Fire destroys building and livelihoods

Koster/ Cedrela – Three shops that have been in Cedrela, Koster for donkey's years, have burned to the ground. According to several eye witnesses on scene, the water tanker that arrived did not have any water in its tank to fight the fire. Platinum Weekly also reached out to the Kgetlengrivier Local Municipality (KLM) for comment and was informed that Disaster Management (Fire and Emergency) is the competency of the Bojanala Platinum District Municipality (BPD). According to the BPD acting communications manager Tshepo Ramosepele: "There was no water shortage on the fire tanker. Because of the size of the fire, the tanker ran out of water and had to drive away to refill."

Young family shattered after N4 murder

N4/Brits - Juandr  Kidson, a 29-year-old father was brutally shot in front of his wife and their one-year-old daughter on the N4 on Saturday 7 May. The trio lived in Brits but visited Rustenburg almost every weekend to spend time with their close-knit family. As usual they left Rustenburg on Saturday evening after their visit so that they can be in church on Sunday where Juandr  played drums for their church band.

As they were traveling an object in the road damaged their tyre. Juandr  knew of the risks of stopping on the N4, so he kept going a bit further until he found a spot that felt safe to stop. While busy changing the tyre three assailants attacked him from behind. He begged them to take everything they want and pleaded with them not hurt his family. They ransacked the car for items including a cellphone and then shot him in the head.

The killers then turned to his wife Johanette Kidson who was holding their young daughter and then attempted to take the baby from her. She fought with everything she had to keep her daughter safe and in the process was shot in the shoulder. Johanette somehow managed to escape and ran into the field next to the road where she hid. A tow truck who was in the area heard the shots and went out to investigate and found Johanette with her daughter. The little girl was unharmed.

Johanette was rushed to hospital for her gunshot wound but has since been released and is staying with her family in-law.

Police spokesperson captain Aafje Botma confirmed that an attempted murder and murder case was opened, and police are busy with the investigation. No arrests have been made yet.

"These people came with one goal – to kill. My brother cooperated with the attackers; he didn't care about anything else more than keeping his family safe. The killers got what they wanted, they could have just left but they still killed him and shot his wife," Marco Kidson, Juandr 's younger brother said in an interview with Platinum Weekly.

Marco also has a lot of questions as this is not the first incident on the N4 where the culprits' placed rocks on the road, causing damage to the vehicles forcing their victims to pull off the road in order to rob or kill them. "What are the police doing to find my brother's killers. What are they doing to keep motorists on the N4 safe?" he said

Police spokesperson Lieutenant Colonel Mavela Masondo said that the police in Akasia are investigating a case of murder after a man was found dead in a vehicle on the N4 towards Orchards also on 7 May. It is reported that the South African Police Services and Tshwane Metro Police Department members were called to a scene where they found a body of a man with gunshot wound inside an Audi which was missing a front tyre and keys. The circumstances surrounding this incident are unknown at this stage and the victim is also not yet identified. The Kidson family is shattered by Juandr 's death but has received overwhelming support from the community. "We would like to thank everyone for their support during this difficult time. We are grateful for every prayer, every meal and every candle that you lit in Juandr 's memory just to name a few."

In remembrance

Juandr  Kidson 'n liefdevolle, wonderlike man, seun, broer en vriend is op Saterdag 7 Mei van sy familie af weggeruk.

Hy het sy vrou en dogtertjie op die hande gedra het en niks was ooit te veel vir hulle nie. Hulle was sy w reld en hy was hulle sin. Alles wat hy gedoen het, het hy vir hulle gedoen.

Hy was 'n man wat altyd geanker was in God en het sterk gestaan in sy geloof. Sy liefde en geloof het hy uitgestraal en hy het nooit terug gestaan om ander te help nie.

Alhoewel hy baie lief was vir die bosveld, was Juandr  baie gelukkig die viswaters. Hier het hy en sy broer gereeld tyd saam spandeer en 'n hegte band gevorm. Hy was ook 'n rolmodel vir albei sy jonger broers en het 'n voorbeeld vir hulle gestel waarop enige ouer kan trots wees. "Dit voel nog so onwerklik. Jy was die beste boetie, beste seun, beste man en pa vir ons almal. Jy gaan so erg gemis word. Ons weet vir seker waar jy nou is, by ons Hemelse Vader. Ons s  nie totsiens nie, ons s  tot ons mekaar weer sien. Ons is lief vir jou en gaan jou so baie mis," lui 'n spesiale boodskap van sy familie. Hy laat sy vrou, Johanette, hulle dogtertjie, ouers en twee jonger broers agter.

Die besonderhede vir sy begrafnis sal later bekend maak. Ons innige simpatie gaan uit aan sy familie en vriende en ons bid dat jul vertroosting sal vind in die moeilike tyd.

Beware of non-compliant 'colleges'!

Rustenburg – Are you, or anyone you know, enrolled at a college or an institution of higher learning?

If the answer is yes, then it is advisable to take some time to verify if the tertiary institution is actually registered with the department of Higher Education and Training.

Education is valuable and it is every parent or guardian's dream to see their children furthering their education after high school.

Unfortunately, many students discover – just after completing their training – that the institution they had been enrolled with is not registered with the Department of Higher Education and Training. A college or university that is not registered with this department is not permitted to offer any courses and will actually be operating illegally!

This also means that certificates awarded by such institutions are not accredited and that students who enrol for them are taking a huge gamble with their future – whether they know it or not.

Like all schools, institutions of higher learning must operate within the confines of the law and registration with the department and other training bodies associated with the courses they offer is a pre-requisite.

Verifying if an institution of higher learning has a certificate that is recognised is important to know before registration.

It is also advisable for students to check the details and website of such institutions. Also check their registration number. Prospective students are also advised to visit the college so that they are able to physically verify if the college does exist.

South Africa has a register of all qualifications which is managed by the South African Qualifications Authority (SAQA) and this register is referred to as the National Qualifications Framework (NQF).

Prospective students can find a complete list of all registered private colleges and higher education institutions at www.dhet.gov.za/SitePages/DocRegisters NSPCA/Afriforum challenge SAPS incompetence over SANDF horse abuse case.

NW - Since 2018, the NSPCA has been given the run-around regarding two of its cases against the defence force (SANDF) for the abuse of over one hundred horses. It has been four years since the NSPCA opened its first case against the SANDF and the SAPS have still not handed over the case to the prosecutor to consider for court. The NSPCA has now approached the Commissioner of Police in the North West province to urgently intervene in this matter. A formal complaint has been lodged with the commissioner, Lieutenant General SJ Kwena, in a formal letter sent by Private Prosecutor, Gerrie Nel, from Afriforum, who is representing the NSPCA in this matter. In the letter, Advocate Nel draws attention to the NSPCAs frustration regarding the indifferent attitude that this case is being handled with. The NSPCA, through Afriforum, had formally written to Colonel Selepe and Colonel Bekker on two different occasions in March and April 2022 respectively. The letters highlighted the fact that the NSPCA has been trying to take this matter to court since 2018, and reiterated that the NSPCA was willing to assist the detectives if required. No acknowledgement or response was received from either of the two Colonels on both occasions. In light of the above, the NSPCAs complaint refers mainly to the inept and unprofessional work ethic of the SAPS Potchefstroom detectives assigned to this case- who have blatantly refused to work with the NSPCA to bring animal abusers to book. In May 2018, the first case was opened, after the NSPCA was forced to remove 76 horses from the SANDF's South African Army Special Infantry Capability. An additional 25 horses required emergency euthanasia on the premises of the SANDF because of how severely compromised their state of health was. In 2019, during an inspection, NSPCA inspectors witnessed members of the SANDF brutally kicking and beating other horses which resulted in the NSPCA removing those horses as well. This resulted in a second case being opened by the NSPCA in February 2019. It appears to the NSPCA as though the accused members in this case (members of the SANDF) are imposing their will on senior detectives in the SAPS which places this case in jeopardy. The NSPCA had investigated, compiled and submitted case dockets to the SAPS. The dockets contained sufficient evidence against the accused's in this case from the NSPCAs investigation. The detectives in this matter simply had to collect additional information required by the prosecutor to complete the docket. It appears to the Council that the detectives for this case have failed to do so after FOUR years. The NSPCA extends their sincere appreciation to Advocate Nel and the Afriforum team for their continued support in this matter.

Drienie het maar net ‘n manier met woorde

Rustenburg - Drienie Joubert Kelly is in Zeerust gebore en het haar kinderjare as plaaskind op Groot-Marico spandeer. Op die ouderdom van ses, trek haar familie Rustenburg toe waar sy haar skoolloopbaan voltooi. Op skool was sy lief vir skryf maar het nooit die stokperdjie verder gevat nie. Na die afsterwe van ‘n vriendin in 2011 het sy begin om haar gedagtes op papier vas te vang en kort voor lank het sy ‘n hele bundel vol gedigte gehad. “Ek het in 2019 die eerste keer gewaag om ‘n digbundel deur self publikasie uit te gee. Dit was ‘n reuse sukses. Deur die genade van Jesus het deure vir my oopgegaan op ‘n kritieke tyd.” Van daar af het haar woorde begin vlerke kry. Malherbe Uitgewers het haar manuskrip aanvaar en haar volgende drie digbundels word deur hulle uitgegee. Nie net spog sy reeds met vier digbundels agter haar naam nie, maar van haar gedigte is ook al in verskeie ander bundels gepubliseer en sy het selfs ook al haar hand aan kortverhale gewaag. Sy het ook al verskeie prestasies as digter behaal wat die volgende toekennings insluit:

- Algehele wenner/ Digter van die jaar van Padlans 2020
- Afdeling wenner van die Louwrens du Toit-prys in die GHA - Kompetisie 2019
- Algehele Naaswenner van INK - Skryf in Afrikaans 2020
- Afdeling wenner van die A.D. Keet-prys in die GHA – Kompetisie 2021

Op die vraag van wat haar inspireer antwoord sy: “Ek skryf van die wêreld om my. Ek sal gereeld net iets raaksien en weet: hieroor wil ek skryf.” Drienie het haar liefde vir musiek ook nou met haar digkuns inkorporeer. “Musiek was nog altyd vir my belangrik en ek wou graag my woorde in musiek omsit.” Sy het saam met Manus Meyer begin werk wat vele van haar lirieke getoonset en verwerk het. Groot name in die musiekbedryf onder andere Jaycee Crause, Quentin Prinsloo, Jennifer Zamudio en Stephan Visagie het liedjies uit haar pen. Daar is ook vier van die liedjies wat sy geskryf het op Jenny K se album, wat deur André Hartman van Infinity Recording Studio verwerk is. As Drienie nie besig is om te skryf nie het sy haarself ook leer skilder, ‘n stokperdjie wat sy ook nou gereeld beoefen en ‘n groot sukses van gemaak het. Sy is ook baie lief vir stap en besoek graag mooi plekke “Ek is verskriklik lief vir die berge, die bos, die see en enige plek waar my siel kan asemhaal, waar ek in stilte met Christus kan verkeer. Geloof en Christenskap is vir my baie belangrik en deel van my daaglikse lewe,” vertel Drienie. Aan ander aspirante skrywers deel sy graag advies: “Moenie dat iemand jou in ‘n blik druk nie en wees opreg met jouself. Skryf in vir kompetisies en waag om jou woorde daar buite te kry.” Om een van die talentvolle skrywer se boeke te bekom kan jy jou bestelling plaas deur ‘n epos te stuur aan mike@malherbe-uitgewers.co.za, kontak 068 303 2818 of stuur ‘n WhatsApp aan 068 3017883.

Fire destroys building and livelihoods

Koster/ Cedrela – Three shops that have been in Cedrela, Koster for donkey's years, have burned to the ground. According to several eye witnesses on scene, the water tanker that arrived did not have any water in its tank to fight the fire. Platinum Weekly also reached out to the Kgetlengrivier Local Municipality (KLM) for comment and was informed that Disaster Management (Fire and Emergency) is the competency of the Bojanala Platinum District Municipality (BPDM). According to the BPDM acting communications manager Tshepo Ramosepele: "There was no water shortage on the fire tanker. Because of the size of the fire, the tanker ran out of water and had to drive away to refill "

To add fuel to the fire, the water tanker could apparently also not access water from the fire hydrant in front of the complex.

The fire which was apparently caused by an exploding gas bottle, spread rapidly through the building material and hardware shop and to the adjacent shops in the complex.

The Koster community stepped up and did everything in their power to fight the fire - with limited resources. Business owners and farmers who had fire fighter tanks rushed to the scene to fight the fire.

Swartruggens Emergency and Response Assistant member Dirk van Vuuren, who was also on the scene shortly after the fire broke out told Platinum Weekly: "Our organisation went to assist with our firefighter tank. The community and farmers of the area did their best to assist the municipal firefighters on scene. Community members even carried buckets of water to the scene."

But the equipment with which they tried to fight the fire was no match for the fire which engulfed the building in flames. The farmers' water tanks are often very effective when fighting wild fires and other fires, but the building material shop needed equipment which only the municipal firefighters have.

Social media was abuzz with messages of disbelief and support. "Our hearts go out to the shop owners and their families," one message read. Another message said: "This is their bread and butter – they supply our community with everything, my heart cries with them."

"It was a terrible fire, and the worst part was seeing the fire truck there, unable to do anything to help because they didn't have water. Some of these businesses have been serving our community for more than 50 years – it's very sad," said Koster community member Theresa Oosthuizen.

Koster is a great example of a community that takes a stand to support each other. They are always willing to help, even if it is not their responsibility.

Platinum Weekly spoke to a local firefighter who told us: "According to the general standards for fire stations, fire truck tanks should always be filled with water and ready to respond. After fighting a fire, even before the truck is pulled into the station, the tank needs to be refilled. The tanks must, according to procedure, be checked at each shift change. A fire truck should always be ready to respond.

According to the Department of Corporate Governance's White Paper on Fire Services: The provision of water for firefighting requires careful preplanning that not only establishes need but also goes on to identify the sources of water, whether drawn from public water mains or other sources, and then secures availability for use in case of fire. The White Paper states: Fire Services must be driven at all spheres of government, it must ensure community involvement, it must be effective and efficient and most importantly it must ensure that the delivery of fire services are based on measurable standards.

The water supply interruptions in Koster are nothing new. Residents often don't have water and earlier this year, they spent more than a month without any water in their taps. A community member confirmed that the water once again went off about an hour before the fire broke out. Even if the water was off, the fire stations should always be prepared for a fire. The Kgetlengrivier Local Municipality also the fire truck could have for a possible fire.

Local municipality also has a borehole where the fire truck could have filled up, to be prepared for a possible fire. There is also a huge pond close to where the fire broke out, and according to regulations, municipal firefighters should have pumps to help them draw water from other sources like swimming pools or ponds to refill their tanks if they have used up all the water in their tanks while fighting a fire.

So many missed opportunities, and so much damage...

There are several Koster community members who have boreholes on their properties, who regularly assist other community members with water during these water interruptions. Koster community member Reihet Schoeman said: “We have a WhatsApp group where those of us with boreholes post times and places when people can come and fetch water during water interruptions. If the fire station needs water, I won’t hesitate for a moment to assist.”

BEST perfect VALET shoppe celebrates a decade

Rustenburg - For the last 10 years, BEST perfect VALET shoppe has strived to live up to their motto: We do it better.

In April 2012, owner Lied Troskie took over the car wash and had big plans for the future. What started out as a wash and vacuum only, quickly expanded and now they specialise in valet services where they deep clean between 200 and 300 cars a month. Their clients include 22 car dealers who regularly make use of their services.

Four of the seven employees they started off with, still work for them. They currently have 20 employees in their team.

General manager George Mogomotsi, who was part of the original four is a 'specialist' in his field. A car valet is no easy task as it requires the whole vehicle to be stripped and cleaned in every nook and cranny. If a person does not know what they are doing it can cause serious damage to your car's electrical parts. Because of the expertise of Mogomotsi, BEST perfect VALET shoppe can boast that in the last 10 years not a single electronic control unit has been damaged but just for in case they also have insurance for this. A service not many valet shops offer.

Their employees are their biggest assets, and they are proud to say that their experience, skills and dedication contributes to the success of the company.

Smash and grab and paint protection film are also now part of the services they provide. These value-added services have excelled under the lead of Andrenett Pelser who spearheaded the implementation.

For more information visit BEST perfect VALET shoppe at the corner of President Mbeki Drive and Marias street, Rustenburg or contact them on 071 870 1750.

Fool me once
Seems like things are getting a bit uncomfortable for Mr Scammer. With more of his victims sharing their stories and his cons and lies being exposed, it looks like it's getting more difficult for him to find new victims. Desperate times call for desperate measures so Mr Scammer apparently started reaching out to his former victims to see if he can maybe cash in again. Victim 2 recently received a message on social media from a man with a fake profile – the name he gave and the name on the profile wasn't even the same. However, it was the same name he tried to use with Victim 4 when he tried to con her out of R500 for information on Mr Scammer. He told Victim 2 that he heard she was looking for Mr Scammer and that she should reach out to him. Knowing there are more victims out there her first thought was that he might be one of them. She reached out but it took about two messages from him for her to realise what was going on. Just to make sure, she asked him to send a voice note as she wanted to hear his voice to confirm. He just refused saying that he only types. She immediately knew that it was Mr Scammer and called him out on it, but he just denied it and said that he will call her later. Even though she repeatedly told him that she knew it was him, he didn't stop. He started saying that he was from the Western Cape and that he was a close friend of Mr Scammer. He told her Mr Scammer is not easy to find and no one will find him. Victim 2 then straight out asked him: "If you know where he is, then just tell me?". Apparently, Mr Scammer is in the Western Cape. Which was a bit odd for Victim 2 as she recently saw Mr Scammer in Rustenburg, when he drove past her – she even identified his car. This was once again denied by the man saying that Mr Scammer will never drive a car like that as he's got better taste. She then told him that his scams are being exposed and that the law will eventually catch up with him. This is when the messages started to get a bit more intimidating. He apparently said that they will never find Mr Scammer. He's untouchable and that people should be careful of him. "I am not trying scare you. All I'm saying is, be careful, he is going to go back to Rustenburg and then it will be too late," his message read. Victim 2 then straight up told him that his terrible spelling, the way he writes and operates clearly reveals that he's Mr Scammer. "You can fool me once, but I won't fall for this again." His response: "I am telling you that you should leave him alone, he is coming. I have to get back to work." And then he blocked her number. He is clearly running out of options so this might have been an attempt to con money out of people who are desperate to find him. Victim 2 saw through his lies and called him out on it, only to be threatened. If you were a victim of Mr Scammer, please beware, he is on the prowl again. Mr Serial Scammer has scammed several people in Rustenburg, Swarttruggens, Boshoeck and surrounds and due to the success of his illicit venture, he is currently expanding his operations to Vanderbijlpark, Pretoria and Prieska. Names have been withheld to protect the victims.

SERIAL SCAMMER

Background
Rustenburg – Platinum Weekly was made aware of a man pretending to be a lodge owner in our area, so we set out to investigate. We ended up going down a rabbit hole of scams. The audacity of this serial scammer is mind boggling. We are placing only one or two of his scams (per week) in our newspapers. We already interviewed several of his victims. This serial scammer is also extremely dangerous and armed. He was recorded online, taking out his gun and threatening to shoot a man who confronted him about his scams. It almost plays out like a movie...

except it's not. It's real life and it's real people who lost real money. It is a pity, however, that only some of his victims have opened criminal cases against him. In some of the cases his scams appear to be nothing more than a power play... a need to impress the ladies... More and more victims are coming forward and Platinum Weekly aims to expose all of his scams in the weeks ahead. We hope to warn people about his modus operandi, so that they don't get caught up in his web of lies. Hopefully he will be brought to book soon so that his identity can be revealed.

To protect his victims, we will keep them anonymous. He operates all over the show. If some of these stories sound familiar to you, please let us know about it. Even if you were scammed a year or two ago, you can still report it at SAPS. We urge victims to go to their nearest police station to open a case. This dangerous man should be brought to book. If you missed part 5, you could read about it in Platinum Weekly's 6 May issue. Watch this space for part 7, where more of his scams will be exposed.

Maak die winter bietjie warmer

Rustenburg - G-Om het 20 jaar gelede onder 'n boom begin as 'n kleuterskool vir minderbevoorregte, voorskoolse kinders van verskeie areas regoor Rustenburg. Hulle doel is om kinders effektief te stimuleer sodat hulle skoolgereed is – selfs al kan hul ouers dit nie bekostig nie. Die skool is 'n geregistreerde nie-winsgewende organisasie en maak staat op vrywilligers en skenkings. Hulle het ook verskeie projekte waar hul 'n verskil in die gemeenskap maak. Met die temperatuur wat nou vinnig begin daal, voorspel hulle dat dié 'n koue winter gaan wees. Om seker te maak die kinders bly warm wil G-om toesien dat elke kind 'n kombers het die winter. Hul het ook 'n tekort aan wintersklere vir kinders van drie tot sewe jaar oud. Enige donasies van komberse en klere kan afgegee word by die G-Om kleuterskool, op die hoek van Kerk en Uniestraat. Vir meer inligting kontak Marieta Herbst op 063 705 0304.

Winning souls for Christ

Rustenburg –About 500 people turned up for an Easter Conference held at Jacob's Well Ministries on Sunday 17 April 2022. The church, which is led by pastor Karabo Tlhapi, was a hive of activity as people from all walks of life responded positively to the call to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Those who attended travelled from all over to Rankelenyane Village – which is about 30km from Rustenburg – to take part in the conference

Many congregants from the church's main branch in Sunrise Park also made the trip to attend. "The Conference was a resounding success," Goitseona Tlhapi, the wife of the pastor, told Platinum Weekly. The theme was "Winning souls at all costs" and we are happy that the sermons that were preached touched the hearts of many of the people who attended," she added. A march through the streets of Rankelenyane, which was accompanied by Diale Brass Band, was one of the highlights of the conference. "The goal of the Easter conference was to lead as many people to Jesus Christ as possible and we managed to achieve this. The large numbers that turned out were very encouraging," Tlhapi explained. Jacob's Well Ministries was founded in 2007 by pastor Ditshego Tlhowe. "Our church continues to grow from strength to strength," Tlhapi concluded.

The march was the highlight of the Easter Conference.

REPORT AN ACCIDENT

SA – Most people involved in an accident report the case to the police just for the case number so that they can claim from their insurance or even the Road Accident Fund. Some feel that if they don't have insurance, it's not necessary to report the accident. Platinum Weekly spoke to police spokesperson Captain Sam Tselanyane about the procedure when involved in an accident: "It is the responsibility and duty of every driver to report an accident in which a person was killed or injured immediately or at least within 24 hours after the occurrence and not to remove any vehicle until such removal is authorised by a police official," he said. Failing to do so would be contravening Section 61(1) (a-e) of the National Road Traffic Act, 1996 (Act No. 93 of 1996) Police spokesperson captain Elsabé Augoustides added: "Police attend accidents where there are serious injuries or people killed, as well as when a crime has been committed, for instance where reckless and negligent driving or drunken driving is suspected." Although emergency services often inform police of the accident if they arrive, and the police are not yet on the scene, it is still the responsibility of the drivers to ensure that the accident is reported.

Poll: Would you ever consider becoming a vegetarian?

Vegetarians don't eat meat. This lifestyle could be adopted for various reasons that include being against the slaughter of animals, religious reasons, health reasons or even just because they don't like meat.

No, I enjoy my meat. As long as the animal has not been killed in a cruel way, I will always eat the meat. I will not consider becoming a vegetarian.

Julliette Webster

No, because I cannot eat vegetables every single day. I know eating vegetables is healthy, but I really enjoy my meat and can't imagine life without it!

Setty Mutunha

No, I'll never become a vegetarian. I am very active, and I need the protein. More importantly, it's too much of a hassle to deal with a food limitation.

PSALM 15

The Character of Those Who May Dwell with the Lord - A Psalm of David.
15 Lord, who may abide in Your tabernacle? Who may dwell in Your holy hill? 2 He who walks uprightly, And works righteousness, And speaks the truth in his heart; 3 He who does not backbite with his tongue, Nor does evil to his neighbor, Nor does he take up a reproach against his friend; 4 In whose eyes a vile person is despised, But he honors those who fear the Lord; He who swears to his own hurt and does not change; 5 He who does not put out his money at usury, Nor does he take a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things shall never be moved.

An emerging force in women's rugby

Rustenburg – Impala Rugby Club are probably well known for the exploits of their men's team, given their history making achievement of winning the Gold Cup in 2019. However, the club's women team are proving they may not be too far off from reaching those same lofty standards. The Vixens may have only started playing in the women's rugby league this year but four of their players have a good reason to count themselves among the best players competing in the North West Province. The four – Sapokazi Mlatsha, Angelique Vierra, Abigail Maritz and Lyne Raats – have been included in the Leopards senior women rugby squad that will represent the North West in the upcoming national inter-provincial league matches. Vixens coach Trevor Vissier said competing against some of the country's best players in women's rugby was a huge milestone for the four players as well as the club. "This is the first time these players will be competing in the provincial team so we are also equally excited about this achievement," he said. "I only started coaching women's rugby recently and the idea is to make sure we develop the sport so that the Vixens become a very competitive team," he added. "This club used to have a vibrant women's rugby side and we have made it a priority to revive the sport," Vissier concluded.

Louwrens putts his way to victory

Rustenburg – Wico Louwrens proved his mettle by winning the 2022 Rustenburg Golf Club championships. He emerged tops after two days of action on 23 and 24 April. The showcase – held at Rustenburg Golf Club – attracted a total of 70 golfers who are all active members at the club. Louwrens was handed the trophy and a R1 500 Pro Shop voucher after his eye for the greens and excellent putting saw him emerging as the best golfer when the curtain came down on the two-day competition. Johan, Angela and Jonathan Krugel and David McBride also won silverware after excelling in the various categories that they took part in during the championships. "The Rustenburg Golf Club championships is a competition that is held annually to determine the most outstanding golfers among our members," club manager Ilse Marais said. "This year's competition was a resounding success because there was a good turnout and everyone who took part enjoyed themselves," Marais added. Marais revealed that Rustenburg Golf Club is now preparing to host the Senior Sunshine Tour from 15 – 17 September 2022. "We are expecting golfers to turn out in large numbers for the event because over the years, it has proved to be very popular. "It will be a family day event and we urge all interested community members to also come and be a part of the excitement during the three days," Marais said.

Wico Louwrens is the 2022 winner of the Rustenburg Golf Club championship.

Johan, Angela and Jonathan Krugel and David McBride also won silverware during the championships.

Young players learn about ball controlling skills.

GSG still scouting for football players

Tlhabane/Rustenburg – Gillash Sports Group (GSG) Football Academy is still on the lookout for players in the u/15 and u/19 age groups.

The academy is encouraging those interested in joining them to attend their training sessions in Tlhabane.

On Saturday 19 February the academy hosted trials at the Tlhabane sports grounds where young football enthusiasts who turned up had the rare opportunity of being coached by former Kaizer Chiefs and Bafana Bafana defender Jacob Tshisevhe.

GSG executive chairman Gilroy Tlou, who organised the trials, said while there had been an overwhelming response, the academy was still looking for more talent.

“We have many players in the u/11 and u/13 age groups. However, we are still looking for more players in the u/15 and u/19 age groups and are therefore urging those who fall within this age group to report for training,” Tlou explained.

He explained why, for now, the academy would not be involved in any competitive football matches against other teams.

“Football development is about making sure that the players are able to learn the basics, such as trapping the ball, passing and other aspects that help them to develop into good players.

“We have to make sure the players are well grounded in these basics first so we will continue coaching them until they excel and then consider playing them against other football teams,” Tlou said.

He said their approach is in line with their vision of producing players capable of competing in the professional ranks in South Africa and even beyond the borders of the country.

Said Tlou: “When you look at some of the current players we have playing in the premier soccer league, you will see that they use one foot only to pass and shoot and our intention is to change that.

“When you look at the top teams in Europe, for example, you will realise that most of their players are very versatile and can use both feet.

“This is the kind of modern approach we are bringing into football coaching because we want to help develop such players and it starts from when they are still very young.” He said both boys and girls are welcome to attend training.

For more information contact Gilroy Tlou on 060 804 9131.
