WORKING FROM HOME

...takes illegal mining to a whole new level.

The DIY tunnel entrance right in the middle of the bedroom – a direct line to illegal mining.

abandoned mine shaft. Why? For a little spot of illegal mining, of course!

The 65-year-old homeowner, Nthabisseng Tsimane, along with his 31-year-old accomplice, Tshepang Evans Kgasago, were arrested and appeared in the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Monday, 9 September 2024. Their charges? Oh, just the usual – illegal mining, tampering with infrastructure, and possession of stolen goods. Their bail application was postponed to 16 September 2024. Let's see if they can dig themselves out of this one!

Lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani reported that the Tlhabane Visible Policing, the Royal Bafokeng Tactical Team, and the Rustenburg Public Safety teams swooped in during the early hours of Thursday 5 September 2024. Acting on a tip-off (because apparently everyone knows about these things), they uncovered the illegal mining operation at Nkandla informal settlement near Khuseleka 1 mine.

The homeowner had allowed his guests to turn one of the bedrooms into a gateway to illegal mining, giving them direct access to a mine shaft. And when the police came knocking? The rest of the gang escaped straight into their DIY tunnel.

But they were finally nabbed. Eight more zama-zamas, aged 16 to 45, were arrested between 6 and 7 September 2024 after hiding underground to avoid capture. Apparently, life in a tunnel wasn't as glamorous as it sounds, so as soon as they re-surfaced, they were arrested.

Out of the 10 arrested suspects, four are South African, and six are foreign nationals, all set to make their court appearance. With the help of mine security, police also found stolen equipment in the house.

Rustenburg is a known hotspot for illegal mining. Not long ago, on 20 August 2024, a mine collapse at Tlathaganyane Village left one zama-zama missing while 31 others managed to escape. And on 7 August 2024, a joint operation led to the arrest of five illegal miners who were caught dealing in unwrought precious metals worth R350 million.

Illegal mining. It's everywhere. It's dangerous, unregulated, and let's face it – it's robbing our local mines blind.

It's negatively affecting our economy. In the long run it is a threat to job security at legal mines who have to mine at much higher costs because of safety and other regulations and because they pay tax, while zama-zamas don't.

A bedroom transformed into a mine tunnel.

RAPIST SENTENCED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Regional Court handed down a life imprisonment sentence to a 34-year-old Lesotho national on Monday, 2 September 2024, for the brutal rape of an 11-year-old girl in Sereleng New Stands, Boitekong.

The crime, which took place in May 2022, left the local community shaken. The young girl was on her way home from school when the perpetrator, a trusted acquaintance of the family, coerced her into accompanying him. A vigilant neighbour saw them walking together and, sensing something was wrong, alerted the victim's aunt. Swift action by the girl's uncle and the neighbour led them to search the area, and their worst fears were confirmed when they found the suspect inside an abandoned shack, still assaulting the child. Upon discovery, the suspect fled the scene.

The girl was rushed to the hospital, and the police were quickly notified. The suspect was located and handed over to the police on 12 May 2022. He has remained in custody since his arrest. Further investigation revealed that the abuse had been ongoing, with the suspect beginning his assaults as early as March 2022. The provincial police commissioner, lieutenant general Sello Kwenia, and director of Public Prosecution, Dr. Rachel Makhari, praised the Sereleng community for their assistance in capturing the criminal. They also extended heartfelt congratulations to investigating officer, sergeant Mmathapelo Sebogodi, and prosecutor Aubrey Mataboge for their tireless efforts in securing this important conviction.

The police are urging anyone who might have information that could help in identifying these individuals to come forward.

WANTED SUSPECT FATALLY WOUNDED IN SHOOT- OUT

Rustenburg – A 30-year-old wanted suspect was fatally wounded during a shoot-out with the police on Sunday evening, 8 September 2024, in Mogwase.

According to a police report, the suspect, a Lesotho national, was traced to a local tavern after police received a tip-off regarding his whereabouts. When police officers arrived, the suspect allegedly opened fire on them. Officers returned fire, resulting in the fatal wounding of the suspect.

Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone confirmed that the deceased was found in possession of a stolen firearm reported missing from Linden, Gauteng. The suspect had been on the run, wanted for multiple crimes, including attempted murder, common robbery, and assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm. These offenses were reportedly committed between January 2023 and July 2024 in Zone 8, Mogwase.

Further investigations revealed that the deceased also had two pending murder cases dating back to July 2021 in Robega village and Phokeng, outside Rustenburg.

The Independent Police Investigative Directorate (IPID), also known as the Hawks, is conducting an investigation into the incident.

Tragic accident claims life of young driver

The young driver tragically lost his life after crashing into a large tree.

Rustenburg – A heartbreaking accident on Thursday evening, 5 September 2024, claimed the life of a young man after his car veered off the road and crashed into a large tree at the top of a mountainous pass on the Rhenosterfontein road, just outside Rustenburg.

The wreckage went unnoticed until the following morning, Friday, 6 September 2024, when a local resident made the devastating discovery. The resident, on his way to work shortly after 06:00, came across the overturned vehicle. Tragically, it was confirmed that the young man driving the car had lost his life at the scene.

The resident immediately called emergency services. "It was a sobering moment. I found the car on its side, and I think he might have swerved to avoid something before crashing into the tree. Judging by how cold the engine was, it seems the accident happened the night before," he said, reflecting on the tragedy.

Eagle Trauma Rescue's operational manager, Hennie Madeley, expressed his deep sympathies: "Our hearts go out to the family. It's always tragic when a life is cut short like this."

ATM BOMBING FAILED: THIEVES TURN TO LOOTING

Rustenburg – Chaos erupted in the early hours of Sunday, 8 September 2024, at the Shell Garage Kroondal Eastbound on the N4. A group of twelve assailants attempted to bomb the automated teller machine (ATM) at the garage but failed, leading to a chaotic scene inside the convenience store.

"They tried to bomb the ATM three times, but failed," confirmed garage owner Etienne De Villiers, describing the tense moments during the robbery.

Frustrated by their failed bombing attempts, the criminals turned to looting, grabbing items at random. From toothpaste and sugar to cigarettes and cash, they left a trail of destruction before fleeing the scene.

South African Police Service (SAPS) Rustenburg spokesperson Ofentse Mokgadi confirmed that authorities are actively investigating the incident. The case has been classified as both an ATM bombing attempt and a business robbery.

The police are urging anyone with information about the suspects to come forward.

The ATM targeted by twelve thieves in a failed bombing attempt at Shell Garage Kroondal Eastbound on the N4.

Squatters Take Over Zendeling Park, Community Concerned

Rustenburg – Platinum Weekly newspaper received a troubling message from the public on Thursday 5 September 2024, reporting the increasing presence of squatters at the open field park located on the corner of Zendeling and Boom Streets. What was once a small, community-friendly park has now become a hub for makeshift tents, litter, and unrest.

A long-time resident shared his concerns: “The squatters have since started setting up tents, living there, and littering freely. We are soon going to have a fully established squatter camp right on our doorstep. On Sunday mornings, there are 40+ people bathing, barbecuing, and doing laundry in the park. We bought our property here 20 years ago, and back then, it was a little park where the kids played and rode go-karts. Now, as adults, we can’t even risk stepping outside the yard.”

The resident continued, describing the insecurity they now face: “Our yard is fenced so high that I can’t even see outside from inside the property anymore, yet perps still come over the wall to steal, rob, and plunder. Guests who stop here have their car doors ripped open or items stolen off their trucks as fast as you can say ‘knife,’ all while they are still sitting in their vehicles. They pull out knives, block you from reversing out of your driveway, and even damage your property.”

The situation has reached the point where community members are calling for action, but little progress has been made.

DA Ward 18 councillor, Cobus Nortje, expressed frustration: “I have been reporting this case since 2023. This has been an ongoing concern that has yet to be resolved. We are not getting any feedback. What is the way forward?”

Ward 18 committee member, Kobus Ferreira, echoed the sentiment, stating, “I have sent the complaint on behalf of Ward 18. It is supposed to be a park. There are many children in the area with all the flats. Where do they play now?”

As of Wednesday, 11 September 2024, it appears that the municipality has begun addressing the problem. Ferreira told Platinum Weekly, “I see the Last week, this open field at the corner of Zendeling and Boom Street, once a vibrant park for children to play in, had turned into a makeshift camp, leaving the community concerned.

Rustenburg Local Municipality has started cleaning up the open field. It looks much better now, but for how long?”

Although the Rustenburg Local Municipality has made some efforts to restore the area, residents remain concerned about the long-term solution. The local government has yet to provide concrete answers, but according to reports, the Department of Public Works is organising a meeting with key stakeholders and the squatters to resolve the issue. Initially scheduled for Monday, 9 September, the meeting was postponed to Friday, 13 September. Platinum Weekly will keep readers updated on the outcome.

BEDRIEËR AKTIEF IN OOS-EINDE: WEES OP JOU HOEDE!

Rustenburg – Goeie dag aan al ons gemeenskap. Daar is tans 'n bedrieër wat in Oos-Einde aktief is, en hy is ook bekend op verskeie WhatsApp-groepe. Hierdie individu maak voor dat hy herstelwerk doen, en versoek betalings vooraf.

Sodra jy betaal, begin die probleme. Hy gee talle verskonings oor hoekom die onderdeel nie beskikbaar is nie, en beloof dan om 'n terugbetaling te doen – iets wat nooit gebeur nie. Dié skelm stuur vals betalingsbewyse aan kliënte, en wanneer jy dit opvolg, sê hy vir jou om jou bank te kontak.

Na verdere ondersoek het ek bevestig dat daar geen rekord is van enige betaling nie, en die verwysingsnommer wat hy gebruik is vals.

Hierdie man is 'n blatante leuenaar en manipuleer hardwerkende mense. Ons wil graag almal waarsku om nie in sy slenter te trap nie. Wees asseblief versigtig en deel hierdie inligting met ander.

Mnr..., ek hoop jy lees hierdie boodskap. Sies vir jou gedrag. #JyBehoortJouseifTeSkaam!

BUILDING ENVIRONMENTALLY RESISTANT MODELS THROUGH ECONOMIC BENEFICIATION

Project managers, beneficiaries, and officials from Madibeng Local Municipality at the event.

The removal of floating plants, such as the water hyacinth, is a Herculean exercise, but it has been successfully tackled through mechanical and manual harvesting methods. After collection at Hartbeespoort Dam, the harvested plants are transported to a beneficiation site, where segregation processes take place in line with detailed waste management plans. Notably, the invasive water hyacinth, classified as waste, is transformed into valuable fertilisers or compost, contributing significantly to the agricultural sector. An effective enzyme (EC) is used to speed up the process and disrupt the molecular memory of the seeds, reducing the likelihood of future plant germination.

This groundbreaking technology has been patented by Hya Matla Organics Pty (Ltd), the appointed service provider responsible for the hyacinth's mechanical and manual removal. Despite the presence of debris that hampers the process, fertilisers can be produced within a matter of days. The harvested plants often contain several impurities, which are meticulously segregated and channelled to the appropriate beneficiation sites.

In terms of removed substances, the project has yielded the following: 250 hectares of hyacinth, 300 cubic meters of plastic waste, 200 tonnes of general waste, and 200 tonnes of logs and reeds. All of these materials are diverted to specific beneficiation pathways, fostering a circular economy that emphasizes waste valorisation and environmental sustainability. Notably, one tonne of fertiliser was donated to emerging farmers, aligning with the goals outlined in the sustainable development goals (SDGs) and contributing to food security.

This zero-emission initiative not only tackles pollution but also supports the production of biogas from hyacinth and biochar for soil improvement, thereby creating additional employment opportunities. The project extends its economic benefits to other sectors, both directly and indirectly.

A key focus of the project is to promote a culture of environmental conservation and water resource security, ensuring that communities and industries reliant on the catchment's water supply are protected from pollution. Magalies Water is committed to involving local communities in the project, equipping them with vital skills in environmental conservation and reinforcing their civic duty to combat pollution.

HAVE YOUR SAY

Do you participate in community events or activities like fundraisers or clean-up campaigns?

Community involvement strengthens local connections and supports important causes. Whether it's raising funds for a neighbour in need or cleaning up public spaces, these activities promote unity and a sense of responsibility. Let us know how you contribute to making a positive impact!

"No, community events in our neighbourhood seem to be a thing of the past. It's rare to see the community come together unless there's a crisis. Most of the activities that happen here are kept quiet, and we often don't get full information unless we're involved in local politics. I honestly can't remember the last time I participated in anything with the community because there's simply nothing being organised. I really wish things would change for the better." Mmusi Tshweu, Rustenburg

FUN FACT

Did you know?

The Springboks have just achieved an impressive feat by beating the All Blacks four times in a row, something they hadn't done since 1949. Their latest victory was an 18-12 win in Cape Town, securing the Freedom Cup for the first time since 2009. This victory is a significant milestone, not just because of the rivalry but also because it places South Africa on the verge of clinching the Rugby Championship title for the first time since 2019.

A historic moment for South African rugby!

Rustenburg Hoër spog met sterre by nasionale landlope

Hoërskool Rustenburg se sterre blink uit by ASA SA landloopkampioenskappe.

Rustenburg – Hoërskool Rustenburg spog met sewe uitsonderlike leerders wat op Saterdag, 7 September 2024, aan die ASA landloop kampioenskappe deelgeneem het. Hierdie groep het uitgestaan te midde van kategorieë met meer as 100 deelnemers en het die naam van hul skool met trots gedra.

Chanté Krüger verdien 'n spesiale vermelding nadat sy 'n merkwaardige plek onder die top-30 atlete in haar afdeling behaal het.

Die span bestaan uit Chanté Krüger, Angelique du Plessis, Marius van den Berg, Lee-Ann Swanepoel, Dian Nienaber, Chanté Oosthuizen, en Elri van den Bergh. Hulle het almal deursettingsvermoë en toewyding getoon en hul skool en streek met waardigheid verteenwoordig. Hoërskool Rustenburg is trots op hierdie groep, en ons sê: Baie geluk aan die Rusties!

Bergsig Academy, King of the Bushveld Sevens Tournament!

Bradley Stonehouse beams with pride after a well-earned victory!

Rustenburg – On Saturday, 7 September 2024, Bergsig Academy's under 15 and under 17 rugby teams took to the field in the prestigious King of the Bushveld Sevens tournament, hosted at their own grounds.

The under 17 team displayed exceptional skill and determination, defeating Hartbeespoort High with 19-12, Brits High with 54-10, Florida High with 31-7, and Randburg High with 22-19, to reach the highly anticipated final. In a thrilling main match, Bergsig clashed with Riebeeckrand High, securing an amazing 26-19 victory to be crowned the undisputed Kings of the Bushveld.

A special congratulations also goes out to the under 15 team for finishing a commendable fifth overall in the tournament.

Bergsig Academy under 17s, the Kings of the Bushveld!
