Marks of the Ministry

6 We then, as workers together with Him also plead with you not to receive the grace of God in vain. 2 For He says: "In an acceptable time I have heard you, And in the day of salvation I have helped you." Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation. 3 We give no offense in anything, that our ministry may not be blamed. 4 But in all things we commend ourselves as ministers of God: in much patience, in tribulations, in needs, in distresses, 5 in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in sleeplessness, in fastings; 6 by purity, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by sincere love, 7 by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, 8 by honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true;

Celebrating the life and legacy of Eagle Trauma Rescue's Natie Fourie

Natie Fourie: a dedicated advanced life support practitioner and compassionate hero at Eagle Trauma Rescue.

Rustenburg – Today, we honour the remarkable life of Natie Fourie, who served as an advanced life support practitioner with Eagle Trauma Rescue since August 2021. His journey was not just one of a dedicated paramedic, but that of a hero, mentor, and lifesaver, touching countless lives in Rustenburg and its neighbouring areas. Natie's colleagues remember him as much more than an employee; he was a cherished friend and an integral part of the Eagle Trauma Rescue family. His years of experience in emergency medical services, coupled with his unwavering dedication and compassion, made him a beacon of hope and a guiding light for both those he served and those he worked alongside. Though Natie's journey ended unexpectedly over the weekend, his spirit and legacy continue to inspire and influence everyone he encountered. Natie Fourie's journey came to an end on Saturday morning, 9 December 2023, in Bloemfontein. In memory of Natie, we pledge to carry on his mission with the same passion and commitment he exhibited every day. To Natie Fourie, a true hero in every sense of the word, we say: thank you. Your shift may be over, but the paths you've paved and the lives you've transformed continue to echo your extraordinary contributions. Rest in peace, Natie.

TOURISTS TARGETED

Marikana/ Mooinooi – In a concerning escalation of criminal activity, two separate incidents involving tourist busses have raised questions tourist safety in the area.

Incident 1: A close call on the R556

On Friday afternoon, 24 November 2023, a 60-seater bus filled with Australian tourists became the target of an attempted hijacking. The bus, traveling near Lekgalang Village on the R556 close to Marikana, was aggressively approached by suspects in a vehicle. Police spokesperson colonel Adéle Myburgh reported that the assailants threatened the bus with a firearm. In a display of remarkable calm and bravery, the bus driver chose not to stop, even as shots rang out towards the vehicle. The driver continued until reaching the safety of the Sun City police station, with the suspects eventually fleeing the scene. Miraculously, no injuries were reported, and no property was stolen, though the incident left those aboard shaken.

Incident 2: Robbery on the R556

Just over a week later, on Saturday morning, 2 December 2023, a similar but more harrowing incident unfolded. A Quantum tour bus, carrying 11 tourists, was stopped on the R556 in the Mooinooi area. Four armed suspects robbed the tourists of their personal belongings and cash. Colonel Myburgh confirmed the incident, noting that, fortunately, there were no injuries. "The district's detectives are diligently working to identify the perpetrators of this crime," Myburgh confirmed. In response to these incidents, law enforcement has intensified their efforts to ensure the safety of both locals and visitors. The flying squad and highway patrol units are now conducting regular patrols along the R556 road and the N4 highway. These proactive measures aim to deter further criminal activities and restore a sense of security in the area. These incidents have cast a spotlight on the challenges of ensuring the safety of tourists, a vital part of the local economy. The community's resilience in the face of such threats is commendable, and the swift response from local authorities is a reassuring sign of their commitment to public safety. The increased police visibility is a welcome step, but these incidents serve as a reminder of the ongoing need for vigilance and cooperation between the community, tourists, and law enforcement agencies.

TOURISM SAFETY TIPS

At the airport:

- Watch out for staged mishaps - like someone bumping into you or spilling a drink - this could be a ploy to divert your attention and steal your bag and passport
- When seeking directions, proceed marked information counters only

At your accommodation:

- Store valuables in the safety deposit box
- Keep your room locked
- If someone knocks, check who it is before opening the door. Contact reception if you have any reason for concern
- Do not leave unattended valuables on chairs, under tables or on restroom hooks.

On the street:

- Avoid flashy display of expensive jewellery, cameras, mobile phones and other valuables
- Keep your handbag closed or zipped, and your wallet in an inside pocket and not in the rear pocket of your trousers
- Do not leave them unattended. Also, it is ill-advised to carry large sums of money with you
- Do not walk around talking on your mobile phone in the street and do not leave in unattended

In your vehicle:

- Plan your route in advance, keep the doors locked and windows up at all times
- Do not leave your mobile phone or other valuables where they visible from outside the vehicle
- At night, park in well-lit areas

Department of Tourism press release, extracts

- Never pick up strangers or hitchhikers
- If in doubt about the safety of an area, phone a police station for advice and help
- Make sure you have the number of the car rental company at hand in case you get stranded.

ATM and credit cards:

- Credit card transactions must be processed in your presence
- Try and keep a backup credit card and cash in a safe place where you are staying
- At the ATM be alert at all times. If you see anything suspicious, stop your transaction and leave.

Lost or stolen mobile phones:

Inform your network provider of your loss:

- Cell C: 140 from Cell C numbers or 084 140 from other cellular phone networks
- MTN: 173 (pre-paid) or 808 (contract) from MTN numbers or 083 1173 from a land line or other cellular phone networks
- Vodacom: 111 from a Vodacom number or 082 111 from a landline

Identifying a member of the South African Police Service:

- Members of the South African Police Service must carry an identification card stating the member's name, rank, service number and photograph
- You have the right to request members in civilian clothes and members in uniform to identify themselves with their identification cards.

Do you follow a morning regime to start your day?

Some people need morning routines to kick off their day; some do morning stretches, some need time for meditation, and perhaps at least two cups of coffee before they can get going. With that said, do you have a strict morning regimen, or do you just wing it?

Yes, I start my day with a cup of coffee to make the day better.

Caress Rossouw

Yes, in the morning I drink coffee and pray for my kids so that I can have a nice day.

YOUR FRIDAY
FUN FACT

Did you know?

The modern image of Santa Claus wearing a red suit was popularised by Coca-Cola in their advertising campaign in the 1930s. The company hired artist Haddon Sundblom to create images of Santa for their Christmas advertisements. Sundblom's depiction of Santa in a red suit with a white fur trim became iconic and has largely shaped the contemporary image of Santa Claus.

On the rare occasion of water supply, Zinniaville residents must deal with dirty water.

Rustenburg - Zinniaville Ratepayers Association chairman Shuaib Bham once again reached out to the minster of water of water and sanitation, Senzo Mchunu, on Tuesday 21 November 2023. This comes after no productive response from numerous complaints lodged regarding the water crisis in the following areas:

The Wards affected without water:
Ward 43
Ward 16
Ward 8

Areas affected without water:
Zinnaville TLHabane West
Karlien Park GeelhoutPark
The Industrial Area Seraleng
Rustenburg North Nkandla

"And all the above areas are disadvantaged areas and has been previously disadvantaged and are still disadvantaged. The infrastructure has completely collapsed, and patching is not resolving the problems. A big issue is that the responsible parties, Magalies Water, Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) and Water and Sanitation Services South Africa (WSSA) have perfected the art of blame shifting, from one party to the other party with absolutely no accountability and sense of duty. The service provider is clearly in violation of Section11(1) of the Water Services Act, 1997 as the service provided is neither efficient, economical, affordable nor sustainable. In fact, residents are now charged for air which moves the water meters at a very fast rate every time air is pushed out of the system to build up pressure so that water can flow. This is a daily occurrence. At best, it is dishonest, and unbecoming of a government meant to be prioritising the interests of people," said Bham.

Rustenburg – In a statement released by Bakubung Platinum Mine on 7 December 2023, the mine released information on the illegal underground sit-in situation at Bakubung Platinum Mine, which started on Wednesday morning 6 December 2023 at the 77 Level Shaft.

The statement further reads: "This led to the failure of the next shift to assume their responsibilities. On the same day and afternoon, management acted swiftly to diffuse and correct the situation. This has been done by having a meeting with the representatives of the aggrieved and participating employees of the underground sit-in. "Several issues have been outlined as the grievances and causes of the underground sit-in. These include changes to the minimum requested remuneration for employees, changes to employees' benefits, subsidies and working conditions.

"Management's intervention plan includes continuous discussion and negotiations with those involved to end the underground sit-in as soon as possible. As a short-term intervention, management has cancelled the morning and afternoon shifts on Thursday, 7 December 2023.

The Koster House of Safety relies entirely on public donations to sustain its operations.

Koster House of Safety continues to operate during December

[Letter to the Editor]

Koster - The Koster House of Safety has been a beacon of hope for 25 years. I am the house mother of the House of Safety, and I just want to express my concerns regarding a misunderstanding within the Koster community. Contrary to rumours, the Koster House of Safety is not closing its doors over December. Unfortunately, this misunderstanding has led to a decline in donor support. The Koster House of Safety relies entirely on public donations to sustain its operations, and this decline in support threatens its ability to provide a nurturing environment for the children under its care. The House of Safety provides a home for children ages from newborn to 18 years old. We are situated at Farm Hokaal, Rosmoncoi Road in Koster. It is crucial for the Koster community to understand that the House of Safety is not closing during the December period, and their support is more critical now than ever. To anyone who wishes to contribute or seek further information, you can contact me on 076 377 2642. Let us come together as a community to support the House of Safety and ensure that it continues to be a sanctuary for the youth, providing them with love, guidance, and a foundation for a brighter future.

Koster House of Safety, house mother, Cheryl Mastop

This is to ensure the safety of the rest of our staff and eliminate possibilities of community unrest, which may arise and pose a danger to staff and mine assets."

On 9 December 2023, Bakubung issued an updated statement: "On Friday, 8 December 2023, at about 23:00 all mineworkers remaining underground managed to resurface safely. Management would like to thank all stakeholders that were actively involved in ensuring that the employees come out safely and be re-united with their families."

SAPS and EHW commemorate World AIDS Day

Rustenburg - On Friday 1 December 2023, the South African Police Service (SAPS) Bojanala Sub District 2, in collaboration with Employee Health and Wellness (EHW) and its local peer educators, hosted a World AIDS Day commemoration at the Rustenburg Police Station. EHW pursued its ongoing commitment to supporting individuals living with HIV and to honouring the memory of those within SAPS who have passed away due to AIDS-related illnesses. The theme for World AIDS Day 2023, 'Let Communities Lead', resonates strongly with SAPS. The organisation is dedicated to fostering a culture of love, hope, and unity, while actively combating discrimination in the workplace.

SAPS safety rules regarding festive fireworks

Rustenburg - As we celebrate the holiday cheer, the South African Police Service (SAPS) aims to keep the celebrations safe and sound.

With regards to fireworks, please take note of the following:

- Do not use or discharge any fireworks within 500 meters of any explosive magazine, explosive factory, petroleum depot, or gasometer.
- Do not use or discharge fireworks in a building or any public thoroughfare.
- Do not use or discharge fireworks in any public place or resort, except with the prior written permission of the local authority.
- Only wholesale and retail dealers that are licenced in terms of the Explosives Act, and who are in possession of a valid licence issued by the Chief Inspector of Explosives, may deal in the sale of fireworks.

- No fireworks may be sold by a street hawker or vendor at a flea market, or from the boot of a vehicle/trailer/spaza shop.
- For your own safety, do not hold lit fireworks in your hand.
- Have a bucket of water or hosepipe nearby.
- Keep away from all fireworks once they are lit.
- Children should always use fireworks under the supervision of an adult/parent.
- Keep pets away from fireworks and under control to ensure their safety.
- Never try to make your own fireworks.
- Always point fireworks away from persons, houses, and flammable substances.
- Do not allow children to pick up pieces of fireworks immediately after the fireworks have been discharged-some may still be ignited and can explode at any time.

It is important to note that Regulation 5(e) under section 25 of the Environment Conservation Act, 1998 (Act 73 of 1998) stipulates that no person shall use or discharge any explosive, firearm or similar device, which emits impulsive sound, or allow it to be used or discharged, if it may cause a noise nuisance, accept with the prior consent in writing of the local authority concerned and subject to such conditions as the local authority deem necessary.

SAPS, press release extracts, 30 December 2022.

Adhering to these safety measures and regulations not only ensures a celebration, but also contributes to a safer and more secure festive season for all. Remember, safety is a shared responsibility, and your cooperation is crucial in making this season enjoyable for everyone.

When using fireworks, remember to practice safety and follow rules and regulations.

HSBC World Rugby Sevens Cape Town

Die Blitse kon nie voortbou op hulle puiq vertoning van die vorige week in Dubai nie. Duisende Blitsbok ondersteuners in die Kaapstad Stadion moes toe kyk hoe die Blitse deur die Aussies en die Kiwi's karnuffel was.

Die Blitse het sesde klaargemaak, met die Argentynse Pumas wat die Aussies in die finaal met skitter ruggas ore aan gesit het, en wen 45-12.

Empowering others as Miss Qhawekazi

Rustenburg - Just three months ago, Alice Mthimkhulu embarked on an unexpected yet transformative journey into online pageantry. Her effort and dedication paid off when, on Saturday 4 November 2023, she was officially crowned Miss Qhawekazi North West 2023 (Queen) at the age of 27. Hailing from Rustenburg in the village of Robega at Chaneng, Alice has embraced her role beyond the title, using her platform to empower young girls. Her mission is clear: to teach others the importance of self-love, self-acceptance, and the invaluable contribution of young, empowered souls to the world. "True happiness for me is living out your purpose daily, walking unashamed in your truth and enjoying every opportunity that may come your way. No matter how much people praise or criticise you, at the end of the day, you know your heart, intentions, and truth. You have to be at peace with who you are," said Alice. 'Qhawekazi', which translates from Zulu as 'heroine'. The name perfectly encapsulates the strength and purpose that Alice embodies as she uplifts and empowers those around her.

Alice Mthimkhulu has embraced her role beyond her title as Miss Qhawekazi 2023 in North West.

2023 In review

Letter from the editor

As I jot down my thoughts, I'm struck by how tough this year has been, a feeling many of you share. Right from the get-go in 2023, we were thrown into a whirlwind of challenges. Yet, for some, it's turned out to be one of the best years. In journalism, we have the special job of sharing the ups and downs of our community. We celebrate the good times, and, with a heavy heart, we're there for the sad ones too. For those who've lost someone – friends, family, or workmates – you have my deepest sympathy.

This year, I've seen again the incredible strength of Rustenburg and its people. This grit is shown in the endless work of community policing forums, firefighting forums, SAPS, Hospice, SAVF, and various NGOs who make sure our kids don't go to bed hungry. A big shout-out to Buffel Sekuriteit and Charl Visser from Rustenburg Landelike Diens for looking out for their area's safety. I urge everyone to keep emergency numbers handy and maybe join your local CPF to help keep our community safe.

To our amazing clients and readers, your support and comments are what keep us going. To the team at Platinum Weekly – you're the real stars behind this year's success. A massive thanks to every one of you.

Let's all be extra careful on the roads this festive season.

Looking forward, I'm excited for the New Year and the stories it'll bring. Wishing you and your families a safe, happy, and blessed festive season. God bless!

As the year winds down, it's time to reflect on our journey together. To our dedicated readers, your involvement has been key to our success. Your insights and feedback, whether in print or online, make our content richer.

To our valued advertisers, your partnership means the world to us. Your trust in us as a link to the community is hugely appreciated and helps us all grow and understand each other better.

Rustenburg's spirit shines through each of you – our readers, clients, and staff. You all play a part in making our community special.

Thanks for being the heart of Platinum Weekly.

Warm regards, Myrtle

Cyclists gathered for a festive ride.

Petr Miovsky.

Rustenburg - On Thursday 7 December 2023, at 18:30, the Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) was set to illuminate the night with its much-anticipated 'Christmas Lights Night Ride.' Cyclists gathered, their bikes adorned with colourful festive lights, creating a dazzling display of holiday spirit. The starting point for this luminous journey was the Safari Gardens Office Park, located at 18 Safari Avenue in Rustenburg. A multitude of cyclists, RCC members and enthusiasts, participated in the event, turning it into a joyous and vibrant spectacle. It was an evening filled with camaraderie, twinkling lights, and the shared joy of the holiday season.
