

WHERE LOVE LIVES

A glimpse inside Lighthouse Children's Home

Step inside a home where love leads and hope heals. On Thursday 24 April 2025, Lighthouse Children's Home opened its doors to the Rustenburg community, offering a rare look into the lives of the 66 children they care for — and the everyday heroes who care for them. With moving performances from both children and caregivers, the event gave visitors a powerful glimpse into this sanctuary of safety, structure, and second chances. From dedicated staff and volunteers to the inspiring stories behind every smile, Lighthouse reminds us what it means to truly care. Don't miss this heartfelt inside look at one of Rustenburg's brightest beacons of compassion.

A PLACE TO CALL HOME

Behind the walls of Lighthouse Children's Home

Eileen Shannon, a dedicated volunteer at Lighthouse, embodies the spirit of selfless giving.

Masego Tladi, auxiliary social worker at Lighthouse, is part of the heartbeat behind the home's healing work.

Social worker Cecile Janse van Rensburg highlights the importance of placing the child's best interests at the centre of care.

Rustenburg – Lighthouse Children's Home opened its doors — and its heart — to the public in an Open Day that offered visitors a rare and moving glimpse into the everyday lives of the children, caregivers, and staff who call the centre home on Thursday 24 April 2025.

Founded in December 2019, Lighthouse has grown into a sanctuary of safety and love for vulnerable children. Currently home to 66 children — with the capacity to care for up to 75 — the facility is structured to support a wide range of ages and needs. The home is divided into three houses: one for babies, one for girls, and one for boys, each filled with warmth, structure, and care.

Guests were welcomed to tour the premises, meet the staff, and understand what it takes to keep the home running. The visit ended in tears and applause as the children performed a beautiful song, followed by two musical pieces from the caregivers themselves — reminding everyone that, at Lighthouse, family is formed by love, not just blood.

The organisation is funded primarily through donations from community members and supporting organisations. It takes a village — and then some. With 26 staff, including two social workers, two drivers, two cooks, three security guards, and many dedicated caregivers, each child receives the attention and care they deserve.

Private-practice social worker Cecile Janse van Rensburg, who attended the open day, shared her professional insight: “As a social worker, the most important principle is to consider what is in the best interest of the child. That's what drives every decision.”

The children attend various schools in the area, and Lighthouse operates two buses to ensure safe transport daily. Beyond logistics, however, the organisation is always looking for kind hearts and helping hands.

Lighthouse isn't just a shelter — it's a beacon. A place where trauma is met with tenderness, and every child, no matter their background, can find safety, structure, and above all, love.

MARTHA'S STORY

Faith, Friendship, and a Fight for Healing

Rustenburg – For three decades, Martha Lerm has been a part of the Rustenburg community, dedicating her time, effort, and heart to improving the lives of those around her. Now, she faces one of the toughest battles of her life — a brain tumour that threatens her vision, health, and future.

This selfless community champion, a former DA councillor and tireless advocate for service delivery, needs our help.

After sharing her brave battle with a brain tumour, beloved community pillar Martha Lerm says she's been overwhelmed by an outpouring of love.

"After the Platinum Weekly article, so many people reached out to me — calls, WhatsApps, prayers, even special teas and goodies to help me heal. I'm so deeply grateful," Martha shared in an update this week, Tuesday 6 May 2025.

Although financial donations for her surgery have slowed down, there's encouraging news on the medical front. Martha began treatment on 1 April with Denise Groenewald from Rejuven8. "We're still busy with the treatment and medication," she said. "I haven't been able to go for the operation yet, but the pressure behind my eye is less, my eye is more open, and the headaches are easing. It's still early to test again, but I truly believe Denise and Jesus are healing me."

The devastating diagnosis

On 20 November 2024, an optometrist referred Martha for tests after she experienced significant vision loss and paralysis in one of her eyes. A CT scan revealed a tumour measuring 4cm x 3cm x 3.5cm. By 25 November, doctors confirmed the likelihood of a meningioma brain tumour. While most meningiomas are benign, the effects of Martha's tumour are severe, causing swelling in the brain and pressing against her eye muscle, leading to constant pain and the rapid deterioration of her sight.

Emotionally and physically, the impact has been overwhelming. The tumour's location affects the hypothalamus, which controls emotions, hormones, and the thyroid, resulting in further health complications. The pain is often unbearable, and everyday tasks, including her seamstress work, have become increasingly difficult.

Despite these challenges, Martha remains hopeful. "There is still so much I want to do. I want to see my daughter grow up, make her wedding dress, and one day knit sweaters for her children. My life's storybook is not finished yet," she says with determination.

The cost of hope

Martha's medical expenses are daunting. Her Old Mutual policy does not cover this type of brain tumour. The Rustenburg community has rallied around her, with businesses stepping up to donate a portion of their sales towards her treatment. Companies such as D'Cuteness Leather and Baby, The Biltong Butcher, One Stop Workshop, CS Photography, Mon Cheri LaBeauty and Nails, Barnwood Builders, Reborn by Sons, and Kairos Unique Printing are among those contributing. A special raffle group has also been established, with prizes donated by local businesses and individuals.

Martha's road remains long and expensive — with medical bills nearing R500,000 — but hope is alive. Her courage and grace continue to inspire the community she's served so tirelessly.

If you'd like to support Martha's healing journey, donations can be made via her BackaBuddy page:

www.backabuddy.co.za/campaign/martha-lerm-tumor-operation or contact her directly on 079 110 2087.

Let's continue to stand with Martha.

Martha Lerm, a dedicated former DA councillor and community champion, now facing her biggest challenge: a brain tumour diagnosis.

HOPE AFTER THE BITE

Community Rallies for Brave Johandré

What started as an ordinary fishing trip turned into a life-altering tragedy for seven-year-old Johandré Blom. Yet from the jaws of terror emerged a story of extraordinary courage, family love, and a community determined to help him heal.

On Human Rights Day, 21 March 2025, Johandré was enjoying a fishing outing near Brits with his parents, Corné and Amanda, and their friends. While playing in the shallow water alongside his friend Dylan, a crocodile attacked, dragging Johandré under in an instant. Dylan's screams alerted the adults. In a desperate act of bravery, Corné rushed into the water, grabbed hold of his son, and wrestled with the crocodile. The animal began a death roll, but Corné fought with everything he had. He succeeded in freeing Johandré — but not before the crocodile tore off his son's left arm.

Emergency services met them en route to the hospital, where Johandré was stabilised and airlifted to a hospital in Alberton. He was placed in a medically induced coma and remained in critical care. Miraculously, Johandré pulled through and is now back home in Hartbeespoort with his family — his parents, and two older sisters Cuné (22) and Amoré (17).

Johandré, a learner at Laerskool Broederstroom and a passionate rugby player, now faces a long road to physical and emotional recovery. The family does not have medical aid, and his father has already sold what he could to cover hospital bills. Support from friends, schoolmates, and the broader Hartbeespoort and fishing communities has been heartwarming — but much more help is needed.

To assist, Thaba Fire & Rescue is dedicating part of the entrance proceeds from their annual Thabazimbi Vuurfees to Johandré's recovery. This community fundraiser will take place on Friday, 30 May and Saturday, 31 May 2025 in Thabazimbi.

Although the trauma has been immense, Johandré is doing much better. "He's so happy to be home. He plays PlayStation with my son using his one arm," adds Juan van der Merwe, a family friend. "He's a real little warrior. He'll start rehab soon — we're hoping for the best."

For more information, contact Juan van der Merwe on 083 538 2311.

BRING YOUR CHILD FOR A FUN FILLED MORNING

Wie is RCCF? Jou buurt se stil helde verduidelik hulle werk

Rustenburg – Die Rustenburg Crime Combatting Forum (RCCF) neem graag 'n oomblik om inwoners meer in te lig oor hoe hulle werk – en waarom hulle dit doen. Hierdie gemeenskapsinisiatief, wat alreeds 'n sterk teenwoordigheid in Rustenburg het, funksioneer as 'n nie-winsgewende organisasie (NWO) en ontvang geen ledegeld van enige lid nie. Alle betrokkenes werk op 'n vrywillige basis – sonder vergoeding. Selfs die RCCF se noodfoon, wat 24/7 beman word deur die toegewyde Ansie, word hanteer uit liefde vir die gemeenskap. Hierdie diens word slegs moontlik gemaak danksy 'n borgskap van Evotel, wat nie net 'n fiber data lyn borg nie, maar ook die bekende RCCF-naamborde gratis aan lede beskikbaar stel. Die betrokke patroleerders het almal hul eie voltydse werk of besigheid en gee hul tyd vrywillig af om snags paraat te wees – wat beteken hulle is ongelukkig nie 24 uur per dag beskikbaar nie. Daarom werk RCCF soms saam met sekuriteitsmaatskappye wat, hoewel dit nie RCCF se betaalde kliënte is nie, tog gereeld hulp verleen – net omdat hulle omgee.

Wat moet jy doen in 'n noodgeval?

- 1. Bel een van die Admins op die groep.
- 2. Verskaf so veel inligting as moontlik – via oproep en opvolg WhatsApp.

RCCF sal dan so vinnig as moontlik probeer om RCCF-lede, sekuriteitspersoneel en die SAPD na die toneel te mobiliseer.

“Ons is nie 'n professionele beheerkamer met 24-uur personeel nie,” sê RCCF. “Ons is 'n gewone buurtwag – maar met buitengewone toewyding.” Laat weet jou bure – en hou daardie noodnommer byderhand: 074 327 3041. Jou veiligheid is 'n spanpoging!

Rustenburg – Job Shimankana Tabane Provincial Hospital has issued a heartfelt public appeal, on 6 May 2025, to help trace the families or next of kin of three deceased patients whose relatives remain unlocated. HAVE YOUR SAY

Would you say yes to giving up coffee for one day — just to keep your Wi-Fi for the day?

Both coffee and Wi-Fi fuel our daily lives, but if one had to go for 24 hours, which would it be? Tell us where your true loyalty lies!

“Yes. While coffee gives me a much-needed energy boost, Wi-Fi is essential for staying connected, accessing information, and getting work done. A 24-hour loss of Wi-Fi would disrupt everything from communication to productivity. In today's digital world, I'd definitely choose connectivity over caffeine.”

Otshepeng Manyako, Moruleng

“No, I wouldn't give up my coffee for Wi-Fi. Maybe — just maybe — I'd rather wake up to the sound of birds than to the ping of my phone. I get around 550 WhatsApp messages a day, mostly about service delivery issues. Honestly, a break from all that noise sounds like bliss — with a cup of coffee in hand.”

Jean Keyser, Rustenburg

Did you know?

Did you know that when a human egg is fertilised, it releases a tiny flash of light? Scientists call it the zinc spark. This occurs when the egg releases zinc ions upon contact with a sperm cell — creating a microscopic flash visible through advanced imaging. The brighter the spark, the healthier the embryo is likely to be. It's a real, scientific shimmer marking the start of life. Let there be light!

Learning from the best: Mini Cricket coaches get hands-on training in bowling techniques at the Bojanala West coaching clinic in Tlhabane.

Rustenburg – Behind every great cricketer is a great coach – and on Wednesday, 30 April 2025, 53 of them came together to sharpen their skills at a Mini Cricket coaching clinic in Tlhabane. Hosted by the Bojanala West committee, which includes Rustenburg and Moses Kotane primary schools, the training was facilitated by the Impala Cricket Hub under the guidance of head coach Phemelo Toata. The event took place at the Kgatseng-Thabiso Secondary sports grounds and focused on enhancing coaching techniques to strengthen Mini Cricket programmes across the region. The Bojanala West committee, led by Pumeza Dlali, was recently honoured as the best structure in the North West Province, and the success of this clinic is yet another feather in their cap. Adding to the day's achievements was the generous handover of Mini Cricket equipment by sponsor KFC (Gunret Foods) – a boost for development and participation in schools.

Blue Diamond Beauties Shine for a Cause

Rustenburg – The spirit of kindness sparkled as bright as the crowns on Monday, 28 April 2025, when 23 young kings and queens lit up the runway at the Mr and Miss Blue Diamond 2025 pageant, hosted at Stook Koffie Roostery in Rustenburg. Far more than a beauty contest, the pageant was a heartfelt event focused on raising autism awareness and collecting non-perishable food items for the less fortunate. Contestants wowed the audience in blue cocktail and semi-formal attire – the colour blue symbolising autism support and understanding. The event was organised by Lisa Engelbrecht of Magical Memories Parties and Events, and the atmosphere was electric with pride, compassion, and style. Gratitude was extended to the panel of judges – Nyakallo Yolande Mokgopa, Vincent Segomyane and Carmen Greeff – as well as to the Stook Koffie Roostery for the stunning venue. From toddlers to teens, each participant brought their best, radiating confidence and community spirit.

Kampioene van die Krieketveld!

Rustenburg – Drie jong krieketspelers van Hoërskool Rustenburg het onlangs hul staal gewys op 'n nasionale verhoog – en met trofee teruggekeer! Marnus de Witt het die Jozi Warriors o.19-span met trots verteenwoordig in die gesogte Lenasia Premierliga (LPL), en hulle het as algehele kampioene uit die stryd getree ná 'n spanningsvolle eindstryd teen die Hawks o.19-span. Marnus het 'n sleutelrol gespeel deur die hele toernooi – 'n prestasie waaroor Rustenburg regtig trots kan wees. In die o.17-afdeling het twee ander Rusties, Callie Fryer en Tristan van der Linde, ook uitmuntend gevaar. Hulle het die Hawks o.17-span verteenwoordig, en saam gehelp om die span tot LPL-kampioene vir 2025 te kroon. Hierdie drie seuns het nie net krieketballe geslaan en paaltjies laat kantel nie – hulle het ook Rustenburg se naam hoog gehou op 'n nasionale platform. Baie geluk, manne – julle is ware kampioene!
