HAWKS SWOOP ON BOJANALA MUNICIPAL CORRUPTION SCANDAL

Rustenburg - The halls of justice are buzzing after the Further investigations revealed that over R2 million was arrest of top Bojanala District Municipality officials and a service provider in connection with a multi-million-rand fraud and corruption case.

Five accused, including a former municipal manager, chief whip, and chief financial officer (CFO), appeared in the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Tuesday, 18 March 2025, facing serious charges of fraud, money laundering, and contravention of the Municipal Finance Management Act. The Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation (Hawks) and the National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) confirmed that the accused - Patrick Pogisho Shikwane (53), Leslina Olga Ndlovu (45), Patrick Tlhapi (53), Gontse Kekana (39), and Mantsho Gloria Moremi (38) - were arrested on Monday, 17 March 2025. This follows a thorough investigation into allegations that more than R25 million was fraudulently embezzled from municipal coffers between December 2018 • Moremi: One count of money laundering.

How the scheme unfolded

and May 2019.

According to lieutenant colonel Tinyiko Mathebula, spokesperson for the North West Hawks, the alleged fraud scheme involved the manipulation of municipal payments. It is reported that in 2018, Ndlovu, the former CFO, colluded with an unregistered service provider to process fraudulent payments for services that were either never rendered or exaggerated in value. To facilitate the deception, the details of a registered service provider were misused, with payments channelled into unauthorised bank accounts.

transferred from the service provider's bank account to a company owned by Ndlovu. In a damning trail of transactions, R150 000 allegedly landed in the personal account of the Chief Whip, while R850 000 was reportedly pocketed by the secretary to the former municipal manager.

Charges and legal proceedings

The accused face a staggering number of charges:

- Shikwane: 53 counts of fraud, 53 counts of money laundering, and one count of contravening the Municipal Finance Management Act.
- Ndlovu: 53 counts of fraud, 53 counts of money laundering, and five counts of corruption.
- Tlhapi: One count of corruption.
- Kekana: Two counts of corruption.

Sivenathi Gunya, the NPA's communication officer for the North West division, stated that the case has been postponed to Thursday, 20 March 2025, for a formal bail application. Meanwhile, authorities have indicated that the arrest of two additional service providers is imminent.

The acting North West provincial head of the Hawks, brigadier Silas Munzhedzi, and the director of Public Prosecutions in North West Dr Rachel Makhari, have lauded the joint efforts of law enforcement agencies in tackling corruption. "We are committed to ensuring that those responsible for looting public funds are held accountable," they emphasised

Alleged serial rapist behind bars

Rustenburg - A suspected predator who terrorised women across Rustenburg, Boitekong, and Phokeng is now behind bars. The 36-year-old alleged serial rapist was arrested on Monday, 10 March 2025, during an intelligence-led operation.

Tactical Response Team (TRT) and Public Order Police (POP) officers identified and stopped the suspect's vehicle in Boitekong, where a search uncovered a replica firearm, handbags, and cell phones — later confirmed to belong to victims.

According to brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone, further investigations by Rustenburg Detectives and the Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences (FCS) Unit have linked the suspect to at least five rape cases and nine armed robberies committed between January and March 2025

His alleged method was calculated and cruel: offering victims a lift before diverting to secluded areas, where he would threaten them with a firearm, rob them, and then assault them.

The accused appeared in the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Wednesday, 12 March 2025. He was remanded in custody until his next appearance on Monday, 17 March 2025, for legal representation and a bail application. He also faces charges of possession of suspected stolen goods and is expected to be charged for three additional

Steven Ndlovu will remain in custody until his next court appearance on Thursday, 27 March 2025. This follows his initial court appearance in the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Wednesday, 12 March 2025, on three counts of business robbery. Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone confirmed that 2025, while attending a court proceeding in Johannesburg. His arrest stems from forensic leads that linked him to multiple business robberies committed in Rustenburg between August 2016 and December 2024. After his arrest, Ndlovu was transported to Rustenburg, where authorities officially connected him to three separate cases. investigations revealed that the

Dutch volunteers bring warmth and hope to Hospice Rustenburg

Rustenburg - Whilee winter gripped the in Boitekong, empowering patients with skills Netherlands, Ep and Joke Huurnink found warmth — not just in the South African sun but in the hearts of the Rustenburg community.

The dedicated Dutch couple, married for nearly 50 years, have been volunteering at Hospice Rustenburg for over a decade, offering their time and skills to uplift those in need. Ep, a retired radar engineer, used his hands-on expertise to repair and maintain the Hospice facilities and charity shops, while also spearheading a vegetable garden initiative.

Though the project faced setbacks due to theft, renewed support from the Department of Agriculture is bringing it back to life.

seamstress established a sewing support group to generate income, while also restoring donated clothing. Beyond their work in South Africa, they rally support back home through fundraising events in their community.

"They are an incredible blessing to us," says Hospice Rustenburg general manager Elize Pretorius. As they head home, the hospice eagerly awaits their return in December 2025. For more information, please contact Elize Pretorius at Hospice Rustenburg on 079 503

PETROL STATION ROBBERY ENDS IN SHOOTOUT

Rustenburg - In the early hours of Friday 14 March 2025, a daring business robbery at a local petrol station took an unexpected turn when police officers

According to sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, the incident unfolded at 02:00 at a garage on the corner of Bosch Street and Zendeling Street. The complainant was outside the shop when four armed suspects suddenly confronted him, forcing him and other employees back inside at gunpoint. One suspect jumped over the cashier counter, seizing cash, cigarettes, and two cash drawers.

However, the criminals' escape was short-lived. The suspects attempted to flee towards the nearby railway line, but alert patrolling police officers spotted them and gave chase. A dramatic shootout ensued, though the suspects ultimately managed to escape.

Despite their getaway, the police recovered all the stolen property, ensuring that no financial loss was suffered by the business. Fortunately, no injuries

The South African Police Service (SAPS) in Bojanala Platinum Sub-District 2 has urged businesses and the public to remain vigilant and to report any suspicious activity immediately. Investigations are ongoing, and authorities appeal to anyone with information to come forward.

PATCHING UP HOPE: Community unites to fix roads

Rustenburg - In a remarkable show of unity, Our Ward Matters took action on Thursday, 13 March 2025, purchasing 20 bags of asphalt - funded entirely by generous resident donations. With DA Ward 17 councillor Tanya Rothman leading the charge, volunteers worked together to patch up potholes at the busy intersection of Nylrivier and Helen Joseph Drive.

Our Ward Matters founder André van Dyk highlighted the pressing need for further road repairs but remains optimistic that, with continued community support, safer streets are within reach.

A heartfelt thank you goes to Outdoor Arena Security Services for ensuring the team's safety during the project.

Truck veers onto sidewalk, leaving one dead and several injured

Rustenburg – A severe accident on Sunday morning, 16 March 2025, left one person dead and seven others injured after a truck veered onto a pedestrian sidewalk.

The accident occurred at approximately 07:00 near a well-known restaurant on Nelson Mandela Drive. According to Rustenburg SAPS sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, "Seven pedestrians, believed to be employees of a nearby hospital on their way home from work, were injured, and one fatality has been confirmed. The police in Rustenburg are investigating both cases of culpable homicide and reckless and negligent driving. Further details will be provided as the investigation progresses."

circumstances surrounding the accident remain under investigation. Emergency responders from Bojanala Ambulance Services arrived swiftly at the scene. Tragically, one person succumbed to their injuries on-site. A 47-year-old man and a 46-year-old woman sustained critical injuries, while another person suffered moderate injuries. Four additional pedestrians, who were in shock, were not transported to the hospital but remained with the injured individuals.

Bojanala Ambulance Services manager Rufus Nong extended his condolences to the victim's family, stating, "Our deepest sympathies go out to the family of the person who lost their life in this tragedy."

OFFICIAL NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC 10/2025

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO ENTER INTO A LONG-TERM CONTRACT FOR THE PROVISION OF VALUATION ROLL SERVICES FOR A PERIOD OF SIX YEARS AND TWO MONTHS (01 MAY 2025 TO 30TH JUNE 2031.

The Rustenburg Local Municipality hereby gives notice in terms of the Section 33 of the Local Government Municipal Finance Management Act (Act No, 56 of 2003) of its intention to enter into a contract exceeding three financial years from 01st May 2025 to 31st June 2031. The long-term contract will be for the provision of Valuation roll services

This long-term contract is necessitated by the provision of the Municipal Property Rates Act (MPRA) (Act. No. 6 of 2004). Section 32 (1) (a)(b) of the MPRA states that "A valuation roll takes effect from the start of the financial year following completion of the public inspection periods required by Section 49; and remains valid for that financial year or for one or more subsequent financial years as the municipality may decide, but not more than (i) four years in respect of a metropolitan municipality; and (ii) five years in respect of a local

The duration of the valuation roll is linked to the Section 32(b)(ii) wherein the new valuation roll will be limited to a period of five years from 01st July 2026 to 30th June 3031. The additional year and three months is for the bidder to maintain the current valuation roll which is valid until 30th June 2026 and the contract of the current municipal valuer comes to an end in April 2025. The municipality decided to use the services of the new municipal valuer to maintain its current valuation roll.

The intended contract period is broken as follows:

Year 1 - (01 May 2025 - 30 June 2026) Appointment and finalise pre - valuation roll activities (Data collection, Draft valuation roll, certified valuation roll, Objections) Maintain the current valuation roll valid until 30 June 2026.

Year 2 – (01 July 2026 – 30 June 2027) - appeals. Implementing the General Valuation Roll. Commence with Supplementary Valuation Roll 01

Year 3 – Commence with Supplementary Valuation Roll 02

Year 4 - Commence with Supplementary Valuation Roll 03

Year 5 - Commence with Supplementary Valuation Roll 04

Year 6 – Commence with Supplementary Valuation Roll 05 The actual contract will be published after appointment.

Per Section 21 and 21A of the Local Government of the Local Government Municipal Systems Act (Act 32 of 2000), notice is given to the public to submit comments or representations (should the be any) regarding the intended decision to enter into a longterm contract.

Technical enquiries, comments or representations regarding this contract can be addressed to the Unit Manager – Billing, Ms B Faku, via email at bfaku@rustenburg.gov.za or alternatively tmkhwanazi@rustenburg.gov.za and tmongale@rustenburg.gov.za

The closing date for submission of comments is: 23rd May 2025.

Some say hands only is the true way to enjoy pizza, while others insist on using a knife and fork. Some fold it like a taco, and others even love it cold, straight from the fridge! What's your take should pizza always be a hands-only experience? Vote and let us know!

Not necessarily, but pizza is definitely best enjoyed with clean hands! There's something satisfying about taking a big bite, with melted cheese stretching and toppings threatening to tumble off — your hands are simply the perfect tool for the job.

A moment of unity — Bergsig Academy's team huddles together, strategising for the next half.

Rustenburg - The rugby fields were alive with energy and determination as Bergsig Academy's rugby teams put on a masterful display against Volkies Potch on Saturday, 15 March 2025. The day was marked by outstanding teamwork, unshakable resilience, and moments of sheer sporting brilliance. Bergsig's young talents displayed their prowess across different age groups, securing five triumphant wins. The u14A team delivered a rugby clinic, crushing their opponents with a staggering 54-0 victory. The u14B team fought tooth and nail for a close yet wellearned 31-27 win. The u15A squad asserted dominance with a 31-7 triumph, while the u16B team kept fans on the edge of their seats, clinching a razor-thin 18-17 victory. The second team wrapped up the winning streak with a solid 25-15 performance. Although the first team narrowly missed out on victory in a tense 30-31 battle, their grit and determination were undeniable.
