North West mourns 85 lives lost on roads this festive season

North West – In a tragic turn of events, a head-on collision between a heavy motor vehicle and a sedan on the R502 road, connecting Leeudoringstad and Makwassie in the Dr Kenneth Kaunda District, has resulted in the loss of five lives. The incident, involving a male driver and four passengers (two males and two females) from the sedan, has escalated the fatality count in the province to over 85 since the festive period began on 1 December, 2023. Marking a sombre milestone, this is the first major crash in the region to claim five or more lives in a single event. Expressing profound sorrow, Sello Lehari, the MEC for the Department of Community Safety and Transport Management, extended heartfelt condolences to the bereaved families. In a silver lining amidst this dark cloud, the province has witnessed a 10% decrease in road fatalities compared to the same period last year. Under MEC Lehari's leadership, joint law enforcement operations have been rigorously implemented and will persist until 15 January, 2024. "There is zero tolerance for disregarding regulations. Every life matters, and our enforcement will be more stringent to prevent further tragedies," affirmed MEC Lehari. He further implored motorists and pedestrians to remain vigilant and patient, emphasising that law enforcement officers have been instructed to strictly enforce traffic laws.

Ensuring compliance with motor vehicle and driver regulations, enhancing road safety through engagement, and addressing outstanding traffic fines in the province.

UNCOVERING CHILD ABUSE IN THE NAME OF RELIGION

Church leader sentenced to two years imprisonment for flashing

Rustenburg/ Boitekong – On 27 December 2023, the Rustenburg Regional Court handed down a two-year suspended sentence to Zoliswa Menziwa, aged 36, for violating Section 22 of the Criminal Law (Sexual Offences and Related Matters) Amendment Act, 2007. Captain Sam Tselanyane reports that the case stemmed from an incident on 1 June 2022. Menziwa, along with five other church congregants, was discovered in a house used as a church in Sondela Phase 1, Boitekong. Eleven children, aged four to twelve, were also found on the premises under compromising circumstances. Menziwa, identified as the church leader and the only one clothed at the time of the incident, was the only person charged. The children, comprising six boys and five girls, were immediately placed under social care and subsequently entrusted to family members. The case was thoroughly investigated by the Rustenburg Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences (FCS) unit, led by colonel Mosidi Mafora and warrant officer Phiri Mfetane. Although Menziwa was convicted, the five other individuals were acquitted. The court's decision includes a five-year suspension of Menziwa's sentence, on the condition of no further convictions of the same nature during the period of suspension. Lieutenant general Sello Kwena of the North West Provincial Police commended the sentencing, reaffirming the SAPS' dedication to combating crimes against women and children. He praised the investigative team for their diligent work in bringing justice in this case. This report underscores a commitment to the protection of the vulnerable and highlights the ongoing efforts to address and prevent such incidents in the future.

URGENT CALL FOR WITNESSES: justice for the victims of Boitekong mass shooting

Boitekong/ Rustenburg – In the wake of the tragic mass shooting in Boitekong, the North West provincial commissioner, lieutenant general Sello Kwena, has formed a dedicated investigative team. The team is urgently appealing to anyone with information about the incident, which led to the loss of nine lives at the Popo Molefe informal settlement near Rustenburg at around 21:15 on Saturday, 16 December 2023. Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone detailed the attack on a group of primarily Xhosa-speaking individuals by suspects believed to speak Sesotho. This brutal act resulted in eight people dying on the spot and a ninth succumbing to their injuries at the hospital. Additionally, eight individuals were reported injured. If you saw or heard anything, or have any information, no matter how small it may seem, please report it to your nearest police station. The victims were brothers, sisters, mothers, and fathers with families and loved ones who are now grieving. They deserve justice. An eyewitness, who chose to remain anonymous, shared her harrowing experience of hearing the gunfire while caring for her baby. Her account underscores the terror and chaos that has shaken the community. While the motive behind this grievous act is still unclear, and no arrests have been made, the ongoing investigations are critical. North West premier Kaobitsa Bushy Maape also condemned the atrocity, extending condolences to the bereaved families and wishing the injured a swift recovery. "These were members of our community, and it is our collective responsibility to assist in bringing the perpetrators to justice," stated premier Maape. This tragedy not only highlights the need for community solidarity in the face of violence but also serves as a reminder of the profound impact such incidents have on families and communities. The call for witnesses and information is a crucial step towards closure for the families and ensuring that those responsible are held accountable.

POLICE RECOVERS FIREARM FOLLOWING COMMUNITY TIP-OFF

Swartruggens – The Swartruggens police, acting on a community tip-off, made a crucial discovery and subsequent arrest on Wednesday, 3 January 2024. The tip was about a local man suspected of illegal firearm possession. Proactive police action unfolded with the questioning of the suspect, who then led the officers to a friend's residence in Extension 4, Borolelo Location. The man then directed the police to his neighbour, where they uncovered a hidden 9mm pistol with a magazine, concealed under a tree. Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone confirmed the suspect's arrest, additionally linking him to a burglary incident that occurred on Saturday, 23 December 2023 in Swartruggens. The suspect, identified as 22-year-old Kgotsaetsile Selebogo, faced the local Magistrates' Court on Friday 5 January 2024. Charged with unlawful possession of a firearm and residential burglary, his case has been postponed to 10 January, while he remains in custody. Lieutenant general Sello Kwena, the North West provincial commissioner, extended his gratitude to all the members involved in this operation, including security officers. He lauded their swift and collaborative efforts that played a pivotal role in confiscating the firearm and ensuring community safety. This incident underscores the importance of community engagement in policing and highlights the effectiveness of collaborative efforts in crime prevention and ensuring public safety.

Robbery, assault and kidnap case involving six officers shakes local community

Brits – In a startling case that has gripped the Brits community, eight individuals, including six police officers, appeared before the Brits Magistrates' Court on Thursday, 21 December 2023. They face serious charges of business robbery, kidnapping, and assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm. Each accused was granted R2,000 bail and is scheduled for a following court appearance on Wednesday, 28 February 2024.

Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone disclosed that these arrests, made on 20 December 2023, stemmed from a violent robbery at a local tavern in Newton Section, Mmakau. The arrest was made by the Provincial Anti-Corruption Investigation Unit, Bojanala Platinum Sub-District and Mmakau police station detectives. Alarmingly, one suspect reportedly used a marked police vehicle during the crime.

The tavern owner suffered both physical assault and the theft of approximately R60,000. The brutality escalated at the Mothotlung graveyard, where the assault on the victim continued. The accused officers, identified as sergeant Matlala Letsoko (43), sergeant Lesiba Kgopa (49), constable Sejameriri Mamphekgo (34), constable Croesus Chirwa (33), constable Joy Makotla (32), and sergeant Masilo Mononyane (46), are attached to various prestigious units including the Pretoria Public Order Police, Tshwane District Crime Intelligence, and Rietgat Visible Policing. They are joined by civilians Emmanuel Lorekang (45) and Itumeleng Malebetsane (50). Investigations are ongoing, and the likelihood of additional charges related to another business robbery in Hebron is high.

Lieutenant general Sello Kwenya, the provincial commissioner of North West, conveyed his deep disappointment over the incident. He stated that the officers' alleged conduct is not only utterly unacceptable but also a betrayal of the values enshrined in the South African Police Service code of conduct.

Rustenburg – As a concerned citizen of Rustenburg, I write to address the recent surge of vandalism in our community, particularly along Beyers Naude Drive. While I am a firm advocate of free speech and share the common disdain for corruption, the methods used to express these views are deeply troubling.

Recently, a blatant act of vandalism at the corner of Landros Street and Beyers Naude Drive involved the use of an offensive swear word. Although someone had the decency to remove the most inappropriate part, the act itself remains a stain on our community's image.

Further down the same street, another instance of graffiti, this time the letters “FTC”, which I interpret as “F the corrupt,” was spotted. This not only defaces public property but also sets a poor example for our younger generation. It's disheartening to think that some individuals, in their quest to express their views, resort to such distasteful and illegal methods.

It's vital to remember that there are more constructive ways to express our frustrations and fight against corruption. Vandalism, particularly that which involves offensive language, is not just illegal but also counterproductive.

Do you use a wristwatch to tell the time?

With the use of smartphones in the digital age, do you still find charm in the classic wristwatch?

Yes. Wearing a classic wristwatch feels like carrying a piece of history on my wrist, connecting me to a legacy of craftsmanship and timekeeping innovation. The tangible connection to time adds a personal touch that modern devices can't quite replicate.

Wynand Pieterse

Yes, wearing a wristwatch does more than tell time; it adds that finishing touch to your outfit. It's also very convenient, being on your wrist and not in your pocket or bag. Many professionals still find it convenient and reliable.

Why did you donate junk?

[letter to the editor]

Recently, while browsing my Facebook feed, I encountered a post from a local resident expressing dismay over the condition of items donated to a prominent children's home in Rustenburg. The images displayed a collection of clothes, shoes, and toys, evidently intended to support the needs of the children there. However, the quality of these items gave me pause for reflection.

Initially, I held the belief that any contribution to a children's home is a valuable one. Yet, upon seeing the photographs, my perspective shifted dramatically. The condition of these donations was not just disappointing, but deeply concerning. The items were in such a state of disrepair that they were essentially unusable, raising questions about the intentions and awareness of the donors.

I firmly support and regularly participate in donating second-hand items, recognising their potential to positively impact those in need.

However, I also believe that the quality of these donations is paramount. If we wouldn't deem an item suitable for our own children, it's unfair and disrespectful to consider it appropriate for others. This principle should guide our actions when deciding what to donate.

Charitable organisations, particularly those catering to children, deserve our genuine support. They rely on the goodwill and integrity of the community to help fulfil their noble mission. It's crucial that we, as donors, take a moment to assess the items we plan to give. Are they clean, safe, and in good condition? Would they bring joy and comfort, rather than additional burden, to the recipient?

I encourage our community to embrace this mindset, transforming the act of donating into a thoughtful, meaningful gesture that truly reflects the spirit of giving.

Sincerely,
#Don'tDumpJunk

WhatsApp scammers exploit job seekers

SA – According to specialist investigator Mike Bolhuis, "The scourge of fraudulent practices on WhatsApp, preying on job seekers, is exacerbating the already high unemployment rates in South Africa, especially among the youth." He adds: "This issue demands immediate and decisive action to protect citizens from falling victim to these deceptive schemes."

SCAMMERS POSE AS REPUTABLE COMPANIES

- There is a dishonourable trend where scammers pretend to be reputable companies such as Takealot, Amazon, and others in South Africa.
- They are using the names of well-known companies without authorisation; this causes confusion and leads to fraudulent activities.
- It is important to be aware of such scams and be cautious while dealing with any suspicious emails, messages, or phone calls.

SCAMMERS TARGET PERSONAL INFORMATION

- The scammers' tactics involve coaxing victims into divulging sensitive information such as ID numbers, addresses, credit card details, and birth dates.
- This information becomes a tool for various activities, from compromising account security to identifying passwords for online transactions.

SAFEGUARDING AGAINST FRAUDULENT MESSAGES

- Unexpected messages
Exercise caution with messages promising lucrative job opportunities you weren't expecting.
- Unknown sender
Be wary of messages from unfamiliar numbers or email addresses.
- Avoid clicking links
Refrain from clicking on links in unsolicited messages to prevent potential exposure to malicious websites.

YOUR FRIDAY FUN FACT

Did you know?

'Skafting' or 'skaftin', a South African word for lunch box, stems from the Afrikaans 'skof tin' (shift tin), reflecting the worker class tradition.

More than a meal container, it symbolises comfort and connection to home. Across the globe, we all find joy in our midday meal.

What's in your skafting today?

SOULFOOD

2 CORINTHIANS 7

The Corinthians' Repentance

7 Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. 2 Open your hearts to us. We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have cheated no one. 3 I do not say this to condemn; for I have said before that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together. 4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation.

Athletico FC gears up for thrilling match

Rustenburg – Rustenburg is buzzing with excitement as the Rustenburg Athletico Football Club (FC) is lacing up their boots for an epic showdown! Mark your calendars for Sunday, 14 January 2024, because that's when the action kicks off against the formidable Real Touch FC in the Rulfa Super League. The battleground? None other than the sport fields of Karlienpark! But wait, there's more! Athletico FC is rolling out the red carpet for young soccer enthusiasts, boys ages 9 to 19, to join their training sessions. Imagine perfecting your dribbles and scoring dream goals every Monday and Tuesday, from 15:30 to 17:00, right at Karlienpark. Shimmy Ntlaba, the team manager of Athletico FC, is the man with the plan and he can't wait to welcome new talents. Got questions? Need more details? Shimmy is just a phone call away! Contact 078 067 5016 and get all the info you need.

Rustenburg's CASMAR Impala Rugby Club kicks off training

Rustenburg – The rugby season is about to get a lot more exciting in Rustenburg as the CASMAR Impala Rugby Club has officially begun their training this Tuesday, 9 January 2024. With fresh energy and a new main sponsor, the club proudly steps into the season under their new name, CASMAR Impala Rugby Club. Johan Engelbrecht, the newly appointed head coach, is buzzing with enthusiasm. "We're thrilled to dive into the Nesser A-league once again, especially after being crowned the Leopards champions. This season promises to be even more thrilling!" The club is expanding its horizons this year by introducing three open teams, including a special under-21 team. "This is a call to action for all rugby enthusiasts in Rustenburg! We need players to join us and share in the excitement and camaraderie of rugby," encourages Engelbrecht.

Trials are set to take place on Saturday, 10 February 2024, and are open to all aspiring rugby players. The season's opening game is scheduled for Saturday, 17 February, where the CASMAR Impala Rugby Club will face off against the Randfontein Rugby Club in what is expected to be a gripping encounter in Randfontein. In addition to the on-field action, the club is also preparing for some off-field activities. The new committee members of the CASMAR Impala Rugby Club will be introduced in the upcoming annual general meeting next week. This meeting is an excellent opportunity for the community to meet the leaders who will steer the club forward into a promising future.

Muhammad, rising cricket star!

Muhammad Bulbulia in action!

Rustenburg — Fields College Grade 12 learner, Muhammad Bulbulia, is making waves in the cricket world. Representing not only his school but also Rustenburg and the North West Province, Bulbulia has shown exceptional skill and leadership in the sport. His recent participation in the u/19 Kaya Majola cricket week in Port Elizabeth has been a topic of pride among local cricket enthusiasts.

Muhammad's talents and leadership abilities were recognised when he was chosen as the captain of the South African Schools Colts Cricket Team. This prestigious role highlights his outstanding performance and dedication to the sport. In addition to his achievements in Port Elizabeth, Muhammad represented the Western Legends during the CUBS cricket week held in Stellenbosch from 4 to 9 January 2024. His performance there further cemented his reputation as a rising star in cricket circles. At just 17 years old, Muhammad's accomplishments are not only impressive but also indicative of a promising future in cricket. "This is a huge achievement for the Rustenburg community and Fields College," remarked Imran Shabbir, the deputy principal of Fields College. "Muhammad's success at such a young age is inspiring and a matter of pride for all of us." Fields College and the Rustenburg community eagerly anticipate more outstanding performances from this talented young cricketer.

Ontmoet rugby-ikoon Duane Vermeulen

'n Aand van glorie en groot gesels in Rustenburg

Rustenburg – Het jy al ooit 'n Springbok-wedstryd beleef waar die opwinding van 'n Wêreldbeker-oorwinning in die lug hang? Nou, berei jouself voor om hierdie onvergeetlike gevoel weer te ervaar tydens 'n aand propvol ware rugbygees saam met die legendariese Duane Vermeulen, 'n ikoon van die spel en 'n sleutelfiguur in ons nasionale span se roemryke geskiedenis. Hierdie eksklusiewe byeenkoms, aangebied deur Hoërskool Rustenburg, belooft om 'n hoogtepunt op die sosiale kalender te wees. Die geleentheid sal plaasvind by die luukse Airspan Executive Airport op Donderdag 29 Februarie 2024. Duane Vermeulen, die held agter die beroemde #8 groen trui, sal die aand verlig met sy teenwoordigheid. Vermeulen, bekend vir sy sleutelrol in die 2019 Rugby Wêreldbeker, waar hy as 'man of the match' vereer is, bring 'n stuk geskiedenis en passie na die aand. Om deel te wees van hierdie unieke ervaring, is kaartjies beskikbaar teen R7,500 per tafel, wat tien gaste kan akkommodeer, of R12,500 vir 'n VIP-tafel. Dit is nie net 'n kans om saam met 'n rugbygrootheid te verkeer nie, maar ook 'n geleentheid om saam met vriende en geliefdes te kuier en te geniet. Moenie uitmis op hierdie kans om deel te neem aan 'n aand van nostalgie, sportgeesdrif, en gemeenskap nie. Bespreek jou tafel vandag en maak gereed vir 'n onvergeetlike ervaring. Vir navrae of besprekings, kontak Hoërskool Rustenburg gerus by projekte@hsrtb.co.za.
