vaseline en wet wipes. Rustenburg Skool vir Buitengewone Onderwys se onderwysers is ook bederf toe elke juffrou 'n Hannon lipglans ontvang het. "Die ongelooflike verskil wat NG Kerk Proteapark hier maak is onmeetbaar. Elke gebaar, groot of klein, het 'n impak op die lewens van die kinders. Ons is so dankbaar vir Christelle in besonder, wat die dryfkrag agter al die projekte is en wil vir haar en die NG Kerk Proteapark baie dankie sê vir alles wat hulle vir ons leerders doen. Sy is beslis soos 'n engel sonder vlerke," aldus Rustenburg Skool vir Buitengewone Onderwys hoof Lamar Winter.

Rustenburg – Spes Bona hosted a successful golf day at Rustenburg Golf Club on Friday 12 November. The funds raised during this fun day on the course will go a long way to assist them in taking care of the 65 patients they currently have in their care by providing them with daily necessities. They can continue to provide a safe, quality, and secure place to persons with disabilities – a safe haven for those who due to personal, social, health or other reasons, have no other place to live. The facility is also in need of serious maintenance and some of the funds raised will go towards the upkeep of the premises. Spes Bona would like to thank all the players and donors who contributed towards the success of the day.

For more information about Spes Bona or to find out how you can help contact Flippie Fourie on 082 930 0446.

Spes Bona received grocery donations from Laerskool Silwerrand Primary.

Golfers and Spes Bona patients had a great day at the Rustenburg Golf Club.

Rustenburg – Laerskool Silwerrand Primary het op Vrydag 29 Oktober ’n besoek gehad vanaf die Boelie Busters. Dit was hope pret en elke leerder het geleer van verskeie tipes boelie gedrag. Deur dié veldtog word boelies by skole sommer vinnig hok geslaan!

Die Boelie Busters het die jongspan meer geleer oor verskillende tipe boelies.

WÊRELD RUGBY

Skotland vs Suid-Afrika
Die Bokke skrum die Skotte pap op Murrayfield en wen gemaklik 30-15. Met rustyd was die Skotte voor met 10-8. Eben Etzebeth speel tans skitterende rugby en is ook welverdiend as die speler van die toets aangewys.
François Steyn het met sy verskyning op die veld 'n merkwaardige rekord verbeter vir sy vyftien jaar in 'n Boktrui!
Die Bokke se laaste toets in 2021 is Saterdag op Twickenham teen Engeland. Dit gaan 'n riller wees ou grote. Die Engelse se coach, Eddie Jones was baie spraaksaam na die Engelse se wen teen die Aussies en het gesê hy soek 'n Bokvel in sy kroeg!
Die Engelse cappie Owen Farrell gaan weens 'n besering nie beskikbaar wees vir die toets teen die Bokke nie. Vir die Bokke is Cobus Reinach en Handrè Pollard as skakelpaar in die beginspan.

Ander uitslae:

- Italië 16 - 37 Argentinië
- Ierland 29 - 20 Nieu-Seeland
- Engeland 32 - 15 Australië

- Frankryk 41 - 15 Georgia
- Wallis 38 - 23 Fidji

Bepalings:

Saterdag 20 November

- 16:30 - Georgia vs Fidji
- 17:15 - Engeland vs Suid-Afrika

NARROW LOSS FOR IMPALA

Rustenburg – Impala Rugby Club lost 37-38 to the Tshwane University of Technology (TUT)'s team on Saturday 13 November in a tightly contested final of the President's League.
Impala, who were playing in front of their home crowd in Rustenburg, had the chance to win the game with the last kick of the game after they had scored a try late in the second half. Unfortunately, they missed the conversion attempt, allowing TUT to win the match by the narrowest of margins.
It was a gutsy performance from Impala who had won all their previous matches during the season only to stumble at the very last hurdle.

Joe Engelbrecht, Gerald Gibson, Isak Deetlefs and Carlo Cloete played well and scored the tries for Impala. Trevor Visser – who converted two of the tries and one penalty attempt – also had a good game.
“Our next game will only be next year when we start with our pre-season. We are going back to the Carlton League next year, which will be a big challenge for us,” Impala rugby club chairman Wynand Burger said.
“We played great rugby this season. We gave young players a chance to play club rugby. Some of our senior players returned, so we are happy about how the season progressed. We look forward to next season,” Burger concluded.

TOYOTA CHALLENGE

Die Toyota Challenge het ook afgeskop die afgelope naweek. Dit is 'n goeie geleentheid vir spelers – en gróóte geld is hier te sprake. Vir elke wen ontvang die wenspan R250,000. Dan is daar ook prysgeld vir spelers wat uitblink. Die Cheetahs het reeds die afgelope naweek teen die Stormers gespeel en verloor die game 31-30.

PROBIOTICS & DIGESTIVE ENZYMES

Probiotics are good live bacteria and/or yeasts that naturally live in your body. Probiotic supplements can assist you in getting the right balance of good bacteria. Digestive enzymes take the place of natural enzymes, helping to break down carbs, fats and proteins. Because they mimic your natural enzymes, they must be taken just before you eat.
