

Rustenburg – What should have been a normal school drop-off turned into a scene of horror when a woman was brutally attacked by her estranged husband in front of a local Christian school on Monday, 14 April 2025, around 07:00.

Armed with a machete (panga), the man ambushed his wife as she was helping her eight-year-old child out of the car. He broke her window, dragged her from the vehicle, and slashed her throat — all in plain view of the school and morning traffic.

"I didn't see it coming," the victim told Platinum Weekly. "Although he had made threats before and was looking for me, I never imagined he'd do this. He didn't even know where I lived anymore."

She had started divorce proceedings in 2024, after he allegedly stole her firearm. The two had been married for four years. Still legally married, the separation was complicated by his refusal to sign the final papers — a refusal allegedly fuelled by jealousy over her new relationship.

"He found my boyfriend on Facebook and couldn't let it go. That's when he snapped."

The woman, who was in the process of relocating out of Rustenburg, suffered multiple injuries: bruises on both knees and elbows, a hurt wrist, chest scratches, and a deep throat wound.

This is the fourth case opened against the perpetrator. Captain Mpho Manyoba confirmed a case of Assault with Intent to Cause Grievous Bodily Harm (GBH) has been registered.

UPDATE: HE WAS RELEASED FROM CUSTODY

Despite the brutality of the attack — and the fact that the victim's throat was slit — the alleged attacker is no longer in police custody.

According to SAPS, the suspect was released due to issues relating to evidence. The details surrounding this development remain unclear at this stage, but it has sparked outrage and fear among those close to the victim, who now lives with the terrifying knowledge that the man who tried to kill her is once again walking free. One woman, a bystander and long-time friend of the victim, became the unlikely hero of the day. "My morning started like any other. But when I saw him outside the school, I just knew something was wrong," she said. "I jumped out and tried to push him off her. She managed to scramble away, but he chased her again. That's when I ran to get a wooden bat from my car."

She struck him from behind, eventually helping the bleeding woman back to the roadside where she applied pressure to her neck to stop the bleeding. "I've known her for five years. I couldn't stand by and do nothing." Another close friend of 22 years added, "You'd never expect this from him. He doesn't come across as a violent person — but this? This is evil." This horrific incident shines a blinding spotlight on the ongoing crisis of gender-based violence (GBV) in our communities. One woman survived — but only just. We stand in prayer for her healing. And we stand in solidarity, calling for accountability and protection.

NOTE TO READERS: Due to the graphic nature of the injury, the photo showing the victim's slashed throat will not appear on the front page, out of respect for sensitive readers. However, we believe it is important to document the severity of this attack — and as such, the image is included inside the newspaper as part of the evidence and reporting of this case. PAGE 4.

Rustenburg's MTE Expo Sparks Opportunity

African Mining sales representative Ralph Shongwe at the Rustenburg MTE Expo.

Rustenburg — From chrome to platinum, the Rustenburg leg of the Mining and Technical Exhibition (MTE) proved once again that when industry minds meet, progress follows. Held on Thursday, 10 April 2025, at the Impala Rugby Club (in Rustenburg), the event was packed with energy, ideas, and equipment — all geared toward supporting the PGMs and chrome sector. The expo followed a successful event two days earlier at Rabboni Christian School in Brits. From towering telehandlers to cutting-edge tech, mining companies and suppliers displayed their latest innovations. For new exhibitors, it was a chance to build connections; for established ones, a moment to catch up with clients and discuss how their needs have shifted. “We haven’t really seen anything like this expo. It’s good to explore both the customer and the consumer,” said Ralph Shongwe, a sales representative at African Mining. Local businesses echoed this sentiment. “It gave us mining companies a massive opportunity to showcase equipment and link with the right people,” said Tumi Mokgatle, director of Blacksand Construction. The driving force behind it all, MTE Rustenburg director Andrew Macnamara, described the event as a success: “We had over 400 visitors in just four hours. The show brought together representatives from various mining houses and local contractors — all about connecting buyers with suppliers.”

Bell Equipment Rustenburg sales representative Jan Barnard stands proudly in front of a towering 20m telehandler — one of many powerful machines on display.

House break-ins on the increase in Protea Park

Rustenburg – Following a spate of house robberies and break-ins in the Protea Park area targeting homes with flat screen televisions, Fidelity ADT has issued a warning to all homeowners to remain vigilant, particularly as we approach the Easter weekend.

Charnel Hattingh, group head of marketing and communications for Fidelity ADT says this week alone there have been four reported incidents. Criminals are targeting homes during the early hours of the morning between 01:00 and 04:00am. Suspects are looking for homes with an open window, which they enter through, once they have the TV they jump over the wall at the back of the premise into another premises. “We believe these suspects are living or renting a property in the Protea Park area.”

Hattingh says, “In our experience we have found that security measures like burglar bars, electric fences, detection beams and Closed-Circuit Television (CCTV) are still key deterrents to crime, as are pets. For homeowners, small dogs that sleep inside the house are seen as a deterrent. How secure your neighbourhood is, is also a meaningful factor. If robbers are scouting carefully, they will view regular patrol and a strong neighbourhood watch system as a good reason to move on,” she says.

“It is equally important that domestic staff always keep security gates on doors locked – they may not hear an intruder over the noise of the vacuum or know that someone has entered the house while they are in the backyard. The alarm system must always be armed when they leave the house; even if it is only for a few minutes.”

Laerskool Vastrap sê
totsiens aan ‘n legende
Juffrou Alida
groet ná 43 jaar
in die klas

Rustenburg – Na 43 jaar in die onderwys, waarvan 38 by Laerskool Vastrap in Rustenburg was, tree juffrou Alida Malan vanjaar af – en met haar vertrek ‘n era van warmte, wysheid en ware roeping.

Gebore op 4 September 1960 in die Groot Karoo-dorpie Fraserburg, het sy kinderejare van liefde en hegte gesinsbande beleef. Sy onthou haarself as ‘n stil dogtertjie in Sub-A (vandag Graad 1), wat in Graad 2 egter in ‘n “snipperige babbelbekkie” verander het – en só het die saadjie van ‘n juffrou begin groei.

Alida se skoolloopbaan het haar van Kuruman, Willowmore, Keimoes tot by Hoërskool Parys geneem, waar sy in 1978 gematrikuleer het. Ná haar studies aan die Potchefstroomse Onderwyskollege, waar sy kleuteronderrig gespesialiseer het, is sy in 1983 as Graad 1 juffrou by Laerskool Ventersdorp aangestel. Vyf jaar later het sy haar hart by Vastrap kom neerlê – en daar gebly.

“Ek het in Januarie 1988 begin as Graad 2 juffrou, maar drie maande later het ek ‘n plek in Graad 1 gevul – en vir die volgende 19 jaar was ek op my gelukkigste,” vertel sy. Daarna het sy ook Graad R en Graad 3 met liefde gedien. Sy het met tyd onder verskeie hoofde gewerk, en vertel met respek van mnr. Jan Schutte, “‘n waardige, dog streng hoof.” In totaal het sy meer as 1,000 leerders se leerpad help vorm – en soveel ouers en kollegas se harte geraak.

“Vastrap was vir my meer as werk – dit was my tuiste.” Onder haar hoogtepunte tel die kinderdrukkiens en handgeskrewe briefies, die skool se 50ste verjaarsdag, en oud-leerlinge wat steeds kom groet.

Esme Fourie, ‘n mamma van drie oud-Vastrappers, sê: “My kinders is nou al groot, maar hulle onthou steeds vir juffrou Alida – vriendelik, vrolik en altyd daar vir hulle. Sy gaan gemis word.”

Bernice Pretorius, wat in 1996 in haar klas was, sê: “Tot vandag toe vertel ek met trots dat juffrou Alida my eerste juffrou was. Sy het iets besonder in elke kind raakgesien – haar liefde was eg en haar sorg opreg. Sy’t ons nie net geleer nie, sy’t ons gevorm. Vir my bly sy altyd ‘stunning’ – van buite én van binne.”

Myrtle van Zyl, graad 1-leerder van 1993, deel: “Juffrou Alida was nie net ‘n juffrou nie – sy het elke kind laat voel of hulle saak maak. Sy’t jou naam onthou, jou oog gevang, en jou hart raakgesien.”

Na 43 jaar, verhuis sy einde September na Sasolburg om eers lekker te rus, tyd saam met familie te spandeer en dalk later ‘n stokperdjie op te neem.

“Elke kind wat my pad gekruis het, dra ek in my hart. Wees liefdevol teenoor ander, probeer altyd jou beste, en wees gelukkig,” sê sy.

Haar laaste raad aan nuwe Vastrappers:

“Skool is ‘n lekker plek. Jy is veilig, daar is baie maatjies, en juffrou is jou skool-mamma. Lekker skoolgaan!”

Young Artists Brighten Up

A mural to remember: The 2025 Graffiti Wall in all its glory — until next year's fresh splash of talent!

Rustenburg – The walls of Three Star Cash & Carry got a colourful makeover when talented young artists from the community picked up their paintbrushes and let their imaginations run wild! On Saturday, 12 April 2025, the store hosted its much-anticipated annual kids' painting competition, inviting young artists aged 6 to 14 to turn logos into life. Armed with paint, reference product pictures, and plenty of sunshine (and umbrellas!), the children brought everyday grocery items to life on the side of the building. Each child originally entered by colouring in a sheet with four logos – Save-A-Lot, Cash and Carry, and two paint buckets with a brush. Finalists were selected and invited back to do the real painting live on the store's wall.

The judges had a tough time selecting the winners. “It was tough deciding the winners of the competition this year. The kids are so talented. The day was filled with excitement and laughter,” said Three Star Cash & Carry manager, Wayne Labuschagne.

• Melanie Groenewald (13) from Laerskool Dawid Brink took first place for her realistic painting of a carton of eggs. “Wow! I am so happy that I could won. I did not expect it — I was just here to have fun and enjoy painting. I am going to buy stationery with my R500 voucher,” she said with a huge smile.

• Second place went to Hlalumi Rozani (10) for her colourful take on Laager Rooibos tea.

• Third place: Trinity Malla (7) wowed judges with her vibrant Red Bull Energy Drink artwork.

• Fourth place: Bonolo Matshaba (13) painted Bic Kids pencils.

• Fifth place: Ndabenitle Zulu (12) painted Lil'lets Maxi Pads.

All winners received a R500 voucher, plus monthly grocery vouchers for their families for six months – ranging from R500 to R1500.

The wall now stands proudly adorned with cheerful brands and beaming colours – a reminder of what happens when creativity meets community spirit.

Funds from the auction will directly support security measures for the centre's cheetahs, including Houdini, Phinda, and Jules - three incredible animals with inspiring survival stories.

McLaren auction raises R250k for conservation

Norris's 2024 race worn suit which raised R250,000. It was worn by the British driver when he led the charge to help McLaren win their first FIA World Constructors Championship since 1998 and their 21st title.

Hartbeespoort – McLaren has once again shone the spotlight on conservation, raising an impressive R250,000 for the Ann van Dyk Cheetah Centre at the De Wildt Cheetah Research Centre near Hartbeespoort.

This is the third year McLaren Chief Executive Officer, Zak Brown has collaborated with Motorsport South Africa (MSA) and renowned South African-born international motorsport administrator, Dieter Rencken, to raise much needed funds for the Centre.

“This time McLaren has donated a 2024 race-used Lando Norris F1 suit – an exceptional item for an exceptional cause. At McLaren we love animals,” says Zak. The suit, which comes with a Certificate of Authenticity, was auctioned through the Hall of Fame Collection, and worn during Norris’s 2024 season where the British driver led the charge to help McLaren win their first FIA World Constructors Championship since 1998 and their 9th title. Norris was also a runner up in the FIA World Drivers Championship and currently leads the 2025 title race.

The monies raised from this exclusive auction will underwrite the installation of solar powered wireless cameras at the Ann van Dyk Cheetah Centre – bolstering security for its endangered big cats and reinforcing the vital link between precision engineering on the track and precision conservation in the wild.

The Centre does not receive any government funding, and income generated from tours and any monies raised help subsidise its conservation projects.

Funds from the auction will directly support security measures for the centre’s King cheetahs, including Houdini, Phinda, and Jules – three incredible animals with inspiring survival stories.

- Houdini was rescued as part of a litter of orphaned cheetah cubs from the Kalahari. Due to an eye injury that affects his ability to hunt, he now calls the centre home.
- Phinda, an orphaned cub, suffered a severe leg injury that made it impossible for him to survive in the wild. He was given a second chance at the centre, where he now thrives.
- Jules, a rare King Cheetah, survived a deadly strain of parvovirus and now dazzles visitors with her speed and agility.

“Without public support, we wouldn’t be able to do what we do and we cannot thank McLaren enough for their ongoing support and commitment to the centre,” says Nikki Stagg, Marketing Manager of CHEETA.

Stagg also confirmed that Ursula, the mom of the King Cheetah McLaren (named after the first auction), is pregnant at the moment, and in honour of all the support provided would like to name one of her new cubs “Lando”. Her due date is Thursday, 17 April 2025.

Pitso Mosimane Launches Soccer Revolution at Meridian Rustenburg

Rustenburg – Meridian Rustenburg officially launched the Pitso Mosimane Youth Football programme on Wednesday, 9 April 2025 — bringing with it a powerful vision of combining sport and education for learners as young as six. Football legend and founder Pitso Mosimane was joined by head of football development Carlo Krieling, Curro Sport project manager Jared Temlett, and local school leaders Sharon de Beer and Cobus du Plessis to celebrate the occasion — with the school mascot Rusty adding a splash of fun.

“Children shouldn’t see school as just class and books. It should be a happy place,” Mosimane said. The inclusive soccer programme will be built into Meridian Rustenburg’s Physical Education curriculum. It forms part of a Long-Term Player Development model, ensuring learners are introduced to the fundamentals of the game early — regardless of gender. Launched in 2022 and piloted in two Curro schools in 2023, the programme expanded to 10 schools in 2024 and now reaches 18 Curro campuses nationwide, including Meridian Rustenburg.

PROVERBS 8

The Excellence of Wisdom
1 Does not wisdom cry out,
And understanding lift up her voice?
2 She takes her stand on the top of the [a]high hill,
Beside the way, where the paths meet.
3 She cries out by the gates,
At the entry of the city,
At the entrance of the doors:
4 “To you, O men, I call,
And my voice is to the sons of men.
5 O you [b]simple ones,
Understand prudence,
And you fools, be of an understanding heart.
6 Listen, for I will speak of excellent things,
And from the opening of my lips will come right things;

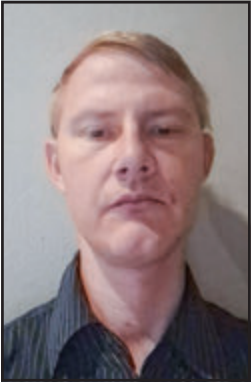

7 For my mouth will speak truth;
Wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
8 All the words of my mouth are with righteousness;
Nothing crooked or perverse is in them.
9 They are all plain to him who understands,
And right to those who find knowledge.
10 Receive my instruction, and not silver,
And knowledge rather than choice gold;
11 For wisdom is better than rubies,
And all the things one may desire cannot be compared with her.

NEW KING JAMES VERSION (NKJV)

Have your say

If a person in government is found guilty of fraud, do you think they should never be allowed to hold a government position again?

Public trust in government is crucial. Some believe one fraud conviction should end a political career permanently, while others feel people deserve second chances. What's your take?

Yes. If someone is found guilty of fraud, they should never be allowed to serve in government again. Our leaders are meant to set an example, and if they break the law, they lose the moral authority to lead. How can citizens be expected to follow the law when those in power don't — especially in a country already struggling with widespread corruption?

Rudolf de Kock, Moedwil

Yes. Anyone found guilty of fraud while in government should face serious consequences — including being permanently barred from holding public office. It's about accountability. If we want people to trust the system, those who abuse it should never be allowed back into positions of power.

Lucky Lialemeti, Rustenburg
