Official funeral for councillor Lebelo

Rustenburg - The late cllr Samson Molepyane Lebelo of the Rustenburg Local Municipality, passed away on Saturday 15 July 2023. He received a special official funeral at ward 8 on 24 July 2023 in Tlhabane. Amongst mourners at the funeral were key government leaders from the North West province, amongst others, MEC for the Department of Community Safety and Transport Management, Sello Lehari, side by side with the executive mayor of Rustenburg cllr Shiela Mabale-Huma, speaker of Rustenburg council, Single Whip, as well as members of the Rustenburg Mayoral Committee (MMCs), including councillors both within the jurisdiction of Rustenburg and beyond, and ward committees. May his soul rest in peace.

Tragic pedestrian death on the N4, Rustenburg.

PEDESTRIAN FATALITY ON N4

Rustenburg - On Friday morning, at around 6:30 on 21 July, a woman who tried to cross the N4 just before the R24-bridge (crossing the N4 near the Waterfall Mall), succumbed to her injuries on the scene where she was hit by a vehicle. This treacherous piece of road on the N4 is always very busy but in the mornings and afternoons, as motorists head to work or home, the traffic volume increases exponentially. Platinum Weekly regularly receive reports from concerned motorists who have witnessed pedestrians often duelling with death as they cross the N4. Motorists using this stretch of road are warned to be vigilant. We extend our heartfelt condolences to the loved ones of the deceased.

GROCERY STORE STAFF AND CLIENTS HELD AT GUNPOINT

Brits - A chain grocery store in Brits was robbed at approximately 19:00 on Friday 21 July. Two unidentified suspects dressed in reflective work suits, were armed with pistols and a rifle when they entered the store and held the staff and the manager at gunpoint. They instructed the store's customers to remain at the back of the store. The suspects then ordered one of the cashiers to open the till from which they stole an undisclosed amount of cash. They also took the manager's cellphone and notepad. Before fleeing on foot, the perpetrators ordered the customers to leave the store. Fortunately, no one was injured. "The suspects are still at large. Anyone with information regarding the incident can contact the investigating officer detective sergeant Otsile Mapehela on 082 3739 820," said police spokesperson Maria Nkabinde.

SOULFOOD PROVERBS 13

Wisdom Loves Righteousness [verse 1-6]

- 13 A wise son heeds his father's instruction, But a scoffer does not listen to rebuke.
2 A man shall eat well by the fruit of his mouth, But the soul of the unfaithful feeds on violence.
3 He who guards his mouth preserves his life, But he who opens wide his lips shall have destruction.
4 The soul of a lazy man desires, and has nothing; But the soul of the diligent shall be made rich.
5 A righteous man hates lying, But a wicked man is loathsome and comes to shame.
6 Righteousness guards him whose way is blameless, But wickedness overthrows the sinner.

ILLEGAL MINING SYNDICATES - Hijacking properties and ruining the economy

Mooiwoeg – Mike Bolhuis is currently working on a case where an individual, suspected to be part of a bigger scheme of organised crime, managed to hijack a chrome wash plant in the Mooiwoeg area.

“Our organisation has had numerous requests specifically from mines and chrome wash plants who are battling with contract hijacking. This occurs when these syndicates ease the owners into rental and/or sale agreements of their properties. The syndicates present the false impression that they are trustworthy business partners, usually by first adhering to the contract agreement of the property rental/sale. But shortly after, these syndicates show that they have no intention of upholding the contract and take illegal ownership. This is occurring throughout the country, but also especially in the Mooiwoeg-area, renowned for its rich chrome sediment, where an individual has been wreaking havoc and ruining many people financially,” says Bolhuis, “This is one of hundreds of contract-hijacking cases which we have been inundated with.” Chrome wash plants are used to extract chrome from the raw material, and owners of such plants are especially susceptible to illegal chrome mining syndicates who pose as legitimate business owners and use the plants to process their chrome ore which they got hold of illegally.

Referring to one of the cases in Mooiwoeg, Bolhuis says: “The individual entered into a lease agreement with the owners of a chrome wash plant. Her initial payments were paid on time, and she gradually gained the owner’s trust. But she soon started to make late payments and excuses, and within months, payments stopped altogether. Unfortunately, the stage where the most financial damage is done is where the racketeer takes illegal ownership and refuses to leave the premises and plunders the infrastructure.”

According to Bolhuis, the individual did not hesitate to use force and violence when the owners started to demand payments. “She has many heavily armed guards who do not hesitate to use serious intimidation by making threats against the lives of not only the owners but also their family members. This was done telephonically, and physically when the owners approached the operations on the premises.”

Consequently, the owners were left powerless as the individual seems to be a pawn in the bigger scheme of a powerful syndicate with a far-reaching influence ... as (according to Bolhuis) the individual was able to utilise corrupt authorities in her pocket. With limited means of intervention, as the owners do not have the funds to enter a legal battle due to the individual’s non-payments, the individual was able to use the property without legal ramification.”

South Africa is the world’s largest chrome producer, which unfortunately attracts illegal mining kingpins locally and internationally. These illegal mining kingpins run carefully organised operations and do not hesitate to enter unethical business practices. Because of the power they quickly gather with the aid of corruption, they take control of chrome wash plants and mines and gain even more power as they spread their operations, leaving holes not only in the pockets of property and business owners, but also in the local economy.

Mike explains: “Contract-hijackers use three steps to gain control: firstly, by creating the false impression of honesty, then by not upholding the contract agreement, and lastly, theft of the property and its infrastructure. This is made possible by corrupt police authorities and courts. Additionally, these syndicates are also adept to playing the victim and gain sympathy with false statements. Therefore, it’s important for police to thoroughly investigate a matter and not accept the victim’s statement at face value.”

According to Bolhuis, it’s imperative for owners to first conduct a thorough forensic investigation into the other party’s financial ability to uphold the contract, as well as a thorough identification, evaluation, and risk analysis. This investigation should include if the party can be linked to illegal mining activities.

“Our organisation’s use of these implementations helped the owners, who had lost millions, to regain control of their property,” says Specialised Security Services (SSS) specialist investigator Werner Koekemoer, “We have received cooperation from SAPS in Mooiwoeg, and while our investigation continues, the individual is currently at large as she has managed to evade arrest”.

If you have any new and relevant information about this case or other such cases, please contact SSS specialist investigator Mike Bolhuis on 082 447 6116.

Glencore Ferroalloys donates wheelchairs

Rustenburg - Glencore Ferroalloys marked this year's Mandela Day with a gesture of goodwill for its most valuable stakeholders. In a bid to support individuals living with disabilities, Glencore donated 13 specialised wheelchairs to community members in Ikemeleng, Kroondal near Rustenburg. Mandela Day, celebrated annually on July 18th, commemorates the life and legacy of the late Nelson Mandela, a global icon of peace, equality, and justice. Glencore embraced the spirit of Mandela Day by empowering members of its communities as part of its continued efforts to bring progress to the lives of those living around its operations. To fully understand the challenges faced by its community members, Glencore initiated Health Impact Assessments in partnership with local healthcare professionals in line with the company's bid to prioritise the health of those living in its communities. Numerous households with people living with disabilities were found to have no access to wheelchairs, while some had wheelchairs in impaired conditions making life more challenging for the individuals and their families. "We are honoured to contribute to the comfort and well-being of our community members on this special day. By providing these wheelchairs which are tailored to the specific requirements and measurements of each recipient, we hope to improve the mobility and quality of life for individuals living with disabilities in order to enable them to fully participate in their communities," said Conroy Van Der Westhuizen, chief community and social responsibility officer for Glencore Ferroalloys. The event was one for the books for the community members, with many of them expressing heartfelt messages of gratitude for the much-needed support.

"Through this support, Glencore has given those living with disabilities the value of respect and dignity. What many people do not realise is how hard it is to not be able to do things for yourself and to constantly need assistance even for the simplest tasks. These wheelchairs will serve to empower and motivate community members to live their lives fully and with the freedom that they deserve," said Sister Martha Makalane, Ikemeleng Clinic manager. The wheelchairs donated will not only enhance the lives of the recipients but will also serve as a symbol of hope in creating a more inclusive world for marginalised communities. Glencore's Mandela Day initiatives and many of its CSI projects stand as a testament to its ongoing commitment of leaving a legacy of positive change in its communities.

Glencore Ferroalloys, press release, 19 July 2023.

GOLFING FOR GOODWILL

Ian's birthday fundraiser for Kevin's recovery

Rustenburg – Kevin Jansen van Vuuren's life forever changed after he was involved in a horrific vehicle accident on the N4 just outside Rustenburg on Friday 12 May 2023. The vehicle overturned several times and the driver of the vehicle sadly passed away after the accident. Emergency personnel rushed Kevin to the Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital in Rustenburg, after which he was later transferred to the Dr. George Mukhari Academic Hospital in Pretoria. For a long time, the Van Vuuren family faced their worst fear. They did not know if Kevin would survive. He underwent several operations and procedures, and their prayers were finally answered as they received the news, 'he is in a stable condition'. But this was only the start of a long, expensive, and draining journey. Messages of support and prayers lit up on social media from friends, family and Kevin's school – Rustenburg High School. When 15-year-old Ian Bezuidenhout came across one of the messages on social media, he asked his parents if he could host a golf fundraiser for his 16th birthday, instead of a party with presents and friends. Paying it forward, the Bezuidenhout family reached out to the Rustenburg Golf Club. In an interview with Ilse Marais, Rustenburg Golf Club's manager, she told Platinum Weekly about the heartwarming success. "Ian Bezuidenhout's charity golf day raised close to R180k for Kevin's recovery, a significant sum that will undoubtedly make a lasting impact on Kevin's journey to recovery." The Rustenburg community came together in an extraordinary display of compassion and support on Thursday 20 July 2023 to participate in a charity golf day organised by the remarkable 16-year-old Ian. "This young boy's selfless act has left an indelible mark on the hearts of many, as he chose to forego his own birthday celebration to make a difference in the life of Kevin, a brave young man facing a challenging road to recovery after a severe car accident," Ilse said. The Rustenburg Golf Club was the setting for this heartwarming event, where golfers, sponsors, and supporters gathered to raise funds for Kevin's medical expenses. Ian's mission, to uplift his fellow student during his time of need, touched the hearts of everyone present. The response from the community was nothing short of astounding. Players and sponsors showed incredible generosity, contributing to the event's tremendous success. During his heartfelt speech at the event, Ian reminded everyone that the need for support does not end there. He urged all attendees to continue donating to the cause, emphasising that even the smallest contributions can lead to meaningful change. He humbly acknowledged each and every sponsor, player, and supporter for their vital role in making the event a resounding success – with a special thanks to MH Tayob for arranging to use the golf course free of charge for the day. The success of this charity golf day serves as a reminder that even one person's act of kindness can bring about significant change. Ian's dedication to helping his fellow student and friend has been a shining example of the strength of community spirit.

► Make a donation

JB Inc Attorneys will manage the funds raised during the charity golf day, ensuring transparency and accountability. The law firm's reputation for integrity and community involvement gives donors peace of mind knowing their contributions will be used for Kevin's medical expenses.

If you want to make a donation, or for more info, contact Aurelia Jansen van Vuuren at 060 989 7090.

Kevin's battle continues

In an interview with Kevin's mother, Aurelia Jansen van Vuuren, she extended her heartfelt appreciation to the community and the Rustenburg Golf Club for the heartwarming event. "It exemplifies the power of compassion and unity within our community." Kevin was in the ICU at Dr. George Mukhari Academic Hospital up to the point when he was transferred to La Vie Care Lynnmed in Pretoria on 14 June — where he's currently receiving care. "He's in a mild coma state," Aurelia said. "He's not yet out of danger due to the massive head trauma he underwent. I talk to him all the time, but he can't talk back," she said. Kevin also sustained internal bleeding, serious brain injuries, and pelvis and skull fractures. His only reaction is by winking and opening his eyes, moving his lips marginally, and turning his head slightly. On occasion, there is slight movement in his arms and hands. "We are not walking this journey alone. I thank each and every person for their prayers, thoughts and comforting messages. To Ian; you are an extraordinary young man! To host a golf day like this for a stranger is such a selfless act. May you be blessed abundantly!" Esmay Hattingh, Kevin's grandmother added; "We have been blessed with a helping hand from the community. Thank you!"

A DIFFERENCE MADE

Rustenburg – As part of a 67-minute Mandela Day Initiative, Goldrush Bingo Rustenburg staff members visited the Petra Demus Daycare Centre in Boitekong on Tuesday 18 July 2023. The kids of the daycare centre received KFC for lunch and Goldrush Bingo Rustenburg staff members painted their playing area. "It's important to remember that Nelson Mandela said that history will judge us by the difference we make in the everyday lives of children," Goldrush Bingo Rustenburg general manager Mpho Pheeha.

Goldrush staff members treated the kids to lunch.

A warm scarf for a cold day!

Rustenburg – Last year the Rustenburg Hospice started to hang donated scarves on cold days on the railing outside the Wildevy Charity shop, and this year again the Hospice group came together on Friday 21 July to hang scarves for those in need to help themselves to one each. The general manager of the Rustenburg Hospice, Elize Pretorius said, "We started small, but it had a big impact. From there, we saved up the scarves with the idea that we would do it for as long as we have scarves and it's cold out." For more information or if you would like to make a donation, please contact 014 592 8925.

The scarves are made available on chilly days.

Impala Rugby wins the Nesser Cup!

Impala Rugby Club wins the Nesser Cup!

Rustenburg – Impala Rugby Club's first and second teams competed against the Stillfontein Hurricanes Rugby Club on Saturday 22 July 2023 on Rustenburg High School's rugby fields. Impala's second team won the Hurricanes 38-23. The first team's score was a draw, 17-17, but because Impala was at the top of the log, they won the Nesser Leopard Cup by a lead of 3 points on the log. Impala Rugby Club's lock, Marius Breytenbach, well-deservedly was selected as man of the match. He excelled in the lineout, winning balls, and gaining meters on the field with counterattacks. Team manager and club chairperson Trevor Visser commented on the tough game, "It was a tight game and could have easily been a win for the Hurricanes, but our men persevered until the bitter end!" Impala Rugby Club will join the Wolverines as the Leopards' two clubs to compete in the Gold Cup. Watch this space! Join the Impala Rugby Club this weekend on Saturday 29 July when they face Klerksdorp Rugby Club in the semi-finals of the President League. The match will take place on Impala Rugby Club's home ground. See you there!
