Rustenburg/ Mooinooi – A 66-year-old man, living on a smallholding in the Groenkloof area just outside Mooinooi, was attacked by 7 armed intruders on Wednesday morning, 12 February 2025. The victim shares the house on the smallholding with a roommate who was away at the time of the attack. At around 6:30 in the morning, he heard a disturbance and stepped outside to investigate. It was an ambush. Seven men of which some were pointing guns, overpowered him and forced their way inside. They looted his weapons and a night vision device — a tool used by many people staying on smallholdings or farms for security. His saving grace was the sound of a vehicle approaching the smallholding. It was a concerned neighbour who reacted after his phone call to the victim was not answered. In a violent act, the suspects struck him on the head with a pickaxe before fleeing the scene in the direction of Majakaneng. Hartbeespoort Emergency Services treated the injured man at the scene. Despite his injuries, he declined hospitalisation. Preliminary investigations show that the suspects gained access to the smallholding by crawling under a section of the fence which is covered by thick bush. AfriForum Buurtwag chairperson Alie Chamberlain confirmed that SAPS Mooinooi is investigating the case, but that no arrests have been made. According to Chamberlain, the way in which farmers, and community members staying on smallholdings help protect their neighbours and their farmworkers, has saved many lives. He told Platinum Weekly: “For the vulnerable people staying on remote locations, checking in on your neighbours when something seems off — is more than just community spirit; it’s a matter of life and death. They are relying on tight-knit community networks to protect one another.” Chamberlain wishes to remind people staying on smallholdings and farms to not go out of their homes when they hear or notice something out of the ordinary. ‘Rather alert the people on your neighbourhood watch, and SAPS if necessary and stay indoors’, he said. Anyone with information about this armed robbery and attack is urged to contact SAPS Mooinooi.

Remembering Damaria Matshaba

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg community mourns the loss of Damaria "Ma'am Dams/Koko" Maleshwene Matshaba, a beloved educator, mentor, and friend. Born on 29 July 1967 in Soweto, Gauteng, Damaria began her schooling at Kgaugelo Primary School before moving on to Thomas Secondary School. She was an active student, first excelling in basketball before joining the netball team. In 1994, in pursuit of better opportunities, she moved to Rustenburg in the North West province, where she worked as a security guard before joining the Rustenburg Community Development Centre. It was there that her passion for education ignited. She became an ABET facilitator, dedicating herself to adult education, and in 2008, she joined Meridian Rustenburg, where she remained until her passing on 31 January 2025. Damaria was laid to rest on Saturday, 8 February 2025, in Phokeng. Known for her infectious energy, warm smile, and unwavering generosity, Ma'am Dams had a gift for uplifting those around her. She was always ready to learn, embracing wisdom from both young and old, and she approached every challenge with humility and an open heart.

JJ du Plessis, executive head of Meridian Rustenburg, paid tribute to her legacy: We are deeply saddened by the passing of our beloved colleague Damaria Matshaba, whose radiant personality was the sunshine of each day! Her warmth, kindness, and unwavering dedication touched everyone she encountered, leaving a lasting impact on our hearts. You will be missed dearly by your Meridian Rustenburg family."

The Greatest Gift 13 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. 2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profits me nothing. 4 Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; 5 does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; 6 does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; 7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. 8 Love never fails. But whether there are prophecies, they will fail; whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will vanish away. 9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part. 10 But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away.

POLICE SEEK PUBLIC HELP IN TRACKING DOWN ROBBERY AND ASSAULT SUSPECT

Officers seized illegal liquor, gambling devices, and other contraband during the operation.

Rustenburg – The South African Police Service (SAPS) is calling on the community for assistance in locating a ride-hailing driver suspected of robbery and sexual assault. On the evening of Thursday, 6 February 2025, a 25-year-old woman fell victim to a horrifying crime after requesting a ride from Rustenburg’s Central Business District (CBD) to East End. According to SAPS spokesperson sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, the victim was picked up by a silver or yellowish sedan and seated in the front passenger seat. During the trip, the driver allegedly pulled out a firearm, robbed her of cash, and forced her to make an electronic transfer of additional funds. The ordeal escalated further when the suspect diverted the vehicle toward Bleskop. Following the assault, the victim was forced out of the vehicle before the driver sped off. While she was unable to recall the full registration number, she remembers it containing “574 NW” or “547 NW.” Authorities believe the suspect may be of foreign descent. The SAPS urges anyone with information that may lead to the identification and arrest of the suspect to come forward. Detective sergeant Mbulelo Wittes can be reached at 082 772 5563.

Phenyo Dantjie
Engineering Graduate

This isn't a story, it's a journey.

I'm Phenyo Dantjie, a 24-year-old engineering graduate from Robega, North West, working at Glencore's Boshhoek Smelter, where I'm actively shaping my future.

Growing up, I was fascinated by how things work and dreamed of a career in engineering. That dream crystallised in 2018 when Glencore awarded me a bursary to study Mechatronics Engineering at the University of Cape Town.

The role of junior engineer within Glencore's Professionals in Training programme has been enriching; no two days are the same. I'm working on projects that challenge me, from finding solutions to day-to-day problems to implementing a machine learning project to enhance our efficiency in maintaining equipment.

Glencore's support goes beyond technical training. I've gained soft skills too. My mentors and colleagues encourage me to think outside the box and provide guidance when I need it, allowing me autonomy as I grow and learn.

I'm determined to inspire young people to pursue STEM careers and follow their dreams, just as I am doing. I'm excited to see where my journey takes me.

Progress. Together.

Pendoring Low Bridge: a flooded struggle

A closer look at the extent of the damage to the Pendoring Low Bridge after heavy rains left it unusable.

Rustenburg – Heavy rainfall in the area once again led to the familiar sight of the Pendoring Low Bridge overflowing, leaving both motorists and pedestrians up in arms. According to an anonymous local resident, the bridge began overflowing on Sunday 9 February 2025, making it impassable. “This happens every time a heavy storm sweeps through, bringing large volumes of water,” the anonymous source shared, exasperated by the ongoing problem. The overflowing bridge meant that commuters had no safe passage, forcing them to seek alternative routes or turn back altogether.

A group of four local residents, including the anonymous source, took matters into their own hands. Determined to improve the conditions for road users, they began moving large rocks and stones to make the road more even and navigable. “It will take us about two days to fix it,” the source estimated, highlighting both the severity of the damage and their commitment to restoring accessibility. Unfortunately, no feedback from the municipality has been provided at this stage regarding possible repairs or long-term solutions to prevent future flooding and damage.

HAVE YOUR SAY

Do you think people are more stressed now than in the past?

With modern technology, fast-paced work environments, and financial pressures, stress levels seem to be rising. But was life truly easier in the past, or did people face different struggles? Share your thoughts — are we more stressed today, or just dealing with stress differently?

We're just dealing with stress differently. Today, we're more exposed to various coping mechanisms — whether it's pursuing a hobby, seeking professional help, or even venting to a stranger. Society has become more accepting of open discussions about emotions, recognising that expressing feelings can significantly benefit mental and physical wellbeing. Don Kabi, Rustenburg

Yes, I believe we're entering an era where people are more connected than ever yet increasingly socially isolated. The internet bridges vast distances in ways the human brain struggles to fully process, yet it often fails to provide genuine human connection. As a result, people feel societal pressures on an unprecedented scale while missing out on the fundamental human interactions that foster emotional wellbeing. On top of that, social media is designed to amplify aggravating or distressing topics, exposing us to a constant stream of negativity and making the world feel more overwhelming than ever before. Tiaan Groenewald, Rustenburg

BERGSIG ACADEMY SOARS WITH STUNNING ATHLETICS PERFORMANCE!

Rustenburg – Bergsig Academy made an impressive mark at the Top 15 Athletics Meet on Thursday, 6 February 2025, securing 11th place out of 32 of the best athletic schools! The athletes delivered a remarkable performance, earning a total of 9 medals: 7 gold, 1 silver, and 1 bronze.

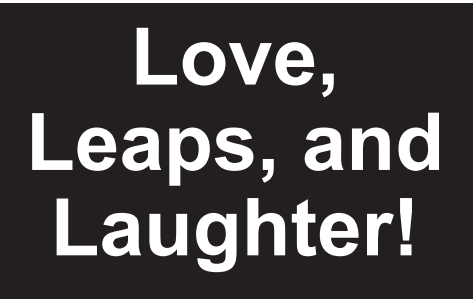

Highlights include Victory Explained (under 14), who claimed gold in the 3,000m and 8th in the 1,500m, and Scott Williamson (under 17), who triumphed with gold in both the 1,500m and 3,000m. Tanika van Zyl (under 14) claimed gold in the 100m and bronze in the 200m, while Welcome Guest (under 15) dominated the 800m and 1,500m with gold.

A young equestrian rides Apache Joe under the expert guidance of Perfect Harmony Equestrian Center trainer, Kirsten Maree.

One of the riders conquers a 1.30m jump with Perfect Harmony's Monti, a breathtaking display of skill and partnership.

Love, Leaps, and Laughter!

Rustenburg – On Saturday, 8 February 2025, Perfect Harmony Equestrian Center hosted a spectacular Valentine's training show, where riders and their equine partners showcased skill, passion, and a touch of festive fun.

The event was a vibrant celebration of both equestrian excellence and Valentine's spirit, with young riders dressing to match the theme. Kicking off the day, trainers led the adorable miniature horses through a specially designed course in hand, warming up the crowd with their charm and agility. The learners then took to the jumping course, with heights ranging from poles on the ground to an impressive 90cm. Riders demonstrated their growing confidence and technique, cheered on by family, friends, and fellow equestrians.

The grand finale was the thrilling "Chase Me Charlie" competition, where competitors aimed to clear increasingly higher jumps. The atmosphere was electric as the riders pushed their limits, with each successful jump met by roaring applause.

Perfect Harmony stable manager, Estelle Basson, expressed heartfelt gratitude: "A huge thank you to our sponsors, including Westvaal Rustenburg, and to everyone who contributed to making this day such a success!"
