

Koster's Post Office

STAMPED OUT

Refiloe Mokiti, Koster resident, voiced concern over the ongoing post office catastrophe.

This is what the Koster Post Office looked like a few days ago... If you wondered why your post didn't deliver...

Koster – It's no secret that the South African Post Office (SAPO) has been on a bit of a downward spiral, but the whole situation has gone from bad to "you've got to be kidding me." We've seen over 400 post offices shut their doors for good since 2020. And no, it's not because we've all stopped sending mail. SAPO's been quick to blame everything under the sun — like us moving online and some suppliers cutting them off. But let's be real: the big elephant in the room is how they've been managing things. Or, more accurately, how they haven't. Take a stroll past the Koster Post Office, and you'll get the picture. It's been hit by vandals, left to crumble, and there are stories of locals trying to nab packages amid the chaos. Platinum Weekly set out to investigate, on Friday 15 March 2024, and found people trying to patch things up there, but it's a bit late for band-aids. Colonel Adèle Myburgh reports: "From April to November 2023, we've had a mini crime wave at the Koster Post Office, with five break-ins." Break-in number six happened just over a week ago, but when we went to the post office to take a look... it seemed that the post office has not been in use for years. This Post Office is but one of many in South Africa being looted. Unlike most businesses, budgeting for security is maybe not the Post Office's top priority. And let's not even start on how this mess is hitting everyone in the pocket, especially those relying on these services the most. Earlier this year, communications minister Mondli Gungubele said he intends to review the South African Post Office's monopoly on certain services, including parcel deliveries under 1kg. Gungubele said he wished to consult the public in this regard and gave interested parties until Wednesday, 6 March 2024 to submit their comments. But here's the problem: SAPO's been fighting tooth and nail to keep this monopoly, all while their ships are sinking. Refiloe Mokiti, a local from Koster, shares their dismay: "I've called Koster home for five years now, and watching the post office saga unfold has been heartbreaking. It's like nobody's lifting a finger, and the problems just keep piling up. The post office is such a crucial part of local business. What must we do now?"

Farewell to Oom Lew: a pillar of Rustenburg's community

The late Cornelius Llewellyn van der Nest.

Rustenburg – We mourn the loss of Cornelius Llewellyn van der Nest, affectionately known as Oom Lew, the beloved founder of Learn Fast Driving School. His passing on Friday 15 March 2024 has left our community bereft of a true legend whose impact on the lives of countless people will be remembered. Born on 18 March 1953, Oom Lew dedicated his life to teaching thousands of young individuals the importance of safe driving and the pride that comes with it. Oom Lew's funeral is scheduled for Tuesday 2 April 2024, at the Nederduits Hervormde Church in Manuka Avenue, Geelhoutpark, at 10:00, where we will bid him a final farewell. He leaves behind a daughter and three grandchildren, along with a community that admired and respected him deeply.

His life partner of 23 years, Ina Rosslee, reflects on the immense love and admiration the community held for Llewellyn. She shared, "He was truly remarkable, a true legend. His ability to connect with people, his extensive involvement in community initiatives, and his dedication to serve made him a beloved figure to many." Having made Rustenburg his home since 1975, Llewellyn witnessed and contributed to the town's growth from a town to a bustling city. His commitment to safety and education on the road has left a permanent mark on the community. Karin Potgieter, headmaster of Bergsig Academy, praises Oom Lew's gentleness and generosity, noting his passion for his work went beyond teaching driving skills — it was about nurturing and guiding the youth. "He was the most gentle person I knew, with a beautiful, open heart. He helped hundreds, if not thousands, pass their learners and driving licenses, making a significant difference in their lives," says Potgieter. Though Oom Lew is no longer with us, Learn Fast Driving School continues to thrive under the guidance of Ina Rosslee, his dedicated partner and co-pilot in all endeavours. The school stands as a testament to Oom Lew's legacy, embodying his spirit of kindness, dedication, and community service. As we reflect on the life of Cornelius Llewellyn van der Nest, let us honour his memory by embodying the values he lived by: compassion, service, and a commitment to making a positive impact in the lives of others. Goodbye, Oom Lew — you will be dearly missed but not forgotten.

DAYLIGHT ASSAULT ON LOCAL RESIDENT

Jan Erasmus after he was hit over the head.

Rustenburg – In a shocking daylight assault on Saturday, 9 March 2024, Jan Erasmus, a resident on the R24 near Silwerend Primary School just outside Rustenburg, fell victim to a violent attack by three unidentified men. The incident, which occurred right on Erasmus’s property, has left the community calling for increased police presence and responsiveness. Erasmus, while speaking to Platinum Weekly, recounted the harrowing experience: “I live on the R24, right at the second circle. That day, I was out by the gate, busy setting up a fence. Out of nowhere, three men approached me, asking for a cigarette. I refused and continued with my work, only for one of them to strike me on the head with a steel pipe.” The attack was witnessed by a gardener working on the property, who quickly came to Erasmus’s aid with a shovel, causing the assailants to flee the scene. The swift response of the gardener likely prevented further harm to Erasmus, who was fortunate to escape with just one blow to the head. Following the attack, Erasmus reported the incident to the local police, hoping for a prompt investigation and response. However, his calls for help seem to have gone unanswered. “We contacted the police right after the assault, asking them to come over. Up to today, they haven’t shown up nor returned our calls. I’m hesitant to leave the smallholding unattended to visit the police station; it’s just not safe,” Erasmus shared. Despite the violent encounter, Erasmus is currently recovering at home, suffering from headaches but grateful, knowing that it could have turned into something much worse.

CPF MEMBERS INTERVENE IN DANGEROUS INCIDENT

Rustenburg – In a courageous act of community vigilance on Tuesday 5 March 2024, members of the Rustenburg Community Policing Forum (CPF) intervened in a dangerous situation in Kloppe Street, East-End, preventing potential tragedy. The incident unfolded when a man, heavily under the influence of alcohol, assaulted a woman with a firearm before discharging it in her direction. He then retired to bed, allowing the victim an opportunity to seek help. She promptly contacted her neighbour, a friend, and together they managed to secure the firearm in a cloth. Upon the CPF’s arrival, led by the woman’s quick thinking, the firearm was handed over, securely hidden. The CPF members were able to control the situation until the South African Police Service (SAPS) arrived to take the assailant into custody. Marcus Haasbroek, acting executive chairperson of the Rustenburg Executive Committee, extended his profound gratitude towards the CPF members involved: Annelize Germishuys, Rassie Bylieveldt, André Marchall, Mark Norval, André and Veruschka Malan, and Danie Eastes. Their prompt and decisive action not only averted further violence but also underscored the critical role of community policing in maintaining public safety. “We salute the bravery and quick thinking of the CPF members who went beyond the call of duty to protect a member of their community,” Haasbroek remarked, highlighting the significance of community solidarity in times of crisis.

RUSTENBURG COURT HEARS CASE OF ILLEGAL RHINO HORN DEALERS

Rustenburg – A significant development unfolded in the Rustenburg Magistrates’ Court on Monday, 18 March 2024, as Raheer Mahomed (27), Joao Seven (39), Abraham Khoza (49), and Usuf Mikilo (51) faced charges of illegal rhino horn trading. This action comes in the wake of their arrest during a meticulously planned sting operation by local authorities in Rustenburg on Friday 15 March. Colonel Adèle Myburgh reported that the sting operation was set into motion after the police were tipped off about the suspects’ intent to sell rhino horn for R65,000. One of the arrests occurred at a residence in Geelhoutpark, marking a critical juncture in this operation. The prompt and effective response from the police disrupted the planned transaction, leading to the suspects’ capture. Charged under the stringent National Environmental Biodiversity Act 10 of 2004, the suspects now face serious legal consequences for their actions. According to lieutenant colonel Tinyiko Mathebula, this legislation underscores the severity of wildlife crimes and the commitment to preserving biodiversity. Following their court appearance, all four suspects were remanded in custody, and appeared before court on 20 March. “The bail application of the four suspects were postponed to Wednesday 3 April 2024,” said Henry Mamothame, National Prosecuting Authority North West regional spokesperson. The North West Head of Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation, major general Patrick Mbotho, welcomed the arrest and lauded the members’ swift action on the information received.

The rhino horn that was confiscated during the sting operation in Rustenburg, a critical piece of evidence in the fight against illegal wildlife trade.

Lebogang's lucky day: from grocery shopper to Mahindra owner!

Rustenburg – Three Star Powertrade, a leading retail store in Rustenburg, hosted their 'Power-Up' competition on Saturday 16 March 2024, offering patrons the chance to win enticing prizes, including a brand-new Mahindra Bolero Maxitruck Plus.

The competition presented a straightforward challenge: shoppers needed to purchase at least three products from participating suppliers to stand a chance to win. This innovative contest was aimed at giving back to the loyal customers of Three Star Powertrade.

Wayne Labuschagne, the regional general manager of Three Star Powertrade, expressed that the competition served as a gesture of gratitude towards their shoppers. "Thanking our customers is at the heart of what we do, and this competition was an extension of our appreciation," Labuschagne stated.

The event day saw a festive atmosphere with boerewors rolls, a jumping castle and face painting activities that brought smiles to the faces of the young ones, and ample chilled beverages and water to keep the day refreshing.

Lebogang Mbale in her brand-new Mahindra Bolero Maxitruck Plus.

The other winners, each walking away with fantastic prizes, were Pauline Mogaki (air fryer), Amina Molatedi (generator), Jacob Moeng (oven cooker), and Emmerculate Mogalefe (pressure cooker). Each winner expressed gratitude, highlighting the positive ripple effect of Three Star Powertrade's generosity.

This isn't a story, it's a journey.

I'm Reabetswe Maungwa, the creator of 1019 Sauce, and I come from Tlhabane in Rustenburg. When COVID hit, I found comfort in my kitchen. Mixing South African and Ghanaian flavours, I stumbled upon a unique sauce that felt like home.

Glencore, in their effort to build economically resilient and sustainable communities, became an ally in my business with their Enterprise and Supplier Development programme. They provided the tools I needed – an oven, delivery vehicle, and other equipment that allowed me to scale up and produce more. Their support transformed my kitchen experiment into a real business.

I envision a future in agro-processing, empowering others and expanding my brand's reach. Glencore's belief in my journey fuels my determination.

With Glencore as my partner, the story of 1019 Sauce is more than a sauce – it's a testament to dreams nurtured and empowered. To my fellow entrepreneurs, keep that fire alive, trust your path.

Would you intervene by catching a stray animal to take it to a shelter?

In our community, it's not uncommon to encounter stray animals, particularly dogs, wandering close to roadsides. These animals might be long-time street residents or beloved pets that have accidentally strayed from their homes. Encountering such a situation presents a decision: should you intervene? Would you consider safely stopping to rescue a stray dog and taking it to a local animal welfare organisation, such as the Rustenburg Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA) or the Thabazimbi Animal Rescue (TAR)? What do you do in these circumstances?

Yes. I'm convinced that all animals deserve care and protection. The streets present a harsh environment for stray animals, compelling them to adopt aggressive behaviours merely to survive. It is imperative that these animals are brought to organisations like the SPCA, where skilled professionals can provide the necessary treatment.

Kgalalelo Mampono

Unfortunately, the majority of the time, my toddler accompanies me, and given the current crime circumstances in Rustenburg, it's imperative to avoid any situations that could jeopardise our safety, including the risk of being bitten by a stray animal. It would be highly beneficial if the SPCA could offer a WhatsApp reporting line for such incidents.

POLL

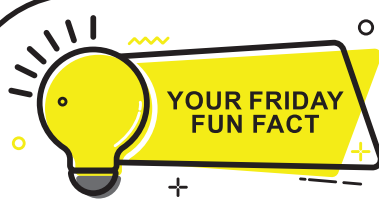

Do you think a life sentence should be for life?

In South Africa, a life sentence (for a crime committed) may not necessarily mean spending one's entire life behind bars, given the provisions for parole under the Criminal Law Amendment Act of 1997. But thinking about murderers, rapists, and serious crime... we want to hear your opinion. Should a life sentence in South Africa unequivocally mean imprisonment for life, without the option for parole? Here's how you can participate. Email us at news@platinumweekly.co.za or WhatsApp your response to 081 579 7000.

Include the following:

- Your answer: Yes or No
- Why? We want to hear from you!
- A recent photo – We'd love to publish your pic alongside your answer!
- Your town/city
- Deadline – Be sure to send your response before 12:00 on Monday, 25 March 2024.

Vote results: The outcome of the poll will be featured in our next issue. Be a part of our community's story! P.S.: Don't forget, you can also voice your opinion on our Facebook post about this topic. Join the conversation!

Did you know; a life sentence in SA is undetermined.

In South Africa, when someone is given a life sentence, it means they could be in jail for their entire life. However, according to the Criminal Law Amendment Act of 1997, sentences vary: the minimum jail time for serious crimes are 25 years for murder, 15 years for rape, and 10 years for robbery before they can ask for parole. Some very rare cases could have a person in jail for 1,000 years with no chance of getting out early. Getting parole isn't guaranteed and depends on if the person behaves well in jail.

Bill Rowan, the legacy behind the marathon

But who was Bill Rowan, and why does this marathon bear his name? A fascinating story submitted by a local reader, featuring old newspaper clippings, sheds light on this remarkable figure from Koster. On 24 May 1921, Bill Rowan, a farmer from Koster, made history by winning the first Comrades Marathon. A memorable story from that day involves a troop of boy scouts, including a 12-year-old Vernon Jones, who would go on to become a significant recorder of Comrades history. They witnessed Rowan, covered in dust and sweat, running alongside a convoy of motor vehicles — a rare sight in those days. Rowan's determination and his accurate prediction of finishing the race in nine hours, one minute ahead of his estimated time, left an indelible mark on the event's history. The Bill Rowan medal, introduced in the year 2000 and named in his honour, commemorates his victory and the standard he set with a finishing time of 8hrs 59min. This medal represents the spirit of endurance, perseverance, and the rich history of the Comrades Marathon. The inaugural Bill Rowan Three Bridges Ultra Marathon is more than just a race; it's a celebration of a legacy, a testament to the enduring spirit of runners, and an invitation to be part of history. Join us in paying tribute to a local legend and making your mark in the world of long-distance running!
