PROVERBS 24

Do Not Envy Evil Men
24 Do not be envious of evil men, Nor desire to be with them;
2 For their heart devises violence, And their lips talk of troublemaking.
3 Through wisdom a house is built, And by understanding it is established;
4 By knowledge the rooms are filled With all precious and pleasant riches.
5 A wise man is strong, Yes, a man of knowledge increases strength;
6 For by wise counsel you will wage your own war, And in a multitude of counselors there is safety.
7 Wisdom is too lofty for a fool; He does not open his mouth in the gate.
8 He who plots to do evil Will be called a [a]schemer.
9 The devising of foolishness is sin, And the scoffer is an abomination to men.
10 If you faint in the day of adversity, Your strength is small.

WARRANT OF ARREST ISSUED AGAINST ATTORNEY IN RAF THEFT CASE

Rustenburg - The Rustenburg Regional Court has issued a warrant of arrest against Betty Diale (52) for failing to appear in court. The trial was set to commence on Thursday, 26 September 2023, but the accused provided no reasons for her absence. All necessary documents had been provided to her in preparation for the trial as she opted to represent herself. A new trial date will be set following her arrest. "Diale is facing six charges of theft, amounting to approximately R700,000 stolen from the Road Accident Fund (RAF) claimants," said NPA regional spokesperson Henry Mamothame.

Police reports reveal that the Legal Practice Fidelity Fund received several complaints from RAF claimants whose payments were deposited into Diale's trust account. According to the claimants, the said money did not reach them after the payout, leading them to report to the police for investigation. Diale was practising as an attorney during the commission of the crimes between 2009 and 2011 and was charged with six counts of theft in June 2021.

The Legal Practice Council has struck Diale off the roll, preventing her from practicing as an attorney.

BAIL HEARING ON GUMBI MURDER CASE REOPENED

Rustenburg - The Rustenburg Magistrates' Court has granted the reopening of the bail hearing in the Ben Gumbi murder case following an application by the defence. The matter has been postponed to Thursday 5 October 2023, for closing arguments. "Sibongiseni Ngubane (33), the accused, testified that he is an Uber driver and would suffer a loss of income if not released on bail. He further stated his life would not be endangered should bail be granted. During cross-examination, the state questioned why he used a stolen vehicle, later abandoned, instead of his registered Uber vehicle, claiming he was hired to transport people to Rustenburg. Ngubane was further questioned about the R15,000, alleged to be his payment for the transport service," said NPA regional spokesperson Henry Mamothame. The state plans to argue vehemently against granting bail after consulting with the investigating officer. Prior to the reopening of the bail hearing, the officer urged the court to consider the seriousness of the offence, noting the accused is facing a schedule 6 offence of premeditated murder. Concerns were also raised about the safety of the accused from three other suspects still at large who might endanger his life. Several witnesses identified the accused at an identity parade. The state highlighted the community's interest in the case, amplified by the circulation of a recording of the alleged incident on social media. The court was urged to consider the brutal nature of the alleged murder.

Police reports indicate Ngubane was arrested on 12 September 2023, in Germiston, by a multi-disciplinary team formed following the brutal murder of Ben Gumbi. At the time of his arrest, Ngubane was attending a court case for an armed robbery charge and is out on R3,000 bail. He also faces a pending case for possession of a firearm and ammunition in Alberton, for which he was granted R1,000 bail. Gumbi (49) was gunned down by two males outside a restaurant in Rustenburg CBD on the morning of 23 August 2023. The suspects fled in a blue Volkswagen Polo, found abandoned shortly after at the corner of Helen Joseph and Lourie Streets, with false number plates and confirmed as stolen.

Police are continuing their search for the three remaining suspects believed to be on the run.

ANOTHER CONSUMING FIRE

Spruitfontein/Waagfontein/Buffelspoort - Late Saturday afternoon on 30 October 2023, a menacing fire ignited in the Spruitfontein and Waagfontein area alongside the R104. Local farmers, under the leadership of cluster manager Jaques Venter, sprang into action, attempting to contain the furious flames.

"However, nature was not on their side. The wind propelled the fire into the nearby mountain range, making the terrain a formidable adversary in the battle against the blaze. By Saturday evening, the fire had moved to the gorges, and many held onto hope it would meet its demise there," said Rhenosterfontein/Zuurplaat cluster manager and Rebel Fire Assist member, Petra Rough But as dawn broke on Sunday 2 October, a gust of wind steered the inferno towards the Buffelspoort Dam area. Rietfontein/Grootfontein/Kromrivier/Buffelsfontein/Barnardsvlei (RGBK) cluster manager, Daan Meyer, issued a call for aid. Good Samaritans, including members of Rebel Fire Assist, responded swiftly, orchestrating backburns to counteract the advancing flames. By 18:00 on Sunday evening, the community's united front had subdued the fire. Although victory was claimed, the aftermath was stark; approximately 2000 hectares lay in ruin, and a local farmer mourned the loss of his mango grove. Meanwhile, the origin of the fire remains a mystery. It should be reiterated that no waste should be burnt until the end of the fire ban which is 31 October—or until the first 21 mm rainfall has been received. When making a fire for purposes such as a braai, please water the surrounding area, be vigilant, and don't leave the fire unattended.

By Sunday 1 October the fire had spread to the Buffelspoort Dam area.

SUSPECTS ARRESTED FOR A SPATE OF CRIMES

Rustenburg – A multi-disciplinary team comprising the Rustenburg Tactical Response Team (TRT), Phokeng Crime Prevention, and Detectives conducted a tactical operation resulting in the arrest of four men in connection with a spate of crimes committed around Freedom Park in Phokeng near Rustenburg.

"The team received and operationalised information on Tuesday, 26 September 2023, about the most wanted suspect. According to information, the suspect was relocating from Freedom Park to Kanana in an apparent attempt to evade arrest for the crimes he allegedly committed in the area. Thus, an observation was kept on the relocation process and the suspect was eventually cornered and apprehended at a certain yard in Kanana. In the process, the police searched and confiscated a 9 mm firearm loaded with eight rounds of ammunition, which was found hidden in the luggage. A further search led to the discovery of 18 different ammunition. As a result, Victor Kefuoe Tsoloane AKA Kajibane (34) and his accomplices; Ofentse Pule (26), Dimpho David Mofokeng (29), and Mpho Lisenyane (18) were arrested and charged with possession of a firearm and ammunition," said police spokesperson captain Sam Tselanyane.

They appeared before the Bafokeng Magistrate's Court in Tlhabane on 28 September. However, three of them; Pule, Mofokeng, and Lisenyane were acquitted of all the charges while Tsoloane was remanded in custody and appeared again on 2 October before the same court on two charges of murder, allegedly committed in February this year and earlier in September respectively.

The North West provincial commissioner, lieutenant general Sello Kwena, lauded the police and members of the community who came forward with the information that led to these arrests. General Kwena reiterated that police will be relentless in conducting their duties to ensure that perpetrators of these heinous crimes are brought to book.

POLICE APPREHEND TRUCK DRIVER FOR KIDNAPPING

Rustenburg - A 44-year-old truck driver appeared before the Brits Magistrate's Court Monday 2 October 2023, for the kidnapping of a 24-year-old woman.

According to information, a man and his wife hitchhiked on a truck from Bela-Bela on route to Klerksdorp on Wednesday evening 27 September 2023, after the driver told the couple that he was going to Cape Town via Rustenburg. Along the way, the driver made several stops. It was at Brits Total Garage, Alpha Crossing, that the man left the truck to buy food, leaving his wife sleeping on the bed behind the seats. Upon his return, he found neither the truck nor his wife. The matter was reported to the police, and the search for the truck immediately ensued.

"On Thursday, 28 October 2023, a team comprising Brits Detectives, Crime Intelligence, Visible Policing, and District Officers continued with the search. The truck was eventually tracked via CCTV footage, and the owner was contacted. He confirmed the tracking movements of the truck, including the exact location. The truck was found just before entering Thabazimbi. The driver conceded during questioning that he gave the complainant and his wife a lift and that while the husband was out of the truck at Total Garage to buy food, he drove off with his wife. The driver informed the police that he left the victim at a petrol filling station in Mooinooi and proceeded to Rustenburg. The woman was found at Mooinooi police station where she went to seek help. The 44-year-old truck driver was then arrested and charged with kidnapping," said police spokesperson captain Sam Tselanyane.

The North West provincial commissioner, lieutenant general Sello Kwena, commended the teamwork displayed by both the SAPS members and private security company personnel. He warned that those who continue to perpetrate crimes against the most vulnerable in our society will face the full might of the law.

FORMER MUNICIPAL MANAGER AND BUSINESS DIRECTOR FACE THE MUSIC

North West - Patrick Shikwane (51), the former municipal manager of Bojanala District Municipality, and Moses Malesa (51), director of Marole Nameng Trading, appeared in the Rustenburg Specialised Commercial Crimes Court on Wednesday 27 September 2023 where they faced charges of fraud.

In December 2018, Shikwane allegedly appointed Marole Nameng Trading to supply Bojanala District Municipality with disaster relief materials. The accused allegedly authorised a payment of over R1 million to Marole Trading without following proper supply chain processes. Marole Nameng Trading, of which Moses Malesa is the director, received payment but never delivered the procured materials.

Following an investigation, the accused were arrested by members of the Hawks' Serious Corruption Investigation Unit. Shikwane was arrested on Tuesday 26 September in Hartbeespoort, while Malesa handed himself in on 27 September.

The pair briefly appeared in court and were granted bail. Shikwane was granted bail of R10,000, while Malesa was released on R5,000 bail. Their case has been postponed to 16 October for further investigation.

Major general, Patrick Mbotho, the provincial head for the Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation (HAWKS) and Dr Rachel Makhari, the director of Public Prosecutions in the North West, praised the investigation and prosecution for their collaboration on the case. They have vowed to continue working together to assert the authority of the state in the province. Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation (HAWKS), press release, 27 September 2023.

TENNANT SENTENCED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT FOR RAPING 12-YEAR-OLD

Rustenburg – In a verdict delivered on Monday, 2 October 2023, the Phokeng Magistrates' Court handed down a life sentence to 54-year-old Guilherme Jose Thomas Uchaio of Mozambique for sexually assaulting a 12-year-old girl in Freedom Park, near Rustenburg, back in November 2022.

Henry Mamothame, spokesperson for the National Prosecuting Authority, revealed that Uchaio was a tenant in the child's residence at the time of the incident. After the assault was reported, the child was medically examined, confirming the violation. Subsequently, Uchaio was arrested and was not granted bail.

Highlighting the gravity of the crime during the hearing, prosecutor Obed Molope stressed the lasting psychological trauma inflicted upon the young victim. Molope advocated for the court to adhere to the recommended minimum life imprisonment sentence for such heinous crimes. Backing this sentiment, Magistrate Segakweng Moeng remarked that the accused had grossly betrayed the trust of the child who had known him. The sentence reflects the court's commitment to upholding justice for the most vulnerable members of society.

Debunking road spiking rumours

Potchefstroom/ Klerksdorp - Recent rumours have swirled regarding road spiking incidents on the N12 between Klerksdorp and Potchefstroom. Social media platforms have been rife with chatter, sparking concern amongst motorists. However, the South African Police Service (SAPS) in the North West province and Dr Kenneth Kaunda District has swiftly addressed these concerns.

Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone, a police spokesperson, categorically dismissed these claims as "false and misleading." He clarified that there is no sharp curve on this stretch of the N12 as alleged in circulating messages, a fact further confirmed by accompanying images. Mokgwabone urged the public to exercise caution and refrain from disseminating unverified information, as it not only misleads motorists but also incites unnecessary panic. Authorities remain vigilant and committed to ensuring the safety of all road users. They encourage the public to report any suspicious activities to the police, fostering a collaborative approach to maintaining peace and security. Motorists are reminded to stay informed through official communication channels and avoid falling prey to misinformation.

Rustenburg – Tragedy struck Enkeldoring Avenue in Rustenburg on Tuesday, 3 October 2023, when a garage was engulfed in flames. The blaze quickly escalated, threatening to consume the residence.

While the garage was left in total ruin, an adjacent photography studio didn't escape unscathed either, suffering significant smoke and water damage. Speaking to Platinum Weekly, the homeowners recounted the harrowing experience: "The Fire Department responded swiftly. Their immediate action in battling the flames was commendable. Nonetheless, this incident has been an immense setback and quite shocking for our family." The homeowners, expressing their gratitude to the community, "Upon seeing the fire, I immediately contacted the Fire Department and reached out to friends and neighbours for assistance. The swift response and support from many have been overwhelming, and I'm deeply grateful. Thankfully, no one was injured, and all the pets are alright." Currently, the origin of the fire remains a mystery, with investigations ongoing.

Alarmingly, this isn't the first fire incident in the vicinity. Platinum Weekly recently reported on another fire catastrophe just next door, where a fire also started in the garage. The fire spread to the house, and almost the entire house was reduced to ashes.

All that remains following the devastating fire that consumed a garage and two vehicles in its path.

His Vision Church marches for peace

Community members of His Vision Church unite in a march.

Rustenburg – Residents from every corner of Rustenburg and the larger Bojanala District gathered in unity, hope and a profound sense of purpose for the 'Prince of Peace March for Reconciliation and Restoration' on Saturday, 30 September 2023.

This powerful initiative, hosted by His Vision Church, stems from the heart-wrenching incident involving the murder of local businessman Ben Gumbi, and everyone who has been negatively affected by violence and crime in Rustenburg. Gumbi's life was tragically cut short on 23 August 2023 outside a Rustenburg coffee shop.

Setting forth from Bergsig Academy in Boven Street, the marchers, voices raised in prayer and song, walked down Beyers Naude Drive, culminating at Die Melkstal in Kock Street. Here, a spiritual interlude took place, with pastors sharing messages of hope and inspiration. Following this, the march resumed, safely escorted by public safety officers back to its starting point.

Throughout the route, strategically placed refreshment stations, including one at Melkstal, ensured that all remained hydrated and invigorated.

Senior pastor of His Vision Church, Francois Burger, shared his heartfelt thoughts: "In a world rife with unsettling news, particularly the devastating loss of Ben Gumbi, the Lord urged us to act, to illuminate our community with hope. We're profoundly thankful to the Rustenburg community, fellow pastors, spiritual leaders, and churches for joining hands in this march, exemplifying unity and faith." Extending his gratitude, he added: "Thank you to all who took a step, prayed, and believed with us. Together, we indeed shine brighter. Our heartfelt appreciation goes out to the Department of Public Safety, Die Melkstal, Sweet Angel Water, and our dedicated senior pastors, Francois and Adri Burger, for paving the way. A special nod to Signtopia and FM Solar for generously providing the safety vests. Truly, Rustenburg belongs to Jesus!"

This march will forever symbolise Rustenburg's unwavering commitment to peace, reconciliation, and restoration.

Senior pastor Francois Burger and pastor Adri Burger honour Ben Gumbi, remembering him with a symbolic cross.

RHS proudly hosts SPAR Netball Championships, sets new record in 2023 as biggest ever!

Rustenburg – Post the adrenaline-filled Netball World Cup and the intensity of Varsity Netball, the sporting fever continues. On Monday 2 October 2023, Hoërskool Rustenburg (the host) welcomed the dawn of the annual SPAR National Championships. The electrifying atmosphere is further amplified as select showdowns are broadcast live on SuperSport's Variety 4/Channel 209, all through the week (2-7 October). Up to 1,800 players descended on Hoërskool Rustenburg (RHS) for a feast of netball, with the under-21 championships being played alongside the senior tournament. Nine districts competed for the senior A title, which is currently held by Johannesburg. Hoërskool Rustenburg is one of the top netball schools in the North-West Province. It fields 13 teams which compete successfully in local and provincial leagues and tournaments. Having so many teams give more players the opportunity to play competitive netball.

Reflecting on the significance of the championships, Cecilia Molokwane, president of Netball South Africa, emphasised: "SPAR National Championships is a very important tournament for us as Netball South Africa. It has allowed us, over the years, to identify players to play for the national teams (under 23's and seniors). It has become a good hunting ground for scouts and the perfect opportunity for players to showcase their talents. We are truly grateful to SPAR for their unwavering support throughout the years – it is because of such a partnership that we have been able to grow and be who and where we are." Echoing the sentiment, Netball South Africa vice president and tournament director, Mami Diale, lauds Hoërskool Rustenburg as the ideal venue for such a grand spectacle. "We need at least 10 netball courts to be able to run our tournaments efficiently, and Hoërskool Rustenburg has 12. One of these will be taken over by SuperSport, but we still have 11 available to us."

Have you ever lied to help a friend out?

Most of us would bend over backwards for a dear friend, but would we cross the line into murky waters? Ever played the role of a deceptive alibi, cloaking a friend in a protective lie?

No, I haven't. In my books, lying is bad. Even if you are a dear friend, I won't break my own personal morals.

Lachelle Bezuidenhout

No, I haven't... and it's something that I wouldn't do, because the truth always comes out to bite you. I believe that the truth will set you free. So, I will encourage my friend to always tell the truth and be honest with whatever situation they find themselves in.
