LIONESS RECAPTURED AFTER BRIEF ESCAPE

Savanna,
safely captured
in a trap cage.

Rustenburg – It was a combination of instinct and bait that led a lioness back to safety after her brief escape from Lost Valley Predators on Rex Road. On Wednesday evening, 5 June 2024, the young lioness, named Savanna, returned unharmed to her enclosure.

Shortly after Savanna's escape on Monday afternoon, notices circulated on social media in which the public was advised not to approach the lioness, avoid sudden movements, and slowly back away if they encountered her. The community readily complied with these guidelines.

Savanna, though raised with human care and described as very tame, remains a wild animal capable of instinctive reactions when threatened. At the time of her escape, she was in heat, which may have influenced her behaviour.

Local residents were highly vigilant, opting to stay indoors to avoid any possible encounters with the lioness. Even pets were kept inside, away from both the lioness and the cold weather.

Jonathan Denga, North West Provincial Director for Biodiversity Management and Conservation, said the gate of the camp where the lioness was kept was opened for a few seconds, and she made use of the opportunity to escape. By Wednesday morning, Savanna's movements were noted. "It was evident that the lioness came close to the trap cage that was set for her," Denga said. After making a brief detour near the Dinnie Estates, she returned to her familiar territory. Baabua Thukubi, Deputy Director of External Communications for the Department of Economic Development, Environment, Conservation, and Tourism, confirmed that the lioness was successfully lured into the trap cage set near Lost Valley by early Wednesday evening, shortly after 6 o'clock.

The successful recapture of Savanna was the result of a coordinated effort between Problem Animal Control Specialist officials and the owners of Lost Valley. Their teamwork ensured the lioness's safe return, much to the relief of the local community.

The Tlhabane reservoir, with the 28km pipeline.

Rustenburg – The minister of the Department of Water and Sanitation (DWS), Senzo Mchunu, accompanied by his deputy Judith Tshabalala, the North West acting premier Nono Maloyi and Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) executive mayor Sheila Mabale-Huma launched Phase 2 of Pilanesberg Bulk Water Supply Project in Mafenya, Chaneng in Rustenburg as part of the North West Provincial Government Accelerated Service Delivery Programme, Thuntsha Lerole, on Friday 24 May 2024.

The project, which is part of the ‘Operation Bulela Metsi’ programme, Phase 2 of the Pilanesberg Bulk Water Supply Project is funded under the Department of Water and Sanitation’s Regional Bulk Infrastructure Grant (RBIG) consisting of the construction of a 30ML Tlhabane reservoir, the construction of Mafenya pump station, and a 28km pipeline to Tlhabane reservoir.

30 ML newly completed Tlhabane reservoir.

Minister Mchunu confirmed that the construction of the 30ML reservoir has been completed and that the Rustenburg communities will soon receive water after connecting the remaining 2-kilometer pipeline.

He said the state-of-the-art pump station with three pumps, one which will be in use and the other two for reserve are one of the best in the province and it will enable continuous maintenance while simultaneously supplying water to communities.

“Come September, the problem of water will be the thing of the past when phase two of the Pilanesberg Bulk Water Supply project will be completed. Then the implementation will proceed to phase three of Magalies Water Master Plan which involves extending water pipes to the south of the Province where Municipalities such as Kgetleng Rivier Local Municipality, Ramotshere Moiloa Local Municipality and further to Supingstad near the border to Botswana will then complete the master plan in terms of implementation,” said minister Mchunu. The acting premier the North West Province, Nono Maloyi further cautioned the unwanted involvement or disturbance of the construction mafia whom he says are delaying the implementation of the water infrastructure projects. He encouraged communities to guard their water infrastructure so to ensure that water flows to them.

Committed to Community Investment Near the Rhovan Operation

At Glencore, we take our responsibility to support and develop the host communities near our operations very seriously. Our efforts include a range of projects designed to enhance the lives and livelihoods of local community members, equipping them with essential skills, knowledge, and experience to start their own businesses, secure employment with other companies, or work with Glencore.

To ensure active community participation, Glencore backs the process of appointing trustees who will establish a board that includes representatives from local communities. This board will be ratified by an Independent Panel, ensuring transparency and inclusivity.

Glencore proudly partners with communities near the Rhovan Mine. Nearly 70% of our employees come from these local communities. For those lacking required competencies, we offer training, development, and succession planning programmes.

Our initiatives start at the school level, where we support students with additional Maths and Science lessons. Upon completing grade 12, students receive opportunities for tertiary education through bursaries and scholarships. We also provide extensive training and development programmes to make community members work-ready. These programmes cover engineering studies, N2 courses, and various learnerships in fitting, instrumentation, boiler making, diesel mechanics, auto-electrician, portal skills, and trackless mobile machinery.

Upcoming Projects and Social Labour Plan (SLP)

We are awaiting approval of our fourth Social Labour Plan (SLP) generation (2023 – 2027) by the Department of Mineral Resources and Energy (DMRE). The SLP includes impactful projects such as:

- Procuring ambulances for the local clinic
- Building a multipurpose centre
- Constructing reservoirs for bulk water storage
- Resurfacing roads
- Building and upgrading sportsfields
- Constructing a high school and administration block

In developing the SLP, Rhovan worked closely with the Organised Labour Traditional Council, Rustenburg Local Municipality, and government departments to identify the socio-economic needs.

Key Community Projects that Rhovan supports:

Community Health: We have built a R30 million state-of-the-art community clinic in Bethanie, serving 27,000 community members. We continue to maintain the clinic's infrastructure, garden, electricity, sewer drainage, and overall improvement.

Education and School Infrastructure: Provision of maths and science programme (grade 8 – 12), scholarships, bursaries, building ablution facilities at local schools, building classrooms, school maintenance, chairs and tables sponsor to all the nine local schools.

Sports and Recreation: We have built three sportsfield facilities in Bethanie, Makolokwe, and Berseba. The Berseba field features an athletic track, cricket and netball facilities, and an outdoor gym. We maintain these facilities and have budgeted for further upgrades in our fourth SLP.

Enterprise and Supplier Development (ESD) Hub: Located in Bethanie, this hub helps develop small businesses by offering business skills training, supported by the Gordon Institute for Business Science (GIBS) in Johannesburg.

Water Provision: In collaboration with Magalies Water and Rustenburg Local Municipality, we are constructing a 23km water pipeline from Kortbegrip reservoir to the host communities. The project is progressing well, with 5km already installed, and is expected to be completed within 12 months. Meanwhile, we have drilled boreholes and provided water tanks and generators to ensure immediate water access.

Renewable Energy: We have started constructing a 25MW solar photovoltaic (PV) plant. We have consulted with the Bakwena-Ba-Magopa Community to engage local SMEs in the construction and installation of the solar plant.

Glencore Ferroalloys remains committed to socioeconomic upliftment where it matters and our goal is to progress together with our communities.

This isn't a story, it's a journey.

I'm Ofentse Jerimiah More, a farmer from Bethanie village in the North West. Before Glencore and Agri-SETA, I worked the land, but a year of intensive training changed my trajectory. Through Glencore's collaboration with Agri-SETA, I unlocked a treasure trove of knowledge. The art of mixing fertilisers, forming farmer alliances, and gaining financial access became my toolkit for success.

Today, I specialise in wheat, soybeans, sunflowers, and even livestock. As the winter wheat sprouts, I tend to its growth, applying top dressing with care. Yet my vision extends far beyond the fields. I dream of a comprehensive school that nurtures young minds in hands-on skills from carpentry to agriculture.

This journey isn't mine alone; it's the pulse of a community empowered. Through Glencore and Agri-SETA, I stand prepared to face the future – one of expansiveness, thriving land, and knowledge shared.

Thank you, Glencore, for cultivating not just crops but a better tomorrow.

Progress. Together.

Glencore Mine back in operation after four weeks

Rustenburg/ Bethanie – The Glencore Rhovan mine operations, situated in Bethanie village in the Rustenburg Local Municipality, is back in operation after four weeks of work stoppage. This after local residents blockaded roads, complaining about lack of employment opportunities by the contractors' doing business at the mine. The mine workforce comprises 65% of the local community members.

After three weeks of negotiation between the provincial government, Rhovan Glencore mine and community leaders, agreed on short, medium, and long term solutions, with employment of fixed term workers being an immediate measure. Seventy workers will be employed immediately and another batch of seventy will be employed in July for a minimum of six months, in different projects including the establishment of a solar power farm.

"We are delighted to announce that the community has agreed to opportunities presented to them by the mine as a short-term measure. We will resolve other issues raised which included the businesses after creating legitimate structures in the areas," said MEC for Economic Development, Environment, Conservation and Tourism (DEDECT) Virginia Tlhapi.

"We intend to host community meetings in all Bakwena ba Mogopa villages to form structures that will champion the interest of the communities. The provincial government also intends to oversee the formation of the Board of Trustees as soon as possible, which will be accountable to the mine royalties of Bakwena Ba Mogopa and further create socio-economic opportunities for all," MEC Tlhapi added.

Glencore's chief operation officer, Adriaan Brugman said the Rhovan remains committed to empowering their host communities so that they thrive with good education, better health facilities and with business and employment opportunities.

"We have employed 649 workers and 65% are from the Bakwena Ba Mogopa villages and we have about 380 on fixed term contracts of which 86% are locals. All employment and business opportunities are advertised on our information portal to ensure fairness and transparency. We are creating other opportunities through the implementation of the social and labour plans. The current SLP is yet to be approved. This is worrisome because we want to implement projects and unlock more opportunities," said Brugman.

Through Glencore's SLP projects, the mine has amongst others built the Bethanie Clinic, Barseba, Makolokwe and Bethanie Sports Facility, built ablution facilities at the local schools and has entered into a MoU with Magalies Water and Rustenburg Local Municipality to supply bulk water to local community members.

The mine is also skilling local community members for employment opportunities and to be business-ready. The mine also empowers locals through training and development interventions including bursaries, learnerships, scholarships, internships, and business studies through GIBS.

OPERATION SHANELA RESULTS IN 644 ARRESTS

North West – In a coordinated effort by police and other law enforcement agencies, a total of 644 suspects were apprehended for various crimes during Operation Shanela, which took place from Monday, 27 May 2024, to Sunday, 02 June 2024. Lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani reported that the arrests included individuals charged with serious offenses such as rape, murder, assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm (GBH), malicious damage to property, residential and business burglary, possession of drugs, theft from motor vehicles, and driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Of the 644 arrested, 307 were wanted for contact crimes like murder, attempted murder, rape, assault GBH, common assault, house robbery, and business robbery. Additionally, 221 suspects were detained during detective suspect raiding operations.

The arrests resulted from various enforcement activities, including stop-and-search operations, roadblocks, patrols, vehicle checkpoints, inspections of licensed liquor premises and second-hand goods dealers, and the tracing of wanted suspects. The operation also led to the confiscation of numerous illegal items, including various drugs, dangerous weapons, 11 cellphones, copper cable, 23 rounds of ammunition, 8kg of precious metals, five firearms, liquor, and five vehicles. Furthermore, two illegal liquor outlets (shebeens) were shut down. Provincial police commissioner lieutenant general Sello Kwena commended all police officers, units, and other participants in Operation Shanela.

SPIKE IN VEHICLE THEFT

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg community is facing a significant surge in vehicle theft, particularly targeting specific makes and models. The South African Police Service (SAPS) has issued a stern warning to residents to be vigilant and take proactive measures to protect their vehicles. According to SAPS communications officer sergeant Ofentse Mogkadi, there has been a noticeable increase in the theft of Toyota Hilux, Fortuner, Quantum, VW Polo, NP 200, and Ford Ranger vehicles in and around Rustenburg. Sergeant Mogkadi advises, "People should be extra careful with their vehicles. If possible, fit in a tracking device or any other security system." He highlighted that known hotspots for these thefts include mines, residential areas, shopping malls, and school parking lots during events. Sergeant Mogkadi also emphasised the importance of community involvement in tackling this issue. "We really appreciate the Community Police Forum (CPF) contribution in assisting us in fighting crime, as well as other security companies. To report on the matter, please phone your nearest police station or seek help from various security WhatsApp groups."

Community Police Forum Exco acting chairperson, Marcus Haasbroek, echoed these concerns. "We have had an excessive increase in vehicle theft, especially at school events where the vehicles are parked outside. Shopping centres are also just as problematic," Haasbroek stated. He advised vehicle owners to install gear locks, foot pedal locks, and tracking devices to make their vehicles harder targets for thieves. "Always make sure your vehicle is properly secured and avoid parking in low light, low foot traffic areas," he added.

Morné Engelbrecht, general manager of Arena Outdoor Security, pointed out that Toyota Hilux bakkies, including single cab, extended cab, and double cab models, are particularly sought after by thieves. "There is a market – especially for white vehicles. It is about what the syndicates are interested in and want. There are tons of Toyotas and Volkswagens on the road every day. They are popular and efficient," Engelbrecht explained. He recommended installing a tracker or upgrading security but warned that these measures alone might not deter determined thieves. "A hotspot is any place where your vehicle is not locked. In Rustenburg, it would be shopping centres, malls, mines, and sporting events. It takes thieves literally 3 to 5 minutes to steal a car and get away with it," he noted.

Engelbrecht's tip for the community is simple: "Always stay cautious." For further assistance, Arena Outdoor Security can be contacted at 082 657 8577. The SAPS urges all members of the Rustenburg community to contact them if they see any suspicious persons around vehicles during events. Reports can be made by calling 0860 10111, 10111, or 112 from a cell phone. Your vigilance and prompt reporting can help curb this alarming trend and protect the community from further vehicle thefts.

MOGWASE COURT HANDS DOWN 15-YEAR SENTENCE FOR MURDER

Mogwase – On Monday 27 May 2024, the Mogwase Regional Court sentenced 24-year-old Moeti Sefale to fifteen years of direct imprisonment for the murder of Reitumetse Gladys Pitso in July 2022. The tragic incident occurred in Monono village near Mogwase. During the trial, the court heard that on the day of the murder, Sefale assaulted Pitso, his girlfriend at the time, with a spade, leading to her death. It was alleged that Sefale found Pitso in bed with another man and, in a fit of rage, attacked both individuals. The man managed to escape, but Pitso was not as fortunate. Detective sergeant Tshepang Mataboge was assigned to the case, successfully tracing and arresting Sefale. Bojanala Platinum Sub-District 2 commissioner, brigadier Mamotsamai Ntoagae, along with her management team, welcomed the sentencing of Sefale. Brigadier Ntoagae extended her gratitude to sergeant Mataboge and all stakeholders involved in the case. In addition to the murder charge, Sefale, a Lesotho national, was sentenced to three months for illegal immigration and declared unfit to possess a firearm. He had been denied bail since his arrest, with Detective Mataboge successfully opposing his bail applications.

Zinniaville residents still grapple with persistent stench: is there a solution in sight?

IEC TENT STOLEN IN BOITEKONG, VOTING CONTINUES UNINTERRUPTED

Rustenburg/ Boitekong – In an unusual incident, an Independent Electoral Commission (IEC) tent was stolen between Tuesday, 28 May and Wednesday, 29 May 2024, near Jabula Mine. The theft has raised concerns within the community, but it did not deter the ongoing voting process. Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone reported, "A case has been opened at the Boitekong Police Station. Unfortunately, the tent has not been recovered yet." Despite the setback, the IEC promptly erected another tent later that day, ensuring that the voting continued. Authorities urge anyone with information regarding the stolen tent to contact the South African Police Services (SAPS) on 08600 10111.

Rustenburg/ Zinniaville – The community of Zinniaville continues to endure a persistent stench originating from the daily operations of the Rainbow Chicken-Epol complex, despite numerous articles and public complaints dating back to April 2021. The offensive odour remains a daily struggle for residents, raising concerns about the efficacy of measures taken to address this issue and prompting calls for a definitive solution. Since the problem was first highlighted in 2021, RCL Foods, the parent company of Rainbow Chicken, has engaged with the Rustenburg Local Municipality multiple times. Despite these efforts, the stench lingers, casting doubt on the effectiveness of the ongoing discussions and remedial actions. In April 2021, a meeting involving the environmental manager of the Rustenburg Local Municipality, the Zinniaville Ratepayers Association, RCL Foods, and the Bojanala Local Municipality was held. The agenda included discussions on the Waste to Value Plant, water provision, and the pending air pollution license. However, after three years, the problem remains unresolved. Platinum Weekly has reached out repeatedly to the Rustenburg Local Municipality, RCL Foods, and the Zinniaville Ratepayers Association for updates since March 2024, yet limited feedback has been received. The residents of Zinniaville await a concrete resolution to this long-standing issue. As the stench continues to disrupt daily life, the community's frustration grows. The question remains: when will the responsible parties take decisive action to end this nuisance once and for all?

JSTH makes history with successful neonatal surgeries

Rustenburg – Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital (JSTH) recently reached a significant milestone in its medical history, successfully performing two complex neonatal surgeries for congenital malformations of the oesophagus (oesophageal atresia). This achievement marks a pivotal moment for the hospital and underscores the quality of care available in the public sector. Oesophageal atresia is a rare congenital disorder where a baby's oesophagus does not develop correctly during pregnancy, resulting in two separate oesophageal tubes that are not connected. These challenging surgeries were completed at the JSTH theatre in April 2024, showcasing the hospital's growing expertise and commitment to advanced medical care. The expert team behind these groundbreaking operations included paediatricians, a paediatric cardiologist, a radiologist, an anaesthesiologist, and intensive care nurses. Their collaborative effort and dedication to their craft have set a new standard for paediatric surgical care in the region. Dr Takalani Morulana, a paediatric surgeon involved in the surgeries, stated, "The babies who underwent these procedures have been discharged and will be monitored closely in our clinic to ensure their continued health and to address any potential complications from the surgery." Gloria Tihapi, the chief executive officer of JSTH, expressed her appreciation to the medical team for their exceptional skill and commitment to improving the lives of their young patients. This milestone serves as a testament to the hospital's ongoing efforts to provide world-class healthcare to the community.

Should prisoners have the right to vote?

In South Africa, prisoners currently have the right to vote in elections, a right exercised in the recent elections held on 29 May 2024. Historically, this was not always the case. When a person is sentenced to imprisonment, they retain all their rights except those that must be restricted to enforce the prison sentence. This means that prisoners maintain their rights to, for example, health care and voting. What's your opinion? Should prisoners be allowed to vote?

No, because citizens who choose to harm the country and its people through unlawful actions do not deserve to be part of the country's future planning, and therefore, they should not be allowed to vote.

Meriska Erasmus, Rustenburg

PROVERBS 15

A Soft Answer Turns Away Wrath
15 A soft answer turns away wrath,
But a harsh word stirs up anger.
2 The tongue of the wise uses knowledge rightly,
But the mouth of fools pours forth foolishness.
3 The eyes of the Lord are in every place,
Keeping watch on the evil and the good.
4 A wholesome tongue is a tree of life,
But perverseness in it breaks the spirit.
5 A fool despises his father's instruction,
But he who receives correction is prudent.
6 In the house of the righteous there is much treasure,
But in the revenue of the wicked is trouble.
7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge,
But the heart of the fool does not do so.
8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord,
But the prayer of the upright is His delight.
