

Clamping down on the illegal sale of alcohol

Rustenburg - The Rustenburg police crime prevention, public order police, and the Phokeng K9 unit conducted a tactical operation and raided shebeens operating in Waterkloof and Sonderwater on Friday 5 May 2023.

Three Shebeens were identified and raided whereby large quantities of different alcohol beverages valued over R60,000 were confiscated and fines were issued to the owners.

The acting Rustenburg station commander brigadier Joel Pheto warned shebeen owners across Rustenburg that this was only the beginning as more operations are to follow. He further urged the owners to apply for licenses.

‘Show us the money!’

Police had to intervene to stop a confrontation between the workers and the owners of the security company.

Rustenburg – Workers of a security company in Rustenburg staged a protest outside their employer's offices along Beyers Naude Drive on Wednesday 10 May 2023.

The angry workers, who blocked the road and burnt tree branches while chanting slogans, disturbed the flow of traffic along the busy road.

“We have not been paid on time since January. Sometimes our salaries only come on the 15th of the month,” said one angry worker.

A senior employee of the security company told Platinum Weekly that money owed to the employees would be paid “within the next 48 hours.”

Police, who were called to intervene, restored clam, and the order of the flow of traffic.

The VW Polo allegedly used by the suspects was also spotted robbing a delivery vehicle at Medicross Clinic.

Two delivery vehicles robbed

A delivery vehicle was robbed at Engen Rudan 1 Stop garage.

Rustenburg – Drivers of a delivery truck were robbed of their money after stopping at the Engen Rudan 1 Stop garage on Tuesday 9 May 2023.

The incident occurred at around 09:42 in the morning, according to the manager of the garage.

"The truck drove in and then the VW Polo also arrived and parked in front of the truck," the manager explained to Platinum Weekly.

"Three people got out of the Polo and pushed the drivers out and robbed them of their money. They were all wearing balaclavas," he added. "I am not sure what the drivers were delivering but they had empty bottles of cooldrink at the back of their vehicle. The robbery incident happened very quickly," he explained. The incident has been reported to the police.

Police spokesperson sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi said the white VW Polo was also spotted on the same day at Medicross Clinic, at the corner of President Mbeki Drive and Von Weillig Street, during a robbery of another delivery vehicle driver. "According to the victim, she was delivering medication packages to the hospital when three armed suspects approached her," Mokgadi said.

"It is further alleged that the suspects, who were all wearing masks and gloves, ransacked the delivery truck, and then realised that the items were mostly medication," he added, "The suspects took one package which they thought was not medication, and fled the scene. The suspects were travelling in a white VW Polo, registration: KRX 631 NW," Mokgadi explained. Police are also investigating a case of armed robbery.

Together in the fight against crime

Rustenburg - In March of this year, an Audi belonging to a Garsfontein resident was stolen while the owner was out of the country. Fortunately, the car was recovered with the help of vigilant citizens, neighbourhood watch members, and law enforcement in Rustenburg on Friday 5 May 2023. The car was discovered missing by a neighbour who was watering her plants. The stolen vehicle was caught on camera on the highway heading towards Rustenburg. The alarm was raised, and messages were sent out to security groups in the area. A citizen who saw the car and two suspicious individuals in Zending Street called in the tip-off. Several patrol groups responded and kept a lookout until the police arrived. The suspects, Johannes Jonker and Sumarie Stevens, were taken into custody, and the car was recovered by the police. Rustenburg police spokesperson, Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, confirmed the incident and the arrest of the suspects. Both individuals appeared before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on 8 May, where their case was transferred to Pretoria for a burglary charge.

This incident highlights the importance of the community's involvement in preventing and solving crimes. When citizens and law enforcement work together, they can make a significant difference in ensuring the safety and security of their neighbourhoods.

Heard it through the grapevine

Rustenburg – Are the fake police at it again? Word has it that drivers in a white golf with blue lights tried to pull over a motorist travelling on the N4 on Friday 5 May 2023.

According to social media reports, the motorist was a bit suspicious as the vehicle had no signs (other than the blue lights) which indicated that it was indeed a real police vehicle. Instead of pulling over, the motorist turned on his car’s hazards and slowed down. The vehicle followed him for about 5km before making a U-turn. Police however didn’t receive any reports about the incident. So, bogus police or bogus story, rather be safe than sorry.

Two arrested for possession of unbranded cattle

Koster – Two men were arrested along the R53 Road to Koster on Friday 5 May 2023 for transporting livestock without documentation. Ofentse Ignatius Mphomane and Motlogelwa Jairous Matlapeng appeared before the Koster Magistrates’ Court on 8 May and were each granted R5,000 bail. Said police spokesperson sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi: “Police who were on patrol at the time received information of a suspicious Toyota Quantum travelling along the R53 from Swartruggens towards Koster, which was towing a trailer loaded with livestock. When police stopped the vehicle, nine unbranded live cattle were discovered, and the suspects could not provide any documentation of ownership.” Further investigations by police revealed that the two suspects had bought the cattle for R40,000 from a farmworker, without the rightful owner’s knowledge. The cattle are worth approximately R100,000. “The owner of the cattle, who is a farmer, was traced by the police and summoned to the station to identify his livestock. He was also charged for not branding his cattle,” Mokgadi said. The two suspects are expected to appear again before the court on 15 June 2023. Police, who are carrying out further investigations, are yet to locate the whereabouts of the farmworker.

The accident occurred on Wednesday 10 May 2023 at approximately 06:20 in the morning. Swartruggens – Two men were arrested on Friday 5 May 2023 on charges of housebreaking, theft, and unlawful possession of firearms. Martin Nyakula (40) and Charles Makgatho (46) were allegedly involved in a burglary at a farm in Swartruggens on the same date of their arrest. The duo allegedly broke into a house on a farm and stole a safe which contained rifles, a 9mm Glock firearm with ammunition, three plasma televisions, cameras, and a motorbike. Nyakula was arrested in Sunrise Park following an intelligence driven operation conducted by members of Phokeng K9, Rustenburg Public Order Police (POP), Boitekong SAPS and Swartruggens Detectives. Police spokesperson captain Aafje Botma said that two gas cylinders, a cutting torch, a grinder, a five-pound hammer, a chain block, and other housebreaking implements estimated to be worth R300,000 were found in the suspect’s possession. “Police proceeded to an address at Meriting Riverside where Makgatho was arrested after he was found with four rifles with ammunition, two plasma televisions, and a queen-sized bed. The items were all seized,” Botma said. Nyakula and Makgatho appeared before the Swartruggens and Bafokeng Magistrates’ Courts respectively on 8 May. # A special Mother's Day gift

Rustenburg – The PGG was formed by three brothers, Perfect, Gift, and Given Mogodiri, who have a strong message of fighting injustice against women. As a special gift to their mother for Mother's Day on Sunday 14 May 2023, they wrote a song for their mother named 'Mom, You're the Best' to remind all mothers of their worth and to celebrate themselves. Their first album, 'Heirs of the Father,' can be found on various platforms, including YouTube and Spotify. The trio grew up in a family of seven children, with Perfect being the eldest, Gift in the middle, and Given as the youngest. Their mother, Beria Boas, raised them single-handedly after losing her own mother at the age of 15 and marrying an abusive husband at 16. Despite their hardships, the brothers found solace in music and were inspired to start a band. Perfect, who is a registered emergency medical practitioner and qualified marriage and trauma counsellor, leads the band with his vocals and keyboard talents. Gift, who is a member of the South African National Defence Force, contributes to the band with his rap, backing vocals, keyboard, and bass playing, while Given, who is an engineer, supports the band with his backing vocals and keyboard. The band's main goal is to spread their message of standing up against gender-based violence in their music. They believe that life is temporary, and there is no point in hating what God has created. PGG started performing in church, weddings, and parties, and grew up listening to Reggae and Jimmy Swaggart's gospel songs. They are particularly fond of the gospel song 'Living Waters' and enjoyed listening to Bob Marley's 'One Love,' Lucky Dube's 'Together as One,' and Mango Groove's 'Special Star'. PGG's music is a reflection of their experiences and their passion for spreading a positive message through their music.

Damaged traffic lights at the corner of Motsatsi and Makheni Streets in Tlhabane.

A CYCLE OF DAMAGE!

[Letter to the Editor]

Tlhabane/Rustenburg – I live in Tlhabane and I am disappointed at how destructive elements within our community seem determined to make life more difficult for others. On Tuesday 9 May 2023, I was shocked to see damaged traffic lights lying at the corner of Motsatsi and Makheni streets. I was shocked because these traffic lights were damaged by protestors on 6 March 2023. I'm not sure if the service delivery protest was also linked to the nationwide strike by the National Education Health and Allied Workers' Union (NEHAWU). What is apparent, however, is that the traffic lights have not been fixed by the municipality since they were damaged. Many of us can blame the municipality for taking too long to fix the traffic lights because that area is a very busy one. The longer the traffic lights are not working, the higher the risk of accidents. However, as a society, we must also really think about our actions first before carrying them out. Why should we be destructive during protests? Why should we damage important infrastructure whenever we feel we must be heard? Whatever happened to peaceful protests? These destructive protests are no good at all because once our challenges have been addressed, we are left to live with the damage and inconvenience that others have caused. Angry Tlhabane resident.

LET'S GROW NORTH WEST TOGETHER

Thato's store once belonged to her great-great-grandfather.

Where heritage meets style

Rustenburg - Situated at the heart of Tlhabane—Segaole Street—is a colourful fabric shop named Kgabang Fabrics and Design. Thato Mogomotsi, the proud owner of the traditional fabric shop—which also sells flowers, cakes, and coffee—was announced as one of the top two winners of Waterfall Mall’s ‘Grow Your Small Business’ competition on Wednesday 3 May 2023, and the reason for Thato’s accolade isn’t very hard to see...

Thato’s niche for traditional African wear is evident in the way she carefully and lovingly designs her clothing items with the utmost precision. ‘Kgabang’ meaning ‘to dress smart’, has certainly lived up to its name; since 2021, Thato has provided her clients with vibrant and unique items that reflect the individual style of every client. With a tailor at hand, clients are able to have fun with their ideas and have their dream attires come to life.

Most importantly, family has always been at the centre of Thato’s venture. Her grandmother, Nkeba Mabaso, was Thato’s biggest supporter and role model, and her store holds a personal and sentimental charm as the very same store was once her great-great-grandfather’s bookstore, which was one of the first stores in Tlhabane!

Thato grew up watching Fashion TV where she was inspired by unique and avant-garde designs, traces of which can be seen in Thato’s experimental and retro traditional wear, which at its core retains an essential African identity. The creative owner’s dream is to expand her business both nationally and internationally.

“I’ve had some clients from various parts of the world; they get excited about Africa, our fabrics, and our styles,” says Thato.

At the same time, Thato hopes that the expansion of her business will uplift and encourage her community; she believes in the spirit of Ubuntu which attaches itself to the strength of small business owners coming together to share ideas and knowledge—an attribute which stood out in the competition.

Winning the judges’ choice award, and a media package valued at R100,000 in the ‘Grow Your Small Business’ competition has meant a lot to the small business owner, as the stamp of approval has given her the confidence in knowing that her business is on the right track.

“My advice to other small business owners is to stay organised by planning ahead, deliver unforgettable products, and to maintain a personal touch,” says Thato.

For more information contact Kgabang Fabrics and Design on 073 300 5819 or visit the store at 3497 Segaole Street, Tlhabane.

Thato's modern pieces retain a retro element with a traditional flair.

The shop is filled with a kaleidoscope of traditional fabrics.

Do you still watch movies at the cinema?

Watching a movie in theatre has always been a treat as the popcorn, big screen, and surround sound make you feel part of the action. But with modern televisions, it's just as easy to have the same experience from the comfort of your home. With that said, do you still watch movies at the cinema?

No. I no longer watch movies at the cinema. It has become too expensive, so I'd rather watch my movies at home.

Hannaliza Swart

No. I don't watch movies at the cinema. We live in a digital era where we can download movies and watch them from the comfort of our own homes.

Maile Nkgopoleng

Do you know how to tie a tie?

Some learnt in school, and others never followed the rule; while tying a tie might seem like a no-brainer to some, others have never mastered the seemingly easy skill. Perhaps it's because some don't find it necessary, while others use it as a fashion staple. Do you know how to tie a tie, and if 'knot' why? Make yourself heard by sending an email to news@platinumweekly.co.za or send us a WhatsApp on 081 579 7000 with the following information before 17:00 on Monday 15 May 2023.

- Yes, I can tie a tie.
- No, I can't tie a tie.
- The reason for your answer.
- A recent photo of yourself—so that we can publish your pic with your answer.
- Your contact details.
- Please indicate in which town/ city you reside.

The results of the votes will be published in our next issue.

PROVERBS

The Value of Wisdom [Proverbs 2 verse 1-9]

2 My son, if you receive my words,
And treasure my commands within you,
2 So that you incline your ear to wisdom,
And apply your heart to understanding;
3 Yes, if you cry out for discernment,
And lift up your voice for understanding,
4 If you seek her as silver,
And search for her as for hidden treasures;
5 Then you will understand the fear of the Lord,
And find the knowledge of God.
6 For the Lord gives wisdom;
From His mouth come knowledge and understanding;
7 He stores up sound wisdom for the upright;
He is a shield to those who walk uprightly;
8 He guards the paths of justice,
And preserves the way of His saints.
9 Then you will understand righteousness and justice,
Equity and every good path.

YOUR FRIDAY FUN FACT

Did you know?

South Africa is quite nutty; it may surprise you to know that our little country is the largest macadamia nut producer in the world! Our macadamia nuts are mostly harvested in the Limpopo region as the trees, along with avocados, papayas, mangoes, and bananas, do well in the climate.

Racing to the sun...

Rustenburg – Saturday 6 May 2023 was both a fun and challenging day for members of the Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC). RCC cyclists competed in the Race to the Sun which is a 160km journey from Hartbeespoort Dam to Sun City. A big well done to Morné du Plessis for completing the race in 7h29min, Nolte Ekkerd (6h10min), Dawie Jacobs (9h43min), Thys Steyn (9h43min), Jannie van der Westhuizen (6h53min), Julie Boshoff (6h55min) as well as Michele Birks and Johan van der Merwe (08h16min).

Rustenburg Ladies eye another win

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Ladies will be aiming to continue their goal-scoring trend when they face Tsweleng De'Scorpion at Lefaragatlha on Saturday 13 May 2023. A win for the Rustenburg Ladies will see them moving to second position on the Sasol North West Stream B log standings. In their previous match, the Rustenburg Ladies bagged a 9-1 win over Golden Ladies on 6 May. They are looking for another victory in their fourth match of the season. A win will enhance their chances of eventually winning the league title, after finishing in second position last season. However, their opponents will not be an easy nut to crack. Tsweleng De'Scorpion have won both the matches they have played thus far and will definitely be shooting for a third win!

Top tennis by RHS

Rustenburg - Hoërskool Rustenburg se tennisspelers eindig algeheel sewende tydens die Noordwes Universiteit se superreeksfinaal wat op Vrydag 5 Mei 2023 te Potchefstroom plaasgevind het.

RHS se seuns tennisspan van links: Jurie Blignaut, Alrich Wannenburg, Isak Vermaak, en Wynand Kock.

RHS se dogters tennisspan van links: Annemie Pretorius, Zoë Vermaak, Nicolene Cloete, en Niane Pretorius

Impala bags another win

Rustenburg – Impala Rugby Club's first team battled hard and managed a 26-25 win over Klerksdorp on Saturday 6 May 2023. It was Impala's third victory in as many matches in the Leopards Provincial League which means that they have now amassed a total of 15 points. The win, achieved in difficult 'away' conditions, also means that Impala is still on top of the log standings. Two tries from Charlton Scholtz laid the foundation for victory in a match where Impala had to fend off a spirited challenge from their opponents. Omphile Butsi and Johan Visagie scored the other tries while Trevor Visser managed three conversions to set up the win. With a good start to their league campaign, Impala is not basking in victory yet, as the club is aware of the long road that still lies ahead. "We need to go back to the drawing board because next up, we have another tough game against Welkom Rovers at Impala Rugby Club," said Club manager Trevor Visser. "We are calling on all our supporters and their families to come and cheer us to victory," Visser added. Meanwhile, Impala's second team, which lost 38-12 to the Klerksdorp second team, will be aiming for better fortunes in their match against Welkom.

A clash of the titans

SA – SuperSport United will lock horns with Kaizer Chiefs on Saturday 13 May 2023 in one of the exciting DSTV Premier League matches. The match, to be played at the Royal Bafokeng Sports Complex, will feature two teams that are eager to finish the season on a high note after failing to win the league title.

SuperSport are third on the log while Chiefs are fourth and this suggests that there is little—in terms of quality—that separates the two sides. Chiefs, who suffered a 2-1 loss to Orlando Pirates in their previous encounter, will be out to give their fans something to smile about with a win over SuperSport. However, SuperSport will be eyeing a top-two finish with the knowledge that a victory over Chiefs will enhance their chances of achieving this milestone.

- DSTV Premier League Fixtures

BEST OF THE BEST

Rustenburg – Four players of the Impala Rugby Club's women's team have made Rustenburg proud.

Esethu Jebese, Chantel Maakwe, Melissa Huyser, and Jo-Anne Grobler—key players of the Vixens—have been included in the 47-member Leopards women senior rugby team for the 2023 season.

The Leopards team is the provincial team representing the North West province, and the selection of the four players confirms that they are amongst the best on the local front. The team will take part in the inter-provincial first division league of SA Rugby which starts on 10 June 2023 until 5 August 2023. The team will practice every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday if there are no matches.
