FUELLING HOPE!

Local rider, Bradley Burrell in the OR-2 Professional category (bike 757) sets off with other competitors. Photo credit: Action in Motion.

Rustenburg - In a thrilling display of off-road prowess and charitable spirit, 235 quad and bike riders revved up their engines for the fifth round of the Gauteng Cross Country Club (GXCC) 2023 Championship. But this race, hosted at a local Rhenosterfontein farm adjacent to the Waterval Shooting Range, had riders gunning for more than a win as they joined forces in the fight against breast cancer. GXCC Racing, the driving force behind the annual GXCC Club Championship and Motorsport South Africa (MSA) Northern Regions Cross Country Championships, transformed this event into a symbol of solidarity. The October race has earned its reputation as the 'Pink Race,' drawing attention to the crucial cause of breast cancer awareness.

Riders of all genders and various engine capacities took to the track, each competing in their respective classes. For round five of the championship, participants and their pit crews were invited to purchase socks online from 'ILoveBoobies,' a non-profit company dedicated to providing free breast examinations to South African women facing financial, locational, or social barriers to healthcare access. The GXCC championship is a magnet for riders from across South Africa and neighbouring countries like Lesotho, Zambia, and Botswana.

From 5-year-old prodigies to seasoned 64-year-old racers, the age diversity among competitors added to the event's charm.

A special 'Pink Ladies' class welcomed women who don't typically race, emphasizing the event's dedication to breast cancer awareness and inclusion.

The racecourses challenged participants' mettle, with juniors and Pink Ladies conquering a 14 km loop, while senior bikers and quad enthusiasts embarked on laps of 48 km.

"The pink race is always a very special occasion for the GXCC community. Breast cancer and cancer, in general, have had such a devastating impact on so many lives. By racing in pink, we support the fighters, admire the survivors, honour the angels, and never, ever give up hope," said GXCC secretary Miranda du Plessis. The GXCC championship's grand finale is set for 25 November in Carletonville where our local riders will compete for final podium position. For more information, visit www.gxccracing.co.za.

Congratulations to some of our local riders

SHOOTING INCIDENT SHOCKS GEELHOUTPARK RESIDENTS

Rustenburg - On Sunday evening, 15th October, at around 20:00, a resident on Lekkerbreek Road in Geelhoutpark found himself facing a life-threatening situation.

As the man pulled up to his gate in his car, he was suddenly confronted by an undisclosed number of assailants, of which at least one of them was armed with a firearm. "We found the vehicle's keys about 5 m away from the bakkie. We suspect that the man threw his bakkie's keys into the bushes and fled the scene, whereafter he was shot some distance away," said CPF sector two chairperson Gerhard Jansen van Rensburg who responded to the scene.

Swift response from community members, along with the South African Police Service (SAPS) and Trauma Rescue, played a pivotal role in addressing the emergency. Trauma Rescue promptly transported the wounded victim to Life Peglerae Hospital.

The victim sustained two gunshot-related wounds on the right-hand side of his body—one near his shoulder blade and another on his side.

Police spokesperson, sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, confirmed the ongoing investigation, stating, "We can confirm that the police are investigating a case of attempted murder whereby a 35-year-old man was shot and taken to the hospital. The motive is unknown as nothing was reported stolen, and no arrests have yet been made."

Authorities are now appealing to anyone who may have witnessed the incident or who possess information related to it, to come forward. You can contact Rustenburg SAPS on 014 590 4115 or reach out to the detective, warrant officer Karel Khumalo at 082 773 0590.

RED BULL FAILED TO GIVE HIM WINGS

Rustenburg - In an early morning drama unfolding in Church Street, a thief who stole two Red Bulls from a café was apprehended by the owner and a member of the Community Policing Forum's (CPF) sector 2.

Around 07:30 on Sunday, 15 October a would-be thief, hoping perhaps that the brand's promise of wings was literal, made off with two cans of Red Bull. As he dashed out, he drew the attention of the café's owner, who immediately took up the chase.

Donna Kruger, a member of the CPF's sector two, happened to be on her way to work when she spotted the ordeal and joined the café owner in the pursuit.

The swift-footed thief was initially apprehended but, in a twist of events, managed to slip away. However, it appears that the wings given by the energy drink were more metaphorical than he'd hoped. He was apprehended once again and this time, held securely.

Surprisingly, the café owner chose not to press charges. Yet, the stolen Red Bulls were dutifully recovered from the thief. Perhaps next time, the culprit will think twice. Wings must be earned or paid for, you cannot steal it.

Placing an obituary

Announcing the death of a family member is a time-honoured tradition as life should be celebrated and never forgotten. To help you to celebrate the life of your loved one and share details about the upcoming funeral, place an obituary in our newspaper, free of charge. You can include the date of death, details about their life and surviving family members. You can also write a special message, a poem or a prayer. Please include a photo and the date, time and place of the memorial service.

If you would like to place an obituary in Platinum Weekly / Platinum Bushveld, send the information via WhatsApp to 072 482 6871 or email news@platinumweekly.co.za / news@platinumbushveld.co.za.

PROVERBS 27

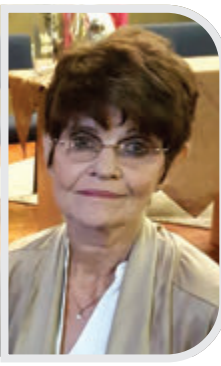

My Son, Be Wise
27 Do not boast about tomorrow,
For you do not know what a day may bring forth.
2 Let another man praise you, and not your own mouth;
A stranger, and not your own lips.
3 A stone is heavy and sand is weighty,
But a fool's wrath is heavier than both of them.
4 Wrath is cruel and anger a torrent,
But who is able to stand before jealousy?
5 Open rebuke is better
Than love carefully concealed.
6 Faithful are the wounds
of a friend,
But the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

Rustenburg - On Monday 16 October 2023, three suspects aged 22, 27, and 31 appeared before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on 'robbery with a firearm' charges reported in Tlhabane, Zinniville, and Rustenburg.

They were arrested on 12 October after the owner of a white Toyota Etios requested assistance from a vehicle tracking company to retrieve his vehicle from a driver, who seemed untraceable and was driving the vehicle without the owner's consent.

The vehicle was located in Zinniaville with only the driver inside, prompting a summons for police assistance. During the preliminary police investigations, it was discovered that the very same vehicle, a white Toyota Etios had been reported as involved in robberies around Rustenburg. Furthermore, it was alleged to be the same vehicle seen in a social media video robbing teenagers of their cellphones at gunpoint.

"The suspect in custody then led the police to his two accomplices. In their possession, the authorities found an imitation firearm and a Nissan Micra (not stolen), suspected of being used in other similar robberies," said police spokesperson sergeant Ofentse Mokoadi.

The police are appealing to members of the public who might have been victims of this trio to come forward and register their cases, or contact the detective, sergeant Thabo Seome of the Tlhabane SAPS on 082 664 3374.

Platinum Weekly reached out to authorities for the court outcome, but information was not available at the time of going to print.

Rustenburg - The Rustenburg Regional Court has postponed the case against Betty Diale (52) to 31 October 2023. This postponement allows the Director of Public Prosecutions (DPP) to review her representations. If the DPP rejects these representations, all parties will determine a new trial date.

Previously, a warrant for her arrest had been issued due to her failure to appear in court on 26 September and her failure to provide reasons for her absence. She was rearrested on 6 October and subsequently released on warning.

An inquiry was conducted regarding her absence, during which the court accepted her medical certificate as proof. All necessary trial documents were provided to her as she had expressed her intention to represent herself during the proceedings. Diale faces six charges of theft, totalling approximately R700,000, which was allegedly stolen from Road Accident Fund (RAF) claimants.

"Police reports reveal that multiple RAF claimants lodged complaints with the Legal Practice Fidelity Fund. They asserted that their payments, deposited into Diale's trust account, did not reach them after the payout. Consequently, they reported the matter to the police for investigation. Diale, who practiced as an attorney from 2009 to 2011, was subsequently charged with six counts of theft in June 2021. The Legal Practice Council has removed her from the roll, prohibiting her from practicing as an attorney," said National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) regional spokesperson Henry Mamothame.

Brits – The Brits Trio Task Team, in collaboration with Crime Intelligence, apprehended three suspects aged between 23 and 25, who had committed a series of business robberies and other crimes in the Letlhabile policing areas. The trio was apprehended in Maboloka, Letlhabile, just outside Brits on Tuesday 10 October 2023, following a tip-off to the police regarding their whereabouts and their reign of terror in the community.

believed to have been used during the robberies. Additionally, a blue Samsung A10 cell phone and razor blades were found and confiscated by the police.

 "Sello Tsietsi Nyathi, Matodzi Shuma, and Bonginkosi Masuku made their second appearance before the British Magistrates' Court on 16th October. They face charges of possession of suspected stolen property, three counts of business robbery, and possession of unlicensed firearms and ammunition. Their next court appearance is scheduled for 23 October."

said police spokesperson lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani

The Provincial Police Commissioner, lieutenant general Sello Kwena, commended all team members for their outstanding work.

Vehicle damaged by hitting a kudu on the N4.

Vehicle damaged by hitting a kudu on the N4.

Rustenburg - At 22:15 on Friday 13 October 2023, Trauma Rescue was called to respond to an accident on the N4 between Marikana and Mooiooi. A white Mercedes-Benz had hit a kudu. Luckily the driver sustained only minor injuries. Sadly, the kudu did not survive the impact.

Three Star Cash & Carry Stokvel Expo

MASSIVE STOKVEL SAVINGS

38 stands represented their brands.

Rustenburg – On Saturday 14 October 2023, Power Trade Three Star Cash & Carry hosted its much-anticipated Stokvel Expo. The event drew in a crowd of more than 3,500, with many stokvel members eager to explore what this unique expo had to offer.

Tailored for stokvel clubs, the Three Star Cash & Carry Stokvel Expo served as a platform to showcase what they offer stokvels and why they are the stokvel champion for all stokvels. It provided an excellent opportunity for stokvel members to browse through a wide array of products and brands that will be available over the stokvel season. Over 4,000 club members were invited to the event, and the excitement was palpable even before the doors opened, with people eagerly waiting in line. Three Star Cash & Carry supervisor, Thabiso Mosito, expressed her satisfaction with the event, saying, “With 38 stands representing the quality brands at Three Star, it was a very successful day. A big thank you to all suppliers who partnered in the day”. But the excitement didn’t stop at product exploration. Attendees enjoyed a day filled with fun and thrilling competitions, offering substantial prizes. The highlight of the day was the lucky draw, where R50,000 worth of Defy appliances were up for grabs. Tshepang Sekano, the fortunate winner of a Defy dishwasher, exclaimed, “It has been a great opportunity to see what’s available, and the win will definitely be a timesaver in the kitchen”.

Beyond the shopping deals and the thrill of winning, Three Star’s Stokvel Expo underlined the significance of stokvels in the community. Three star offers the stokvel clubs a safe and secure place to do their shopping. Monthly promotions are offered to all stokvels. Massive savings will be on offer when the stokvel season opens.

A big thank you to all stokvels that attended the expo, a great day had by all.

Are you a hugger?

Some find hugging, even with strangers, completely natural, while others actively avoid it. Which camp do you fall into?

No, I'm not a hugger. I like my own space, I don't even feel comfortable shaking hands, because you never know where people have been, and besides, hugs are too much admin. A polite "hello" does the job, we don't need to touch each other. Oteng Lenake

Yes, I love giving hugs to my family and loved ones. A hug means you love and care about your loved ones and it could brighten up their day especially if they had a hard day at work or school. It's little effort and token of appreciation which shows that you value them in your life. Hug your loved ones and show them your appreciation and love them as much as possible for it may be a last hug. Marthinus Groenewald

POLL

Aside from having your ears pierced, would you get any other piercings?

Opinions on piercings can vary widely. Some appreciate the artistic expression and personal style they bring, while others may find them uncomfortable or unnecessary. With that said, aside from the common ear-piercing, would you go for other options? Make yourself heard by sending an email to news@platinumweekly.co.za or send us a WhatsApp on 081 579 7000 with the following information before 17:00 on Monday 23 October 2023.

- Yes, I would.
- No, I wouldn't.
- The reason for your answer.
- A recent photo of yourself—so that we can publish your pic with your answer.
- Your contact details.
- Please indicate in which town/ city you reside. The results of the votes will be published in our next issue.

The community gathered at Hoërskool Rustenburg's rugby field where the waiting to start running for Kevin.

Fun run in support of Kevin

Rustenburg – With a unified goal in mind - supporting Kevin Jansen van Vuuren's rehabilitation - community members convened at Rustenburg Hoërskool's (RHS) rugby field early on Saturday, 14 October, to take part in a charity fun run. In a heartfelt display of solidarity, attendees wore Kevin's favourite colour, blue. The proceeds from the entry fees of the 2 km, 4 km, and 8km fun runs were channelled into Kevin's Rehabilitation Trust Fund.

Kevin's ordeal began on 12 May 2023, when he was involved in a severe accident on the N4 near Rustenburg, with the vehicle he was in overturning multiple times. The grievous injuries he suffered have raised significant concerns about his future. For Kevin's family, the weeks he spent in the hospital felt interminable, filled with anticipation for positive news. Finally, they received the reassuring update: "He's stable." Yet, this was merely the start of a long and expensive path to recovery. Reflecting on the fun run, Aurelia Janse van Vuuren, Kevin's mother, remarked, "The entire day was so meaningful. I encountered many individuals I had only previously talked to over the phone. The outpouring of effort was immense, with Anton's Towing genuinely going the extra mile. Anja and Linda's organizational skills shone brightly, and I am extremely grateful." Anja Venter and Mariaan Hendriks, along with Duncan Dietrich, a distinguished rugby coach at Hoërskool Rustenburg, were pivotal in mobilising the community. About a hundred individuals participated in the fun run, each fervent in their desire to support Kevin and his family. Anja Venter, a key event organizer, expressed, "The day was filled with enthusiasm. Everyone was eager to make a meaningful difference for Kevin and his family."

Rescued and on the road to recovery: meet Gladiator, the stray horse

Rustenburg - In a heroic rescue effort, the Rustenburg Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA) came to the aid of a suffering stray horse on Wednesday 4 October 2023. Concerned by a phone call from a compassionate citizen in the Mabeskraal area, SPCA responders embarked on an hour-long search to locate the distressed animal, who was left in a dire state. Upon discovery, the horse was found exhausted, thin and weak, and covered in scars and injuries.

Quickly responding to the horse's plight, the SPCA team loaded him up and provided much-needed water. They then reached out to the Bergbos Animal Clinic, where Gladiator, as he is now named, received immediate and essential treatment.

Rustenburg SPCA trainee inspector Khomotso Msiza and Rustenburg SPCA manager Marisa responded to Gladiator's plight.

Gladiator's journey to recovery has just begun, with extensive healing and weight gain still ahead. However, with time, love, care, and the necessary treatment, Gladiator is expected to transform into a magnificent horse.

To support Gladiator's healing process and contribute to his well-being, the Rustenburg SPCA is welcoming donations of lucerne, lucerne pellets, oats, carrots, and apples. These items can be dropped off at the Rustenburg SPCA located at 11 Eskom Street.

Gladiator's story serves as a powerful reminder of the vital work carried out by organisations like the SPCA, and how our community's compassion can make a significant difference in the lives of animals in need.

Rugby Wêreldbeker 2023

Kwart Finale:
Argentinië vs Wallis
Die Rooi Drake begin die game teen 'n hoë tempo en loop vinnig 10-0 voor. Die Pumas kom met mening terug en speel die eerste die keer die toernooi goeie ruggas en klop Wallis 29-17.

Ierland vs Nieu-Seeland
Die All Blacks wys weereens dat hulle nooit moet afgeskryf moet word en skok die lere met 28-24 oorwinning. Johnny Sexton en miljoene lere gaan nog lank rou ou grote. Die lere wat vir amper twee jaar die nommer een span in Wêreld ruggas was, kon soos hulle voorgangers vir nou die negende keer nie verder as 'n kwart finaal vorder nie.

Engeland vs Fidji
Die Engelse was net, net baas teen die Fidjiane en was uiters gelukkig om 30-24 te wen. Die wedstryd beamptes behoort eintlik almal na hierdie game geskors te word. Alle eer aan die krygers van Fidji!

Frankryk vs Suid Afrika
Die Bokke slaag daarin om die hoog aangeskrewe Franse hane menere terug aarde toe te bring. Dit was soos 'n swaargewig boksegeveg, hou vir hou, maar die Bok ysters het bly staan en as waardige winners van die veld gestap.
