STOCK THEFT THIEVES BUSTED ON THE N4

Rustenburg/ Zeerust – Four suspects briefly appeared before the Zeerust Magistrates' Court on Monday 9 January 2023 on charges of stock theft and the possession of suspected stolen stock.

"The accused, Boikano Kamoli (26), Peter Katlego Mogotsi (19), Bradley Diketso Nonyana (28), and Agostinho Rafael Savela (33), were arrested on Friday 6 January 2023 at around 10h00 on the N4," said captain Sam Tselanyane. They were travelling in two Ford Ranger bakkies, one towing a trailer loaded with eight cattle, when they were pulled over by traffic officers along the N4 between Zeerust and Rustenburg. Upon inspection, the traffic officers called for police assistance. Said Tselanyane: "The suspects could not give a satisfactory account of the livestock and it was also noticed that the brandmarks of the cattle have been tampered with. Preliminary investigations led the police to Sempe Cattle Post near Dinokana where it was discovered that one of the suspects was a shepherd at the cattle post. The livestock owners were traced, and all eight cattle were identified by their owner, valued at R100,000."

Two of the suspects, Kamoli (from Lesotho) and Savela (from Mozambique), also face charges of contravening the Immigration Act no 13 of 2002, Section 49(1).

All four suspects were remanded in custody. Their next court appearance will take place on 12 January for formal bail application.

Robbers take on traffic cop

Rustenburg – A traffic police officer from the Rustenburg Department of Public Safety was robbed of his gun inside a stationery shop by three men.

The three robbers then fired two shots before they fled the scene.

The incident occurred at the Pen and Ink shop at the Rustenburg Square on Tuesday 10 January 2023 at around 17:30.

An eyewitness told Platinum Weekly that the traffic police officer and his son had entered the shop with the intention of buying school stationery, whereafter the three robbers entered the shop.

“One of the robbers pushed the man (traffic officer) and he fell near some boxes. The other two robbers then took his gun while he was on the floor. The man’s son tried to prevent the attack, but the robbers pushed him away,” the eyewitness said, “they fired two shots and left. The man’s son sustained some bruises on his arm, but nobody was seriously injured. The robbers fled the scene in a black Toyota Corolla.”

Police spokesperson sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi said a case of robbery is currently under investigation, and that no arrests have been made yet.

Anyone with information that could help the police investigation is requested to contact detective sergeant Mbulelo Wittes at 082 775 5563.

HIJACKERS HIT A DEAD END

Rustenburg – Three men who police believe are linked to a series of recent truck hijackings will appear before the Bafokeng Magistrates’ Court for a second time on Friday 13 January 2023.

Anthony Malgase (35), Timmy Mosime (28) and Cassius Sekhule (34), who are all facing charges of truck hijacking and possession of an unlicensed firearm and ammunition, were arrested in Lethabong on Wednesday 4 January 2023.

The trio was nabbed after a tip-off led police to the Volkswagen Polo they were travelling in. The VW fitted the description of the car used in a truck hijacking on Wednesday 28 December 2022.

“The vehicle was spotted, intercepted, and searched by the police. Upon searching the vehicle, a 9 mm pistol, ammunition, hand gloves, a knife and masks were found hidden inside,” said police spokesperson Ofentse Mokgadi.

“The trio were then immediately and extensively interviewed by the police and thereafter were positively linked to several delivery truck hijackings around Lethabong, Boitekong, Mogwase, Phokeng, and Rustenburg,” added Mokgadi.

Acting Bojanala Platinum sub-district 2 commissioner, brigadier Mamotsamai Ntoagae applauded the police for their swift response during the arrest and thanked the community for the tip-off.

Rustenburg house rentals go through the roof!

Rustenburg – The demand for rental homes in Rustenburg and surrounds has skyrocketed over the past year. The shortage of housing and rise in demand resulted in a considerable increase in rent and houses for rent being snapped up as soon as they become available. Platinum Weekly took a closer look at the factors that got the local property market into the situation it is today and how it affects members of our communities.

People who are desperate to keep a roof over their heads, had to reshuffle their budgets to be able to afford the price hike. A one-bedroom flat on the outskirts of Rustenburg can easily go for R5,000.

Harcourts Rustenburg Rentals principal Pam Smit said that they started experiencing a shortage of rental houses in March 2022. “Most people are opting to buy houses lately - rather than rent,” said Pam. The favourably low prices of houses boosted the buyers’ market.

Pam added that the surge in rental costs could also be caused by landlords who decided to make up for what they lost during Covid-19 during which there were no rental cost increases. However, landlords cashing in on the housing shortage seems to be the main reason.

Adding to the crisis, Impala Platinum Mine recently terminated the rentals (in a legally and orderly fashion) of 96 families who were renting some of their houses privately. These notices went out in November 2022 and tenants were given a 60-day notice period to find alternative accommodation.

or have gravel roads that make access difficult.” Another tenant who has been staying in an Impala house for the last 13 years added that many desperate people are also now targeted by scammers. “The scammers know that people are desperate, so they tell people that there is a lot of interest in the house and if they want to secure the place, they have to pay a deposit... A deposit which then disappears along with the so-called landlord.”

As the end of January draws closer, both tenants are yet to find a new house to rent.

Many who are not affected by the Impala eviction notices but are also in the market for a new home to rent are facing the same challenges. When something becomes available, they have to jump regardless of the state of the house. Most of the houses aren’t animal friendly and tenants have animals which they don’t want to part with. Many families are stuck between a rock and a hard place as there are landlords who don’t allow children—three bedrooms or not!

A landlord who owns several properties in the Rustenburg area said that within 30 minutes of placing a listing on social media, she had 18 requests from people who want to view the house. Over the years she has become very strict with whom she rents to and what she allows. “It’s not that we have something against animals, but there are a lot of problems that come with tenants who have animals,” she said.

In many cases, it’s also not always the landlord that doesn’t allow the animals or children but rather a decision that was made by a body corporate of a complex. They have to take all their tenants into consideration and children playing in the streets or dogs barking can be disruptive to some residents. In other cases, the property might not be fenced off, it might be paved, or the garden might be too small, so keeping a dog on the property is not viable.

Every coin has two sides, but those who need to rent a house in Rustenburg will have to scrape together every penny, downsize drastically or take up a property far from town.

“Impala operates with more than 10,000 housing units. We always avail houses that are not immediately needed by the mine to the rental market and annually review and adjust our rental numbers purely based on the evolving needs of our employees. We do this by either releasing more houses or by bringing some back from the rental market. All rentals are done on standard terms with clear contractual obligations concerning duration, rental consideration, rights, and obligations. These terms are contractually agreed upon by both parties which then forms the basis on which all future interactions are based and are aligned with due legal prescripts,” said Implats group executive of corporate affairs Johan, “But to the extent that anyone believes we have not followed the due legal process, they are welcome to contact the Implats housing department for assistance.”

In an interview with Platinum Weekly, a tenant who has been renting a house owned by Impala voiced the challenges that they are currently facing. “The available houses are either in a bad area or too expensive. Some of the houses available are too far out of town resulting in an increase in travel expenses

YOUR FRIDAY
FUN FACT

Did you know?

Lots of things happened that day... just like any other... But a computer search program determined that 11 April 1954 was the most boring day in history. This program could calculate the number of important events that occurred all over the world simultaneously and statistics indicated that there were no significant occurrences that took place in the world on this day.

Greater Rustenburg Fire
Protection Association 2023 AGM

Rustenburg – The Greater Rustenburg Fire Protection Association (GRFPA) will host its annual general meeting at Brauhaus Afrika on Saturday 18 February 2023 at 10:00. If you own or rent rural property in the Rustenburg area, you are living in an area of extreme fire risk and your chances of experiencing a wildfire are very high.

Maybe you have already experienced this, if so, those who came to assist you were probably volunteers from the GRFPA. No GRFPA members are paid to fight fires, they do this voluntarily, mostly with their own equipment and time and at their own risk.

Not everyone can fight fires, but there are many ways to help! Join the GRFPA! It only costs R300 per year and helps to put equipment in the hands of the volunteers. Become fire conscious, "preach" fire danger and prevention to those around you and invite your neighbours to attend the AGM.

The AGM will offer a forum where attendees will be informed about the association, and have their say on the management thereof, vote for the fees and the executive, and to meet those who serve our communities by preventing, protecting, and preparing for wildfires.

For more information contact chairperson Debbie Snyman at 083 308 0543, vice-chairperson Herman Behrens at 083 577 9377, or secretary Ruth Dawson at 083 655 0651. Email: grfpa.fire@gmail.com, website: https://www.grfpa.org/, Facebook: https://www.facebook.com/GRFPA/

SOULFOOD

PSALM 124

The Lord the Defense of His People
A Song of Ascents. Of David.

124 "If it had not been the Lord who was on our side," Let Israel now say—

2 "If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, When men rose up against us,

3 Then they would have swallowed us alive, When their wrath was kindled against us;

4 Then the waters would have overwhelmed us, The stream would have [a]gone over our soul;

5 Then the swollen waters Would have gone over our soul."

6 Blessed be the Lord, Who has not given us as prey to their teeth.

7 Our soul has escaped as a bird from the snare of the fowlers; The snare is broken, and we have escaped.

8 Our help is in the name of the Lord, Who made heaven and earth.

118 new constables received a warm welcome to the Bojanala Platinum sub-district 2.

Welcome new constables!

Rustenburg – On Tuesday 3 January 2023 the Bojanala Platinum sub-district 2 acting district commissioner, brigadier Mamotsamai Ntoagae, flanked by brigadier Pheto, senior managers within the district – and station commanders amongst others – welcomed 118 new constables placed within the district at a well-attended parade which was held at Rustenburg Civic Centre. The programme was directed by Swaruggens station commander lieutenant colonel Mfulwane while the scripture was read by warrant officer Lekwene. Brigadier Pheto proceeded to welcome the attendees and warned them to refrain from being involved in tribalism and politics while colonel Erasmus and both South African Policing Union (SAPU) and Police and Prisons Civil Rights Union (POPCRU) representatives offered messages of support, encouragement, and guidance. In her keynote address, brigadier Ntoagae expressed her excitement to see such a high number of new and energetic constables placed within the district. She further reiterated the minister of police's words that they should never hesitate to uphold and enforce the law and to always be guided by the SAPS's code of conduct and ethics including its vision, mission, values, and diversity. In conclusion, brigadier Ntoagae warned the new members to guard against corruption and never allow themselves to be involved in such because SAPS has no place for that behaviour or conduct. A vote of thanks was rendered by the Phokeng station commander colonel Moagi who subsequently requested station commanders to introduce themselves to the new members on parade. The constables, accompanied by station commanders and their mentors, were then put to the test by the district commissioner to conduct stop and searches within the Rustenburg CBD, and they didn't disappoint as their presence was heavily felt and couldn't go unnoticed.

Help to get AB back home

Rustenburg/ Buffelspoort – The Pienaar family is devastated after their beloved dog AB managed to jump out of their bakkie while they were travelling on the N4 on Saturday 7 January 2023. Despite their best efforts to secure the canopy window from opening, AB somehow managed to escape and ran off. The incident happened just past the Marikana turn-off before you reach Buffelspoort. AB is a five-year-old brown Rhodesian ridgeback.

He weighs approximately 45 kg, has a mole on his left front leg and is very friendly. His family misses him a lot and his chair at home is empty. Anyone with information regarding his whereabouts should please contact Susan Pienaar at 082 940 4908 or Naas Pienaar at 082 923 5396. There is a reward for his safe return.

40 new SMMEs progress through Impala Rustenburg's 12-month Enterprise & Supplier Development programme

Rustenburg – Impala Rustenburg is celebrating the intake of another 40 mine-community SMMEs, who have embarked on a 12-month development journey. This intensive, year-long Enterprise and Supplier Development programme is funded by Impala Rustenburg and aims to equip SMMEs in the mine communities with the skills and tools to grow their businesses and realise their potential. Impala Rustenburg CE Mark Munroe says, "Entrepreneurs are the future of our country. With unemployment continuing to rise, entrepreneurship is one of the most sustainable ways for young people to create jobs – not just for themselves but for others in our communities. According to Global Entrepreneurship Monitor, the youth in South Africa have the highest levels of perceived entrepreneurial competence across four indicators – self-efficacy, opportunity alertness, risk-willingness, and access to a role model. It is incumbent on corporate South Africa to be that role model and to nurture entrepreneurial competence." Impala Rustenburg's Enterprise and Supplier Development Programme forms part of the company's socio-economic development plan, which assists mine-community SMME owners to formalise their businesses. Since November 2019, more than 400 SMMEs have benefitted from Impala Rustenburg's Enterprise and Supplier Development initiatives. These include a five-day workshop, where a significant number of SMMEs are given important information to help them develop their businesses, after which candidates are selected and invited to attend the 12-month training programme to further develop their business skills. Earlier this year, mine-community SMMEs began their 12-month training programme through Classic Oriental Consultancy and Accuracy Group. During the programme, business owners receive training in the fundamentals of entrepreneurship, compliance and governance, as well as financial management and marketing. Impala Rustenburg's support of the local business community expanded in 2022 to include the development of an Economic Inclusion Centre, which now provides SMMEs with a range of business facilities, services and an information hub from which to access valuable insights to assist them in making their businesses more profitable. Munroe concludes, "Corporate South Africa has a duty and a responsibility to ensure that small business owners – particularly the youth – have the resources to be successful, to grow their businesses, to become employers, and to contribute to the growth of the economy. At Impala Rustenburg, we take this responsibility to heart, and we are deeply invested in our programmes that assist SMMEs to grow into sustainable enterprises." Impala Rustenburg press release extracts

A beacon of fear

[Letter to the editor]

Rustenburg – I met the new year with mixed emotions and some disappointed thoughts regarding human nature. After all, are we not supposed to be beings who feel empathy? Why then is it so easy for some of us to blatantly disregard the pain we inflict on other lives? For a couple of minutes of fun, some shoot fireworks to welcome the new year. But what signifies a beacon of celebration to some, becomes a beacon of fear to others. Many of my neighbours and friends got into argumentative situations on New Year's Eve with people who caused chaos with their fireworks. Panicked animals escaped their yards (with some still missing) and other animals injured themselves in their attempt to get away from the threatening sounds of fireworks. I believe that every person is familiar with the pain of anxiety that comes with a knotted stomach—why then would you do it to another? It is no secret that our SPCA is underfunded, yet some people overlook this fact and add to the strain—probably the same people who wouldn't bat an eyelid to seek the SPCA's help. Additionally, fireworks probably don't come cheap. So, while money is wasted on a thrill—that could have gone to an empty stomach—other residents are forced to be on alert for the safety of their pets. As a pet owner, I can tell you that the most effective calming medication for pets comes at a pretty penny. I'd hate to think how many animals are still wandering the streets because of the selfishness of others. The Lord gave us stewardship of the Earth, meaning that we are responsible for the care and wellbeing of all other living things—recognising that they too belong to God. Sadly, many still fall short of this God-given responsibility. If you are still missing a pet, please contact the Rustenburg SPCA at 014 592 3181, or visit the Facebook page, 'Rustenburg diere verlore en gevind.' #DisappointedSteward
