

FIGHT AGAINST ILLEGAL MINING CONTINUES

North West – The ongoing battle against illegal mining saw a noteworthy triumph as the ‘Vala Umgodi’ teams arrested ten Zimbabwean nationals for illegal mining, and contravention of the Immigration Act, 2002 (Act No. 13 of 2002) during separate operations conducted in Tlhatlaganyane village near Sun City outside Rustenburg, as well as Klerksdorp.

Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone reported that seven suspects aged between 24 and 41 made their first appearance before the Mogwase Magistrates’ Court on Monday 3 June 2024, following their arrests in Tlhatlaganyane on Saturday afternoon 1 June 2024, during an anti-illegal mining operation.

During the operation, the police found abandoned equipment, including two generators, five water pumps, two jack hammers, shovels, three spades, and wheelbarrows.

In Klerksdorp, three suspects, aged between 23 and 27, were arrested on Monday 3 June 2024 at the Wolverand illegal mining site near Klerksdorp. The team also discovered a production site and summoned the Explosives Unit to destroy the chemicals. Moreover, the members found various equipment used during illegal mining activities, including jack hammers, six generators, two phendukas, two gas bottles, two phenduka motors, a welding machine, eight electrical cables, ten steel rods, a water pump, and a grinder.

The provincial police commissioner, lieutenant general Sello Kwenja, congratulated the teams for their efforts in the fight against illegal mining.

A bust at one of the illegal mining sites.

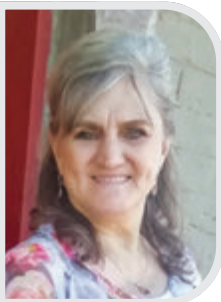

The police seized various illegal mining equipment used by the suspects.

From service to leadership: Letsatsi and Badenhorst appointed station commanders

North West – The provincial commissioner of the North West, lieutenant general Sello Kweni, accompanied by the deputy provincial commissioners and district commissioners, conferred ranks to 13 newly appointed station commanders. The conferment ceremony took place on Friday 10 May 2024, at the South African Police Service (SAPS) provincial office in Potchefstroom.

Among the newly appointed Station Commanders, we highlight two distinguished officers from our community.

Lieutenant colonel Christina Selina Obakeng Letsatsi, Swartruggens

Lieutenant colonel Letsatsi has been appointed as the station commander of Swartruggens. With an impressive 33 years of service and a diploma in policing, she brings a wealth of experience and dedication to her new role. Lieutenant colonel Letsatsi emphasised the importance of strengthening the Community Police Forum (CPF), recognising that police cannot combat crime alone. “We need community support and other stakeholders’ engagement,” she stated. Having begun her police schooling in 1991, her career spans both education and training, marking her 33 years of committed service. She expressed her hope that her promotion would inspire others to have passion in their work and to invite God into their endeavours.

Captain Jacques Badenhorst, Boshhoek

Captain Jacques Badenhorst has been appointed as the station commander of Boshhoek. With 33 years of service and a diploma in policing, captain Badenhorst’s extensive career includes holding the position of warrant officer for over 26 years before his promotion to captain. He has been a dedicated member of the Boshhoek station for the past nine years. Captain Badenhorst is determined to enhance service delivery at his station, emphasising the need for improved work ethics among his officers. “To achieve dedicated service delivery, it means that members from the station and police officers will need to improve their work ethics. To me, discipline is the key aspect to achieve the desired result,” he stated. Despite his deep passion for his job, captain Badenhorst underscores the importance of his family, describing them as the cornerstone of his life. Reflecting on his long-awaited promotion, he shared, “All good things come to those who wait, do not give up. Keep the faith, I believe that God will bless you for your hard work and loyalty.”

The appointment of these ranks signifies a great milestone in the careers of lieutenant colonel Letsatsi and captain Badenhorst, both of whom have demonstrated unwavering dedication to their duties and their communities. Their leadership and commitment are expected to bring positive changes and reinforce the collaborative efforts needed to ensure safety and security in their respective areas.

Madikwe/ Sun City – In a successful joint operation, Sun City and Madikwe Visible Policing, Madikwe Detectives, and Mabeskraal Visible Policing collaborated to arrest four suspects for armed robbery, possession of suspected stolen goods, and the unlawful possession of firearms and ammunition. Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone reported that the arrests were made in connection with an armed robbery allegedly committed in Dwaarsberg. Following the incident, police mobilised in Mabeskraal, Sun City, and Madikwe to block all major routes entering or exiting the three station’s policing areas. This effort led to the stopping of a suspicious blue Hyundai vehicle in Ledig village for a search. The search yielded two unlicensed firearms, six rounds of ammunition, and suspected stolen goods, including 11 cell phones and an assortment of cigarettes. All four occupants of the vehicle were arrested. The suspects, aged between 18 and 44, appeared before the Mogwase Magistrates’ Court on Monday 10 June 2024.

MASSIVE CRIME CRACKDOWN LEADS TO 1,278 ARRESTS IN NORTH WEST

North West – In an effort to prevent and combat crime, North West police, in collaboration with other law enforcement agencies, have once again demonstrated their commitment to public safety. During a series of high-density operations conducted from Monday 3 June to Sunday 9 June 2024, a total of 1,278 suspects were arrested for various offenses. Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone confirmed that the suspects were apprehended for a range of crimes, including rape, murder, assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm (GBH), house and business robberies, malicious damage to property, burglary at residential and business premises, possession of drugs, theft from motor vehicles, and driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Among these, 379 suspects were apprehended during detectives’ suspect raiding operations. Detective warrant officer Phenyo Monchusi, instrumental in the success of this case.

where his 29-year-old ex-girlfriend was sleeping. He then proceeded to assault, rape, and rob her of cash and other valuables before fleeing the scene. # DRUG BUST AT RUSTENBURG BUS RANK

Rustenburg – On Saturday 8 June 2024, an intelligence-driven operation conducted jointly with the police and the Vala Umgodi team led to the arrest of 34-year-old Mogomotsi Thebe at the bus rank for dealing and possession of drugs. Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi reported that Thebe was found in possession of 22 Mandrax pills (buttons), 79 sachets of nyaope, and 37 rocks, with a total street value of over R7,000. Mogomotsi appeared before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Monday 10 June, and was remanded in custody until 30 July 2024. # Graveyard vandalism sparks community outrage

Rustenburg/ Tlhabane – Several community members have voiced their concerns over the ongoing vandalism at the Tlhabane Graveyard. Upon inspection, it was clear that the graveyard lacks fencing, which used to be in place but has since been stolen. "We pleaded with the municipality to install a new fence, but it seems there is no budget, or perhaps they fear it will be stolen again," said a nearby resident who wished to remain anonymous. "It's a difficult situation because respecting the dead is culturally very important." Efforts to speak with the graveyard keeper were unsuccessful as he declined to comment. Another resident, an elderly woman who also requested anonymity, revealed that the youth are known to be responsible for the vandalism. "They steal anything they find valuable on the graves and sell the items or use them in their households. It's such disrespect and unholy. How can the dead rest?" Josephine Motswasele, chairperson of the Tlhabane Community Police Forum (CPF), confirmed that the only reported act of vandalism was the recent burning of several areas within the graveyard. "We regularly patrol the graveyard," Motswasele said. "We are pleading with the community of Tlhabane to stop these acts of vandalism. The community should stand together and report such acts." Community members are encouraged to report any suspicious activity to Josephine Motswasele at 073 187 9043 or to the police at 112.

ARREST MADE FOR POSSESSION OF EXPLOSIVES

According to lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani, Zitha's court appearance follows his arrest on Thursday 6 June 2024, at Mahumapelo Phase 1. Marikana Visible Policing members carried out the arrest during a crime intelligence-driven operation.

STAY SAFE IN OLYMPIA PARK AREA!

[letter to the editor]

Rustenburg – I am writing to raise awareness about the increasing number of suspicious men lurking around Olympia Park and the surrounding areas. The area is densely populated with bushes, providing plenty hiding spots, which can pose a significant threat to anyone walking alone.

We need to look out for each other. Here are some tips to stay safe:

- Don't walk alone: Always try to have someone with you. Safety in numbers!
- Stay alert: Keep an eye on your surroundings and avoid using your cellphone while walking.
- Walk fast: Don't stroll; keep a quick pace to get through the area faster.
- Carry protection: Have something like pepper spray with you for protection, and know how to use it.
- Watch out for each other: If you see anything strange, report it. Let's keep an eye out for our community.

Let's spread the word!

The unseen impact of fathers, happy Father's Day!

[letter to the editor]

As Father's Day approaches, I find myself reflecting deeply on the profound impact fathers have on their children. Research consistently supports that fathers play a crucial role in the development and wellbeing of their kids, often leaving an indelible mark that shapes their future. In my own life, this truth resonates deeply. Growing up, I respected my mother immensely, but when my father spoke, I was all ears. There was an unspoken understanding and a profound respect that his words commanded. This dynamic, I believe, is echoed in many families, and it underscores the unique influence fathers hold.

Today, as a father myself, I carry these lessons with me. I am acutely aware that my words and actions are shaping my children's character and future choices. This awareness drives me to treat my wonderful wife with the utmost respect and to make a conscious effort to spend quality time with my family. We strive to disconnect from the distractions of cellphones and electronic devices, even if it's just for a little while, because it's the quality of the time that truly matters. I miss my Dad every day. He passed away about four years ago, but his lessons remain with me. He taught me how to ride a bicycle, how to stand up for myself, and when to choose my battles. He was there to help me with my homework when my mom was at her wit's end. I wasn't a troublesome child, but I definitely kept my parents on their toes. To all the fathers out there, I want to remind you of the incredible role you play in your children's lives. You are their heroes, their role models, even if you don't feel perfect. It's not about perfection; it's about being present, loving, and supportive and to reprimand when needed. Your impact is immeasurable. Happy Father's Day to all the dads who strive to be the best they can be.

This beauty pageant isn't fraudulent... but be warned!

[letter to the editor]

I'm writing to share my thoughts on the latest pageant making waves. Spoiler alert: it's got all the glitz, glamour, and a hefty price tag to boot! Let's start with the basics. Picture this: stunning, inspiring, creative women, all vying for the crown with dreams of making the world a better place. Sound familiar? That's because it's the same script, different stage. Yes, this beauty pageant – which I won't name – is just like all the others. Contestants must do wonderful things for their communities, which, of course, is lovely! And yes, there's a panel of judges ready to scrutinise every twirl and smile. But wait! Cue the dramatic music and zoom in on the fine print. This is where things take a turn for the absurd. To support your favourite contestant, you'll need to dish out some serious cash – we're talking anything from R50 to a jaw-dropping R1,000! Yes, you read that right!

Now, darling, let me tell you something. I've been around the block with beauty pageants, and I'm used to the R3 vote per person line. Maybe R5 if we're feeling fancy. But this? This is just next-level ridiculousness. It's like a contest to see whose family and friends have the deepest pockets. Spoiler: the richest ones win!

Honestly, if you're entering a pageant like this, I have to question your sanity. You're essentially paying for a popularity contest where the only thing being judged is your bank account. If you're looking to make a difference and shine bright, maybe think twice before jumping into this sparkly money pit.

A CRY FOR HELP: MÔRESTER NEEDS A BLOOD SUGAR MONITOR

Rustenburg – MôreSter Child and Youth Care Centre recently welcomed a 7-year-old child into their care. In May 2024, the child was hospitalised and diagnosed with type 1 diabetes, a condition that developed over time. Currently, the child relies on the Accu-Chek instant meter to monitor her blood sugar levels. The centre receives insulin from Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital. However, a recent change in the type of insulin has made it challenging to stabilise the child's condition.

Helen Lotz, the director of MôreSter, shared their struggle: "We are diligently following the doctors' guidance to stabilise the child's insulin levels through diet. But what we urgently need now is a blood sugar monitor to accompany the child to school."

MôreSter is reaching out to the community for assistance. If you can help by donating a blood sugar monitor or in any other way, please contact Helen Lotz at 082 460 8418.

Pasop vir bedrog met e-posse en sms'e!

[skrywe aan die redakteur]

Beste redakteur,

Ek wil graag 'n belangrike waarskuwing met ons gemeenskap deel oor 'n bedrieglike e-pos wat ek onlangs ontvang het. Die boodskap het verdag gelyk van die staanspoor af, en hier is die inhoud daarvan:

"Suid-Afrika Pos: Jou pakkie het by die pakhuis aangekom, maar dit word gehou weens onduidelike adresinligting en kan nie afgelewer word nie. Bevestig asseblief die adres in die skakel binne 12 uur. <http://postofficpx.com/za> Geseënde dag! van die Suid-Afrikaanse Pos-span!"

Ek het agterdogtig geraak omdat ek nie 'n pakkie verwag het nie, en niemand wat ek ken stuur pos deur die gewone posdiens nie. Ek het my man geraadpleeg, en hy het gesê dit sal nie skade doen om uit te vind nie. Ongelukkig het ek op die skakel geklik, en 'n paar minute later het my skootrekenaar opgehou werk.

Ek het dadelik die rekenaar na 'n tegnikus geneem, en hy het bevestig dat die skakel 'n gevaarlike virus bevat het. Die tegnikus het voorgestel dat ek die Suid-Afrikaanse Posdienste direk kontak om te bevestig of daar werklik 'n pakkie vir my is. Soos verwag, was daar geen pakkie nie.

Ek is dankbaar dat my rekenaar 'n probleem ontwikkel het, want dit het my waarskynlik beskerm teen verdere skade. Gelukkig kon die tegnikus die probleem vinnig oplos.

Ek wil ons gemeenskap waarsku om versigtig te wees vir hierdie tipe bedrogspul. Moet nie op verdagte skakels klik in e-posse nie, en bevestig altyd direk met die betrokke diensverskaffer voordat enige aksies geneem word. Ek het op sosiale media gelees van persone wat dieselfde boodskap met die skakel as 'n sms op hul foon ontvang het. Ons persoonlike inligting is kosbaar en ons moet dit beskerm.

IN SA, 70% OF SUICIDES ARE MALE

SA – In a press release, Mike Bolhuis, Specialist Investigators into Serious Violent, Serious Economic Crimes & Serious Cybercrimes, cited a psychological report which found that in 2023, no less than 70% of South African patients at risk of suicide were male. This alarming trend of male suicides is on the rise in South Africa, exposing the country's forced patriarchy where men are expected to be strong and women vulnerable. Shockingly, South Africa ranks 10th on the list of countries with the highest number of suicides, with 13,774 suicides reported in 2022, of which 10,861 were men. Men are five times more likely to die from suicide than women, and the main factors contributing to suicide among men are unemployment, childhood trauma, and relationship issues. Moreover, financial difficulties, where a man is unable to provide for his family, also stood out as one of the reasons for male suicides. Sexual orientation issues, illness (mental and physical), and drug abuse were among the other reasons for suicide.

- RED FLAGS
Recognising the warning signs or red flags of suicide in men is crucial for early intervention and prevention. While these signs can vary from person to person, some common red flags to watch for include:
- Expressing hopelessness or worthlessness
    - Men contemplating suicide may express feelings of despair, hopelessness, or a sense that life is not worth living.
    - They may vocalise thoughts like "I can't go on anymore" or "things will never get better."
  - Withdrawal and isolation
    - Social withdrawal or isolating oneself from friends, family, and social activities can be a sign of distress.
    - Men at risk of suicide may avoid contact with others and prefer to be alone.
  - Changes in behaviour or mood
    - Noticeable changes in behaviour, mood swings, or extreme mood changes can indicate underlying emotional turmoil.
    - This may include sudden irritability, agitation, or expressions of anger.
  - Increased substance abuse
    - Escalating alcohol or drug use can be a sign that someone is struggling to cope with emotional pain.
    - Substance abuse may serve as a way to numb feelings or escape reality temporarily.
  - Talking about death or suicide
    - Men who frequently talk about death, dying, or suicide, even in a casual or joking manner, should be taken seriously.
    - They may express thoughts or fantasies about ending their own lives.

- Giving away prized possessions
  - Making arrangements to give away belongings or tie up loose ends can be a warning sign that someone is considering suicide.
  - This may include giving away valuable items, updating wills, or making unusual financial decisions.
- Sudden calmness or peace
  - Sometimes, individuals who have decided to end their lives may exhibit a sudden sense of calmness or peace.
  - This can be misleading, as it may indicate that they have already resolved to take action.
- Changes in sleep patterns or appetite
  - Disrupted sleep patterns, insomnia, or changes in appetite can be physical manifestations of underlying mental health issues.
  - Men at risk of suicide may experience significant changes in their sleeping or eating habits.
- Loss of interest in hobbies or activities
  - A sudden loss of interest in previously enjoyed activities or hobbies can be a sign of depression or emotional distress.
  - Men who withdraw from activities they once found pleasurable may be struggling with their mental health.

"It is important to remember that these warning signs are not always easy to recognise and may vary depending on individual circumstances. If you notice any of these red flags in yourself or someone else, it is crucial to take them seriously and seek help from a mental health professional or crisis hotline," Bolhuis added.

Donate winter clothes and blankets to Care 2b Kind

Rustenburg – As the winter chill sets in, Care 2b Kind is urgently seeking donations of winter clothes and blankets for children in need. "It's heartbreaking to see so many children shivering in the cold. My phone is flooded with messages from local families desperate for help," shared Riana Kroese of Care 2b Kind. "It pains my heart to think that any child should endure the harsh winter without the warmth they deserve." "If you have any winter clothes or blankets that you can spare, please consider donating them to our cause. The children we support often live in garages or Wendy houses, where it's incredibly cold. Every donation, no matter how small, makes a significant difference," she implored. Care 2b Kind is a non-profit organisation devoted to aiding less fortunate families with children. "Our children are our future and our most precious treasures. We have a moral duty to provide for them to the best of our ability. These vulnerable children should not have to bear the burdens that life places on their parents or guardians," emphasised Kroese. Many children face bullying and judgment at school due to their appearance or hygiene, issues stemming from their families' financial struggles. These children either dread going to school or hide during breaks, overwhelmed with shame. "Our children should never feel worthless or despise their lives," Kroese stated passionately. Care 2b Kind is determined to make a positive impact on these children's lives, regardless of the scale. The organisation provides essential items such as food, blankets, and clothing, and extends support to infants with necessities like formula milk, diapers, cereals, purity, clothing, and blankets. "There are countless families living in dire conditions — garages, tents, squatter camps, and caravans — who are in desperate need of help. With the support of our local businesses and the community, we can bring a bit of light and warmth into these children's lives," Kroese explained with heartfelt urgency. For more information or to make a donation, please contact Riana Kroese at 082 061 8458. Your generosity can help ensure that no child is left in the cold this winter.

Do wind turbines kill birds?

Rustenburg – In South Africa, wind turbines cause an average of 4.1 bird fatalities per turbine each year *. This statistic places South Africa within the same range of bird fatality rates as reported in North America and Europe. To address this issue, BirdLife South Africa has collaborated with the government and environmental specialists to create screening tools and best practice guidelines. These resources aim to help stakeholders avoid and minimise risks to bird species through careful planning, construction, and operation of renewable energy facilities. John Gibbs, the project leader of the Birds and Renewable Energy Project at BirdLife South Africa, will discuss these efforts in more detail at the upcoming BirdLife Rustenburg meeting. Gibbs will share insights into how BirdLife South Africa engages with stakeholders to ensure that the expansion of renewable energy, particularly wind energy, does not harm the bird species and habitats that need to be conserved. This informative meeting will take place on Monday 17 June 2024, at the Methodist Church on the corner of Brink and Schuurman Streets. The event will start at 18:30 and is open to both members and non-members of BirdLife Rustenburg. Everyone is welcome! Non-members are required to pay a fee of R30.00 per person. For those interested in learning more about BirdLife Rustenburg or attending future events, please contact Charles Foot on 073 452 3874. * *Source: Occasional Report Series 2, BirdLife South Africa. ### Do you use a heater in winter?

What's your opinion on using heaters during winter? Do you find them indispensable, too costly, or a potential health risk? Join the conversation and let us know how you stay warm during the cold months. Stay warm!

No, a heater can make the house warmer and more comfortable, but it's not always the best for our health. Prolonged use can lead to colds, flu, headaches, and congestion. To avoid these issues, I prefer to stay under a blanket during winter, wear warm clothing, and use a hot water bottle.

Naledi Tau,
Rustenburg

Yes, I consider gas heaters essential during winter. They provide steady warmth and, with modern safety features, are both efficient and dependable. Moreover, they are invaluable during load shedding since they don't rely on electricity, alleviating concerns about costs and health risks.

PROVERBS 21

The Lord Considers the Heart

21 The king's heart is in the hand of the Lord, Like the rivers of water; He turns it wherever He wishes.

2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes, But the Lord weighs the hearts.

3 To do righteousness and justice Is more acceptable to the Lord than sacrifice.

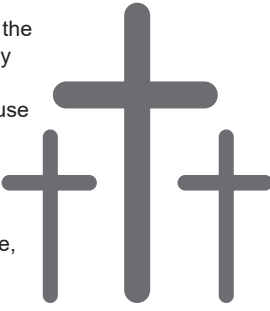

4 A haughty look, a proud heart, And the plowing of the wicked are sin.

5 The plans of the diligent lead surely to plenty, But those of everyone who is hasty, surely to poverty.

6 Getting treasures by a lying tongue Is the fleeting fantasy of those who seek death.

7 The violence of the wicked will destroy them, Because they refuse to do justice.

8 The way of a guilty man is perverse; But as for the pure, his work is right.

CASMAR Impala prepares for tough battle against Welkom

Rustenburg – CASMAR Impala Rugby Club is gearing up for their next challenge against Welkom Rugby Club in Welkom on Saturday 15 June 2024. CASMAR Impala Rugby Club’s head coach Johan Engelbrecht expressed his thoughts on the upcoming match, stating, “We have a tough trip ahead over the long weekend as we face Welkom, last year’s President’s League champions. Our previous encounter with them at the start of 2024 on our home ground resulted in a 25-5 loss. However, we are optimistic about extending our winning streak to four consecutive victories and securing our spot in the top three.” For more details, contact CASMAR Impala Rugby Club president Spiedie du Plessis on 082 822 0620.
