10 OCTOBER 2025

The cash-in-transit vehicle ripped open by explosives during Monday's deadly N4 attack between Marikana and Mooinooi, just outside Rustenburg.

The white Hino armoured truck on fire following the violent cash-in-transit heist on the N4.

CIT ROBBERY TURNS DEADLY ON THE N4

Rustenburg/ Mooinooi – A daring cash-in-transit (CIT) robbery sent shockwaves through the N4 on Monday morning, 6 October 2025, between Marikana and the Mooinooi off-ramp. The attack was meticulously planned and executed by a heavily armed syndicate — a stark reminder of the alarming rise in such violent crimes across South Africa.

According to police, the armoured truck was ambushed by armed suspects travelling in a silver-grey Volvo, later joined by a white Amarok and a white Mercedes-Benz SUV. After ramming and disabling the truck, the suspects opened fire, forcing the security crew out before detonating explosives to blow open the cash compartment. The suspects fled the scene with an undisclosed amount of money.

Tragically, one security escort was fatally shot while attempting to defend his colleagues, and another sustained critical injuries.

Two explosive devices left behind by the robbers were safely neutralised by specialist bomb technicians on the scene. A large team of law enforcement units — including the SAPS Explosives Section, Organised Crime, K9, and Tactical Response Teams — responded swiftly to secure the area.

At the time of going to print, no arrests had been made, and investigations by the Directorate for Priority Crime Investigations (Hawks) are ongoing.

Our deepest condolences go out to the family and colleagues of the brave officer who lost his life in the line of duty.

PATROL THE STREETS

Rustenburg – On Friday evening, 3 October 2025, members of the Rustenburg Community Crime Forum (RCCF) joined forces with two community volunteers and three Wesalarms vehicles for a joint foot patrol in the town area.

The patrol took place between 22:00 and 00:30, covering the blocks between Boven and Marais, and Klopper and Joubert Streets. The coordinated effort aimed to increase visibility, deter criminal activity, and strengthen cooperation between local security and residents.

RCCF extended heartfelt thanks to Wesalarms for providing three patrol vehicles, as well as to the public members who participated.

MOM STILL SEARCHING FOR MISSING SON

Rustenburg/ Derby – The Rustenburg Crime Combatting Forum (RCCF) and local residents are urgently appealing for assistance in locating 39-year-old Alwin Dorman, who has been missing since Monday, 6 October 2025.

Alwin, a teacher at REC and resident of Olifantsnek, last spoke to his mother, Stelia Dorman, shortly before disappearing. Their final conversation still haunts her.

"We were just talking about regular things," recalls Stelia. "I told him his father went for a course and struggled a bit – I just wanted to keep him talking."

That evening, around 20:00, she phoned him again. Alwin told her he was driving on the Derby Road and that his petrol tank was almost empty. Then, suddenly, she heard the words that still echo in her mind: "Oh F**k, I'm in the bushes."

Panicked, Stelia stayed on the line, urging him to try restarting his car – a red Renault SUV (registration number FTN133L) – but he said it wouldn't start. He told her she might see his headlights flickering from the road.

"I drove and drove where Alwin said he was, but I couldn't find him anywhere," she says through tears. Since that night, all attempts to contact him have failed, and his phone has remained off. A missing person's case has been opened with the Rustenburg Police.

Anyone who may have seen Alwin or his vehicle, or who has any information about his whereabouts, is urged to contact RCCF on 074 327 3041 immediately.

Alwin was found safe on Wednesday night, 8 October, around 21:30 on the R30 (Derby Road) after an extensive search that continued late into the night. He is currently being treated for dehydration. The press stopped to add this update, and more details regarding his search and rescue will be shared as they become available on social media.

Missing – Alwin Dorman, last seen on 6 October 2025. If you have any information, please contact RCCF at 074 327 3041.

Our Ward Matters in action!

Kgaswane Nature Reserve cleanup – for a safer, cleaner Rustenburg.

Rustenburg – From bush cutting to rubbish removal, Our Ward Matters (OWM) is proving that teamwork truly transforms our community. Led by André van Dyk and Cllr Tanya Rothman, and supported by the EPWP team, OWM continues to bring visible improvements to Wards 16 and 17. Week in, week out, the OWM team makes all the difference!

Kock Street & Kameelboom Avenue
In one of their latest clean-up drives, OWM cleared grass along Kock Street and the traffic island leading into Kameelboom Avenue. The team also tackled the veld opposite Wendy House Pre-School, improving visibility and safety for parents and learners. Further along Maroela Avenue, the Helen Joseph Bridge, and Growth Point Church, volunteers picked up litter and removed overgrown vegetation. A special thank you goes to Pastor Doug and Cllr Tanya Rothman, who arranged a skip through RLM Waste Department to remove all the debris.

Helen Joseph Drive – Kgaswane Nature Reserve
Another recent focus area was Helen Joseph Drive, where OWM teams cleaned the road leading toward Kgaswane Nature Reserve. By debushing and cutting deeper into the veld, they improved safety for walkers and joggers. Cllr Tanya Rothman also directed the team to clear access to RLM's sewer line for easier maintenance.

Ward 17 Mega Clean-up
Our Ward Matters joined hands with the DA Ward 17 team and local councillors in Red Maple Drive and Kloof Road, opposite Greystone Shopping Centre, for a large-scale clean-up. Illegal dumping was removed, and overgrown areas were cut back. A DA gazebo was set up to help residents collect proof of residence while volunteers got their hands dirty for a good cause. Thanks to cllrs Jean Keyser, Luan Snyders, Martin Coetzee, OWM volunteer Michael Rothman, and every community member who pitched in to make Ward 17 shine again.

ISAIAH 43:11-12

I, even I, am the LORD,
And besides Me there is no savior. I have declared and saved, I have proclaimed, And there was no foreign god among you; Therefore you are My witnesses,” Says the LORD, “that I am God.”

FUN FACT

Did you know?

Ever wondered why elevators have mirrors? It's not just for checking your hair! In the 1950s, building managers received countless complaints about "slow elevators." Engineers discovered the real issue wasn't speed — it was boredom. By adding mirrors, people became distracted admiring their reflections or adjusting their ties instead of watching the floors crawl by. The result? Complaints vanished!
