Musiek sterf nooit – ons onthou Pieter

Ons neem afskeid van Pieter Naudé – sanger, broer, vriend. 'n Man wie se stem en hart Rustenburg se mense vir altyd sal bybly.

Rustenburg – Die gemeenskap is in rou na die afsterwe van die geliefde plaaslike sanger, Pieter Naudé (56), wat op 27 April 2025 oorlede is. Sy verassing sal privaat plaasvind, en die familie sal op 'n latere stadium op hul eie tyd afskeid neem. Die publiek word versoek om hul privaatheid te respekteer terwyl hulle rou. Pieter was vir dekades lank 'n bekende en geliefde figuur in Rustenburg en omstreke. Sy musiek het harte geraak en menigte funksies en geleenthede verhelder. Hy het verskeie CDs uitgereik en was 'n bekende gesig in die plaaslike musiekbedryf. Wat min dalk geweet het, is dat Pieter die broer van die ewe bekende sangeres Juanita du Plessis was – talent het beslis in die familie geloop. Zelda Vermeulen, wat vir jare Pieter se bestuurder was, het met waardering teruggedink aan sy lewe: “Ek wil graag dankie sê vir al die jare van sorg en vriendskap. Ons beplan 'n fondsinsameling op 31 Mei ter nagedagtenis aan Pieter, ten bate van sy vrou.” Vir meer navrae, skakel Zelda by 083 653 3309.

How deep does the corruption go?

PROJECT: CORRUPTION IN GOVERNMENT INSTITUTIONS – TRAFFIC, POLICE AND COURT OFFICIALS

[Mike Bolhuis, Specialist
Investigators into Serious
Violent, Serious Economic Crimes & Serious
Cybercrimes press release
extracts, 28 April 2025]

Corruption within South Africa's government institutions — particularly among police, traffic officials, court personnel, and even judiciary members — remains a pervasive issue, eroding public trust and undermining the rule of law.

According to an Afrobarometer survey, 56% of South Africans believe that most or all police officers are involved in corruption, while 36% hold the same view about judges and magistrates. Traffic officers are frequently implicated in bribery, with national victimisation surveys identifying them as the government service most strongly associated with the unscrupulous use of a politician's authority for personal gain. These corrupt practices often involve collusion among officials across various sectors. For instance, traffic officers may solicit bribes to overlook offences, while some court officials and law enforcement personnel might manipulate legal processes in exchange for favours. Such systemic corruption not only compromises the integrity of public institutions but also hampers efforts to combat crime and deliver justice effectively.

The entrenchment of corruption across multiple levels of government highlights the urgent need for comprehensive reforms and robust accountability mechanisms to restore public confidence and uphold the principles of good governance.

IDENTIFYING A POTENTIALLY CORRUPT SITUATION

- UNREASONABLE OR UNCLEAR ACCUSATIONS
If you are pulled over and the reason seems vague, inconsistent or does not match your recollection of events.
- AGGRESSIVE OR BULLYING BEHAVIOUR
If the official becomes aggressive or tries to intimidate you when you question their actions.

- DEMANDS FOR IMMEDIATE CASH PAYMENT
Legitimate fines typically have a formal process for payment (e.g., at a police station or through a designated system), rather than direct cash demands at the roadside.
- THREATS OF ARREST OR ESCALATION OF MINOR OFFENCES
If a minor traffic violation suddenly leads to threats of immediate arrest or involvement of a more senior officer without clear justification.
- REFUSAL TO PROVIDE IDENTIFICATION OR DOCUMENTATION
Legitimate officials should readily provide their identification and relevant paperwork.
- BEING TAKEN TO AN UNOFFICIAL LOCATION
If you are not taken to a recognised police station or court.
- PRESSURE TO RESOLVE THINGS "INFORMALLY"
Any suggestion to bypass official procedures and pay a sum of money directly to the official is a major red flag.
- LACK OF CLEAR ARREST PROCEDURES
If you are arrested without being informed of your rights or the reason for your arrest.
- UNUSUAL DELAYS OR OBSTRUCTION IN THE LEGAL PROCESS
Suspicious delays in court appearances, or if your attempts to file a complaint are blocked.

PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES

- REMAIN CALM AND POLITE
Even if you believe you are being unfairly targeted, try to stay calm and respectful. This will sometimes de-escalate the situation.
- REQUEST IDENTIFICATION
Always ask for the official's name, rank, and badge number and make a note of it.
- ASK FOR A WRITTEN NOTICE OR A TICKET
If you are accused of an offence, request a formal written notice or ticket detailing the alleged violation and the process for payment or further action.
- DO NOT OFFER BRIBES
While it might seem like the quickest way out, paying a bribe perpetuates corruption and can make you liable for prosecution.
- STATE YOUR RIGHTS CLEARLY
If you are being arrested, calmly state that you know your rights (e.g., the right to remain silent, the right to an attorney).
- RECORD EVERYTHING (IF SAFE)
If it is safe and legal to do so in your situation, try to record the interaction using your phone (audio or video). This can be crucial evidence later. Be aware of privacy laws regarding recording.
- NOTE DETAILS

- Immediately after the encounter, write down every detail you can remember: date, time, location, names and descriptions of the officials involved, vehicle numbers, and what was said.
- SEEK WITNESSES
If there were any witnesses to the incident, try to get their contact information.
- REPORT THE INCIDENT
Despite the difficulties mentioned, it is crucial to try to report the incident through multiple channels:
 - Independent Police Investigative Directorate (IPID): This is the body responsible for investigating misconduct by police officers.
 - National Anti-Corruption Hotline: The government has a hotline for reporting corruption.
 - Public Protector: This independent institution is responsible for investigating complaints against government bodies.
 - Civil Society Organisations: There are organisations dedicated to fighting corruption and promoting good governance that may offer assistance.
 - Media: Bringing the issue to the attention of the media will sometimes create pressure for action.
- SEEK LEGAL ADVICE
It is essential that if you have been a victim of such corruption, you seek legal advice from an attorney who specialises in human rights or anti-corruption law. They will advise you on your rights and the best course of action.
- SUPPORT ANTI-CORRUPTION EFFORTS
Engage with and support organisations working to combat corruption and promote transparency within government institutions.

We encourage members of the public who were involved in such a matter to come forward and contact Mike Bolhuis. It is a sad reality that citizens must be vigilant against those who are meant to protect them.

However, being informed and taking careful steps will increase your chances of navigating such difficult situations and potentially contribute to holding corrupt officials accountable.

Mike Bolhuis, specialist investigator, is calling on citizens to stay informed and report corruption.

SAPS URGES UNITED FRONT AGAINST RAPE CRISIS

North West — The South African Police Service (SAPS) in the North West province has expressed deep concern over the troubling number of rape cases reported, particularly from townships, rural communities, villages, and farms. As reported on 27 April 2025, the acting provincial commissioner, major general Patrick Asaneng, urgently called on community leaders, social activists, faith-based leaders, gender and rights groups, and all sectors of civil society to unite against what he described as “a pandemic afflicting society.” Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone highlighted that despite the existence of comprehensive crime prevention strategies — including the Gender-Based Violence and Femicide Strategy, the Community Policing Strategy, and the Integrated Violence and Crime Prevention Strategy — women, girl children, and the elderly continue to suffer at the hands of perpetrators, many of whom are young men known to the victims. Major General Asaneng noted: “No number of resources or policing plans will cure moral depravity. It is unacceptable that young people — many of them still learners or unemployed — frequent taverns to drink liquor. Our correctional facilities are overflowing with young men convicted of violent crimes. The narrative must change if South Africa is to save itself from itself.” He stressed that blaming the SAPS alone, especially during crime statistics releases, misses the broader need for a collaborative, integrated commitment from society as a whole.

MINISTER SETS RECORD STRAIGHT ON TIGER WELFARE

North West – The Department of Forestry, Fisheries and the Environment has stepped forward to address growing concerns around the welfare and trade of tigers in South Africa, following recent media reports and public outcry. A particularly distressing case of a malnourished and injured tiger at a breeding facility in the North West province, which tragically had to be euthanised, has drawn national attention. The Minister confirmed that the National Council of Societies for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (NSPCA) is actively investigating the incident under the Animals Protection Act, with the department’s full support.

In response to widespread speculation about South Africa’s role in the global tiger trade, the Department provided the following clarifications:

- Tiger Exports: South Africa breeds tigers primarily for non-commercial purposes such as export to accredited zoos and wildlife parks. The notion that tigers are bred for trophy hunting or bone trade is unfounded. Between 2015 and 2023, only two hunting trophies and four bones were legally exported, most likely from naturally deceased animals.
- Regulation in Place: Keeping and breeding non-native big cats like tigers is already regulated in seven of the country’s nine provinces, with one province banning the practice entirely. Although tigers are not indigenous and not listed under the National Environmental Management: Biodiversity Act, facilities must adhere to the same care standards applied to native species like lions.

- International Oversight: All tiger exports are strictly monitored under the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species (CITES). For example, a 2024 shipment of 40 tigers to India was thoroughly vetted and destined for zoological institutions — not for commercial sale.
- Illegal Trade: While isolated cases of illegal wildlife trafficking have involved lion bones, there is only one known case of tiger bones from South Africa being seized internationally. Law enforcement agencies, including the Hawks, remain alert and responsive to credible leads.
- Animal Welfare Commitment: Acknowledging that some facilities may still fall short in care standards, the Department committed to more rigorous inspections and stronger cooperation with animal welfare bodies to ensure all captive animals are treated humanely.

The Department emphasised that South Africa does not support animal cruelty or illegal trade, and is working to enhance regulation and enforcement.

21 ILLEGAL MINERS CAUGHT, EQUIPMENT SEIZED

Brits/ Mogwase – In an effort to combat illegal mining and related offences, 21 individuals appeared in the Brits and Mogwase Magistrates’ Courts on Thursday, 24 April 2025. The accused, aged between 21 and 41, were arrested during coordinated Vala Umgodi operations conducted on Wednesday, 23 and Thursday, 24 April 2025, in Witrandjie near Sun City, and Majakaneng outside Brits. Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone confirmed that three of the accused were found guilty in the Brits Magistrate’s Court. They were sentenced to six months’ imprisonment or a fine of R2,000, both wholly suspended. The court further ordered that they be deported to their countries of origin — Mozambique and Malawi. The remaining accused were remanded in custody pending their individual court appearances between Tuesday, 29 April and Tuesday, 24 June 2025. As part of their efforts to curb illegal mining, police confiscated equipment believed to have been used in illicit activities, including a water pump, a jackhammer, and electric extension cords. The operations form part of the ongoing Vala Umgodi initiative, which focuses on dismantling illegal mining networks across the Bojanala Platinum District.

South Africa commits to tightening regulation and promoting responsible care in breeding facilities.

827 SUSPECTS NABBED OVER EASTER WEEKEND

North West Province – A total of 827 suspects were arrested across the North West during a province-wide high-density police operation conducted over the Easter weekend. The Police, in partnership with other law enforcement agencies, launched Operation Shanela under the national Operation Safer Easter or Operation Paseka campaign, which ran from Monday, 14 April to Sunday, 20 April 2025.

According to brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone, the operation was rolled out in all five districts of the province. Officers set up roadblocks on national and provincial roads, traced wanted suspects, conducted stop-and-searches, carried out compliance inspections at liquor outlets, shut down unlicensed premises, recovered stolen property, and enhanced security at ports of entry. The results were significant. Police seized copper cables, illegal firearms and ammunition, drugs, alcohol, cigarettes, and other contraband. Arrests were made for a wide range of offences. These included 95 undocumented individuals, 49 motorists driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs, seven individuals caught in possession of illegal firearms and ammunition, and five suspects carrying dangerous weapons.

Police also arrested 59 individuals for drug possession, 15 for illegal liquor trading, and 109 for assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm. A further 48 suspects were arrested for common assault, 13 for murder, and 28 for burglaries.

Trio nabbed after terrifying home robbery

Rustenburg – Community collaboration and fast police action led to the swift arrest of three suspects linked to a violent house robbery in Kanana, outside Boitekong.

Major general Patrick Asaneng, acting provincial commissioner of police in North West, applauded the efforts of police and vigilant community members following the suspects’ court appearance at the Bafokeng Magistrate’s Court in Tlhabane on Friday, 25 April 2025.

According to brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone, the incident unfolded on Sunday evening, 20 April 2025, when two men allegedly broke into a woman’s home in the Phetoane Section. Armed with knives, the suspects threatened the victim and, despite her cries for help, robbed her of cash, two cellphones, and a blanket. A prompt investigation led police to Plastic View informal settlement, where the suspects were apprehended on Wednesday, 23 April 2025. All stolen items were successfully recovered. The accused – Musa Santos Mthimkhulu (24), Django Salvador (21), and Jedo Mashaba (31) – have been charged with house robbery. Their case has been postponed until Wednesday, 19 May 2025, for a bail application.

Further investigations revealed that all three accused are undocumented foreign nationals from Mozambique. They will also face additional charges under Section 49(1)(a) of the Immigration Act, 2002.

NOTICE OF THE PUBLIC PARTICIPATION PROCESS FOR A WATER USE LICENSE APPLICATION ON BEHALF OF THE ROYAL BAFOKENG NATION FOR THE UPGRADE AND REFURBISHMENT OF THE WATER AND SEWER INFRASTRUCTURE WITHIN VARIOUS ROYAL BAFOKENG VILLAGES, LOCATED IN THE NORTH WEST PROVINCE, SOUTH AFRICA

Notice is hereby given of a Public Participation Process (PPP) in terms of the National Water Act, 1998 (Act No. 36 of 1998) (as amended) and the Regulations regarding the procedural requirements for Water Use License Applications and appeals (GNR 267 of 2017), for the Water Use License Application (WULA) to be submitted to the Department of Water and Sanitation (DWS).

APPLICANT AND BACKGROUND

The Royal Bafokeng Nation (RBN) is embarking on a project to upgrade its water infrastructure and refurbish existing sewer systems. This initiative is necessary to ensure long-term water security for the communities within the RBN's jurisdiction. Environmental Assurance (Pty) Ltd ("ENVASS") has been appointed as independent environmental consultants responsible for undertaking the required water use license application process and conducting the public participation process.

The project will be implemented across multiple villages within the Royal Bafokeng Nation (RBN), located in the North West Province of South Africa. These villages are part of a traditionally governed community with over 114,000 residents. The specific locations include:

- Zone 1 – Mafenya: This village currently has sufficient water supply but possesses high-yielding boreholes that could help reduce reliance on external providers.
- Zone 2 – Kopman: Currently purchasing water from Magalies Water at high costs, with two boreholes identified to supplement supply.
- Zone 3 – Mabitse Village: Groundwater augmentation planned only in the southern region due to poor groundwater potential in the north.
- Zone 4 – Marakana Village: While not experiencing significant water deficits, the area has strong groundwater potential, allowing for improved self-sufficiency.
- Zone 5 – Kanana: Faces a major water supply shortage, necessitating direct integration of high-yielding boreholes into the internal network.
- Zone 6 – Luka: A combined groundwater supply scheme is proposed to enhance economic viability and sustainability.
- Zone 7 – Phokeng: The most densely populated area, with 13 identified sub-schemes ensuring adequate water distribution.
- Zone 8 – Thekwane: Currently serviced by Rand Water, with existing infrastructure being included in the water use license application.

In addition, RBN plans to refurbish five wastewater treatment works (WWTWs) and two sewer pump stations by upgrading their electrical and mechanical components. This refurbishment aims to improve reliability, efficiency, and compliance with environmental standards while maintaining the existing infrastructure footprint. The affected WWTWs include Thekwane, Phokeng, Kanana, the Royal Marang Filter System, and the Lebone Treatment Plant, while the Mfidikwe and Photsang pump stations will also be upgraded. Additionally, security enhancements will be made by installing electrified fences and motorised gates within the current fence line. A recent environmental enquiry with the North West Department of Economic Development, Environment, Conservation and Tourism indicated that no Environmental Authorisation is required for either the water infrastructure upgrade or the sewer infrastructure upgrade.

This project will take place on various properties owned by the Royal Bafokeng Administration

APPLICATION FOR LISTED WATER USES IN TERMS OF THE NWA:

The following water use activities will be applied for in terms of the NWA:

- Section 21(a): Taking water from a water resource.
- Section 21(c): Impeding or diverting the flow of water in a watercourse.
- Section 21(f): Discharging waste or water containing waste into a water resource.
- Section 21(i): Altering the bed, banks, course or characteristics of a watercourse.
- Section 21(g): Disposing of waste in a manner which may detrimentally impact on a water resource.

Rustenburg – ‘n Spesiale vroueoggend word op Saterdag, 24 Mei 2025, om 10:00 by Agapé Gemeente aangebied om fondse in te samel vir die G-om Projek – ‘n organisasie wat reeds 24 jaar lank ‘n verskil maak in die lewens van minderbevoorregte kleuters in Rustenburg.

Die oggend belooft om vroue se denke te strek en hul gedagtes te voed, met praktiese raad van drie inspirerende aanbieders: Erika Coetzee, Antonette Grant, en Hetta Havenga. Anders as tipiese vrouegeleenthede, fokus hierdie oggend op toepaslike vaardighede wat elke vrou daagliks kan gebruik. Die G-om Projek het in 2001 onder ‘n boom in Amberlaan ontstaan en dien tans 30 kleuters daagliks met ‘n stimulasieprogram en voedingskema. Die projek, wat op die terrein van die NG Kerk-Suid gehuisves word, ontvang geen staatsbefondsing nie en is geheel en al afhanklik van donasies en die gemeenskap se omgee. Erika Coetzee, ‘n sielkundige met ‘n passie vir die welstand van vroue en kinders, sê: “Ek het ‘n baie sagte plek vir die G-om Projek omdat ek glo hulle maak ‘n groot verskil aan elke kind se toekoms.” Antonette Grant, ‘n dieetkundige, voeg by: “Die G-om Projek se vrywilligers sorg dat klein lyfies ‘n gesonde kossie inkry – iets ongelooflik belangrik vir hul ontwikkeling.” Hetta Havenga, skoolhoof van Rustenburg Noord Primary en bestuurder van Run Walk for Life, glo volhoubare verandering begin by elkeen van ons: “As ons ander ophef, sal ons self hoër vlieg.” Kaartjies beloop R200 per persoon en sluit ligte verversings in. Agapé Gemeente het hul fasiliteite gratis beskikbaar gestel om die sukses van die oggend moontlik te maak. Vir kaartjies, uitstalruimte of navrae, kontak Christel Herbst by 082 785 2439. Kom strek jou denke, voed jou gedagtes – en help om kleuters se toekoms te bou!

Moruleng beauties crowned victorious in Pretoria

Moruleng – Glamour met grit as titleholders from Miss Unique and Teen Kgatlang, a Rustenburg-based pageant, lit up the stage at the national Miss Redefined South Africa competition in Pretoria on 5 April 2025. Representing the North West province, the young queens showcased more than just poise and pageantry – they proved that determination and training transcend background and geography. Competing against contestants from Limpopo, Gauteng, and Mpumalanga, the Moruleng girls returned home triumphant, draped in crowns, sashes, and national titles. Among the big winners were Tshenolo Boikanyo and Koketso Mfuloane, who were named Teen Queen and Senior Queen respectively, each earning a cash prize along with national recognition. The trip, a milestone for the local pageant, was generously sponsored by LK Transportation and Tours, who chauffeured the girls to Pretoria. The family-owned business, led by Lebogang and Kagiso Kgwadi, offered the ride free of charge. Adding more sparkle, NyakuM Hair and Beauty owned by Nyaku Moagi, ensured flawless makeup for the young stars. "I knew our titleholders would win," said an elated Otshepeng

Proud and victorious: from left: Senior 3rd runner-up Tsholofelo Motaung, Teen 4th runner-up Gaabao Rasepae, Teen 5th runner-up Ororiseng Moleki, LK Transportation co-founder Lebogang Kgwadi, Miss Unique and Teen Kgatlang (marketing director) Kgaugelo Manyako, founder and CEO Otshepeng Manyako, Senior Queen Koketso Mfuloane, and Teen Queen Tshenolo Boikanyo.

Manyako, founder and CEO of Miss Unique and Teen Kgatlang. "They are trained to be strong – mentally, emotionally, and intellectually. Our pageant stands for more than beauty; it's a platform for education, empowerment, and self-worth." Manyako added that the girls' success sends a powerful message: "Your background doesn't define your future. Our girls stood tall and triumphed over competitors from private schools – and that's something to celebrate."

Wanneer Wetenskap en Wysheid Ontmoet

Rustenburg – Die dames van Kashané VLU Aandtak het op Donderdagaand, 4 April 2025, weer bymekaargekom vir 'n maandvergadering propvol insig, inspirasie en erkenning. Theresa Graham het as gasvrou opgetree, terwyl Gys Van Zyl, 'n kliniese en forensiese maatskaplike werker, as gasspreker waardevolle insigte gedeel het oor die invloed van hormone en trauma. Van Zyl het op eenvoudige, verstaanbare wyse verduidelik hoe hormone soos dopamien, oksitosien, tiotropien en somatostatin werk, en die impak van trauma tydens swangerskap op ongebore babas uitgelig. Hy het beklemtoon hoe sulke trauma soms verband hou met ADHD en later verhouding-uitdagings. Die belangrikheid van trauma-ontlonting en slagofferbemagtiging is ook bespreek, en die boodskap was duidelik: met die regte ondersteuning kan mense genesing vind. Die aand is afgesluit op 'n feestelike noot met die erkenning van twee lede, Moira Kok en Charmaine Coetzer, wat pryse en sertifikate ontvang het vir hul prestasies tydens die jaarlikse konferensie.

NEW KING JAMES VERSION (NKJV)

HAVE YOUR SAY

If you could swap jobs for a day, would you be a traffic cop?

Could you handle the pressure — or the power? Would you take bribes, sit in the shade and do nothing, or proudly keep the streets safe? Being a traffic officer comes with challenges and choices. Be honest: if it were you in that uniform for a day, how would you do the job?

No. It's a thankless job. Even when you try to save lives by pointing out mistakes, you're seen as the bad guy. For me, it's a definite no-go.

Paulus Schoeman, Rustenburg

Yes. I'd take the role seriously — ensuring road safety, guiding traffic with a smile, and helping drivers understand the impact of their actions. Many people forget how valuable they are to their families and communities. I'd use each stop as a chance to coach and remind them: we don't live just for ourselves. I'd also love to support pedestrians — especially children, the elderly, and people with disabilities — and assist with accidents, breakdowns, or directions. Maybe even start a few road safety campaigns!

Tshepho Kgapanne, Brits

FUN FACT

Did you know?

Ever wonder why we say "break the ice"? The phrase dates back to the days when rivers froze over and special ships called icebreakers were sent to crack the ice, clearing a path for trade and travel. Without these ships, communities were cut off — no goods, no gossip! Today, "breaking the ice" means starting conversations and easing tension. So next time you tell a joke to lighten the mood, remember: you're channelling the spirit of mighty ships smashing through frozen barriers. Now that's cool history!

Phokeng Pride! Local Legends Crowned 4Nations Champions

Phokeng Masters FC celebrates victory with their coach Fondo Moremi after clinching the 2025 Saboleswa 4Nations title in a nail-biting finale.

Phokeng/ Rustenburg – The spirit of unity, competition and football excellence was alive and kicking as Phokeng Masters Football Club (FC), hailing from the Windsor Section in Phokeng, hosted the exhilarating Saboleswa 4Nations Soccer Tournament on Saturday, 26 April 2025, at the Luka Sports Facilities. The tournament, named after the countries represented — South Africa, Botswana, Lesotho, and Eswatini (Swaziland) — brought together veteran players and passionate fans in a day filled with talent, rivalry and sportsmanship. Matches kicked off at 10h00 and continued until 17h00, with each clash played over 70 minutes. Ferdinand “Bizza” Phusoane, managing director of Phokeng Masters FC, praised the tournament’s growing calibre. “The games were highly competitive. You can see how the standard has improved since previous years,” he said. In the opening match, Lesotho beat Eswatini 5–2. Phokeng Masters then faced Botswana in a tense battle that ended 2–2, with the hosts edging out their opponents 5–4 on penalties. The final, a nail-biter against Letseng Masters from Lesotho, also ended 2–2 — before Phokeng sealed victory with a dramatic 9–8 penalty win. Phokeng Masters FC emerged as the proud Saboleswa Champions for 2025. The torch now passes to Lesotho, who will host the next tournament in September 2025.

Op 25 April het Anke en Roandré weer opgedaag – dié keer saam met Dhanji Eukostrain en twee van hul mak perde. Die leerders het ’n onvergeetlike daag beleef deur self op die perde te klim en saam te ry. Daar was soveel opgewondenheid, vreugde en dankbaarheid – duidelik sigbaar op elke glimlaggende gesig. Rustenburg Skool vir Buitengewone Onderwys wil graag ’n opregte dankie sê aan Anke, Roandré, ds. Nadine, Dhanji Eukostrain en almal wat bygedra het om hierdie dae só spesiaal te maak.

Rustenburg Hosts TSKKIA NW Provincials

Rustenburg – The spirit of karate burned bright in Rustenburg as the TSKKIA North West Provincial Championships took place on Saturday, 26 April 2025. Competitors from across the region gathered to display their skill, discipline, and determination — and they did not disappoint. The event highlighted incredible performances from both young athletes and seasoned instructors, as participants competed fiercely and respectfully for provincial titles. Among the proud moments was the announcement of the latest TSKKIA Provincial Champions, as well as remarkable medal hauls by several up-and-coming karatekas. The championship wasn’t just about medals — it was a celebration of dedication, perseverance, and the vibrant martial arts community that continues to grow across the North West. The tournament was a proud moment for kancho Albert Venter, who stood beaming alongside his students and instructors, applauding their hard-earned success. Our Ward Matters launches full-scale road repair project in Ward 17

Our Ward Matters members, including Our Ward Matters director and founder André van Dyk and councillor Tanya Rothman.

Rustenburg – Residents in Ward 17 can expect smoother roads and safer streets this May, thanks to a bold community-driven initiative spearheaded by Our Ward Matters (OWM), in partnership with Councillor Tanya Rothman. The organisation has officially launched its “May Pothole Project”, and with public support pouring in — especially from the Rivers area — the team has already started repairs at the top of Krokodilrivier, working their way street by street through the ward. André van Dyk, director and founder of OWM, has compiled a list of problem areas based on donations received, complete with house numbers and street names. “Every bag of asphalt is a step towards safer streets,” says Van Dyk. With this vision in mind, the team is tackling potholes daily, aiming to make a real difference throughout the month. “We’ve already passed our initial goal of 80 bags of tar,” Van Dyk shared. “Now we’re pushing for 200.” Tar has been secured at a reduced rate of R99 per bag, but the goal remains: 200 bags to cover the entire ward — especially areas like Cuckoo, which still need more contributions. Residents are asked to donate just R100 and use their street name + ‘Potholes’ as payment reference. “Your R100 for tar could save you thousands in rim repairs,” the OWM team reminds the community. Donations can be made to: Account Name: Our Ward Matters, Account Number: 63038972641, Bank: First National Bank, Branch Code: 258055 (Rustenburg Mall), Account Type: Gold Business Account, Reference: Pothole and your address, Email proof of payment to: vandykandre07@gmail.com To participate, or for more info, contact André on 076 057 1669, or Ilse on 078 258 6620. As the team works tirelessly throughout May, they ask for your patience, your hoots of encouragement, and your continued support. Let’s make Ward 17 the best and safest place to live — one pothole at a time.

RUSTENBURG KARATE STARS MAKE THEIR MARK

Rustenburg – Local talent shone bright at the 2025 WUKF South Africa National Championship and Afro-Asian Open, held from 3 to 6 April 2025, where young karatekas from Rustenburg proudly represented the North West Province. The prestigious event, recognised internationally and hosted under Martial Arts South Africa (MASA), saw over 800 athletes from 120 teams competing in more than 2,000 events across Traditional Karate and Kobudo disciplines.

Among the standout achievers were students from Ken to Ashi Do Dojo, based at 196B President Mbeki Drive, Rustenburg. Ehlandre Ehlers, a red belt, impressed judges and spectators alike by earning a gold medal in Kata, while Bopelo Mokoto, a green belt, fought bravely to secure a bronze in Kumite. Also making Rustenburg proud were karatekas from Hawk Eye Karate Academy, located at Shop 20, Kloof Centre, 171 Kock Street, Rustenburg. Kgothatso Seipati, a green belt, showcased both discipline and flair by winning silver medals in Kata and Kumite. Tshegofatso Mabovu, a purple belt, also claimed a bronze medal in Kumite, underlining the academy's strong competitive spirit. All four athletes were awarded North West Provincial Colours for Martial Arts, a notable honour that reflects their dedication, skill, and outstanding performance at the highest national level. The Rustenburg community applauds these young champions and their instructors for their incredible achievements and for representing their hometown with such pride. Their journey is an inspiration to aspiring athletes across the region, and we look forward to their continued success.
