Check out Page 6 to find out how to pledge a shoebox, make a donation, volunteer, or get your gift to the right child.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Christmas may still be months away, but now is the time to start preparing a Santa Shoebox that could bring joy, dignity and hope to a child in need.

Every year, thousands of South Africans pack personalised Santa Shoeboxes filled with essentials, educational supplies, treats and toys for vulnerable children.

The sooner you start, the easier it is to shop, budget and create a meaningful gift that will make a lasting impact. Whether you're an individual, family, school, church or business, you can help make this year's campaign a success.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Mooinooi – Police have launched a manhunt for suspects following a brutal alleged vigilante attack that left one man dead and another seriously injured in Bapong.

According to police spokesperson lieutenant colonel Sam Tselanyane, officers responded to a complaint of alleged mob justice in the Newtown Section of Bapong, outside Mooinooi, at approximately 02:30 on Sunday, 14 June 2026. Upon arriving at the scene, police found a severely injured man lying next to the road. He was bleeding and had visible injuries, but was unable to communicate due to the seriousness of his condition. While officers were still at the scene, they heard cries for help coming from nearby bushes. Following the calls, they discovered a second man who had also sustained serious injuries. Unlike the first victim, he was able to identify himself as well as the other injured man.

Police said both victims were found naked and alone at the scene. Emergency Medical Rescue Services (EMRS) were summoned, but the first victim was declared dead at the scene. The second victim was transported to a local hospital, where he continues to receive medical treatment. A murder case and an investigation into the alleged vigilante attack are underway. Police are appealing to anyone who may have information about the incident to contact the investigating officer, detective constable Tshidiso Mankgaba on 078 509 4895, or the SAPS Crime Stop number on 08600 10111. Anonymous tip-offs can also be submitted through the MySAPS App. The acting provincial commissioner of North West, major general (Dr) Ryno Naidoo, strongly condemned the incident, describing it as a serious violation of the rule of law.

One shoebox can change a child's Christmas

Platinum Weekly newspaper – A Santa Shoebox is much more than a gift. It is a message to a child that says: You matter. You are remembered. You are loved. Since 2006, the Santa Shoebox Project has distributed more than 1.3 million personalised shoeboxes to children attending educational and care facilities across South Africa and Namibia. Each box is packed for a specific child and typically contains toiletries, school supplies, clothing, sweets, toys and a personal message of encouragement. Getting involved is easy. Supporters can pledge a shoebox online, receive the details of a child, pack the required items and deliver the completed shoebox to an official collection point. Those who cannot pack a physical shoebox can still make a difference by sponsoring a Virtual Santa Shoebox. Beyond the annual gift drive, the Santa Shoebox Legacy Projects continue creating lasting change through early childhood development programmes focused on build, learn and read.

Ready to make a difference? Visit www.santashoebox.org.za to pledge a shoebox, donate, volunteer or learn more. One child. One shoebox. One unforgettable Christmas

MANY HANDS, ONE MISSION

RESIDENTS ROLL UP THEIR SLEEVES FOR A BETTER WARD

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – From overgrown sidewalks and illegal dumping hotspots to unsafe open spaces, Our Ward Matters (OWM) continues making a visible impact across Wards 15, 16 and 17. Led by founder André van Dyk, together with Ward 17 councillor Tanya Rothman and supported by volunteers, residents and local businesses, OWM focuses on cleaner, safer and more welcoming neighbourhoods.

Together, Our Ward Matters

10-11 June: Clearing the Way for Safer Communities
 The OWM team spent 10 and 11 June 2026 hard at work throughout Ward 17, focusing on some of the area's most pressing challenges. Under the supervision of councillor Tanya Rothman and Michael Rothman, volunteers collected litter from various locations across the ward while also tackling dense vegetation in the Nylapies area. The clean-up improved visibility, enhanced safety and helped maintain the river surroundings. A helping hand from TotalEnergies Garage, which sponsored petrol for the operation, enabled the team to clear and maintain the water canal behind the garage and clean areas where individuals often shelter or hide. Work also began along Helen Joseph Drive, where overgrown grass was cut back to improve visibility for motorists and pedestrians while reducing potential fire hazards ahead of the approaching veld fire season.

14 June: A Gift That Warmed Hearts
 While much of OWM's work focuses on physical transformation, 14 June brought a reminder of the power of kindness. An anonymous donor generously supplied overalls and safety boots for every member of the OWM team. Although the donor wished to remain unnamed, the impact of the gesture was evident. The protective clothing was handed out to team members the following day, bringing smiles and boosting morale.

An anonymous donor's gift of overalls and safety boots brought smiles to the OWM team on 14 June, boosting morale and recognising their hard work.

OWM volunteers spent 10 and 11 June clearing litter and overgrown areas across Ward 17, helping improve safety, visibility and cleanliness throughout the community.

15 June: Taking Back Overgrown Spaces

The momentum continued on Monday, 15 June, when the team returned to Helen Joseph Drive for another intensive clean-up operation. Starting at the corner of Flamboyant Street and Helen Joseph, volunteers used brushcutters, pangas and spades to clear thick vegetation and open up neglected spaces. The work continued towards the car wash, Blikkies vol Liefde, and behind properties in Kwartel Crescent. As vegetation was removed, the team uncovered large amounts of litter and evidence of people living in bushes near Arend Road and Helen Joseph Drive, highlighting concerns raised by nearby residents. By opening up these areas, OWM hopes to discourage illegal dumping, reduce opportunities for criminal activity and create a safer environment for the hundreds of motorists, schoolchildren and residents who use the route daily. The visible difference is already becoming apparent, but OWM says there is still much work to be done.

The organisation continues to appeal for donations of petrol, brushcutter line, heavy-duty refuse bags and equipment maintenance support to help sustain its efforts.

The OWM team continued its clean-up efforts along Helen Joseph Drive on 15 June, cutting back dense vegetation and addressing illegal dumping hotspots.

Creating lasting value

Sustainability partnerships delivering real benefits for communities and business

On Thursday 11 June 2026, Valterra Platinum hosted its first Sustainability Day, outlining how the business is delivering on its Sustainability strategy which focuses on three pillars: climate and environment, building resilient communities and ethical value chains.

Valterra Platinum's first Sustainability Day brought together employees, partners, industry leaders and other stakeholders to explore how the company creates and protects value, while showcasing initiatives that support this goal and contribute to long-term business success. The event highlighted that, from climate change and resource constraints to evolving stakeholder expectations, regulatory pressures and shifting global supply chains, the definition of value is changing. Sustainability is no longer a separate, feel-good initiative; it has become a core driver of resilience, competitiveness and long-term success.

Addressing delegates, Valterra Platinum CEO Craig Miller said sustainability is not a parallel journey to business performance, but an integral part of it. "Sustainability and business performance are converging. Here at Valterra Platinum, sustainability anchors our strategy and runs through everything we do," he said.

The exhibition demonstrated how collaboration and innovation are creating and protecting value for communities, partners and future generations.

Valterra Platinum's Supply Chain Sustainability programme promotes responsible sourcing, inclusive procurement and supplier development, helping create opportunities for local businesses while building stronger, more sustainable communities.

■ Pillar 3: Ethical value chains

Building stronger communities through responsible procurement

Valterra Platinum's Supply Chain Sustainability programme demonstrates how responsible business practices can create positive impacts far beyond the mine gate. By focusing on inclusive procurement, responsible sourcing and reducing value-chain emissions, the company is working to build a more resilient and sustainable future for its host communities.

Supply Chain Sustainability is a key pillar of Valterra Platinum's commitment to building ethical value chains and creating lasting value for the communities surrounding its operations. Through its inclusive procurement strategy, the company prioritises opportunities for local suppliers, helping small and emerging businesses grow, create jobs and strengthen local economies. In 2025 alone, Valterra Platinum spent approximately R7 billion with host community suppliers, supporting economic participation and enterprise development across its mining regions. The programme also promotes responsible sourcing, ensuring suppliers uphold ethical, environmental and social standards throughout the value chain.

By combining sustainable procurement with responsible business practices, Supply Chain Sustainability contributes to community development, economic inclusion and long-term sustainability, while supporting Valterra Platinum's purpose of unearthing value to better our world.

■ Pillar 1: Climate and Environment

Clean energy for today, sustainability for tomorrow

In March this year, Valterra Platinum welcomed the commercial operation of the 240 MW Mooi Plaats Solar PV project and the 140 MW Umsobomvu Wind project in South Africa's Northern Cape and Eastern Cape respectively. Both projects form part of Envusa Energy's Koruson 2 (K2) project, a joint venture between Anglo American and Électricité de France Renewables (EDF Renewables) Power Solutions.

The projects are expected to supply approximately 30% of Valterra Platinum's electricity demand, reducing an estimated one million tonnes of carbon emissions annually and advancing the company's 2030 emissions-reduction target. Bringing the Mooi Plaats and Umsobomvu projects online delivers significant benefits for Valterra Platinum by enhancing energy security, reducing exposure to Eskom tariff volatility and accelerating progress towards the company's climate commitments. With grid electricity currently accounting for approximately 87% of the company's total emissions, the renewable energy supply will play a critical role in achieving Valterra Platinum's Scope 1 and 2 target of a 30% absolute emissions reduction by 2030, measured against a 2016 baseline.

These initiatives form part of Valterra Platinum's broader decarbonisation strategy, helping to reduce greenhouse gas emissions, strengthen energy security and support the company's ambition of achieving carbon neutrality by 2040. Envusa Energy and Valterra Platinum are demonstrating how business can support a just energy transition while creating sustainable opportunities and shared value for future generations.

The Umsobomvu Wind Farm is one of several large-scale renewable energy projects helping drive South Africa's energy transition.

Kioni empowers women through jewellery design and entrepreneurship, creating pathways to income generation and economic independence in mining communities.

■ Pillar 2: Resilient communities

Kioni: crafting opportunity through African creativity

Kioni is a female-owned social enterprise dedicated to transforming traditional African craftsmanship into meaningful economic opportunities for women. Founded in 2018 by Erika Tempel, the business provides training, mentorship and market access to rural women, enabling them to design, manufacture and sell authentic, high-end African jewellery and related products.

At the heart of Kioni's work is a simple but powerful purpose: turning craftsmanship into opportunity. Through beading and jewellery-making, women gain practical skills, steady income, confidence and creative independence. The initiative helps participants build sustainable livelihoods while preserving and celebrating African artistry.

Recognising Kioni's potential to create lasting community impact, Valterra Platinum provided funding in 2024 to expand the programme and increase commercial opportunities for women in its host communities. The partnership is helping more women access entrepreneurship opportunities, improve their earning potential and contribute to local economic development. By investing in people, skills and creativity, Kioni demonstrates how sustainable development can be both empowering and beautifully crafted.

■ Pillar 3: Ethical value chains

Contractor support: building businesses beyond mining

Valterra Platinum's Contractor Support Programme is helping community-based businesses build a stronger future by reducing their dependence on mining contracts and creating opportunities for long-term growth.

Valterra Platinum's Contractor Support Programme helps local businesses build resilience and diversify beyond mining-related work.

Many small businesses in mining communities rely heavily on mine-related work, making them vulnerable when contracts end or demand declines. Through its Contractor Support Programme, Valterra Platinum is working to change this by helping local entrepreneurs become more resilient, sustainable and competitive.

The programme identifies promising small and medium enterprises (SMEs) and provides structured support tailored to their specific needs. This includes strengthening business systems, improving financial management, developing new markets and creating pathways for growth beyond the mining sector. By helping businesses diversify their income streams and build stronger foundations, the initiative supports job retention and creates opportunities for future employment.

The programme forms part of Valterra Platinum's broader sustainability strategy, which focuses on building resilient local communities and ensuring that economic benefits continue long after mining activities have ended. Through initiatives such as these, the company is investing in stronger local economies and sustainable community development.

■ Pillar 2: Resilient communities

Simplie Honey: sweet success through sustainable beekeeping

By turning beekeeping into an opportunity for growth, Simplie Honey is helping communities build skills, generate income and protect the environment – one hive at a time.

Simplie Honey, producing international award-winning honey, partners with Valterra Platinum to support community-based beekeeping initiatives linked to operations such as Amandelbult and Precious Metals Refinery (PMR). The project combines environmental stewardship with economic empowerment by providing training, mentorship and practical beekeeping skills to community members.

Through honey production and hive management, participants are able to develop sustainable livelihood opportunities while contributing to biodiversity conservation. Bees play a vital role in pollinating crops and indigenous plants, helping to maintain healthy ecosystems and support food security.

The project has already achieved international recognition, with honey from the Amandelbult Community Beekeeping Project receiving a first-place award at a prestigious international honey competition in 2024. This achievement highlights the quality of the honey produced and the success of community-driven sustainability initiatives. Through partnerships such as this, Valterra Platinum continues to create lasting value beyond mining by supporting resilient communities and a healthier environment.

■ Pillar 2: Resilient communities

Thobo, sharing in success

Employee share ownership is a powerful way to create long-term value and promote financial wellbeing. The Thobo Employee Share Ownership Plan (ESOP) is Valterra Platinum's flagship share ownership scheme for over 18,000 employees.

Established to provide beneficiaries with a meaningful ownership stake in the company, the scheme enables beneficiaries to benefit directly from the value they help create through their daily work. Named after the Setswana word Thobo, meaning "harvest", the scheme reflects the principle of sharing the rewards of collective effort. Through annual share allocations, evergreen dividend participation and ongoing employee engagement, the ESOP promotes financial inclusion, long-term wealth creation and economic participation.

Beyond financial benefits, the scheme supports Valterra Platinum's broader sustainability objectives by helping employees and their families build greater financial resilience. By creating opportunities for employees to share in the company's success, the Thobo ESOP contributes to stronger households, more resilient communities and a more inclusive mining industry.

The Thobo Employee Share Ownership Plan (ESOP) enables qualifying Valterra Platinum employees to share in the company's success through share ownership, building long-term financial resilience for employees and their families.

■ Pillar 2: Resilient communities

Project Alchemy: investing in communities beyond mining

The Alchemy Equity Scheme is a long-term sustainability initiative designed to create lasting social and economic value in our host communities and the workforce origin regions (labour-sending areas), by leveraging the 1,400,685 unencumbered shares owned in Valterra Platinum.

Through a network of development trusts and a non-profit company, the scheme invests in education, digital connectivity, healthcare, infrastructure, entrepreneurship, food security and skills development. Since its establishment in 2011, hundreds of millions of rand have been invested in projects that aim to build resilient, self-sustaining communities long after mining activities have ended.

At the heart of Valterra Platinum's long-term community sustainability vision lies the Alchemy Community Empowerment Scheme, enabled by the shareholding trust, Lefa La Rona. The scheme supports five development entities, each serving different communities connected to the company's operations and workforce regions. Dikuno Tsa Sechaba Trust continues to make meaningful investments in digital inclusion, healthcare, and education, among other initiatives. Ditholwana Ts'a Rena Trust supports early childhood development, water, sanitation and agriculture in Mogalakwena communities. Bohwa Bja Rena Trust invests in social infrastructure to improve access to essential public services around Twickenham. The Rustenburg Community Development Trust promotes entrepreneurship, skills development and township industrialisation, while Zenzele Itereleng NPC supports social welfare initiatives and develops commercially viable enterprises through access to finance, technical support and market linkages across the Eastern Cape, Lesotho, Mozambique and Taung.

Together, these initiatives demonstrate Valterra Platinum's commitment to creating sustainable livelihoods, improving quality of life and building stronger communities.

Project Alchemy is helping to create lasting social and economic value through investments in education, infrastructure, entrepreneurship, digital connectivity and community wellbeing.

Growing opportunity from the ground up

From a community farming initiative to a thriving commercial enterprise, Maponya Agricultural Projects Trust is helping grow jobs, food security and economic opportunity near Polokwane through agriculture and strategic partnerships.

Located approximately 20km south of Polokwane, adjacent to Valterra Platinum's Polokwane Smelter, Maponya Agricultural Projects Trust has developed into a successful black-owned farming enterprise under the leadership of Jonas Maponya. The farm spans around 800 hectares, including irrigated, dryland and grazing areas, and produces potatoes as its primary crop, alongside tomatoes, chillies, peppers, sugar beans and seasonal vegetables. Valterra Platinum has played an important role in the farm's growth through a R1.9 million investment in mechanised farming equipment, including a tractor, trailer, planter, fertiliser spreader, disc harrow and such. This support has helped improve productivity, strengthen distribution channels and create access to broader markets.

Today, the farm harvests approximately 150 tonnes of potatoes annually and provides employment opportunities for permanent and seasonal workers, demonstrating how partnerships between industry and local agriculture can drive sustainable livelihoods and long-term community development.

Maponya Agricultural Projects Trust has grown into a successful commercial farming enterprise, creating jobs, strengthening local food security and supplying agricultural produce through the support of strategic partners such as Valterra Platinum.

Water that changes lives

Reliable access to water is essential for healthy communities, sustainable livelihoods and economic growth. Through partnerships with municipalities, government departments and community stakeholders, the company has contributed to projects that strengthen access to reliable water supply.

These initiatives have included support for bulk water pipelines, borehole development, water reticulation upgrades and other infrastructure designed to improve the delivery of potable water to households. In our operating areas, partnerships helped advance several water infrastructure projects, while borehole and pipeline upgrades have assisted municipalities in augmenting local water supply systems benefiting more than 100,000 people. At a regional level, Valterra Platinum is also involved in the roll out of the Olifants River Resources Development Project, a bulk water infrastructure programme that aims to improve long-term water resilience for communities and industry alike.

By investing in sustainable water solutions, Valterra Platinum helps create lasting benefits that extend beyond the mine gate and contribute to healthier, more resilient communities.

Biodiversity: protecting nature for future generations

Healthy ecosystems are essential for thriving communities, sustainable livelihoods and a resilient environment. Through its biodiversity and rehabilitation programmes, Valterra Platinum is committed to ensuring that mining activities contribute to a positive and lasting environmental legacy.

Valterra Platinum's biodiversity programme demonstrates how responsible mining and environmental stewardship can be integrated across the full mining lifecycle. Across its operations, the company focuses on avoiding and minimising impacts, rehabilitating disturbed land, protecting threatened plant species and restoring ecosystems during operations and post closure.

At its Mototolo operation, conservation teams manage onsite nurseries with more than 4,000 propagated and transplanted seedlings, while specialised programmes safeguard protected species such as Bushveld Saffron, Sekhukhune Bushman's Tea and Red Ivory trees. The company also supports invasive species control, wetland rehabilitation and ecological restoration projects in the Limpopo and North West provinces.

Beyond operational boundaries, Valterra partners with conservation authorities, landowners, and host communities to promote biodiversity stewardship, awareness, and environmental sustainability. These efforts help preserve natural resources, support ecosystem health, and create a foundation for sustainable land use long after mining has ended.

Biodiversity management is a core component of Valterra Platinum's commitment to responsible mining. By embedding robust biodiversity practices into planning, operations and closure, the company aims to deliver measurable environmental outcomes, strengthen ecosystem resilience and create enduring value for host communities.

Valterra Platinum's biodiversity and rehabilitation initiatives focus on protecting indigenous species, restoring ecosystems and promoting sustainable land use for future generations.

FIVE WOMEN ARRESTED DURING KOSTER TUCK SHOP BURGLARY

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Koster – Quick-thinking police officers on patrol in Reagile prevented further criminal activity when they caught five women allegedly burglarising a local tuck shop and recovered stolen groceries before they could be taken from the scene. The arrests took place on Wednesday, 10 June 2026, during proactive high-visibility patrols conducted by police following reports of possible threats against foreign-owned businesses and planned protest action in the area. According to police spokesperson colonel Adèle Myburgh, officers were patrolling Reagile at approximately 08:30 when they noticed several closed shops and a group of people gathered in the street. Upon investigating, they discovered five women allegedly removing corrugated iron sheets from a tuck shop in an attempt to gain unlawful entry. The suspects had reportedly already stolen groceries from the business when police intervened. As officers approached, the women allegedly attempted to flee, but were swiftly pursued and arrested. The stolen goods were recovered and seized as evidence.

Police further clarified that a video circulated on social media after the incident does not accurately portray what transpired. According to SAPS, the footage shows members of the public dispersing after the arrests had been made. Authorities emphasised that the situation remained calm and peaceful, with no further incidents reported. The acting provincial commissioner of North West, Ryno Naidoo, praised the officers involved for their vigilance and rapid response. Naidoo also warned that criminal behaviour disguised as community action or public gatherings will not be tolerated and urged residents to act within the law at all times.

The five accused – Dikeledi Pule (22), Kelebogile Motshengwa (27), Kedibone Mosweetsi (29), Zanele Makgae (26) and Kedibone Kesilwe (36) – appeared in the Koster Magistrate's Court on Thursday, 11 June, on charges of burglary at business premises. They were released with a warning and are expected to appear before the same court again on 16 July 2026. Police have encouraged community members to continue reporting suspicious activities and to work with law enforcement.

Valterra Platinum warns suppliers of procurement scam

Valterra Platinum has become aware of a procurement scam targeting suppliers, service providers and business partners through the misuse of the company's name, employee identities and falsified documentation.

The scam involves individuals impersonating Valterra Platinum representatives and distributing fraudulent documents, including fake identity documents, banking correspondence and other supporting paperwork, to scam unsuspecting recipients.

Valterra Platinum confirms that these communications and documents are fraudulent and do not originate from the company. They attempt to solicit supplier engagement through fake purchase orders, requests for information and other communications that falsely claim to represent Valterra Platinum. We urge all suppliers and contractors to be aware, exercise caution and verify any unusual requests through official company channels before taking any action.

Valterra Platinum will never:

- Ask for payment to participate in a tender process
- Request product samples outside of a formal procurement process
- Send tender requests via WhatsApp, SMS or other informal messaging platforms
- Communicate through unofficial channels
- Request goods to be delivered to premises that are not approved company locations
- Communicate unofficial changes to scope, delivery requirements or pricing

Valterra Platinum will always:

- Use official company systems, including SAP Ariba and associated company platforms
- Communicate through verified email addresses ending in @valterraplatinum.com
- Direct suppliers to official procurement information and resources
- Follow established procurement governance and purchase order processes
- Maintain formal, transparent and documented supplier engagement procedures

Valterra Platinum takes this matter seriously and is working to address the issue through the appropriate channels. Should you receive unexpected purchase orders, payment requests or communications that appear unusual or suspicious, please verify them directly with the company before responding or taking any action.

If in doubt, contact your usual Valterra Platinum representative, visit the supplier section of the Valterra Platinum website, or report suspicious behaviour via the YourVoice Integrity Line on 010 500 4106, or at <https://valterraplatinum.integrityline.com/>.

Your vigilance helps protect the integrity of our supply chain and safeguard our partnerships.

HAVE YOUR SAY

Are you still using the green ID book?

South Africa's green barcoded ID book is gradually being phased out and replaced by the Smart ID Card. Although the green ID remains valid for now, millions of South Africans still use it daily. Are you one of them, or have you already made the switch?

"Yes. I still use my green ID book because it represents our country's journey to freedom. For me, it is more than a document – it is a reminder of how far South Africa has come and a legacy worth preserving for future generations."

Tumelo Mooketsi, Rustenburg

"Yes, I still use my green ID book. Although I have a Smart ID Card, I find the green book more practical when documents need to be scanned, copied or emailed. It has always worked well for me."

Lizelle Brown, Rustenburg

POLL

Is success more about luck than hard work?

Some people believe success comes from being in the right place at the right time, while others argue that dedication, persistence and hard work are the real keys to achieving goals. What do you think plays the bigger role in success – luck, hard work, or a combination of both?

Did you know?

PENGUINS KNOW THEIR FAMILY BY SOUND... Imagine trying to find your child in a crowd of thousands. Penguins do exactly that! In large colonies that can contain thousands of birds, parent penguins and their chicks recognise one another through unique vocal calls.

Scientists have discovered that each penguin's call is slightly different, allowing family members to identify each other even in a noisy colony. This remarkable ability helps parents return to the correct chick after spending days at sea searching for food. It's nature's version of a voice print – and it works surprisingly well.

Rugga nuus

United Rugby Championship

Die finaal van die URC word Vrydagaand om 20:30 in Dublin tussen Leinster en die Bulls beslis. Leinster is die verdedigende kampioen, en hul tuisvoordeel gaan beslis in hul guns tel. Die Bulls het egter 'n uiters sterk span gekies, met sewentien Springbokke in die groep wat die Iere behoorlik gaan laat les opsê. Dit belooft om 'n titaniese stryd te wees tussen twee spanne wat wemel van internasionale talent. As Pollard op sy beste is en die voorspelers vir Leinster onder druk kan hou, kan die beker dalk weer sy pad Pretoria toe vind. Go Bulle!

Bokke se seisoen begin

Die Springbokke se internasionale seisoen skop die naweek af met 'n kragmeting teen die Barbarians. Die wedstryd begin om 15:00 by die Nelson Mandelabaai-stadion in Gqeberha. Soos gewoonlik het Rassie Erasmus die wenkbroue laat lig met 'n paar verrassende keuses, maar dit is duidelik dat hy reeds besig is om nuwe talent vir die toekoms te ontwikkel. Met verskeie jong spelers wat hul kans kry om hul staal te wys, bied die wedstryd 'n waardevolle geleentheid om die volgende geslag Springbokke in aksie te sien. Rugbyliefhebbers kan reeds van 12:00 af die aksie geniet wanneer 'n Suid-Afrika A-span teen Zimbabwe te staan kom in die voorwedstryd. Met 'n mengsel van ervaring, opwindende nuwe talent en die altyd-onvoorspelbare Barbarians, belooft dit om 'n uitstekende dag van rugby te wees.

Nag ou grote...

Bergsig Academy rugby player Anver Hayden Harding hopes to return to the field next year after a serious shoulder injury sidelined his promising season.

Rustenburg rugby player Anver Harding is fighting to get back on the field after a devastating shoulder injury

Platinum Weekly koerant | Rustenburg – For most teenage boys, six months can feel like a lifetime. For 17-year-old Anver Hayden Harding, it means six months away from the rugby field he loves most.

The Bergsig Academy Grade 11 learner and proud member of the school's 1st rugby team was living his dream when disaster struck during a rugby match in Potchefstroom on 1 May 2026. Moments after making a tackle, another player fell heavily onto Anver's shoulder. The impact tore a ligament and instantly changed the course of his season.

What made the injury even more devastating was that Anver had already injured the same shoulder the week before. This time, however, the damage was severe. Today, while his teammates continue their season, Anver faces a long road to recovery. The family's burden extends far beyond the physical injury. Medical treatment costs are expected to reach around R350,000, while available medical cover falls far short of what is needed.

For Anver, the hardest part has not been the pain. "It's not being able to play rugby anymore," he said.

Anyone who knows Anver knows rugby is more than a sport to him. It is where he found confidence, friendship, discipline and purpose. Whether training with his teammates or pulling on his jersey for Bergsig's 1st team, rugby has always been part of his identity.

Despite the setback, Anver refuses to give up. His goal is simple: recover fully and return to the field next year. Through every doctor's appointment, every setback and every difficult day, one person has remained by his side - his mother, Lizette Harding.

"Watching your child lose the thing he loves most is heartbreaking," said Lizette. "But Anver is a fighter. We believe he will come back stronger, and we are grateful for every person supporting him on this journey."

When he is not focused on his recovery, Anver enjoys computers, spending time with friends and dreaming about the day he can once again run onto a rugby field.

The Harding family is appealing to the Rustenburg community for support during this difficult chapter. Every contribution, no matter how small, helps ease the financial burden and brings Anver one step closer to recovery.

If you would like to help this young rugby player get back on his feet and back into the game he loves, please visit his Back-a-Buddy fundraising page and consider making a donation.

VAN RUSTIE NA DIE DRAGONS

18-jarige Callie slaan sy droom ses!

Platinum Weekly koerant | Rustenburg – Hoërskool Rustenburg vier met trots die prestasie van een van sy eie nadat die 18-jarige krieketspeler Callie Fryer sy eerste professionele kontrak met die North West Dragons onderteken het.

Callie het reeds vroeg aandag getrek toe hy op net 17-jarige ouderdom sy debuut vir die Dragons gemaak het. Sy sterk vertonings gedurende die 2025/2026 CSA-krieketseisoen het bewys dat hy oor die talent, dissipline en deurstellingsvermoë beskik om op die hoogste vlak mee te ding.

Met provinsiale spanne regoor Suid-Afrika wat voorberei vir die 2026/2027-seisoen en op soek is na opkomende talent, het Callie se harde werk uiteindelik vrugte afgewerp met 'n welverdiende professionele kontrak. Hoërskool Rustenburg sê hulle glo sterk in sy potensiaal en sien daarna uit om sy verdere groei en sukses op die krieketveld te volg. Callie se prestasie dien as inspirasie vir jong sportlui en bewys dat groot drome, gekombineer met toewyding en harde werk, werklikheid kan word.

Rustie-krieket word met trots geborg deur ASB Minerals.
