TOURIST TRAMPLED BY ELEPHANTS

Tragic incident at Pilanesberg National Park

Rustenburg – A tragic incident occurred on Sunday morning, 7 July 2024, when a tourist from Spain was trampled to death by elephants at Pilanesberg National Park. The tourist, who was accompanied by his fiancée and two other female friends from Boksburg, was fatally injured after approaching a herd of elephants near the Bakgatla gate. According to the North-West Parks and Tourism Board acting chief conservation officer, Pieter Nel, the group encountered a breeding herd of elephants feeding at a distance from the road. Despite warnings from his companions and other nearby tourists, the man exited their Hyundai Grand I10 to take photographs. An adult elephant cow charged at him, and as he attempted to flee, he was caught and trampled by the entire herd. Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone, SAPS spokesperson, confirmed: “The police in Mogwase have opened an inquest docket after the 43-year-old man was killed by elephants. Reports suggest that the man stopped the vehicle, got out on foot, and walked closer to take photos. His companions were not harmed, and the vehicle was unaffected.” Eyewitnesses reported that despite warnings from his fellow passengers and occupants of two other vehicles at the sighting, the man did not heed their advice. The adult elephant cow charged at him, and he was unable to escape or evade the herd. The elephants then moved away from the scene without displaying aggression towards nearby vehicles and eventually disappeared into the bushes.

Moremi Keabetswe, the manager of Pilanesberg Nature Reserve, expressed condolences on behalf of the reserve management team. “The Pilanesberg Nature Reserve management team extends condolences to the family of the deceased. This unfortunate incident has deeply affected not only the victim’s family but also the Pilanesberg Nature Reserve family. We are sorry that his wildlife experience resulted in such a tragedy. May his soul rest in peace.” Park officials were alerted and promptly rushed to the scene to aid the affected persons, secure the area, and assist SAPS and other officials with necessary procedures and investigations. Statements from witnesses suggest that the female elephant might have attacked to protect the herd and its young ones. The case has been handed over to the police for further investigation. The North-West Parks and Tourism Board emphasised the unpredictable nature of wild animals and the importance of following park rules. Tourists are continually educated on the significance of staying inside their vehicles, respecting the distance between animals and vehicles, and only getting out in designated areas. These regulations are printed on the entry permits and are essential for the safety of both guests and animals. In response to the incident, the North-West Parks and Tourism Board expressed their deep sorrow. “We also appreciate Sun City Resort for providing immediate counselling to the visibly traumatised friends of the deceased.”

Bakwena's R300m boost for N1N4 route: progress report

Bakwena Platinum Corridor Concessionaire (Pty) Ltd is pleased to share significant progress in enhancing the N4 route's safety and travel experience. With a dedicated investment of R300 million for 2024, Bakwena's construction and maintenance efforts are already delivering improvements, ensuring safer and smoother journeys for all road users.

Here is the mid-year update:

- N4 dual carriageway construction: The 43-month construction project between the Buffelspoort interchange and Dr. Moroka interchange, which started in March, is on track. Current activities include roadbed preparation, addressing sub-strata challenges with an impact roller for collapsible sands. Blasting for the new carriageway will start soon, with expected delays of 10-15 minutes, and advance public notifications will be provided.
- Resurfacing project: The resurfacing of the eastbound section between Buffelspoort and Majakaneng was completed on time and within budget in March 2024. Remedial activities will start soon.

- Special maintenance on N4: Starting in July, fog spraying between Zeerust and Groot Marico involves a light bitumen emulsion application to maintain the road surface. Lane closures and “stop/go” facilities will be in place for approximately three weeks in July, causing potential delays. Road users are urged to plan their journeys accordingly and follow posted signage.
- Bridge maintenance: Ongoing maintenance across all bridges on the N4 route ensures their continued safety and functionality.

Solomon Kganyago, chief operating officer of Bakwena, says: "Road user safety is our top priority; we encourage road users to adhere to the traffic road signs, obey speed restrictions that have been implemented, and exercise caution and patience while we undertake these works which will enhance your driving experience along the N1N4 route".

When this happened to me, the cop asked, 'so, what must I do?'

Rustenburg – Victim shares the story of her ordeal with Platinum Weekly – In an unsettling incident on the night of Monday 8 July 2024, a 31-year-old woman, who works at a shop in the Lifestyle Square Shopping Centre, experienced a traumatic ordeal. Residing in Kruger Street, a short walk from her workplace, she regularly walks home. However, this routine walk turned into a nightmare as she was overpowered, robbed, and narrowly escaped a sexual assault.

The woman, who lacked funds for a Bolt ride home that day, began her usual route down Beyers Naude Drive, turning into Boshoff Street. “I was getting more and more scared as I started to notice the streets were empty. No people or cars driving by,” she recounted. The sense of unease grew as she neared the corner of Boshoff and Kerk streets, where she realised a man was following her. “He then started walking next to me, and when he saw an opportunity, he came closer and started holding and grabbing at my breasts,” she said. The man wielded an empty glass beer bottle, which he threatened to use as a weapon. "I thought I was going to get raped because he kept asking me to kiss him," she recalled. In a desperate bid to escape, she handed over her cellphone and ran as quick as she could to her home.

Once home, she collapsed into her mother's arms, overwhelmed by relief and terror. "Thank the Lord I am still alive because I gave him my phone which he wanted, but I was so scared I was going to get assaulted, raped, or something worse," she told her mother.

In the aftermath of the attack, the victim and her mother contacted the police. However, they were met with a disheartening response. An unenthusiastic officer simply asked, "So, what must we do?"

The Platinum Weekly urges the community to remain vigilant and take precautions, especially when traveling alone at night. This incident underscores the urgent need for increased police presence.

Rustenburg – Dino World South Africa came to Rustenburg, bringing a prehistoric adventure to life at the Rustenburg Showgrounds from 4 to 7 July 2024. The Dino Expo, running from 09:00 to 17:00 each day, delighted young and old alike with its thrilling attractions. The event featured four captivating sections. The Dino Expo offered a walk-through maze showcasing fascinating dinosaurs like the Gastonia and Pterodactyl. The Jurassic Giants section highlighted the majestic Tyrannosaurus Rex and the enormous Australotitan, among other awe-inspiring creatures. Dino Street Theatre provided dinosaur amusement rides for children, while the Reptile Show featured a variety of snakes, small crocodiles, frogs, and tortoises. In addition to these main attractions, the event included jumping castles and fossil digging activities, ensuring non-stop fun for everyone. Families from near and far joined in the excitement, making lasting memories. One such family, Sunette and Gerrit Maree, travelled all the way from Groot Marico. They told their children, Reghard (10) and Elisna (4), they were going on a family picnic, but the real surprise was the Dino Expo. Reghard exclaimed, "I can't believe it! I love dinosaurs, but they might come eat me!" Meanwhile, seven-year-old Armone Westraat, proudly wearing a 'Girls like dinosaurs too' shirt, declared, "My favourite dinosaur is Velociraptor! Roarrrr." The Dino Expo's visit to Rustenburg was a roaring success, leaving children and their families with unforgettable experiences and a newfound love for the ancient giants of the past. Despite some negative talk on social media about the show, most of the people we spoke with absolutely loved it — especially the kids!

SONG OF SOLOMON 2

The Beloved's Request
The Shulamite
8 The voice of my beloved!
Behold, he comes
Leaping upon the mountains,
Skipping upon the hills.
9 My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag.
Behold, he stands behind our wall;
He is looking through the windows,
Gazing through the lattice.

10 My beloved spoke, and said to me:
"Rise up, my love, my fair one,
And come away.
11 For lo, the winter is past,
The rain is over and gone.
12 The flowers appear on the earth;
The time of singing has come,
And the voice of the turtledove
Is heard in our land.

Do you feel safe in your neighbourhood?

In light of recent events and ongoing discussions about community safety, we want to hear from you. Do you feel safe in your neighbourhood? Your input is crucial in helping us understand the current state of security in our community and in identifying areas that need improvement. Please take a moment to participate in our poll and share your thoughts.

No. Due to rising unemployment, crime has escalated dramatically. The uncertainty of making it home safely after work looms over everyone's heads. Whether you're stopped at a traffic light or stepping out of your car, the threat of robbery is ever-present. Vigilance is required as you approach your home, wary of potential hijackers at your gate. Even if an intruder is already inside your house, you might still be waiting for the police to arrive. These days, a life seems to hold little value. Wilna Claassen

Yes, I do feel safe because I am familiar with my surroundings and confident in my ability to defend myself. Abram Letsholo

If you feel safe in your neighbourhood, you might be too naive in my opinion. Don't be careless. Feeling safe is a dangerous feeling because it makes you an easy target if you're not vigilant. Always stay on guard, especially if you believe your surroundings are completely secure. #Don'tBeStupid

Honouring a legacy

JB Cross Country 2024 track day in memory of Julius Booysen

Rustenburg – On Saturday 6 July 2024, Loerkop Dirt Bike Circuit at Loerkop Rustenburg hosted the JB Cross Country 2024 track day in memory of Julius Booysen. The event was not a formal race, but a day dedicated to fun and honouring the beloved Julius Booysen, who tragically lost his life on 28 October 2023. Julius was laid to rest on this cherished land, owned by his mother, Retha Maree. The day was organised by Ruach Eventistry personnel and Loerkop Rustenburg's Soretha Booysen, Julius's wife. It saw an impressive turnout, with participants of all ages coming together to celebrate Julius's passion for dirt biking. One of the young participants, 13-year-old Divan Hattingh from Ho rskool Randburg, shared his enthusiasm, saying, "I have been riding dirt bikes for 10 years now. I would say it is my passion. Today was an exciting outing and I had a lot of fun." Another young rider, Zaydene Esterhuizen, 12, from Proteapark Primary School, expressed his excitement: "I have been riding bikes for 4 months now. The bike I am riding is a Kawasaki KX65. It was a fun day, and I will surely be back next year!" The route planner, Delano Labuschagne, reflected on the event's success: "Julius's son, Julian and I finished this route in a matter of two days, and today was definitely a success. Next year we will be sure to go bigger." A big thank you to the route planners Delano Labuschagne and Anton Erichsen! Soretha Booysen, Julius's wife, movingly remarked, "Julius had his days, but he really made a big impact on other people's lives. I am sure he would be so happy and proud of how today turned out. We miss him every day. Eight and a half months later, we are still struggling to move on, but we have peace". For more information about Loerkop Rustenburg, please call 072 307 6236. The JB Cross Country 2024 track day was a heartfelt tribute, showcasing the lasting legacy of Julius Booysen and bringing the community together in his memory.
