

Koster – It's not the first time a project has been disrupted by crime. In South Africa, it's something we live with every day. But here's the real story: you have to fight for your life just to do your job in this country. And this time, it was for the workers just trying to fix our roads. On Tuesday, 1 April 2025, a multidisciplinary team swooped in and arrested five men in Koster for allegedly holding a major road construction project hostage. The site, funded by SANRAL and meant to upgrade the road between the N4 and Koster, had been plagued by threats and shutdowns for weeks. The accused – Andrew Matane (42), Blasius Makati (49), Chapel

Mahlasela (50), Thabo Frederick (50), and Lazarus Mazaleni (54) – appeared in the Koster Magistrate's Court the next day. They face charges of extortion, intimidation, malicious damage to property, and kidnapping. Their bail hearing is scheduled for Monday, 7 April 2025. They remain in custody. What is extortion? Extortion is when someone uses threats, force, or fear to demand money, jobs, or services. It's criminal — and it's been creeping deeper into our workplaces. In this case, the suspects allegedly threatened a construction company after not being awarded sub-contracting work.

Police spokesperson, captain Mpho Manyoba explained: "The men disrupted the site, intimidated contractors and workers, and even forced officials to remain in a meeting against their will. When their demands were not met, they rallied community members to help shut down the project." The result? Progress halted. Lives disrupted. Public infrastructure stalled — again.

In South Africa, even building a road can feel like a war.

Robbery at Local Butchery Ends in Gunfire

Rustenburg – A daring daylight robbery at a well-known butchery in Rustenburg was swiftly cut short on Saturday afternoon, 5 April 2025, when the business owner fired back at suspects, fatally wounding one of them.

The butchery became the scene of a business robbery when three armed men entered the premises. According to sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, the suspects threatened staff and stole an undisclosed amount of cash from the tills and office, along with a cellphone.

During the incident, the complainant was physically assaulted. As the robbers fled in a white BMW (registration unknown), the complainant retrieved his privately owned firearm and shot at the suspects. One was fatally struck, while the vehicle, also hit, managed to escape with the remaining suspects.

Acting Bojanala Platinum Sub-District 2 commissioner, brigadier Mamotsamai Ntoagae, confirmed that the matter is under investigation and that police are following up on several promising leads.

Brigadier Ntoagae urged community members to assist in the investigation by reporting any information that could help police track down the remaining suspects.

ARMED GANG BLOWS UP CASH VAN

Mooiooi – A cash-in-transit van was violently ambushed and bombed on Monday evening, 7 April 2025, on the N4 near Majakaneng.

Police spokesperson Colonel Ad le Myburgh confirmed that the attack occurred around 18:00 when the van, carrying two security officers, was blocked off by several vehicles. An unknown number of heavily armed suspects opened fire, forcing the van to stop. The security guards were overpowered, and their firearms were stolen in the process. One guard was shot in the abdomen and rushed to a local hospital for treatment.

The suspects then used explosives to blast open the van, escaping with an undisclosed amount of cash. They fled the scene in a Mercedes Benz, a Toyota Fortuner, and a Toyota Hi-Lux. As of now, no arrests have been made.

The Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation (DPCI) is leading the investigation, and police have launched a manhunt. Residents are urged to assist in tracking down the criminals by reporting any information, no matter how small, to SAPS Crime Stop on 08600 10111 or through the MySAPS app.

Extortion-related crimes can also be reported to 0800 911 011.

PROVERBS 6

Dangerous Promises
My son, if you become ^[b]surety for your friend,
If you have ^[b]shaken hands in pledge for a stranger,
2 You are snared by the words of your mouth;
You are taken by the words of your mouth.
3 So do this, my son, and deliver yourself;
For you have come into the hand of your friend:
Go and humble yourself;
Plead with your friend.

4 Give no sleep to your eyes,
Nor slumber to your eyelids.
5 Deliver yourself like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter,
And like a bird from the hand of the ^[d]fowler.
The Folly of Indolence
6 Go to the ant, you sluggard!
Consider her ways and be wise,
7 Which, having no ^[d]captain, Overseer or ruler,
8 Provides her ^[e]

supplies in the summer,
And gathers her food in the harvest.
9 How long will you ^[f]slumber, O sluggard?
When will you rise from your sleep?
10 A little sleep, a little slumber, A little folding of the hands to sleep—
11 So shall your poverty come on you like a prowler,
And your need like an armed man.

Have your say

Would you trust a stranger to return your lost phone?

Phones hold personal data and are costly to replace. Some people believe in the kindness of strangers — others, not so much. What would you expect if you lost yours in public?

“Yes. As mentioned, phones are expensive to replace, so if a stranger were kind enough to return mine, I'd be truly grateful. It would be a rare but heartwarming gesture.”
Belinda Formariz, Rustenburg

“No. A stranger might use my phone for malicious purposes like hacking or identity theft. With so much personal information stored on it, the risk of having my data compromised is just too high.”
Letang Ramokgame, Rustenburg

R25 Million Down the Drain: Hawks Net Two More in Bojanala Fraud Scandal

Justice in motion – Hawks officers move in as another chapter unfolds in the Bojanala R25 million fraud investigation.

Rustenburg – What began as a single arrest has now snowballed into a full-scale takedown of a multimillion-rand corruption network allegedly operating within the Bojanala Platinum District Municipality. On Monday, 7 April 2025, two more suspects – a married couple and directors of two separate companies – were arrested and appeared before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court. Esther Malesa (45), director of Kea's Project, and Moses Malesa (53), director of Marole Nameng Trading Enterprise, now join five others in a case that has rocked the North West's municipal landscape. The pair were arrested by the Hawks' Serious Commercial Crime Investigation team and granted bail – R100 000 for Esther, and R50 000 for Moses. This brings the accused count to seven, following last month's arrests in connection with the R25 million allegedly siphoned from the Bojanala Platinum District Municipality between December 2018 and May 2019. According to the National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) communications officer Sivenathi Gunya, and the Hawks' lieutenant colonel Tinyiko Mathebula, the scheme centred around fraudulent invoices and unauthorised payments to companies not officially registered as municipal service providers. The alleged mastermind, former CFO Leslina Olga Ndlovu (45), is accused of working with Esther Malesa to channel massive municipal payments to Kea's Project using the credentials of a registered service provider. Investigators discovered that while Kea's Project received over R25 million, the funds were distributed across several individuals and entities.

Who Got What?

- Mahle Supply (Ndlovu's company) – R2 million
- Patrick Tlhabi (former Chief Whip) – R150,000
- Gontse Kekana (secretary to ex-municipal manager) – R850,000
- Moremi Investments (run by Mantsho Gloria Moremi) – R600,000
- Moses Malesa – over R5 million

Esther Malesa now faces a staggering 53 counts of fraud, 84 counts of money laundering, and three counts of corruption, while her husband Moses faces seven counts of money laundering. All seven accused are currently out on bail. The case has been postponed to 2 July 2025 for further investigation. The acting North West provincial head of the Hawks, brigadier Silas Munzhedzi, and Dr Rachel Makhari, director of Public Prosecutions, praised the strong collaboration between the NPA and the Hawks, stating it reflects a committed drive toward rooting out corruption and ensuring public funds are safeguarded.

PSA Demands Justice for Bapong Clinic Attack

In the early hours of Tuesday, 1 April 2025, a group of individuals stormed the clinic, allegedly demanding immediate treatment for a patient who had been stabbed. When asked to wait their turn, the group turned violent — assaulting and stabbing both clinic staff and security personnel. Several employees sustained serious injuries. In a media release, the PSA strongly condemned the attack, describing it as “a serious indictment on health workers in the Public Sector.” The union, which represents thousands of public servants, stressed that such violent incidents are becoming alarmingly frequent, and that urgent steps must be taken to prevent further harm to frontline workers. “These are people who show up every day to save lives, often under extremely challenging conditions,” the PSA said. “They deserve protection, not persecution.” The PSA is calling for an immediate government response, urging the Minister of Police to prioritise this case and ensure the perpetrators are swiftly brought to justice. Additionally, the PSA has called on the Department of Health to enhance security at healthcare facilities, boost staffing levels, and improve working conditions to manage growing patient numbers.

Bapong/ Rustenburg – The Public Servants Association (PSA) has expressed outrage following a brutal attack on healthcare workers at Bapong Health Centre in the Madibeng District.

Mom sentenced after hiding rape of her 4-year-old daughter

— a tragic case that has shocked the Monakato community near Mogwase. The Tlhabane Regional Court sentenced the mother on Monday, 8 April 2025, to three years' imprisonment, wholly suspended for five years, after she was found guilty of defeating the ends of justice. According to sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, the disturbing case dates back to October 2023, when the mother observed troubling changes in her child's behaviour. Upon questioning, the young girl revealed that she had been raped by a neighbour. Rather than turning to the police, the mother allegedly approached the suspect and his wife directly. It is further alleged that a payment of R12,000 was made to the mother to keep the matter quiet. Months later, when the child's health deteriorated, the mother returned to the suspect to demand more money for medical expenses. When the suspect refused, she eventually reported the incident to the authorities. The case was allocated to detective warrant officer Phenyio Monchusi, from the Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences Unit (FCS). His dedicated investigation led to the arrest of the alleged perpetrator, who has been charged with the rape of a minor. That case is still ongoing. A separate case was opened against the mother for her role in concealing the crime, which led to her conviction and suspended sentence. Brigadier Ntoagae commended detective Monchusi, the prosecuting team, and all role players for their efforts in ensuring that justice was served.

Bringing justice to light: detective warrant officer Phenyio Monchusi of the Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences Unit conducted the investigation that led to a conviction in a heartbreaking child abuse case.

Meriting’s Nkopang Foundation calls for community support

LEND A HAND, CHANGE A LIFE

Rustenburg – The community of Meriting is rallying together to make a difference, and they need your help! A newly formed non-profit organisation (NPO), the Nkopang Foundation, is on a mission to support schoolchildren in need. Founded by Duncan Williamson, Kabelo Mosepele, Keolebogile Moholo, and Vusi Mayatula, the foundation is calling on the generosity of the community to assist in gathering essential donations for learners. They are requesting contributions of any school-related items, including stationery, school bags, uniforms, sanitary pads, school shoes, and monetary vouchers. Every donation, big or small, will go a long way in ensuring that disadvantaged learners have the resources they need to thrive. Chairperson of the foundation, Segopotso Mosepele, emphasised the importance of this initiative: “It’s vital that we positively contribute to the welfare of the community. We would greatly appreciate any assistance so that we, in turn, can help those who cannot help themselves. Everyone is welcome to join us or partner with us on this journey.” For more information or to get involved, contact Nkopang Foundation on 072 039 3741 or 072 327 1209, or email ndwilliamson299@gmail.com.

Orbit Soars to Victory!

Jubilation on the pitch! Orbit College players celebrate as Siyabulela Mabele's winning strike seals a thrilling 1–0 victory over Pretoria Callies.

Rustenburg – There was electricity in the air at Olympia Park Stadium on Saturday, 5 April 2025, as ORBIT College Football Club delivered a heart-pounding performance in the Motsepe Foundation Championship – and clinched a hard-earned 1–0 victory over Pretoria Callies. The moment of glory came when Siyabulela Mabele found the back of the net, sending fans into a frenzy and securing three vital points for the home side. Now sitting at number four on the log, Orbit College FC is on the rise – and with just six games left in the season, the team has everything to play for. Their next challenge? A showdown against Cape Town Spurs FC at Athlone Stadium on Friday, 11 April. It's a match that could shape the rest of their season. Team manager Percy Ntshabele had a clear message for local supporters: “The management, technical team and players would really like to encourage the community to come in numbers and support our boys.” Here's to more goals!

Goud én Brons vir Nathan!

Lucky customer drives off in brand-new bakkie from Three Star Cash & Carry in Rustenburg

Rustenburg – Saturday, 5 April 2025 was no ordinary shopping day at Three Star Cash & Carry. More than 300 excited customers gathered in anticipation for one of the most awesome giveaways – a chance to drive away in a brand-new Mahindra Bolero Maxitruck Plus!

The competition, hosted at Three Star Cash & Carry, invited shoppers to enter by purchasing any three products from participating brands including Tiger Brands, Super White, Pepsi, Keystone Milling, Wiseman Grill Sprinkle and Iwisa Maize Meal, amongst other top brands. With every qualifying purchase, customers received an entry form to register for the lucky draw.

And what a draw it was! Five cellphone numbers were randomly selected from thousands of entries, and those lucky 5 finalists were invited to pop one of five balloons – only one of which held the golden note announcing the grand prize.

When the moment of truth arrived, it was Gabriel Makgala who popped the right balloon, bursting not only the balloon but into sheer joy as he claimed the grand prize. "Wow! I am so excited! I have never won a car before – this is the bestest day. Thank you, Three Star!" said an emotional Gabriel, now the proud owner of the Mahindra Bolero Maxitruck Plus.

Stephan Buys walked away with the second prize – a much-needed generator. "I cannot wait to take the generator home," said Stephan. "Especially with all the loadshedding we've been having – this will help a lot." Several other customers were delighted with brand-filled hampers, walking away with smiles and shopping bags in hand.

Three Star Cash & Carry manager, Wayne Labuschagne, said: "The day was a massive success with more than 300 customers arriving on the day. Congratulations to the winners – and to everyone else, be sure to participate again next year!"

The energy, the prizes, and the community spirit made the day one to remember – proving once again that Three Star Cash & Carry is more than a store... it's part of the heartbeat of the community.

With a smile as big as his prize, Gabriel Makgala proudly celebrates his win – a brand-new Mahindra Bolero Maxitruck Plus – the grand reward in Three Star Cash & Carry's exciting community giveaway.
