

Chicotelane champion!

From local visionary to business celebrity

Boitumelo Chicotelane, pioneering entrepreneur and winner of the 2024 Grow Your Small Business Competition, inspires Rustenburg!

Rustenburg – In a significant boost to local entrepreneurship, Boitumelo Chicotelane, founder of Chicos Holdings, has clinched the top prize in the 2024 Grow Your Small Business competition.

This event, a collaboration between the Waterfall Mall and key local partners, aimed to nurture the entrepreneurial spirit within the community. Partners included the Platinum Weekly newspaper, Turn Media, Pulse FM 92.9, Rustenburg Local Municipality's Local Economic Development department, SEDA, Property Point, Orbit TVET College's Centre of Entrepreneurship, Office of the Tax Ombud, and First National Bank.

The competition unfolded with a business seminar on 16 March 2024, followed by the selection of the top 10 finalists. From April 16 to 22, these finalists had the opportunity to showcase their business models and innovative ideas during a small business exhibition at the mall.

As the winner, Boitumelo will receive a grand prize worth R170,000. This includes crucial advertising and mentorship opportunities, notably an exclusive full-page advertisement in the Platinum Weekly newspaper, promising substantial exposure.

Tshepiso Makhubo, Waterfall Mall's marketing manager, highlighted the rigorous selection process: "We evaluated various elements to determine the final winner of the competition. Our decision wasn't solely based on the scores from the judges and public votes; we also considered the core vision of the individual and their potential impact on our community and economy. A huge thank you to all the judges for their valuable contributions to the success of this campaign. Your efforts are greatly appreciated by everyone at Waterfall Mall."

In an interview, Boitumelo expressed her gratitude and excitement: "Having been a director at Chicos Holdings for eight years, I've always been eager to learn and seize opportunities to advance my business. When this competition was announced, I embraced it wholeheartedly, determined to elevate my business to new heights. This experience has been incredibly enlightening, helping me to recognise and harness the potential of my business. I am grateful to Waterfall Mall, Platinum Weekly newspaper, and all our partners for helping my business stand out. I owe a big thank you to God, the stakeholders, and the judges for believing in me."

Boitumelo Chicotelane's victory is not just a personal achievement but a beacon of inspiration for aspiring entrepreneurs across Rustenburg.

COMBATING INFRASTRUCTURE VANDALISM AND ILLEGAL CONNECTIONS IN RUSTENBURG

Rustenburg – On Monday 13 May 2024, Rustenburg faced another setback due to sabotage at the North and Munc substations. This destructive trend led to widespread power outages across the region, posing a significant threat to the essential services that our community relies on. The Rustenburg Local Municipality is grappling with an escalation in criminal activities involving the vandalism and theft of crucial electrical and water infrastructure. In light of these challenges, they are urging the community to take an active role in preventing infrastructure vandalism and reporting illegal connections.

Here are some of the criminal acts noted by the municipality:

- Theft of transformers.
- Draining of transformer oil from minisubs, which damages the transformers and causes them to fail.
- Vandalism of substations, including the theft of protective fencing.
- Tampering with traffic lights and theft of associated cables.
- Theft and damage to streetlights.
- Theft of electrical cables, including those connected to residences.
- Destruction and theft of electrical equipment within minisubs and substations.
- Illegal electricity connections, and tampering or bypassing of electrical meters.
- Damaging of electricity supply meter boxes.

These unlawful activities compromise the security and reliability of our electricity and water supply, endangering public safety. The resultant theft and damage lead to prolonged outages, affecting the water supply and necessitating extensive and costly repairs. Illegal connections strain the network, causing overloads that result in longer periods without electricity and water for both households and businesses.

The recent vandalism at our main substation has left Rustenburg residents without essential services for an extended duration. Other criminal acts, like cable theft, exacerbate the challenges related to power and water supply in our communities. In response, the municipality, in collaboration with the South African Police Service (SAPS), has devised a plan to intensify efforts against these criminal activities. They call upon every community member to assist in eradicating this menace. Be vigilant and report any suspicious activities around municipal electrical and water infrastructure to the Rustenburg Local Municipality at (014) 590 3221 or 3304. Additionally, the Community Policing Forums and SAPS can be contacted at (014) 590 4115, 4116, 4117, or the national emergency number 10111.

PARENTS ARRESTED AFTER TODDLERS FOUND ALONE

Rustenburg – The Boitekong Police urged the community to come forward with information after two three-year-old boys, Bokang and Gomolemo, were found alone in Extension 23, Paardekraal on Friday, 10 May 2024. The boys were safely taken to the Boitekong Police Station, and authorities requested family members and relatives to contact them.

Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi reported a subsequent twist when the children's parents were arrested on Monday, 13 May. The parents, aged 26 and 36, approached the police station to report their children missing but were instead taken into custody. They are now facing charges of child neglect and are expected to appear before the Rustenburg Magistrate Court on Wednesday 15 May.

SURVIVAL STRATEGIES

With concerns on the rise regarding vehicle safety and potential hijackings, readers have been seeking advice on what to do if they find themselves threatened while driving. In today's unpredictable environment, being prepared is not just wise — it's essential.

While it may sound like a scene from a movie, the reality of today's world makes it crucial to be prepared. No one can predict their reaction to a crisis perfectly — bullets may fly, cellphones may fall, children may cry. Yet, it's important to think through these scenarios and develop a contingency plan well in advance.

Practical measures for road safety

When faced with an attempted hijacking, your first instinct might be to stop or pull over; however, experts advise against it. Instead, knowing where to drive to, and how to react can make all the difference. Driving directly to the nearest police station while contacting local security companies or neighbourhood watch forums is recommended. It's crucial to have these numbers pre-saved on your phone, ideally set on speed dial for quick access.

Professional advice on staying safe

Gerhard Jansen van Rensburg, chairperson of Rustenburg CPF Sector 2, emphasises the importance of not resisting. "If you are getting boxed in, the best way is to not fight back and obey your attacker's instructions. It's better to be scared than dead. Never look a suspect in the eyes and keep your hands visible at all times," he advises.

Advice from security experts

Mike Bolhuis, Specialist Investigators into Serious Violent, Serious Economic Crimes & Serious

Hijackings and ... Navigating the risks

Cybercrimes says, "Know your car as well as you know the palm of your hand. In a crisis, understanding your vehicle's capabilities can be as crucial as handling a weapon," Bolhuis notes. He also stresses the need for what he calls 'positive paranoia' — staying alert to potential dangers without panicking. He shared the following tips.

Escalation and defence

If attackers start shooting, the immediate response should be to find cover and assess the situation. "Bullets can penetrate car doors, especially if automatic weapons are involved," Bolhuis warns. If gunfire is imminent and escape is not an option, compliance might save your life. However, if there's a chance to safely manoeuvre out of a box-in, using your vehicle to push through might be viable, depending on its robustness.

Emergency communication

Setting up a template on your phone for quick communication in crisis situations is advisable. This template should include a statement like 'crime in progress', your vehicle details, and a live location. Having this pre-written allows you to swiftly notify your contacts and authorities without needing to type during an emergency.

Preparation and mental readiness

Understanding the criminal mindset — that you and your belongings are merely 'merchandise' — can help in assessing the risk level during a hijacking attempt. Preparation does not just involve physical readiness but mental as well. Bolhuis suggests: "Sit in your car, close your eyes, and visualise the scenario. Think about your actions, calculate your responses, and practice making quick decisions."

By taking these expert tips into account and practicing 'positive paranoia', you can enhance your chances of staying safe during a hijacking. It's a tough scenario to consider, but being mentally and physically prepared can potentially save your life.

Rustenburg SPCA rescues neglected dogs amid owner's denial

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA) intervened on Friday 3 May 2024, following a tip-off from a concerned citizen about two severely neglected and malnourished dogs. Calvin Matsimbi, a trainee field officer with the SPCA, initially visited the site where the dogs' owner claimed they were in acceptable condition.

Determined to protect the animals, Calvin returned with Marisa Kruger, the SPCA's manager and inspector. Despite offering the owner a chance to voluntarily surrender the dogs, the plea was outrightly rejected. With no alternative left, Marisa and Calvin secured a court warrant, enabling them to rescue the dogs and place them under veterinary care. Legal proceedings are underway against the owner for neglect. Marisa Kruger stressed the importance of community vigilance, stating, "If you see an animal being neglected and malnourished, please report it immediately. We also urge those struggling to care for their pets to contact the SPCA rather than allowing them to suffer."

The dogs, now named Gracie and Lacie, are recuperating in kennel G1 at the SPCA facilities.

The Rustenburg SPCA is appealing for donations to support their ongoing care and treatment. Contributions can be made by contacting the SPCA at 014 592 3181.

Gracie and Lacie, recently rescued from severe neglect, now safe in kennel G1 at the Rustenburg SPCA.

HOME INVASION AND ROBBERY AT RIETFontein SMALLHOLDING

Rustenburg – A distressing farm attack occurred early Wednesday morning at approximately 01:00, 15 May 2024, on a smallholding in Rietfontein, just outside Rustenburg. Five assailants, including three who appeared to be very young, forcibly entered a home after cutting through the perimeter fencing.

The lone resident, a male homeowner, reported that the intruders used a wrench and a belt to break through the burglar bars and gain access to his residence. Armed with pangas, the suspects proceeded to tie up and assault the victim, resulting

PSALM 26

A Prayer for Divine Scrutiny and Redemption A Psalm of David.

26 Vindicate me,
O Lord,
For I have walked in my integrity.
I have also trusted in the Lord;
I shall not slip.
2 Examine me, O Lord,
and [a]prove me;
Try my mind and my heart.
3 For Your lovingkindness is before my eyes,
And I have walked in Your truth.
4 I have not sat with idolatrous mortals,
Nor will I go in with hypocrites.
5 I have hated the assembly of evildoers,
And will not sit with the wicked.
6 I will wash my hands in innocence;
So I will go about Your altar, O Lord,
7 That I may proclaim with the voice of thanksgiving,
And tell of all Your wondrous works.
8 Lord, I have loved the habitation of Your house,
And the place [b]where Your glory dwells.
9 Do[c] not gather my soul with sinners,
Nor my life with bloodthirsty men,
10 In whose hands is a sinister scheme,
And whose right hand is full of bribes.
11 But as for me, I will walk in my integrity;
Redeem me and be merciful to me.
12 My foot stands in an even place;
In the congregations I will bless the Lord.

POLICE NETS 23 IN ILLEGAL MINING CRACKDOWN

Some of the confiscated items at the illegal mining scene.

Rustenburg/ Hartbeespoort Dam – A collaborative effort to combat illegal mining led to the arrest of 23 individuals over the weekend of 10 to 11 May 2024. Dubbed "Operation Vala Umgodi", the joint crackdown involved efforts in both Hartbeespoortdam and Rustenburg. Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone reported that the arrests included one individual apprehended on Friday afternoon in Rustenburg for possession of explosives. The remaining 22 suspects were taken into custody in Hartbeespoort Dam for engaging in illegal mining activities and violations of the Immigration Act.

The operation saw the participation of multiple units including the South African Police Service (SAPS), the South African National Defence Force (SANDF), and Brits Immigration Officials. A significant cache of equipment used in the illegal mining operations was seized. The items, found abandoned, included three Supersonic generators, twenty additional generators, fifteen extension cords, eleven jack hammers, sixteen hammers, two pressure pumps, sixteen phendukas (gold processing machines) and one phenduka stand, sixty-five chisels, two water pumps, one grinder and four grinder blades, twenty-four spades, eight pickaxes with handles, three knives, two gas cylinders and one gas bottle, twenty-eight pieces of steel chains, and one hacksaw. The suspects were brought before the Rustenburg and Brits Magistrates' Courts on 13 May 2024, where they faced charges related to their alleged crimes.

TRAGIC DISCOVERY IN GEELHOUTPARK

Rustenburg – In a sombre start to the week, the body of an unidentified woman was discovered on Monday morning, 13 May 2024, in Geelhoutpark near Olympia Park. Authorities found the woman's body unclothed, prompting an immediate murder investigation. Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi from the Rustenburg South African Police Service (SAPS) stated, "We are actively investigating this case as a homicide and urgently request that anyone with information come forward to assist."

Members of the community with any leads are encouraged to contact detective warrant officer Karel Khumalo at 082 773 0590.

The police are currently making efforts to locate the family of the deceased. As this investigation continues, we extend our deepest condolences to all who knew her.

The dangers of taking justice into your own hands...

Madikwe – A multidisciplinary team including the District and Madikwe Detectives, Rustenburg Crime Intelligence, and several other local law enforcement units, reasserted the authority of the state with the arrest of seven suspects in Khayakhulu village, Madikwe. Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone reported that the arrests were made following a fatal altercation on the morning of Thursday 9 May 2024. The confrontation began when a local man and the chief's guard visited the suspects' residence to investigate a case of suspected missing or stolen cattle. The situation escalated quickly, resulting in the guard being disarmed and shot with his own firearm. Both he and his companion suffered severe injuries in the incident. The guard was taken to Mabelase Health Centre, where he tragically succumbed to his injuries, while the other victim was transferred to Moses Kotane Hospital for further treatment. The suspects, comprising one female and six males aged 21 to 63, faced charges of malicious damage to property, robbery, attempted murder, and murder at the Madikwe Magistrates' Court on Monday 13 May 2024. Lieutenant General Sello Kwenya, the provincial police commissioner, commended the swift and effective response of the teams.

ELDERLY WOMAN'S MURDER LEADS TO 18-YEAR SENTENCE FOR LOCAL MAN

Rustenburg – Thabang General Molapisi, 28, has been sentenced to 18 years in prison on murder charges. In January 2023, Aleta Maserame Moloko, aged 79, was reported missing, prompting police intervention. Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi reports, "Upon arrival at her residence, police detected a foul odour emanating from inside the home and were compelled to force entry. They discovered Moloko lying face-down on her bed. Several items were noted as missing from the home." Investigations quickly pointed to Molapisi after he was seen selling some of the stolen items. He was arrested the same day while traveling by taxi from Mathopetstad to Rustenburg. Warrant officer Koos Horn played a pivotal role in arresting Molapisi and gathering crucial evidence, which contributed significantly to the successful conviction and sentencing.

Warrant officer Koos Horn was instrumental in the arrest of Thabang General Molapisi and in gathering the evidence that secured his prison sentence.

"Uit Sy oorvloed het ons almal genade op genade ontvang." Johannes 1:16

SA – According to Mike Bolhuis, Specialist Investigators into Serious Violent, Serious Economic Crimes & Serious Cybercrimes, human trafficking refers to the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harbouring, or receipt of individuals through force, coercion, fraud, or deception – for reasons of exploitation. Exploitation can take various forms, including forced labour, sexual exploitation, involuntary servitude, debt bondage, or the removal of organs. It is a grave violation of human rights and a serious criminal offence.

“Traffickers use various methods to control and manipulate their victims, including physical violence, threats, deception, debt bondage, and psychological coercion. It is crucial to recognise that human trafficking is a multifaceted issue that can take different forms depending on the cultural, economic, and social context. Human trafficking is a complex and pervasive issue globally, and it manifests in various forms across different regions,” Bolhuis said.

Protecting yourself against human trafficking involves being aware of potential risks and taking proactive steps to stay safe.

General guidelines to help you minimise the risk of falling victim to human trafficking:

- STAY INFORMED
 - Be aware of the signs of human trafficking and understand how traffickers operate.
 - Stay informed about the issue through reputable sources, organisations, and government agencies.
- BE CAUTIOUS ONLINE
 - Be cautious about sharing personal information online, including on social media platforms.
 - Avoid engaging in conversations or sharing personal details with strangers online.
- EDUCATE YOURSELF
 - Learn about common tactics traffickers use,

- such as false job offers, fake promises, and manipulation.
- Be aware of the risks associated with accepting job offers or opportunities that seem too good to be true.

- TRUST YOUR INSTINCTS
 - If a situation feels uncomfortable or suspicious, trust your instincts and remove yourself from it.
 - Pay attention to your surroundings and the people you interact with.
- STAY CONNECTED
 - Keep in regular contact with friends, family, or trusted individuals, especially if you are in a new or unfamiliar environment.
 - Share your plans and whereabouts with someone you trust.
- BE MINDFUL OF TRAVEL PLANS
 - When travelling, research your destination and be cautious about accepting offers of assistance or transportation from strangers.
 - Keep a copy of essential documents, such as your passport and identification, in a secure location.
- KNOW YOUR RIGHTS
 - Familiarise yourself with your rights, especially in the context of employment, immigration, and personal safety.
 - If you are in a vulnerable situation, seek assistance from local authorities or support organisations.
- REPORT SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITIES
 - If you witness or suspect human trafficking activities, report them to local law enforcement or a human trafficking hotline.
 - Be a responsible and vigilant member of your community.

SERIAL RAPIST SENTENCED TO THREE LIFE TERMS

Rustenburg – On Wednesday 8 May 2024, the Bafokeng Regional Court in Tlhabane sentenced 31-year-old Tshepo Tshwagong to three life terms following his conviction for multiple rapes committed in Phokeng and Boitekong between February 2018 and November 2020. Tshwagong was initially arrested on 6 January 2021 for separate cases of rape and robbery. While serving his sentences, DNA evidence linked him to the 2018 and 2020 incidents. The evidence presented in court included multiple accounts of Tshwagong forcibly dragging women into bushes, strangling, and raping them.

Prosecutor advocate Zola Mpayipheli emphasised Tshwagong's repeated violence and the calculated nature of the attacks. Two of the terms will run concurrently. The successful resolution of the case was praised by provincial police commissioner lieutenant general Sello Kwenia and Dr. Rachel Makhari, director for Public Prosecution in North West, who commended sergeant Obakeng Rasego and advocate Mpayipheli for their effective collaboration in this critical case.

El-Bethel Ministries warms hearts with clothing drive

Rustenburg – As the days grow shorter and the chill of winter sets in, El-Bethel Ministries in Phokeng is reaching out to support disadvantaged families with a heartwarming clothing donation drive. This initiative took place on 1 May 2024, in Kgale section, Phokeng.

Located at Phokeng, El-Bethel Ministries has consistently held these donation drives for the past five years, with each event proving successful thanks to the generous contributions from the community.

During the event on May 1st, the church was bustling with activity. Pastor Tshepiso Senne warmly welcomed all attendees, and the cultural group Dibini Tsa Sefokeng delivered a stirring performance. The event concluded with a closing prayer led by Pastor Senne himself.

El-Bethel Ministries organises these clothing donations five times a year.

If you missed this opportunity but would like to donate clothing, become a sponsor, or assist in collecting clothes, please reach out to Pastor Senne on 068 526 9915 or 079 232 2714.

Learning basic birding skills with BirdLife Rustenburg

Rustenburg – In Rustenburg, bird watching has soared to become one of the fastest-growing hobbies globally — and it's easy to see why. Simply step outside into a garden or park, and you'll be surrounded by our feathered friends. Bird watching hinges on keen observational skills, making each bird sighting a delightful puzzle to solve.

On Saturday 25 May 2024, BirdLife Rustenburg will host a practical course titled "Eye Language," designed to sharpen your birding skills. The course emphasises rapid information processing — a critical skill for any birder. It's about storing mental snapshots that you can later reference, checking details you might have missed or confirming those unique characteristics remembered. Accuracy is key; without it, your recollections might blend too creatively with your field guide, leading to misidentification.

"Eye Language" offers a straightforward system to manage this flood of information effectively. The session starts at 08:30 at the President Kruger Guesthouse, located on Old Johannesburg Road, Waterkloof. While the course is complimentary for BirdLife Rustenburg members, non-members are encouraged to join for a fee of R50. Participants will need to purchase a workbook for R30.

Secure your spot by contacting Estie van der Merwe on 074 603 0976 or Gerda Welman on 082 927 1330 for more details. Whether you're a seasoned birder or new to the hobby, this course is a fantastic opportunity to enhance your birding prowess.

Making Waterberg Avenue safer

Rustenburg – Every morning, as the sun rises over Rustenburg, the N4 serves as the main artery for people entering Rustenburg from various locations. One of the secondary arteries is Waterberg Avenue, which intersects with the R24, stretching from the Waterfall Mall to Mike's Kitchen. Here, pedestrians, many unable to afford other means of transport, sometimes face a perilous journey. When the grass next to Waterberg Avenue remains uncut, the tall, overgrown bushes push them closer, and in some places, directly into the road — into the path of oncoming traffic — a recipe for disaster.

Determined to make a difference, Platinum Weekly rallied the community. Our mission: clear the grass, pave the way for safety. Keystone Milling stepped up, donating sturdy bags for the cleanup and Trailer Tech contributed by providing a trailer to haul away the grass cuttings.

Together, we cut back the overgrowth on Saturday morning, 11 May 2024, clearing a safe walkway beside this busy avenue. Each step we took working our way up the steep hill brought us closer to our goal. This effort was not about making a political statement. It was about recognising a need and addressing it, focusing on road safety. Thanks to the spirit of other local businesses and community members who joined us, we have made a difference for the pedestrians and motorists using this busy road. If each of us contributes to our surroundings, on our own or by joining hands with others, we can uplift our communities in various ways and become more invested in this place we call home.

Together, we make a difference.

Halftime: Taking a well-deserved break and taking the opportunity for a group pic.

"It's unsafe to pass here, and this path is part of my regular jogging route. Many others also walk this way to get to work. Just the simple act of cutting the grass can greatly enhance our safety. We really appreciate it — thank you!"
Peter Ruele

"Running or jogging here is very difficult. We hope for a pedestrian walkway soon to ensure safer commutes to work and healthier lifestyles." Karabo Dube and Tshidi Dube (left)

"Every time I pass here, I worry about the potential of encountering snakes or being forced onto the road where cars are. Last year, I feared for my life when I saw movement in the grass, unsure if it was an animal or a person hiding."
Keatletse Lekagane

"I use this road daily, and the tall grass not only obscures visibility but also provides a hiding spot for criminals. It's particularly risky on weekends when fewer people are around to form groups for safety."
