SHIB volunteer students from the Netherlands have arrived to complete phase three of construction at Christ's House of Safety, bringing the dream of a safe haven for abused women and children closer to reality.

Building Hope: Christ's House of Safety Nears Completion

Swartruggens – The Christ's House of Safety in Swartruggens is on the brink of completing its final phase of expansion, continuing its vital mission of providing refuge for abused women and their children. This centre, born out of a deep need to support vulnerable families, is nearing the end of its construction journey, thanks to the efforts of Stichting Hulpverlening Internationaal Barneveld (SHIB), a Christian non-profit from the Netherlands.

Since its founding, Christ's House of Safety has accommodated 21 children, including six babies, with plans to expand even further. Phase one of the project laid the initial foundation, and phase two saw the construction of three key rooms — one for boys, one for girls, and a dedicated space for babies – and will also accommodate abused women and their children. Additional facilities, such as an office, kitchen, bathrooms, storage, and a washroom, were also established, transforming the centre into a well-equipped haven for those in need.

A symbol of hope and recovery

The Christ's House of Safety is more than just a physical structure; it represents hope and recovery for the women and children it shelters.

The rooms, furnished with donated items, offer a safe and comfortable environment, with separate spaces for boys and girls to ensure their privacy and well-being.

On 18 October 2024, a new group of SHIB students arrived in South Africa to help with the final phase of the project, which is scheduled to be completed by 2 November 2024. Phase three will focus on finishing the remaining children's rooms.

Pastor Venessa Joubert expressed her excitement, saying, "Phase three is already shoulder-height, and soon the building will continue. Together, we can make a significant difference in the lives of many women and children."

This momentous journey has seen several milestones, including the ribbon-cutting ceremony for phase two on 27 July 2024, marking the official opening of Christ's House of Safety.

Founded by pastor Joubert of Agape Church, the centre was established in response to the alarming rise in child abandonment and abuse in the region. Since opening its doors, the centre has had a profound impact on the Swartruggens community.

Getting involved

Those who wish to volunteer must undergo a screening process, which includes obtaining police clearance and submitting an application through the Department of Social Development. To learn more or to contribute to this life-changing cause, contact Pastor Venessa Joubert at 071 841 4656.

A woman wearing a black t-shirt, a black baseball cap, and white pants stands on a dirt path, pointing her right arm towards a vast landscape. The landscape is a mix of dark, charred earth and patches of green vegetation, indicating the aftermath of a fire. In the background, there are rolling hills and a winding road. The sky is clear and blue.

Kgaswane Nature Reserve's acting manager, Emelang Malefo, surveys the extensive fire damage along the Peglarae Trail near Bosbok Kloof, where a ritual fire caused widespread destruction.

Kgaswane Reserve Calls for Animal Feed Donations After Devastating Fire

reserve remains open to visitors from 6:00 AM to 6:00 PM daily, as efforts to rebuild continue. Malefo and her team are dedicated to restoring Kgaswane, but they need help from the public. For those wishing to contribute, donations can be made to the Pilanesberg Wildlife Trust. Monetary contributions will help provide the animals with much-needed feed while the reserve works to recover from this disaster.

The recovery of the reserve will take time, but with community support, there is hope that Kgaswane will once again flourish. For more information or to find out how you can help, contact the Kgaswane Nature Reserve on 014 533 0808 or the Pilanesberg Wildlife Trust on 014 555 1600.

Rustenburg – The South African Police Service (SAPS) has announced a reward of up to R50,000 for any information leading to the arrest and successful prosecution of those responsible for setting fire to a total of 23 buses at two Bojanala bus depots on the morning of Tuesday, 1 October 2024.

HAVE YOUR SAY

Do you believe most of the recent fires on smallholdings, farms, and nature reserves were intentionally started (arson)?

With several fires breaking out in rural areas recently, there is growing concern about the possibility of deliberate actions causing the damage. What's your opinion?

I strongly believe that most of these fires are being deliberately set by someone with ill intentions. I've never witnessed this many fires in such a short period of time, and it's deeply concerning. So, without a doubt, my answer is a resounding yes.

Christa Eloff, Waterkloof, Rustenburg

No, I don't think arson is the main cause of the recent fires on smallholdings, farms, and nature reserves. While some may be deliberate, many are due to climate change, agricultural practices, and human activity. In short, it's important to address these broader factors, not just arson, to reduce future fire risks.

Letang Ramokgame, Rustenburg

Punishment of Apostates

13 "If there arises among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreams, and he gives you a sign or a wonder, 2 and the sign or the wonder comes to pass, of which he spoke to you, saying, 'Let us go after other gods'—which you have not known—'and let us serve them,' 3 you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams, for the Lord your God is testing you to know whether you love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. 4 You shall walk[a] after the Lord your God and fear Him, and keep His commandments and obey His voice; you shall serve Him and hold fast to Him. 5 But that prophet or that dreamer of dreams shall be put to death, because he has spoken in order to turn you away from the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of bondage, to entice you from the way in which the Lord your God commanded you to walk. So you shall put away the evil from your midst.

When passion meets opportunity

Rustenburg – In celebration of World Entrepreneurs Day, which was observed on 21 August 2024, Impala is proud to spotlight the significant role small, medium and micro enterprises (SMMEs) play within the communities they serve. Central to these efforts is the Impala Enterprise and Supplier Development (ESD) programme, a flagship initiative that empowers local entrepreneurs and strengthens the economic fabric of the surrounding community.

The Impala ESD Programme is designed to equip local entrepreneurs with the skills and knowledge needed to succeed in a competitive business environment. Since its inception, more than 300 SMMEs have successfully completed the programme – many of which have gone on to become key suppliers and service providers in various industries.

One success story belongs to Rakgadi Maithufi, the co-founder and managing director of Silver Fish Holdings (SFH). Established in 2017, SFH started as a means of survival, and it has evolved over the years into a thriving business that plays a crucial role in supporting other businesses within the community. SFH offers essential back-office support services, including business administration, development and hospitality services. Rakgadi credits the partnership between Impala and Classic Oriental Consultancy for providing transformative training and the opportunities that have allowed her to expand her business beyond Impala's network. Today, SFH services the mining industry and has successfully ventured into the agricultural sector and secured contracts with other corporate entities.

Moses Mothlageng, chief executive at Impala Rustenburg, emphasised the importance of supporting local entrepreneurs saying, “At Impala, we believe in the power of entrepreneurship to drive economic growth and uplift our communities. Rakgadi's story is a testament to what can be achieved when passion meets opportunity.”

A Lens on Creativity

Technical subject: jewellery | 'Wedding Bands for Ever' | photo credit: Jacques McCarthy

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Photographic Society continues to leave its creative mark on the local arts scene, offering photographers an inspiring platform to capture the world through their lenses.

For August 2024, several talented photographers were honoured for their stunning work, showcasing the incredible diversity and skill within the society. From majestic wildlife to charming everyday moments, these images tell stories that resonate with viewers.

In the senior category, Frikkie Hitge captured the breathtaking beauty of an 'Elephant taking a Bath', reminding us of nature's grandeur. Ertjies Jacobs, in the junior open category, offered a playful perspective with his image titled 'Eekhorning', highlighting the nimble grace of a squirrel.

Jacques McCarthy impressed with not one but three striking photos. His cellphone capture, 'Smile you're on Camera', perfectly encapsulated a candid moment, while his interpretation of abandonment in 'Forgotten House' told a haunting story of neglect. His final piece, 'Wedding Bands for Ever', under the technical subject of jewellery, reflected the enduring beauty of love and commitment.

The society, dedicated to fostering an active and dynamic photographic community, is committed to helping its members grow. It offers endless opportunities for learning, skill development, and artistic expansion, all while celebrating the joy of photography.

The Rustenburg Photographic Society meets every third Wednesday of the month. For more information, contact club chairperson Ronel Broderick on 082 451 2999 or deputy chairperson Anje Smith on 082 787 4897.

Rustenburg Rallies for Mieke Esterhuizen

Rustenburg – Seven-year-old Mieke Esterhuizen, a grade one learner at Laerskool Vastrap, has bravely faced multiple heart conditions that most children her age have never heard of. Mieke suffers from a combination of Tachy Brady Syndrome, Sick Sinus Syndrome, and Neuro-Cardiogenic Syncope, which all affect her heart in ways that are usually seen only in much older people. As the only child in South Africa with this combination of syndromes, her journey has been nothing short of remarkable. On Thursday 3 October 2024, the Rustenburg Golf Club hosted a fundraising event, Swing for a Cause, to help raise funds for Mieke’s medical needs. The event drew an incredible 120 participants, all rallying to support her and her family. The overwhelming show of support brought hope and joy to the Esterhuizen family.

Bianca Esterhuizen, Mieke’s mother, shared, “It was wonderful to see so many people coming together for Mieke. It was so much fun.” Mieke herself added with a smile, “I had a lot of fun on the day. Thank you to everyone who supported me.” Thanks to the generosity of those who attended, the Esterhuizen family was able to purchase an IGO2 portable oxygen machine for Mieke, complete with an extra battery. “We’re so grateful,” Bianca said. “We could even cover one trip’s airfare to Cape Town for Mieke’s treatment, and we also managed to buy a cylinder oxygen tank.”

The family continues to seek support for Mieke’s ongoing medical needs. If you’d like to help by donating, please contact Bianca at 071 362 7363.

Mieke Esterhuizen and her mother, Bianca, sharing a moment at the Rustenburg Golf Day fundraiser.
