12 JUNE 2026

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – When your cellphone signal suddenly disappears, your data stops working or calls keep dropping, criminals targeting telecommunications infrastructure may be to blame... Police arrested eight suspects after recovering suspected stolen cellphone tower batteries worth approximately R500,000 during a late-night operation in the Phokeng area on Thursday 4 June 2026.

According to SAPS spokesperson colonel Adèle Myburgh, intelligence indicated that suspects allegedly involved in the theft of cellphone tower batteries in the Zeerust area were transporting the stolen batteries towards Phokeng in a Toyota Quantum. Acting on the information, members of the Phokeng K9 Unit and other law enforcement agencies launched a coordinated operation and strategically deployed along routes leading into the area. The Toyota Quantum was intercepted near Boshhoek and searched. Inside, officers discovered four cellphone tower batteries concealed in the vehicle. The batteries, valued at approximately R500,000, are believed to have been stolen from telecommunications infrastructure. Eight suspects, aged between 20 and 48, were arrested and charged with possession of suspected stolen property. The batteries and the Toyota Quantum allegedly used in the commission of the crime were seized. The suspects appeared before the Tlhabane Magistrates' Court on Monday, 8 June 2026.

The theft of tower batteries is far more than a property crime. These batteries provide critical backup power to cellphone towers during power outages and load-shedding. When they are stolen, towers can go offline, leaving communities without reliable cellphone coverage, internet access and emergency communication services.

Hawks revive corruption case against Rustenburg lawyers

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg

– Two legal practitioners have appeared in the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court after a corruption case against them was re-enrolled following a decision by the National Prosecuting Authority (NPA).

Amukelani Voster Nwandzule (42) and Rudzani Michael Netshivha (49) appeared briefly in court on Monday, 1 June 2026, facing charges of corruption. They were released on warning and the matter was postponed to 7 July 2026.

According to spokesperson lieutenant colonel Tinyiko Mathebuta, the case stems from an investigation into allegations that the pair attempted to offer gratification to a police officer in exchange for the destruction of a criminal case involving their clients.

The allegations relate to an incident in July 2020, when two suspects were arrested in Rustenburg on charges of diesel theft and malicious damage to essential infrastructure. A vehicle allegedly used in the commission of the offences was impounded by police.

Investigators allege that Nwandzule and Netshivha, acting as legal representatives for the arrested suspects, approached the investigating officer regarding bail arrangements. It is further alleged that the employer of the suspects, whose vehicle had been seized, contacted the officer and offered R30,000 in exchange for the case being destroyed and the vehicle released.

The investigation reportedly revealed that R30,000 was transferred from a company linked to the vehicle owner into Nwandzule's bank account. Hawks investigators further allege that arrangements were subsequently made to meet the investigating officer and hand over a payment. An entrapment operation was conducted, leading to the arrest of the two legal practitioners after they allegedly paid R5,000 to the officer.

The accused initially appeared in court and were released on bail. However, the matter was withdrawn in 2021 after the owner of the impounded vehicle, a Zimbabwean national, could not be traced. Following a review of the matter, the NPA decided to re-enrol the case while the Hawks continue efforts to locate the outstanding suspect.

North West Hawks head, major general Nombuso Khoza, and the director of Public Prosecutions in the province, Dr Rachel Makhari, welcomed the re-enrolment of the matter and commended investigators and prosecutors for their continued efforts to ensure accountability.

Our Ward Matters continues transforming Rustenburg

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – From overgrown sidewalks and illegal dumping hotspots to unsafe open spaces, Our Ward Matters (OWM) continues making a visible impact across Wards 15, 16 and 17. Led by founder André van Dyk, together with Ward 17 councillor Tanya Rothman and supported by volunteers, residents and local businesses, OWM focuses on cleaner, safer and more welcoming neighbourhoods.

Innovation meets community service

Community clean-ups are not only about removing litter — they are also about finding smarter and more sustainable ways to work.

A new partnership between OWM and recycling designer Daleen Fourie has introduced innovative reusable collection bags that can be used to separate recyclable materials during larger clean-up projects. The system allows for the sorting of plastics, glass, cans, garden refuse and general waste, helping improve recycling efforts while potentially creating additional opportunities through recycling initiatives. Daleen also designed practical

Inspiring community spirit at Wildevy

On 1 June, OWM joined local resident Wouter (Vista Café owner), who had already started collecting litter around Wildevy Centrum before the team arrived. According to Van Dyk, visible positive change inspires others to become involved and take pride in their surroundings. Together, volunteers cleaned the entire area around the shopping centre, reinforcing the message that community involvement remains one of the strongest tools for lasting change.

Ongoing focus on Kruger Bridge

The open veld areas near Wildevy and Kruger Street, on both sides of Kruger Bridge, have remained a major focus throughout 2026. Over several months, OWM has repeatedly returned to clear dumping, remove litter, cut grass and improve visibility. The area has long been associated with illegal squatting, public drinking, drug activity and illegal dumping. Recent intervention by Public Safety and Rustenburg Local Municipality saw several illegal structures removed, including a blue structure near Moepel Substation. While significant progress has been made, OWM says additional support remains necessary to address remaining challenges in the area.

Helen Joseph area gets a makeover

On 2 June, teams worked opposite BP Safari and throughout the Helen Joseph area. Grass was cut, litter removed, stormwater drains opened and road islands cleaned and restored. Work also extended from Bergbos Clinic towards BP Garage and surrounding residential areas. The project forms part of OWM's broader goal of improving the appearance and safety of public spaces regularly used by residents.

Preparing for Project Civitas

During the first week of June, teams concentrated on Cuckoo Avenue, Waterberg Avenue, Elandsrivier and surrounding roads in preparation for a major community outreach project with the Care Centre (Project Civitas). Volunteers spent several days cutting grass, removing litter and opening neglected spaces before the larger community event took place.

Volunteers from Project Civitas and Our Ward Matters worked side-by-side during a large-scale community clean-up aimed at creating safer and cleaner neighbourhoods.

Project Civitas unites the community

One of the highlights of the month took place on 8 June when volunteers from Project Civitas and Our Ward Matters joined forces for a large-scale community clean-up initiative. The day began with prayer before volunteers divided into teams responsible for litter collection, grass cutting, debushing, road marking restoration and painting street signs. The project was supported by donations from The Paint Palette and assistance from Rustenburg Local Municipality's Waste Department, which supplied a skip for waste removal. Organisers described the event as a powerful example of what can be achieved when community organisations, residents, businesses and local government work together.

Maintaining safer open spaces

Throughout June, OWM teams continued tackling overgrown public spaces in areas including Timbati Veld, Nylrivier, Apiesrivier, Kremetart Avenue, Manuka Avenue, Kloppe Street and Koorsboom. The work included cutting grass, clearing dumping sites, opening stormwater drains and improving visibility around substations and roadways. According to OWM, maintaining these areas helps prevent illegal dumping, reduces opportunities for criminal activity and improves safety for residents.

Rivers area and Waterfall Mall projects

On 27 and 28 June, volunteers focused on major clean-up projects around the road island near Waterfall Mall and along the canal areas of the Rivers neighbourhood. Grass cutting, debushing and litter removal significantly improved visibility at intersections where overgrown vegetation had begun obstructing traffic signs and motorists' views. The Rivers area project also focused on maintaining the canal corridor between Watervalrivier, Krokodilrivier and Helen Joseph, helping preserve an important green space used daily by residents.

Together, we clean.
Together, we care.
Together, Our Ward Matters.

Innovation meets action. André van Dyk and recycling designer Daleen Fourie showcased new reusable recycling and equipment bags designed to improve efficiency, sustainability and safety during community clean-up projects.

Our Ward Matters teams cleared overgrown vegetation and remove litter in Kremetart Avenue, improving visibility, safety and the overall appearance of the area.

Community spirit in action at Wildevy Centrum, where volunteers joined forces to restore pride and cleanliness to the area during a 1 June clean-up initiative.

Nearly 500 jobs under threat at Bakubung Mine

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Ledig – Nearly 500 jobs are under threat at Bakubung Platinum

Mine after Wesizwe Platinum Limited confirmed the commencement of a Section 189A consultation process at its flagship operation near Ledig, Rustenburg.

The company announced on 4 June 2026 that the process forms part of an ongoing review of the mine's operational and economic position, as it seeks to implement a turnaround strategy aimed at preserving liquidity, ensuring long-term sustainability and aligning the operation with its future 3.5-million-tonne-per-annum (Mtpa) strategy. According to information released by the company, approximately 497 of the mine's 706 employees could be affected by the proposed restructuring. However, Wesizwe stressed that no final decision has been taken regarding retrenchments.

The Section 189A process is a formal consultation process involving recognised trade unions and elected employee representatives. Discussions will focus on the reasons for the proposed restructuring, possible alternatives to retrenchments and measures to minimise the impact on affected employees.

Wesizwe acknowledged the sensitivity of the process and the potential impact on employees, their families and surrounding communities. The company said it remains committed to engaging openly and constructively with labour representatives, regulators, local government, traditional leaders and other stakeholders.

As a precautionary measure, Bakubung Platinum Mine has also implemented a temporary operational shutdown. Wesizwe said the decision was taken to allow the company to monitor the situation and ensure the safety and security of employees while consultations continue.

Operations will resume once the company is satisfied that it is safe and appropriate to do so.

If the proposed restructuring proceeds in its current form, the loss of approximately 497 positions would represent one of the most significant mining job-loss consultations seen in the Rustenburg area in recent years.

Wesizwe said it remains committed to managing the process lawfully, fairly and responsibly while protecting both the integrity of the consultation process and the long-term future of Bakubung Platinum Mine.

Wesizwe began its formal retrenchment consultations and operations are temporarily halted.

“Be Her Voice” CAMPAIGN FILLS COURT

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg

– The Rustenburg community once again showed its determination to seek justice for Santie Bothma when a large crowd gathered at the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Tuesday, 9 June 2026, for the bail application of the two accused in her murder case.

The court appearance formed part of the ongoing “Be Her Voice” campaign, which has united residents in support of Bothma's family and in opposition to violence against women and vulnerable members of society.

During proceedings, the two accused applied for bail. However, the court did not grant bail after it emerged that the accused were unable to provide acceptable physical addresses for verification purposes. The matter was postponed to Friday, 12 June 2026, when the accused are expected to return to court and provide the required address details should they wish to continue with their bail application. Both accused remain in custody.

The case continues to attract significant public interest following the death of Santie Bothma's (54) body was discovered on the Dinie Estate Road on 5 May 2026. Her vehicle was later recovered in Protea Park during a police operation.

The accused, 22-year-old Corné Engelbrecht and 34-year-old Roelien Hattingh (reportedly a creche teacher for many years), face charges including murder, robbery, hijacking and defeating the ends of justice.

Outside court, supporters stood in solidarity with Bothma's friends and family, carrying forward the message that has become synonymous with the campaign: “Santie can no longer speak for herself. We can. We will.”

As the case proceeds, community members continue to call for justice while supporting those left behind by the tragedy.

A large crowd gathered outside the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Tuesday, 9 June 2026, in support of the “Be Her Voice” campaign and in solidarity with the family of Santie Bothma.

Law enforcement officials inspected merchandise during one of the coordinated illicit goods operations conducted.

MAJOR BLOW TO ILLICIT TRADE

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Bojanala District – A week-long multi-agency operation targeting counterfeit and illicit goods across the Bojanala District has resulted in the seizure of products worth more than R219 million, delivering a significant blow to illegal trade networks operating in the region.

The coordinated operations were conducted between 25 and 30 May 2026 in Rustenburg, Brits, Marikana and Hartbeespoort Dam. The intelligence-driven initiative brought together a range of law enforcement agencies and regulatory bodies in a concerted effort to protect consumers, legitimate businesses and the South African economy from the impact of illicit trade.

According to colonel Adèle Myburgh, the operations involved the National Counterfeit and Illicit Goods Unit, Customs, SARS Tactical Analysis and Investigation Unit, Public Order Policing (POP) Rustenburg, the Anti-Gang Unit, Phokeng K9 Unit, TRT Brits, Hartbeespoort Dam K9 Unit, North West Provincial Commercial Crime Unit, Brand Protectors and the National Regulator for Consumer Specifications (NRCS).

During the operations, authorities confiscated a wide variety of suspected counterfeit and illicit products, including branded clothing, sports apparel, sneakers, toys, cosmetics, luxury fashion accessories, medication and various consumable goods.

In total, 178,825 items with an estimated value of approximately R219.4 million were seized. The NRCS also confiscated 12,009 non-compliant products valued at an estimated R102.1 million. These included canned and frozen meat and fish products, consumables, electronics and household appliances that failed to meet regulatory requirements.

In addition, law enforcement officials seized R118,400 in cash. Authorities also confiscated illicit alcohol valued at R127,000, as well as counterfeit alcohol worth approximately R18,500. A criminal case has been opened under the Medicines and Related Substances Act following the discovery of unregistered medication. Investigations are continuing.

The acting provincial commissioner of the North West, major general (Dr) Ryno Naidoo, praised the dedication and cooperation displayed by all participating agencies.

Drug Lab Case Back in Court on 12 June

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Swartruggens – The high-profile drug laboratory case that shocked the Swartruggens community is set to return to court on Friday 12 June 2026, as investigations into the alleged R100 million operation continue. Thirteen accused, including several foreign nationals and the owners of the farm where the laboratory was discovered, appeared before the Swartruggens Magistrate's Court on 22 May. The case stems from a major Hawks-led operation that uncovered what authorities believe was a large-scale illicit drug manufacturing facility on a farm near Swartruggens. The discovery drew national attention and raised concerns about the presence of organised crime syndicates operating in rural areas.

According to the Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation (Hawks), the matter was previously postponed to allow for interpreter services, the verification of immigration statuses and possible formal bail applications. Additionally, the owners of the farm handed themselves over to authorities for questioning and were subsequently charged with the manufacturing of illicit drugs, the illegal possession of hazardous chemicals and the illegal possession of precious metals. They appeared in court alongside the other accused for the first time on 22 May. The accused are Tyron John Schutte, Kyle Schutte, Ismael Afiado Masingue, Lourenco Constantino Cumbane, Tobias Soyani, Vusi Amos Mkambi, Naome Jacquelin Lopez Madrid, Fabian Astorga Ramirez, Jesus Alonso Medina Astorga, Luis Alberto Ramirez Rios, Jose Andres Medina Astorga, Chantel Adele Schutte and Johann Louis Schutte.

Preliminary investigations have further revealed that eight of the accused are allegedly in South Africa illegally. They now also face charges relating to the contravention of the Immigration Act. Some of the accused had indicated their intention to apply for bail. However, court diary clashes resulted in a short adjournment. The matter was postponed to 12 June 2026 for formal bail applications and the provision of a Spanish interpreter. The case remains under investigation as authorities continue probing the alleged operation and its possible links to organised crime networks.

Containers recovered at the farm where the alleged drug laboratory was discovered.

The arrests followed an intelligence-driven operation involving Crime Intelligence, the Hawks and Organised Crime Investigation units. The laboratory was dismantled during the operation, and police previously estimated the value of the illicit operation at approximately R100 million.

One of the suspects is taken into custody during the intelligence-driven operation that uncovered the alleged R100 million drug laboratory.

Rugga nuus

United Rugby Championship
 Semi-Finale | Saterdag 6 Junie

Glasgow Warriors vs Bulls
 Die Bulle toon karakter, passie en yslieke groot ghoenas, ou grote, en klop die Warriors 22-21 om hul plek in die URC-finaal te bespreek. Hierdie wedstryd sal lank onthou word as 'n wedstryd van twee helftes. Glasgow het onder leiding van kaptein Kyle Steyn die Bulle se verdediging in die eerste helfte aan flarde geruk en met 'n 21-10 voorsprong gaan rus. Steyn het geskitter met twee puik drieë, maar min het hy geweet dat 21 die laaste punte sou wees wat sy span op die telbord sou aanteken. Die Bulle se afrigters moes behoorlik woema gee in die kleedkamer, want in die tweede helfte het die manne in blou gewys dat Bul se kind nie hierdie keer van die vloer af gaan eet nie. Die verdediging was ystersterk en Glasgow is punteloos gehou. Handré Pollard het 'n seldsame moeilike dag met die skoene beleef. Dit gebeur nie gereeld dat Pollie vier skoppe pale toe mis nie. Dalk het die vroeë geelkaart sy ritme versteur, maar een ding weet ons: Pollard is gebore vir druk en sal verseker gefokus wees vir die finaal. Die Bulle wen dié riller 22-21 en draf op 20 Junie teen Leinster uit in Dublin.

Leinster vs Stormers
 Die Kapenaars het die URC-seisoen uitstekend begin, ou grote, maar teen die einde van die kompetisie het die wiele begin afval. Leinster klop die Stormers 20-11 in Dublin en bespreek sodoende hul plek in die finaal teen die Bulls. Daar word tans geweën in die Kaap, en natuurlik ook gewyn. Die trane loop lank en die son skyn nie juis helder oor die Moederstad nie. Die onttrekking van Sacha Feinberg-Mngomezulu en Ruben van Heerden voor die wedstryd het beslis seergemaak, maar die waarheid is dat Leinster op die dag net daardie tikkie beter was.

Did you know?

South Africa's iconic green ID book has been in use for nearly 50 years and is gradually being replaced by the Smart ID Card, first introduced in 2013. Although the green ID remains valid, government plans to phase it out due to fraud and identity theft concerns. An estimated 16 million South Africans were still using green ID books in 2025. While no official cut-off date has been announced, Home Affairs aims to achieve universal Smart ID enrolment by 2029, after which the green ID book is expected to become a thing of the past.

BERGSIG SCORES BIG WITH BAKKIES BOTHA VISIT

Former Springbok rugby legend Bakkies Botha shared words of encouragement and inspiration with Bergsig Academy learners during his visit to the school.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Pump & Abrasion Technologies (PABT), together with sister company Curve Gear and former Springbok rugby star Bakkies Botha, has shown its support for young rugby players by donating custom Hero Rugby Polos to selected school rugby teams and coaches in mining communities across South Africa.

The initiative forms part of PABT's ongoing commitment to the communities connected to the mining industry. The specially designed polos give players and coaches a smart, unified garment to wear at capping ceremonies, while travelling to matches and when representing their schools off the field.

During visits to participating schools, Bakkies Botha met learners, signed autographs and shared inspiring messages about discipline, teamwork, resilience and character. For many young players, the opportunity to meet the former Springbok was a memorable highlight.

PABT says the project is about more than rugby clothing – it is about recognising the people, families and communities that support South Africa's mining industry every day, while encouraging pride, belonging and school spirit among the next generation of players.
