

THE HARSH REALITY OF DRUGS

Rustenburg – Drug addiction has reached epidemic proportions in our communities. Addiction is prevalent across our society, no matter your age, gender, race, or your social stand. Young kids can be exposed to it through family or friends. Even people in their 80s can become addicts. It can happen to anyone. Buying drugs in Rustenburg is easier than buying cigarettes at your local cafe. There are ten times more ‘spots’ to buy drugs than that there are corner cafés. It has become the norm for dealers and buyers to do their business publicly.

In a testimony shared with Platinum Weekly, an addict who has been in recovery for some time, says: “Ek het erg begin meth gebruik en slegs twee maande na ek uit die tronk ontslaan is, was ek op straat. Ek het op straat gebly en agter dwelms aangeloo, in asblikke gegrou, en gebedel vir dwelms.” He talked about how he reached rock bottom, having no respect for himself or anyone else, just living from one fix to the next.

Most people have no empathy for drug users because of their destructive behaviours. At the same time, addiction also puts the addict and his/her cravings at the centre of their own universe, not considering the effects of their actions on anyone else – also having no empathy.

HELP

It takes a person who refuse to give up hope and a person who is filled with empathy and a love for humanity. These are the characteristics of the people at Friends to Addicts.

Trying to help addicts to rehabilitate, takes a special kind of person. It takes someone who are willing to accept that the odds of rehabilitating a person from certain drugs are very low, and that even if they are rehabilitated, they might already have irreparably damaged their own lives or the lives of others.

A quick pet exchange: dogs STOLEN at SPCA receiving kennels

These two dogs were stolen from the Rustenburg SPCA's receiving kennels.

Rustenburg – Two dogs were stolen from the Rustenburg Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA)'s receiving kennels on Saturday 8 October 2022.

A good Samaritan picked up the two wondering dogs and took them to the SPCA's receiving kennels so that their owner will be able to easily find them. Once the owner started looking for her beloved pets, the Samaritan confirmed that he picked them up and took them to the Rustenburg SPCA.

That Monday, 10 October 2022, the owner went to the SPCA to collect her dogs, but the SPCA said they never received them. It is only when they checked the security camera footage that they realised the dogs were stolen.

A white BMW can be seen pulling up to the receiving kennels to drop off some cats. You can see them placing the cats in the one receiving kennel and then having what looks like a child, reach into the other receiving kennel to take out the two dogs. They can then be seen driving towards the highway.

Unfortunately, due to the reflection of a light on the number plate, the registration number of the vehicle cannot be confirmed.

"We have latches on the kennels to prevent people from taking animals out; but it seems like the person who last placed dogs in the kennel, didn't close the latch properly," said Rustenburg SPCA manager Marisa Kruger. She urged people who drop off animals at the receiving kennels to please make sure the doors are properly closed before they leave.

The Rustenburg SPCA is also sharpening up their security measures to ensure that this does not happen again.

Anyone with information can contact the Rustenburg SPCA office on 014 592 3181.

Alleged business robbers arrested and remanded in custody

Sandfontein/ Mogwase – Four men were arrested for allegedly robbing a business in Sandfontein near Mogwase on Tuesday 11 October 2022.

Once the suspects were cornered in Tsitsing by the Mogwase police, Flying Squad and the K9 unit, they gave chase.

"During the chase, the accused fired shots at the police. Fortunately no injuries were reported," Rustenburg police spokesperson Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi confirmed.

The four men were eventually surrounded (with the assistance of community members) as they tried fleeing on foot, and arrested. Suspected stolen groceries and cash believed to have been robbed from the business were found in their possession.

Willem Coetzee (42), James Moembo (34), Elvis Ntimbe (26) and Luckson Ntimbe (26) appeared before the Bafokeng Magistrates' Court in Tlhabane on Friday 14 October 2022 and again on 19 October 2022 for a formal bail application.

ATTORNEY'S THEFT CASE POSTPONED AGAIN

Rustenburg – The case in which an attorney is facing six charges of theft amounting to approximately R700,000 will now be heard by the Rustenburg Regional Court on Friday 4 November 2022. The case against Betty Diale (52) was postponed to 14 October because of her ill-health.

National Prosecution Authority (NPA) regional spokesperson Henry Mamothame said a warrant of arrest has been issued against Diale but will be withheld until the next court appearance.

"Failure to appear in court will result in the warrant of her arrest being actioned. The state was ready to proceed with the motion to set a pre-trial date in preparation for trial. The state did not, however, oppose the postponement, as the accused was not present in court," Mamothame said.

Diale allegedly stole the money from Road Accident Fund (RAF) claimants. It is alleged that Fidelity Funds, a body that oversees the conduct of attorneys, received several complaints from RAF claimants, whose payments were allegedly deposited into Diale's trust account. The claimants, who allege the money did not reach them following the pay out, reported the matter to the police for investigation.

Diale, a practicing attorney at the time, allegedly committed the crime from 2009 to 2011. She was charged with six counts of theft in June 2021.

CELLPHONE THIEF CAUGHT

Derby/ Redirile – The Derby Buurtwag and Derby Community Policing Forum responded to a scene where an alleged cellphone thief was caught by community members in Redirile on Monday 17 October 2022.

Outraged by the alleged theft, the community started assaulting the man before calling in the assistance of Derby Buurtwag. The quick reaction of the neighbourhood watches and police most likely saved the man's life.

The man tried to send them on a wild goose chase in search of the phones, but some of the stolen phones were eventually found in an empty house in Derby.

"It is clear that the whole community is fed up with the crime in the area," said Derby Buurtwag chairperson Peet Els.

Can an alcohol test be taken after two hours?

Rustenburg – In the case of Betrum Ernest Van der Bank v State (2021) ZAWCHC 262, the High Court, held that the "blood specimen must be taken anytime within two hours; after the alleged contravention."

On 4 May 2019 at 01h15, Mr Betrum Ernest van der Bank was apprehended by the traffic police. The evidence at the Magistrate Court by the traffic officer was that Mr van der Bank stopped his vehicle without being signalled. In addition to the above, the traffic officer testified that he arrested Mr van der Bank at 01h30. He took Mr van der Bank for a breathalyser test, but it was unsuccessful. He then decided to take him to a hospital for blood tests.

A doctor only drew blood at 03h29. There was no record of what happened between 01h15 and 01h30. Mr van der Bank applied for his discharge in terms of Section 174 of the Criminal Procedure Act 51 of 1977. His grounds for such an application were that the two-hour period lapsed as per Section 65 of the National Road Traffic Act and only started running at the time of the commission.

The Magistrate refused the application. The Magistrate found him guilty and held that the two-hour period as per Section 65(2)(a) and Section 65(3) started once a person had been arrested and not once a person had started driving the car.

Mr van der Bank appealed and contended that the two-hour period commences immediately once the engine stops running. The State argued that the two-hour period commences from the time of the arrest.

The High Court held that "the two hours should be calculated from the time the driver ceases to drive or when the engine stops running to when the medical practitioner inserts a needle and draws blood." The appeal was upheld, and the decision of the Magistrate Court was set aside.

Clients are advised to consume alcohol responsibly and to, as far as possible, arrange a designated driver who should not be consuming alcohol. Should you ever find yourself in a situation as in the above matter, it is advised to immediately contact your attorney for advice.

WHAT'S Cooking?

Naudine Joubert

Royal icing cookies made for a baby shower

Royal icing cookies

Rustenburg – Naudine Joubert is 15 years old and loves art and baking. She decided to combine the two. Although she doesn't make these professionally, she taught herself how to make these royal icing cookies to give as gifts. "There is just something about a nice, personalised gift, and what makes this even better – it's delicious!" said Naudine.

Ingredients for the cookies:

- 400g butter
- 400g sugar
- 900g cake flour
- 4 eggs beaten
- 10ml vanilla essence

Ingredients for the icing:

1. 3 cups powdered sugar (icing sugar)
2. 2 egg whites (room temperature)
3. ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar
4. 1 teaspoon vanilla essence
5. water (if you want the icing to be runnier)

Instructions for the cookies:

1. Cream the butter and sugar.
2. Add beaten eggs and then add the vanilla.
3. Mix in the flour until it makes a stiff dough (add a little bit of flour, if necessary, until dough is nice and stiff).
4. Roll out the dough and press out shapes of your choice.
5. Bake at 200°C for 10 minutes.

Instructions for the icing

1. Add your powdered sugar, cream of tartar and egg together and mix on a low setting for about 30 seconds.
2. Add the vanilla, and then turn your mixer on a high setting and beat for a minute.
3. At this point the icing is sort of sticky glue. Add a bit of water to thin it out and then mix for another 3 minutes.
4. If you want to colour your icing, use gel-food colour.
5. Now you can pipe out the icing and decorate the cookies!

If you want your recipe featured in the Platinum Weekly newspaper (free of charge), contact Danika Minnaar at 081 579 7000 or email editorial@platinumweekly.co.za.

A post office (PO) Box or Private Bag is a numbered box located at the Post Office or PostNet where your mail is kept until you collect it. Door to door deliveries and emails have changed the way we receive parcels and post, making it more convenient.

Yes, I have a PO Box that I use as reference whenever I complete certain forms. However, I do not use the PO Box for any other purpose anymore. I use email.

Mariette Viljoen

Yes, I have a PO Box. The reason I prefer PO Box is because I don't like people coming to my home, especially people I don't know. For me, safety comes first so I would rather go to the post office and collect my mail.

PSALM 93

The Eternal Reign of the Lord

93 The Lord reigns, He is clothed with majesty;

The Lord is clothed,
He has girded Himself with strength.
Surely the world is established, so that it cannot be moved.

2 Your throne is established from of old;
You are from everlasting.

3 The floods have lifted up, O Lord,
The floods have lifted up their voice;
The floods lift up their waves.
4 The Lord on high is mightier
Than the noise of many waters,
Than the mighty waves of the sea.

5 Your testimonies are very sure;
Holiness
adorns Your house,
O Lord, forever.

Ladybugs defend themselves from predators by releasing a foul-smelling chemical from their 'knees'.

This yellow liquid is called hemolymph (the insect equivalent of blood) and is released from their leg joints.

Rustenburg – Drug addiction has reached epidemic proportions in our communities. Addiction is prevalent across our society, no matter your age, gender, race, or your social stand. Young kids can be exposed to it through family or friends. Even people in their 80s can become addicts. It can happen to anyone. Buying drugs in Rustenburg is easier than buying cigarettes at your local cafe. There are ten times more ‘spots’ to buy drugs than that there are corner cafés. It has become the norm for dealers and buyers to do their business publicly. In a testimony shared with Platinum Weekly, an addict who has been in recovery for some time, says: “Ek het erg begin meth gebruik en slegs twee maande na ek uit die tronk ontslaan is, was ek op straat. Ek het op straat gebly en agter dwelms aangeloop, in asblikke gegrou, en gebedel vir dwelms.” He talked about how he reached rock bottom, having no respect for himself or anyone else, just living from one fix to the next. Most people have no empathy for drug users because of their destructive behaviours. At the same time, addiction also puts the addict and his/her cravings at the centre of their own universe, not considering the effects of their actions on anyone else – also having no empathy.

HELP Trying to help addicts to rehabilitate, takes a special kind of person. It takes someone who are willing to accept that the odds of rehabilitating a person from certain drugs are very low, and that even if they are rehabilitated, they might already have irreparably damaged their own lives or the lives of others. It takes a person who refuse to give up hope and a person who is filled with empathy and a love for humanity. These are the characteristics of the people at Friends to Addicts. Friends to Addicts offers support to addicts, without being judgemental. Speaking to Platinum Weekly, Friends to Addicts founder Ernest Pienaar says: “Drugs is a major problem in Rustenburg. It goes hand in hand with all the petty crimes we experience. Most break-ins and stealing of gate motors, can be linked to addicts trying to get money for their next fix”. According to Pienaar, meth and heroin are currently the most popular drugs in Rustenburg. Pienaar shared valuable insights about the lives of drug users.

BEFORE IT IS TOO LATE... Many successful people who see themselves as functioning addicts don’t realise how bad their addiction is before it is too late. “The moment your mood starts changing because you can’t satisfy your craving and you will do whatever it takes to get it, you are addicted. No matter what your vices are, you need to be honest with yourself. How much control does it have over you, and what will you do to get it?” Friends to Addicts councillor Markus Wehmeyer asked. There are many behaviours and roads leading to drug addiction. It could have been a long week, and you just needed to relax. An important deadline is coming up and you just need that extra push. At a point in time, you start planning your weekends around using, and before you know it, you need drugs just to get you through the day. There is no such thing as a casual drug user, it will escalate. At first, drugs welcome you; it takes you in and makes you forget about all your troubles. It gives you the energy when you need it, or makes you calm when you feel overwhelmed. The problem is that every time you take it, it chips away a little bit of your person. Every time you use, you need a little more to fill the void. This cycle continues until all you can think about is how you can get your next fix... lie, steal, manipulate and hurt the ones that you love.

THE RISK Drug dealers are businessmen too, and they have no problem adding other substances to their products to dilute the drugs so that they can have more to sell and in turn make more money. A new trend is to mix horse tranquilisers with other drugs. Even a small dose can be fatal. “When you’re a drug addict, you are living on borrowed time. You can never be sure what you are using, and the next hit might be the one that kills you,” Wehmeyer said.

EASILY AVAILABLE Obtaining drugs is easy if you know where to look. Dealers are not always these dodgy dudes, in a scary part of town living in a worn-down house. It can be the successful man, living on the hill driving the BMW or just your friendly neighbourhood tuck shop. When you know where to look, buying drugs is as easy as buying bread. The dealers also know their clientele and they can spot them. They even deliver if you are standing in the right parking lot at the right time.

Extracts of a testimony “Ek is 41 jaar oud en hier is my getuienis van wat Jesus Christus gedoen het in my lewe. Ek het ‘n baie rowwe lewe gehad as jong kind; ek is mishandel, sleg gesê en gevloek. Ek is ook op skool baie geboelie. Na aanleiding hiervan het ek begin vrede en geluk soek om die gevoel van mislukking weg te vat. Ek het op ‘n jong ouderdom van 13 begin rook en drink. Toe ek 15 was het ek begin eksperimenteer met dwelms deur dagga te begin rook. Ek was maar 21 en het opgehou werk en met harder dwelms begin eksperimenteer soos rocks en kokaïne. Ek het begin steel, by huise ingebreek en mense geroof. Teen die ouderdom van 24 was daar 36 sake teen my aanhangig gemaak en ek is gevang, en vir 12 jaar gevonniss. Ek het vir vyf jaar baie naby aan die Here gebly. Ek het baie gevas en gebid. Die dag toe hulle my uit die tronk uit ontslaan het was ek 36 jaar oud en toe gryp die lewe my. Ek het begin erg meth gebruik en slegs twee maande na ek uit die tronk ontslaan is, was ek op straat. Ek het op straat gebly en agter dwelms aangeloop, in asblikke gegrou, en gebedel vir dwelms. Ek het begin meth inspuit, Nyaope begin gebruik en selfs heroïne begin gebruik. Ek is verlos van die dwelms en ek is verlos van baie dinge wat my gepla het uit my kinderdade. Dit is ‘n belofte wat ek elke dag op nuut moet maak, ek moet elke dag opnuut my hart vir die Here gee. Addict

THE LONG AND BUMPY ROAD Quitting drugs is not that easy. Pienaar added: “It is sad that most users will only seek help once they hit rock bottom. People sometimes have to lose a friend to an overdose before they decide to get help.” Friends to Addicts has already taken people off the streets, and gave them a place to sleep and support to get clean. Unfortunately, if the addict does not fully commit to this step, it is unsuccessful. They would just disappear. They have already found that some of them have died from an overdose a few weeks later. “The best thing you can do for an addict is to stop enabling them. As long as they have a way to get drugs they will continue to use. They are master manipulators to get what they need,” Wehmeyer added. Friends to Addicts try to give recovering addicts the support they need. Pienaar said: “We have all been where they are, but by the Grace of God we were saved. This is why I started Friends to Addicts, to give support to those who want to get clean.” Drugs pulls lives apart; it pulls families apart and it kills. Often people feel that it’s just easier to give up on an addict rather than continue being hurt by them. If you are in this situation, where you have a friend or family member who is firm in the grip of addiction, contact Friends to Addicts. Because of their experience, it is often easier for them to reach addicts and help them get on the right track. They sometimes come across addicts who try to spin them a story or two. “I’ve been clean for four days already, I don’t need help,” is a story they often hear. Luckily, they can see through it and know how to handle it. Friends to Addicts aims to be a place where people can come and talk openly without being judged. To have a friend that you can call at 23h00 when things are tough. They help addicts by giving them advice and support on the road to recovery through individual counselling as well as support groups for recovering addicts. Due to financial reasons, going to a rehabilitation facility is not always possible for most addicts, but Friends to Addicts is working hand in hand with a lot of rehabs to see how they can assist. The community can get involved by sponsoring an addict to go to rehab. You can also help by donating clothes. Often people come from a rehab with only the clothes on their back and it’s very difficult to make a fresh start if you don’t even own a decent pair of clothes. Any unwanted items that can help them get back on their feet is also welcome. No matter your reasons, no matter your circumstances, no matter what you did – you are not alone and there is help.

Recovering addicts are welcome to join them for support group meetings at 196A Joubert Street, Rustenburg. The English meetings take place on Tuesdays at 18h00 and the Afrikaans meetings on Wednesdays at 18h00. For more information contact Pienaar on 082 421 8480.

According to Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital (JST) senior communications officer Kagiso Mbaiwa, the hospital attends to [on average] 12 patients with substance abuse psychosis and 23 patients are admitted to their mental health ward with substance related issues every month. “Predominantly, patients that come through the institution display excessive use of nyaope and marijuana and on rare occasions they display an overdose of tik,” Mbaiwa said. “About 70% of the patients admitted to our Mental Health ward is substance related.” He added that in most cases, patients come to the hospital displaying symptoms of assault triggered by attempts to steal from members of the community in order to buy nyaope. JST’s core function when it comes to substance abuse is centred around curative measures and there are systems in place to educate the affected parties on issues like the dangers of drugs and how to live with a recovering drug addict. They also assist with access to rehabilitation and referral services.

Another testimony I am 37 years old and grew up in a privileged background where I was able to go and study after school. I was a very quiet and an introverted child. At the age of 22 or 23, I began abusing over-the-counter medication and this continued for more than 10 years. During my studies, I used the medication to subdue my anxiety or to hide myself from the world. It caused havoc – I lost job after job, and I had a very bad track record. At the age of 31 I went to a recovery centre, and it is still an ongoing process. At the moment I am seven months clean. What I learned from recovery is that addiction is such a selfish illness and that the only way to overcome it, is to completely give over to God and to obey his command of loving others and putting others first to live a selfless life. I don’t earn as much money as I used to, and I am not in the employment field that I used to be. However, since my recovery, not a day goes by in which I am not richly blessed. The life that I tried to hide away from, I am now able to confront and although it’s not always easy, I am able to enjoy the life that I live. Addict

Stokvel Expo a raving success!

It was the perfect setting for Three Star Cash & Carry suppliers and clients to network.

Rustenburg – Three Star Cash & Carry hosted a Stokvel Expo at Oom Paul School's rugby field on Saturday 15 October 2022 and thousands attended! Originally, a stokvel is an invitation-only club where the members contribute a fixed amount of money every week, month or on pre-determined dates. At an allocated time, the money is then handed to one of the members, on a rotational basis. But typically, most stokvels are clubs where members give money monthly, from January to December, they buy in bulk, sometimes invest and share proceeds - usually in December. Catering for stokvel clubs, Three Star Cash & Carry hosted the expo to showcase their bulk-products, which will specifically be on massive discount in December. More than 4,000 stokvel club members were invited – and the excitement could already be felt in the queue as people were waiting to get in.

"We love buying at Three Star because when we buy in bulk, we get a lot more value for money," Gatsi Stokvel member Rosemary Gatsi said. The stokvel party was an opportunity for Threes Star Cash & Carry's stokvel clients to meet their suppliers and get to know the products that will be on offer when they start their shopping. It was great fun, with a few surprises, and competitions with big prizes!

Odendaal in Top 10!

Rustenburg – Starting a cycling race a good 15 minutes after the other competitors did not deter a Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) member from achieving a top 10 finish! The RCC is very proud of Charl Odendaal for his performance during the Mini Munga in Muldersdrift on Saturday 15 October 2022. The determined cyclist finished a commendable 8th overall despite having started the race later than the rest of the competitors. He showed his determination and endurance in the tough race.

Top scorer's race heats up

SA – The race to win the Premier Soccer League (PSL) top scorer award is likely to go to the wire if the current statistics can be anything to go by. After a couple of matches, it looked as if Mamelodi Sundowns' striker Peter Shalulile was on his way to winning the award for a second consecutive time in as many seasons after he shot to the top of the scoring charts. However, other players – particularly Kaizer Chiefs' Bonfils Bimenyimana and Bradley Grobler from SuperSport United – are now among the serious contenders to win the accolade. As of Tuesday 18 October 2022, Bimenyimana was joint top scorer with Shalulile. Both strikers had six goals to their name while Grober was on five. We are not even halfway through the PSL league fixtures, and the league's top strikers are banging in the goals! Goals win matches and make soccer fans happy, and it remains to be seen if these three strikers – or others following close behind them – have the capability to outscore the rest.

SuperSport United striker Bradley Grobler

Hats off to Rustenburg Ladies!

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Ladies Football Club members finished second in stream B of the North West Sasol Women's League. A 2-0 win over RM Diamond Ladies in their final match of the season secured them a second position on the Sasol Women's League overall log standings. It was an impressive performance throughout the season by Rustenburg Ladies, who won nine of their 12 matches and managed to collect a total of 27 points.

They finished seven points behind league winners North West University (NWU) Tawana Football Club. That they only lost three games demonstrates the strength of their defence, which was only rivalled by Royal Queens and NWU Tawana. The Rustenburg Ladies strikers proved lethal – banging in a total of 36 goals (a record they share with NWU Tawana for the highest number of goals scored for a single team).
