

Lost Valley tour guide and manager Diana Swart with Judah, Savannah's miracle cub who survived against all odds.

Judah's Journey of Survival and Hope

Born to Roar

Rustenburg – When Platinum Weekly first reported the escape of a lioness from Lost Valley Predator Experience and Lodge in June 2024, the story captured hearts across Rustenburg. The young lioness, Savannah, was found safe two days later — and soon after, her keepers discovered the real reason behind her great escape: she had been searching for a quiet place to give birth.

On 16 June 2024, Savannah gave birth to three cubs — two males and a female. Only one, a spirited male named Judah, survived after intensive veterinary care. Now one year and five months old, Judah stands as a living reminder of courage, instinct, and the fragile future of Africa's lions.

Across the continent, fewer than 20,000 lions remain in the wild, and sanctuaries like Lost Valley play a crucial role in protecting the species through education, responsible breeding, and hands-on care.

To celebrate Savannah's journey and raise funds for animal welfare, Lost Valley will host a Wildlife Festival on 6–7 December 2025. Visitors can meet the lions, hear their stories, and help ensure the roar of Africa continues for generations to come.

Sisters Savannah and Zhakhira enjoying the sunshine on their favourite ledge at Lost Valley Predator Experience and Lodge.

Rustenburg – When Platinum Weekly first reported on the daring escape of a young lioness from Lost Valley Predator Experience and Lodge in June 2024, the story spread quickly across Rustenburg. Residents were urged to stay indoors, and teams from Problem Animal Control worked around the clock to bring her home safely. The lioness, named Savannah, was found and returned unharmed after two tense days. At the time, it was believed she had escaped because she was “on heat” — but just days later, the truth came to light: Savannah hadn’t been looking for adventure. She had been looking for a safe place to give birth.

On 16 June 2024, Savannah delivered three cubs — two males and a female. Sadly, the litter was premature, and despite intensive veterinary care, only one cub survived. His name is Judah, and he quickly became a symbol of strength, love, and survival.

“Judah is now one year and five months old — strong, playful, and truly beautiful,” says Lost Valley tour guide and manager Diana Swart. “He was born early and faced many challenges, but he’s a miracle. He reminds us every day why we do what we do.”

A Beacon for Lion Conservation

South Africa’s lions are among the world’s most admired creatures — yet they face increasing threats. Across Africa, fewer than 20,000 wild lions remain. In South Africa, while national parks like Kruger offer protection, most lions now live in managed wildlife reserves or responsible sanctuaries like Lost Valley Predator Experience and Lodge.

Such facilities play a vital conservation and educational role. They raise awareness, fund veterinary care, and allow visitors to connect with lions in a controlled, ethical environment — helping secure the species’ survival for future generations.

“People often misunderstand what we do,” says Lost Valley owner Gert van Rensburg. “Our goal isn’t entertainment — it’s education and preservation. Lions in the wild are disappearing fast. If we don’t create safe spaces like these, they’ll be gone in our children’s lifetime.”

At Lost Valley, every animal has a story. From rescues to rare births, the team works daily to ensure that lions like Savannah and Judah thrive under expert care, proper nutrition, and regular veterinary supervision.

Continuing the Legacy

Judah’s story has become a source of pride and purpose for the Lost Valley family — a reminder of nature’s resilience and a mother’s instinct to protect life, even behind fences.

To celebrate these remarkable animals and raise funds for their ongoing care, Lost Valley Predator Experience and Lodge will host a Wildlife Festival on 6–7 December 2025. Visitors can meet the lions, learn more about conservation efforts, and experience the joy of connecting with Africa’s most majestic species.

“Please come and support us,” says Gert. “Every contribution goes toward the care and protection of our animals. When you visit, you’re helping to keep lions alive — not just here, but for the future of our planet.”

For good, together

GRFPA thanks Rustenburg community

Rustenburg – With the official end of the 2025 fire season and the lifting of the “Burn Ban,” the Greater Rustenburg Fire Protection Association (GRFPA) has expressed gratitude to its members and the broader community for their vigilance, teamwork, and cooperation throughout the year. Chairperson Petra Rough reflected, “We had a very quiet season compared to 2024, and there were no real major threat fires.” Following the devastating blazes of 2024, which left lasting scars across the region, 2025 saw quicker reporting, faster response times, and stronger collaboration between GRFPA, local landowners, and the Rustenburg Local Municipality Fire Brigade. Although more incidents were logged this year, they were contained swiftly and effectively — a sign of growing preparedness and awareness. Much effort continues to go into understanding why wildfires have become more intense than a decade ago. Changing weather patterns — later winters, shifting winds, and shorter springs — all contribute to unpredictable fire behaviour. Added to this, human expansion through housing, roads, and mining has placed new pressure on nature’s delicate balance. “Respect and responsibility are synonymous,” GRFPA noted. “As custodians of the land, it is our duty to respect, protect, and preserve it.” Good rains in October and more predicted for the summer mean lush new vegetation — and, with it, fresh fuel for 2026. The GRFPA urges all landowners to plan ahead, prepare and maintain firebreaks, and remain alert. Stay vigilant. Stay safe. Together, let’s make a greater difference. For more information, contact chairperson Petra Rough on 072 988 7116 or the Magaliesberg Land Owners Forum (MLF) representative Clint Kruger on 082 444 4909. Rustenburg – Not even a rainy Saturday could dampen the excitement at the Three Star Cash & Carry Stokvel Expo, held at the Impala Rugby Club on 8 November 2025. The annual event, now in its 16th year, brought together stokvel members from across the region for a day filled with fun, great deals, and community spirit. For many, the expo is an annual highlight — a chance to stock up, socialise and discover new products. Add a Twist promoter Evi du Pont shared: “Events like this give us the chance to connect directly with our customers and show them what our products can offer. Police Seize Illegal Firearms in Northam

Northam/ Rustenburg – A coordinated police operation has led to the arrest of a 41-year-old suspect and the recovery of a firearm, ammunition, and stolen goods. On Sunday, 9 November 2025, members of the Northam Detectives, Rustenburg Tactical Response Team (TRT), and the Thabazimbi Crime Intelligence Unit carried out an intelligence-driven joint operation that led to the suspect’s arrest in Boitekong, Rustenburg. According to colonel Malesela Ledwaba, the man was linked to a theft out of motor vehicle case committed in Northam during October. “During the operation, police recovered a pistol with cartridges and a magazine, along with a laptop and iPhone that had been stolen,” he said. “Some of the property had already been sold to different individuals.” While tracing the firearm, officers received information about a bag left behind at a local tavern. When they searched it, they discovered the weapon inside. Rustenburg LCRC attended the scene for further forensic processing. The provincial commissioner of police in Limpopo, lieutenant general Thembi Hadebe, commended the collaborative work of the teams involved and thanked community members who continue to share valuable information with law enforcement.

Caroline’s Family Still Waiting, Still Hurting

Rustenburg – The murder case of Solly “Moya” Molefe (22), accused of taking the life of Caroline Werner (31) in September 2022, has once again been postponed — this time to 19 November 2025. The confirmation was shared by National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) spokesperson Sivenathi Gunya. For Caroline’s mother, the latest delay was another emotional blow. Speaking to Platinum Weekly, she shared: “Another postponement — 19 November now,” she said. “They still have to appoint an attorney for him because his Legal Aid contract expired. I keep telling myself to be strong, but some days it just feels impossible.” Caroline’s family has now endured more than three years of court delays, each one reopening wounds that have never healed. Caroline was described by those who knew her as a vibrant, joyful soul — a light extinguished far too soon. Her loved ones continue to fight for justice and to keep her memory alive.

Platinum Health Medical Scheme announces increased benefits for 2026

Platinum Health Medical Scheme has announced a significant new benefit for members in 2026. By converting the Overall Annual Limit into a dedicated Hospital Annual Limit, the Scheme has unlocked a remarkable 36% increase in benefits.

Platinum Health CEO Rodney Gounden explains that the overall annual limit on PlatFreedom currently applies to all plan costs, including benefits with sub-limits. “This means that when members use benefits with sub-limits, those costs count toward both the sub-limit and the overall annual limit, effectively depleting the overall limit more quickly. But, from 2026, the overall annual limit will primarily apply to in-hospital benefits, and sub-limit benefits will no longer impact the overall annual limit. This change is expected to extend members’ benefits by approximately 36%.”

About Platinum Health

Platinum Health offers comprehensive and affordable medical scheme benefits to the platinum mining sector. As a Staff Model Health Maintenance Organisation (HMO), the scheme appoints its own health service providers such as specialists, general practitioners (GPs), dentists, psychologists, optometrists, radiographers, physiotherapists and audiologists, and also manages its own clinics and pharmacies. <https://www.platinumhealth.co.za/>

Platinum Health Medical Scheme is also expanding coverage and introducing new vaccines (pneumococcal for adults and RSV) to ensure members have access to the best possible healthcare. Gounden says: “These preventive measures represent strategic investments in member health. Pneumococcal disease poses serious risks to adults, particularly those with chronic conditions or compromised immunity. By covering adult pneumococcal vaccines, we’re preventing potentially severe complications, hospitalisations and long-term health impacts. Similarly, RSV vaccines for pregnant women protect newborns during their most vulnerable period, reducing lower respiratory tract disease in infants. These additions reflect our commitment to proactive, preventive healthcare that improves outcomes while managing long-term costs through early intervention.”

In addition, Platinum Health is opening new pharmacies and upgrading clinical services across its network, making it easier for members to access quality care closer to home.

Ongoing digital innovation

Digital transformation is at the heart of Platinum Health’s service improvements. Among the digital innovations is its WhatsApp platform, which now allows members to check benefits, submit claims, access membership cards and receive real-time updates.

In 2026, Platinum Health will be adding more features, including access to welcome packs, feedback surveys, member detail updates, authorisation requests and chronic medicine ordering – all within WhatsApp.

The introduction of a new queue management system at clinics will allocate a digital queue number to members when they arrive at a facility. They can then track waiting times in real-time and will get SMS notifications when it’s almost their turn. This reduces waiting frustration, improves satisfaction and helps clinics manage staff and consultation rooms more efficiently.

Contributions below market average

The new benefits were highlighted as Platinum Health announced contributions for 2026. Contributions will go up by 7.0%, which Gounden notes is still below the market average.

He says: “Healthcare costs are rising across the board because healthcare services and medicines are becoming more expensive, the population is ageing, and more people are using medical services since the COVID-19 pandemic.

Platinum Health CEO, Rodney Gounden, announces enhanced member benefits and digital innovations for 2026.

Despite these pressures, Platinum Health remains financially sound with strong reserves, an improved loss ratio and a stable membership base.”

“Many other medical schemes are implementing much higher increases, but our strong financial management and efficient claims control have kept costs under control. Since 2020, our total increases have remained well below industry trends – proving our commitment to value and affordability. As we move into 2026, we continue to focus on affordability, innovation, and better healthcare access for our members,” he says.

Gounden emphasises that Platinum Health remains committed to quality healthcare, stability and innovation. “Despite economic challenges and rising healthcare costs nationwide, we continue to offer affordable, high-quality access to healthcare and a seamless member experience,” he concludes.

Did you know?

Did you know that to qualify for the 2026 Comrades Marathon, every runner must complete at least one ASA-certified race of 42.2 km or more between 9 June 2025 and the first weekend of May 2026? That means the qualifying action is already under way even though the big race itself is still ahead!

WHERE THERE’S A WILL, THERE’S A WARD!

Rustenburg – From bush cutting to rubbish removal, Our Ward Matters (OWM) once again proved that transformation starts with teamwork. Led by André van Dyk and Cllr Tanya Rothman, and supported by the EPWP team, OWM rolled up their sleeves to bring visible change to Wards 16 and 17 — even with the rain trying to slow them down! Every week, so much hard work, and so much heart.

Rolling Up Sleeves in Geelhoutpark | 5 November

Residents of Ward 16 woke to see OWM in action across Cycad & Santolina, Kremetart, and Manuka Avenue, with follow-up work at Geelhout Gardens. Joining the effort were Cllr Jean Keyser, Cllr Tanya Rothman, volunteers, and local activists.

Cleanup and a Braai! | 6 November
The Kremetart and Manuka Avenue clean-up was nothing short of inspiring. OWM's two teams tackled the area from SPAR Manuka to Geelhout Gardens and across Cycad & Santolina. Grass cutting, litter collection, and teamwork transformed the space — and for the first time ever, the team celebrated with a well-deserved braai! A special thank-you goes to Tom and Patricia from Phokeng for sponsoring the water, cooldrinks, wors, and buns — and to Michael Rothman for expertly manning the grill. Gratitude also goes to Grant and his staff at Geelhout Gardens for maintaining their surroundings so beautifully.

Our Ward Cares
While cleaning up, Our Ward Cares — OWM's charity division — extended kindness beyond streets and parks. Thanks to a recommendation and a generous donation of boys' clothing from Jo Anne Burger, Ronel Peyper will ensure these clothes reach children in need.

Lighting Hearts this Christmas | 11 November
In collaboration with Emmanuel Sorg NPC, OWM is helping fulfil Christmas wishes for eight children of different ages. Each child's wish is being met through the caring hearts of Obakeng Molefe, Marilyn Nel, Cllr Tanya Rothman, André van Dyk, and Ilse du Preez.
After the Rain, We Rise | 12 November
Even after the rain, OWM's spirit didn't waver. Under Cllr Tanya Rothman's leadership, teams tackled Krokodilrivier (from house 89 past Little Margate to Rockridge View) and Palalarivier behind the houses — restoring order and pride in the Rivers area.

SAPGM Rugby club kicks off a strong pre-season

Rustenburg – The Sibanye-Stillwater SAPGM Rugby Club is already hard at work preparing for next year’s fixtures, with pre-season training officially underway. Players are invited to join practice sessions every Tuesday and Thursday at 18:00 at the Sibanye-Stillwater sports grounds. The pre-season will run until 18 December 2025, before taking a short festive break and resuming on 5 January 2026. This is going to be a big year for SAPGM Rugby — full of passion, progress, and teamwork.”

The club’s next big challenge will be a friendly match against the TUKS Varsity Team on 23 January 2026. The venue will be confirmed closer to the date. SAPGM plans to field two senior teams, an U/20 team, and a women’s team next season — a promising sign of growth and inclusivity within the club.
