

Serial Killer in Boitekekong?

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Fear has taken hold in Boitekekong. In recent weeks, social media has been flooded with claims that a serial killer is on the loose after five bodies were recovered in the area since January. According to rumours circulating online, the victims were allegedly murdered elsewhere before their bodies were dumped in or near a local river in Boitekekong, Rustenburg. The claims spread rapidly, leaving many residents asking the same question: What is really going on?

On 2 July 2026, acting North West Provincial Commissioner major general (Dr) Ryno Naidoo sought to reassure the public, saying there was no evidence at that stage to suggest that a serial killer was operating in Boitekekong. He urged residents to allow investigators to complete their work before drawing conclusions.

Following continued public concern, Platinum Weekly again contacted the South African Police Service for an update. North West police spokesperson Colonel Adèle Myburgh confirmed on 15 July that, “Of the five bodies that have been recovered in the Boitekekong area since January 2026, initial post-mortem findings suggest that only one of the deceased may have been the victim of murder,” said Myburgh.

She explained that most of the bodies were recovered in an advanced state of decomposition, making investigations more complex. The cases remain under inquest, and investigators are still awaiting the outstanding forensic and post-mortem results before any final conclusions can be drawn.

“In one case, the deceased was reportedly swimming with a witness. According to the witness, the deceased drowned,” she said. Myburgh again urged the public not to jump to conclusions or fuel speculation on social media while investigations continue.

If you know something, say something. Anyone with information is urged to contact SAPS or report it anonymously via Crime Stop on 08600 10111 or the MySAPS App. Every tip could make a difference.

67 Minutes.
3 Lives.
One Powerful Gift.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – This Mandela Day, Saturday 18 July 2026, turn your 67 minutes into a lifetime of hope by donating blood. Mandela Day is celebrated every year on 18 July, Nelson Mandela’s birthday, and encourages everyone to spend 67 minutes making a difference.

A single blood donation can save up to three lives. It’s one of the simplest ways to make a lasting impact, helping patients in emergency rooms, operating theatres and maternity wards when they need it most.

Support the South African National Blood Service (SANBS) by donating at the SANBS Rustenburg Donor Centre, Lifestyle Square, Beyers Naudé Drive. Pop in before or after your shopping and give the gift of life.

You can donate blood every 56 days.

Cellphone clue leads to gun bust

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – A joint intelligence-driven operation by the police has led to the recovery of an unlicensed firearm, ammunition and a cellphone stolen during a house robbery, with a suspect now on the run.

According to Limpopo police spokesperson colonel Malesela Ledwaba, the operation was conducted by members of the Northam Detectives and the Rustenburg Trio Task Team after investigators followed up on crucial leads. The breakthrough came after a cellphone believed to belong to one of the robbery suspects was recovered and handed over to police.

The investigation led officers to Sunrise Park in Rustenburg, where information extracted from the recovered cellphone helped identify its owner. Police then proceeded to an address in Extension E5. As officers arrived, a man emerged from one of the rooms and fled on foot after noticing the police. He was positively identified as the owner of the recovered cellphone, but managed to evade arrest. A search of the room uncovered an unlicensed 9mm pistol with its serial number removed, four rounds of 9mm ammunition, and a cellphone that had been reported stolen during the house robbery. The firearm and ammunition were handed over to Boitekong SAPS for forensic processing, while the stolen cellphone and recovered cash were booked into evidence at Northam SAPS.

Police have since launched a manhunt for the suspect and say investigations are continuing. Additional charges, including possession of an unlicensed firearm and ammunition, as well as possession of suspected stolen property, are also being investigated.

Anyone with information that could assist police in locating the suspect is urged to contact the investigating officer, sergeant Fortune Madisa, on 073 975 2022, call the Crime Stop number on 08600 10111, visit the nearest police station, or submit information anonymously through the MySAPS App.

The police recovered an unlicensed 9mm pistol with its serial number removed, ammunition and a cellphone reported stolen during a house robbery.

One shoebox can change a child's Christmas

Platinum Weekly newspaper – A Santa Shoebox is much more than a gift. It is a message to a child that says: You matter. You are remembered. You are loved. Since 2006, the Santa Shoebox Project has distributed more than 1.3 million personalised shoeboxes to children attending educational and care facilities across South Africa and Namibia. Each box is packed for a specific child and typically contains toiletries, school supplies, clothing, sweets, toys and a personal message of encouragement. Getting involved is easy. Supporters can pledge a shoebox online, receive the details of a child, pack the required items and deliver the completed shoebox to an official collection point. Those who cannot pack a physical shoebox can still make a difference by sponsoring a Virtual Santa Shoebox. Beyond the annual gift drive, the Santa Shoebox Legacy Projects continue creating lasting change through early childhood development programmes focused on build, learn and read. Ready to make a difference?

Visit www.santashoebox.org.za to pledge a shoebox, donate, volunteer or learn more. One child. One shoebox. One unforgettable Christmas.

Santie Bothma case returns to court on 27 July

Santie Bothma's loved ones and supporters remain steadfast in their call for justice as her murder case returns to court later this month.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – The murder case of Santie Bothma has once again been postponed, with the matter now scheduled to return to the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Monday, 27 July 2026. The previous court appearance, which was set down for 30 June 2026, could not proceed after a power outage forced the court to close before the matter could be heard. The postponement has added to the frustration felt by Bothma's family, friends and the wider Rustenburg community, many of whom have rallied behind the "Be Her Voice" campaign in support of justice for the late 54-year-old. The accused, Corné Engelbrecht (22) and Roelien Hattingh (34), remain in custody after previously being denied bail when they failed to provide verifiable residential addresses. They face charges of murder, robbery, hijacking and defeating the ends of justice. The case relates to the death of Santie Bothma, whose body was discovered on Dinie Estate Road on 5 May 2026. Her vehicle was later recovered in Protea Park during a police operation.

DID YOU SEE SOMETHING? Police need your help after Rustenburg cash heist

The aftermath of the cash-in-transit robbery near Olympia Park Stadium, where armed suspects used explosives to breach a cash vehicle before fleeing the scene.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – A routine Friday morning turned into a scene of chaos and violence when heavily armed suspects carried out a daring cash-in-transit (CIT) robbery near the Olympia Park traffic circle behind Rustenburg Mall on Friday, 10 July 2026. The robbery unfolded shortly after 08:00, when a gang of approximately ten armed men allegedly rammed a cash vehicle with a white Audi before opening fire. According to police, the suspects then used explosives to blast open the cash compartment before fleeing with an undisclosed amount of money in multiple vehicles. The three security officers travelling in the cash vehicle sustained minor injuries in the collision. Police said they were disarmed of their service firearms and escorted away from the vehicle while the suspects emptied the cash compartment. A tow truck driver travelling nearby was also caught in the crossfire after reportedly being struck by a stray bullet. Despite his injury, he managed to drive himself to a nearby medical facility, where he received treatment. Rustenburg First Responder volunteers were among the first emergency teams dispatched after receiving reports of the robbery in progress. By the time emergency personnel arrived, members of the public had already transported the injured bystander to hospital for urgent medical care. Emergency services secured the scene while specialist investigators began their work. Responding agencies included Rustenburg First Responders, SAPS, OAS Security, Secure Fire, North West Provincial EMS and ResMed EMS. Following the robbery, SAPS activated its 72-hour mobilisation plan to deploy maximum investigative and operational resources. The investigation now includes members of the Hawks, the Local Criminal Record Centre, Tactical Response Team, Explosives Unit, detectives, Crime Intelligence, SAPS Air Wing, drone operators and private security partners. No arrests had been made at the time of publication. Police are urging anyone who may have witnessed the incident or who has information about the suspects, their vehicles or their movements before or after the robbery to come forward. Even information that may seem insignificant could prove crucial to the investigation. Anyone with information can contact their nearest police station, call the Crime Stop hotline on 08600 10111, or submit information anonymously via the MySAPS App. Authorities have assured the community that every available resource is being used to identify and apprehend those responsible. Our thoughts remain with all those affected by this violent incident, and we wish the injured bystander a full and speedy recovery.

The Mrs South Africa 2026 Top 30 finalists, including Rustenburg's own Lisinda Grobbelaar, who is proudly representing the North West on her journey to the national crown.

Rustenburg’s own makes Mrs South Africa Top 30

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Rustenburg has every reason to cheer as local resident Lisinda Grobbelaar has secured her place among the Top 30 finalists in the prestigious Mrs South Africa 2026 competition. The finalists were announced during a glamorous Semi-Final Showcase at Emperors Palace on Friday, 3 July 2026, following an intensive week of judging, workshops and interviews. Contestants were evaluated on leadership, communication, community impact, personal growth and their potential to serve as ambassadors for the Mrs South Africa programme. Mrs South Africa CEO Joani Jacobs said every finalist has a unique story to tell and the potential to inspire positive change in their communities. The journey is far from over. Finalists have already completed branding and media workshops and will now begin fundraising for the pageant's official charity partners, including CANSA, The Society for Animals in Distress (SAID) and the 4Change Foundation. Last year's finalists collectively raised more than R400,000, with this year's group aiming to go even further. The Mrs South Africa 2026 finalists will continue their development and community projects in the months leading up to the grand finale. For Rustenburg, all eyes will be on Lisinda Grobbelaar as she carries the hopes of the city onto the national stage. Good luck, Lisinda – Rustenburg is behind you all the way!

Jannie du Toit vier 55 jaar op die verhoog by Tarentaal Teater

Platinum Weekly koerant | Rustenburg – Een van Afrikaans se mees geliefde liedjieskrywers en baanbrekers van ligte Afrikaanse musiek, Jannie du Toit, keer op Sondag 26 Julie 2026 terug na die Tarentaal Teater in Rustenburg met sy gewilde eenmanvertoning, Oppiekitaar. Die Tarentaal Teater, wat sedert 2009 gehore verwelkom, is self 'n unieke bestemming. Die teater is gevestig in 'n ou lemoenpakhuis wat reeds in 1914 opgerig is en het sy naam gekry van die mak tarentale wat hulle deur die jare daar tuisgemaak het. Met paraffienlampies op die tafels, heerlike boerekos en koolstowe wat in die winter aangesteek word, bied die teater 'n warm, rustige en nostalgiese atmosfeer. Van Suid-Afrika se topkunstenaars, waaronder Mathys Roets, Chris Chameleon, Kahn, Amanda Strydom en Danie Niehaus, het al hier opgetree. Jannie du Toit is self geen vreemdeling vir die Tarentaal Teater nie en keer nou terug ter viering van 55 jaar op die professionele verhoog. In Oppiekitaar word hy slegs deur sy kitaar begelei terwyl hy ongeveer 20 liedjies uitvoer – 'n keur uit die byna 200 liedjies wat hy gedurende sy loopbaan geskryf het. Sy musiek word reeds dekades lank gekenmerk deur keurige lirieke, vindingryke akkoordgebruik en, nou meer as ooit, sy meesterlike kitaarspel. Hoewel sy werk veral by fynproewers aanklank vind, bewys liedjies soos 'n Liedjie vir jou dat sy musiek 'n universele aantrekkingskrag het. Die program het ook internasionaal groot indruk gemaak. Gedurende 2025 het Du Toit met Oppiekitaar 'n uiters suksesvolle konserttoer deur die Benelux-lande onderneem, waar hy onder meer in die Suid-Afrikahuis in Amsterdam en by Herman van Veen se Kapschuur-teater voor vol sale opgetree en staande toejuigings ontvang het. Die liedjies in die vertoning wissel tussen vrolikheid en nostalgie, humor en besinning – 'n weerspieëling van die liedjiesmaker én die lewensreis wat ons almal deel. Gaste kan die dag reeds vanaf 12:00 begin met sop, plaasbrood en 'n nagereg teen R100 per persoon. Die vertoning begin om 14:00, met kaartjies teen R150. Vir besprekings, skakel 082 782 3019.

Residents engaged with representatives from the Rustenburg Local Municipality and the SANDF during the SIP 25 bridge project community meetings held on 7 July 2026.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Communities in Ward 44 (Ikageng) and Lethabong gathered on 7 July 2026 for public engagement sessions on the implementation of the Strategic Integrated Project (SIP) 25, which will see new bridges constructed in both areas. The projects are fully funded by the National Department and will be implemented under the oversight of the South African National Defence Force (SANDF). The SANDF-appointed main contractor will work with the Rustenburg Local Municipality's Local Economic Development (LED) Office to appoint subcontractors, creating opportunities for local businesses. As part of the project, 40 local community members will be recruited to work under SANDF supervision, gaining valuable skills and practical experience during construction. Residents were also informed that SANDF personnel will be deployed in the communities throughout the construction period to support the successful implementation of the projects. Municipal leaders said the SIP 25 bridge projects will improve connectivity, strengthen local infrastructure and create employment opportunities while supporting long-term community development.

Koos Doep se nalatenskap leef steeds voort

Platinum Weekly koerant | Rustenburg – Min Afrikaanse kunstenaars het 'n nalatenskap nagelaat wat dekades ná hul dood steeds mense diep raak. Vir Koos du Plessis – geliefd as “Koos Doep” – leef sy liedjies, gedigte en eerlike woorde steeds voort in die harte van duisende Afrikaners.

Koos du Plessis, wie se volle naam Jacobus Johannes du Plessis was, een van Afrikaans se grootste liedjieskrywers en digters, is op 10 Mei 1945 op 'n plaas in die Rustenburg-distrik gebore. Hoewel sy gesin reeds vroeg na Springs verhuis het, nadat hulle die familieplaas verloor het, het die Bosveld en sy kinderherinneringe aan Boshoek hom sy lewe lank geïnspireer en later neerslag gevind in sy musiek en poësie. Baie van Koos se mooiste herinneringe aan vakansies op sy oom se plaas by Boshoek leef voort in sy lied Boshoek.

Ironies genoeg is die jong Koos as tiener ontmoedig om klavierlesse te neem omdat 'n musikonderwyser geglo het hy het nie die nodige aanleg nie. Jare later sou hy egter een van die grootste liedjieskrywers in die geskiedenis van Afrikaanse musiek word.

Hy het aan die voormalige Normaalkollege Pretoria gestudeer en later Afrikaans-Nederlands aan die Universiteit van Pretoria en die Universiteit van die Witwatersrand voltooi. Dit was ook gedurende sy studentejare dat hy sy toekomstige vrou, Mornay, ontmoet het. Die egpaar het drie dogters gehad –

Irma, Karien en Karla, waarvan Karla vandag self 'n bekende sangeres is wat gereeld haar pa se liedjies vertolk.

Benewens sy musiek was Koos ook 'n gerespekteerde joernalis en subredakteur by verskeie Afrikaanse koerante, waaronder Oggendblad, Die Vaderland, Die Nataller en Die Transvaler. Hy was bekend as 'n uiters intelligente, beskeie en privaat mens met 'n skerp sin vir humor, maar ook iemand wat diep oor die lewe, geloof, liefde en verlies nagedink het.

Hoewel hy tydens sy leeftyd beperkte kommersiële sukses beleef het, het sy werk ná sy dood legendariese status bereik. Liedjies soos Kinders van die Wind, Skadu's teen die Muur, As Almal Ver Is en Sprokie vir 'n Stadskind word vandag steeds deur kunstenaars opgeneem en op verhoë regoor die land gesing.

Koos is in die vroeë oggendure van 15 Januarie 1984, op net 38-jarige ouderdom, in 'n motorongeluk naby Krugersdorp oorlede. Sy dood het sy vrou en drie jong dogters, toe onderskeidelik net sewe, agt en nege jaar oud, sonder hul pa gelaat.

Mornay sê die verlies was lewensveranderend, maar sy is dankbaar dat sy nalatenskap steeds voortleef. “Selfs 42 jaar later onthou mense hom nog. Sy musiek word steeds gespeel, dokumentêre programme is oor hom gemaak, en kunstenaars soos Jannie du Toit en baie ander hou sy liedjies lewendig. Dit wys hoe tydloos sy woorde is,” vertel sy.

Koos du Plessis, oftewel “Koos Doep”, wie se tydlose musiek en poësie steeds nuwe geslagte raak.

Koos du Plessis as jong seun – die Rustenburgse kind wat later een van Afrikaans se grootste liedjieskrywers sou word.

‘Erfdeel’ hou sy storie lewendig

Koos se oudste dogter, Irma du Plessis, het saam met haar susters sy nalatenskap verder verewig deur die boek Erfdeel: Koos du Plessis – Versamelde Werke saam te stel. Die uitgebreide publikasie bevat sy volledige lirieke, gedigte, ongepubliseerde verse, kitaarakkoorde, seldsame foto's, biografiese notas en die stories agter baie van sy bekendste liedjies. Die boek is in 2024 in 'n hersiene uitgawe deur UJ Press heruitgegee.

Lesers wat die boek wil bekom, kan dit onder meer by UJ Press aflaai of bestel, of die gedrukte weergawe by Exclusive Books aanvra, afhangend van beskikbare voorraad.

Meer as vier dekades ná sy dood bly Koos du Plessis se woorde mense inspireer. Vir Rustenburg is dit 'n besondere trots dat een van Afrikaans se grootste digters en liedjieskrywers sy eerste asem in hierdie wêrelddeel gehaal het – 'n nalatenskap wat steeds soos die Bosveldwind deur geslagte weerklink.

Erfdeel: Koos du Plessis – Versamelde Werke, saamgestel deur sy oudste dogter, Irma, bring sy gedigte, lirieke, foto's en lewensverhaal in een omvattende publikasie bymekaar.

TURNING THE TIDE ON TRASH

Our Ward Matters cleans up, again and again

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Founded by Ward 15 councillor André van Dyk, Our Ward Matters (OWM) continues to prove what can be achieved when residents, businesses, volunteers and community leaders work together. Led by André van Dyk and Ward 17 councillor Tanya Rothman, the initiative is transforming Wards 15, 16 and 17 into cleaner, safer and more welcoming neighbourhoods.

The past week once again demonstrated that the battle against illegal dumping and environmental neglect is far from over.

On 7 July 2026, the OWM team focused its efforts on the corner of Pendorring and Seringa Avenue near the Kruger Bridge, an area that had previously been cleaned but had once again become a hotspot for illegal dumping and garden refuse. While clearing the site, volunteers uncovered large quantities of rubbish hidden behind the trees and made a heartbreaking discovery – two men and a woman were living among the waste.

Residents have also raised concerns about recent reports of poisoned dogs in the area and house break-ins near the N4, reinforcing the importance of maintaining clear visibility and preventing neglected spaces from becoming havens for criminal activity.

The clean-up then moved to Kruisbessie and Waterbessie Avenues towards Kremetart Avenue, where another illegal dumping hotspot was tackled. One of the most heartbreaking moments came when volunteers discovered the body of a deceased mother dog lying among piles of rubbish, with her puppies nearby — a stark reminder of the devastating consequences of environmental neglect.

The clean-up campaign continued throughout 8 and 9 July, with councillor Tanya Rothman leading teams across Ward 17. Volunteers collected litter from the Rivers area to the R24/Cuckoo area before finishing in Azaleapark. Support from the Rustenburg Local Municipality Waste Department also played an important role when a skip was delivered to Helen Joseph Road near the Kgaswane pump station, enabling the team to continue clearing dense vegetation and remove green waste.

The momentum continued on 13 July, when the team worked opposite the Blue Crane Complex at the corner of Moorhen and Arend Road. Brushcutters opened up overgrown veld while another team collected litter, filling 18 heavy-duty refuse bags with illegally dumped rubbish.

On 14 July, volunteers shifted their focus to the tennis courts on the corner of Mopanie and Maroela Avenue after residents raised ongoing concerns about the neglected area. The team cleared overgrown grass, removed bushes and collected litter around the tennis courts, President Mbeki Drive and behind neighbouring properties. Special thanks were extended to Ward 15 committee member Marie Kemp, who joined the clean-up with gardening equipment and worked alongside the volunteers, as well as Jonathan van Rensburg for lending a helping hand.

Future plans for the tennis courts and surrounding area will be discussed during the next Ward Committee meeting as efforts continue to improve visibility, safety and beautification. Although dozens of bags of rubbish have already been removed, OWM says the work is far from finished.

The organisation is appealing to residents and businesses to become part of the solution by supporting clean-up projects through donations, equipment, sponsorships or volunteering. Illegal dumping affects everyone. It destroys natural spaces, threatens wildlife, creates health hazards and undermines community pride.

Heidi Gover, Grade 2 teacher at Laerskool David Brink in Rustenburg, says the Oxford University Press Africa workshops reminded her that the smallest moments in the classroom often have the greatest impact on a child's learning journey.

Behind every successful learner is a teacher who never stops learning

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg

Teachers play a vital role in shaping the future of every child, and ongoing professional development helps them continue making a meaningful difference in the classroom. One of those dedicated educators is Heidi Gover, a Grade 2 teacher at Laerskool David Brink in Rustenburg, who recently shared how an Oxford University Press Africa (OUPA) workshop inspired her teaching.

More than 7,000 teachers across North West have participated in OUPA's teacher development workshops during the 2025/26 period. The programme equips educators with practical strategies to strengthen lesson planning, curriculum pacing, classroom management and learner engagement.

Heidi, who teaches Mathematics, Life Skills, Afrikaans Home Language and English First Additional Language to eight-year-old learners, says the workshop reminded her of the importance of the simple things. "Sometimes, as teachers, we forget the little things; reading with enthusiasm and expression, checking in with every reader individually, and ensuring each child understands the story at their own level. Thank you, Oxford Books, for reminding me that these small moments are where the magic of learning happens," she said. According to OUPA, 204 workshops were presented in North West, supporting educators from schools across Rustenburg, Mahikeng, Klerksdorp, Potchefstroom, Brits and surrounding communities. The workshops focus on helping teachers use curriculum-aligned learning materials more effectively while addressing everyday classroom challenges such as mixed learner abilities, curriculum pacing and large class sizes.

Bella Tsotetsi, national workshops, training and product manager at OUPA, says teacher development is essential to improving learning outcomes. "Teachers in North West are showing strong commitment to strengthening their classroom practice. When teachers have access to practical training, they are better supported to plan lessons, manage pacing and respond to the realities of their classrooms," she said. Feedback from the programme has been overwhelmingly positive, with 97% of participating teachers agreeing that the workshops have strengthened their teaching practice by improving confidence, lesson planning and learner engagement. As South Africa continues to invest in quality education, initiatives such as these recognise an important truth: when teachers continue learning, learners benefit too.

HAVE YOUR SAY

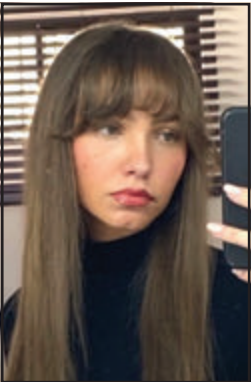

Has everyone in your household been healthy for more than one month?

It seems this year's flu season has hit particularly hard. Many people say they are either currently ill, has just recovered, or has become sick again. Has your entire household managed to stay healthy for more than a month? Vote and share your experience.

"No. As soon as one family member recovers, someone else gets sick. It feels like the flu has been making its way through our household all winter."

Nthabiseng Radebe, Rustenburg

"No. This flu season has been tougher than usual. Even with good hygiene, someone in our household always seems to catch a cold or flu."

Entry is R1,000 per team of four players and includes a light lunch.

Venue: Lawn Bowling Venue (contact organisers for details) | Contact: Marieta – 063 705 0304 | Time: 07:00 – 14:00.

Did you know?

In South Africa, there is no tax on sunlight and no law that charges you simply for using the sun's energy. However, if your home remains connected to the municipal electricity grid, you may still have to pay fixed network or service charges – even if your solar panels generate most of your electricity. These charges vary between municipalities and help fund the maintenance of the electricity network. So, while sunshine is free, staying connected to the grid often isn't. So, while the government can't tax the sun itself, many South Africans are asking whether paying monthly fees despite generating their own electricity feels like paying for sunshine...

Championship glory for Leopards under-15A

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Bergsig Akademie is celebrating a proud achievement after coach Cornel du Plessis and player Eldrich Gzorke represented the Leopards Under-15A team at the Agri National Rugby Week. The Leopards recorded impressive victories over the Sharks (10-5) and the Valke (20-0), securing a place in the final where they defeated the Blue Bulls 27-20 to be crowned the unofficial Agri National Rugby Tournament champions. Congratulations to Eldrich and Coach “Dup” on this outstanding achievement and for flying the Bergsig flag high on the national stage.

Coach Cornel du Plessis and Leopards under-15A player Eldrich Gzorke proudly represented their province as the team claimed the unofficial Agri National Rugby Tournament title.

First-team captain Marius Breytenbach led from the front and was deservedly named Man of the Match in Sibanye Warriors' awesome victory over Klerksdorp Rugby Club.

WARRIORS RUN RIOT!

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Sibanye Warriors Rugby Club delivered another outstanding performance on Saturday, 11 July 2026, producing two convincing victories over Klerksdorp Rugby Club in Klerksdorp during their Neser A League fixtures. The Warriors' first team was in sensational form, running in a remarkable 109-10 victory to continue their impressive campaign. Leading by example was captain Marius Breytenbach, whose exceptional all-round performance earned him the Man of the Match award. The second team also enjoyed an excellent afternoon, defeating their hosts 46-12 to complete a successful day for the club. The back-to-back victories underline the strength and depth within the Sibanye Warriors setup as both teams continue to build momentum during the season. The Warriors now turn their attention to the President Cup, where they will travel to Welkom on Saturday, 18 July, to take on Welkom Rugby Club. The second team kicks off at 12:30, followed by the first team at 14:00. Supporters are encouraged to get behind the Warriors as they look to carry their winning form into the next chapter of the season.

The Rustenburg Impala first team celebrated another dominant victory after defeating Matlosana Rugby Academy 89-12.

No Stopping Rustenburg Impala!

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Impala Rugby Club continued its outstanding season with another victory, overpowering Matlosana Rugby Academy in both the first and second team fixtures on Saturday, 11 July 2026. Playing in the LRU President League, the Impala first team produced a dazzling attacking performance to claim an 89-12 victory, while the second team followed suit with a convincing 26-12 win. Several players delivered standout performances during the afternoon. Stefan Nel was named Forward of the Match, Byron Kleyn earned Backline Player of the Match, while Junior Kuhn walked away with the prestigious Player of the Match award after an exceptional all-round display. For the second team, Joandre Steyl was recognised as the Man of the Match for his impressive contribution. With confidence growing and momentum firmly on their side, Rustenburg Impala will now turn their attention to another important challenge this weekend. On Saturday, 18 July, they will face the Sibanye Lions in the Luiperds Neser A League. The second team kicks off at 14:00, followed by the first team at 15:30. Supporters are encouraged to get behind the team as Impala looks to continue its winning run on the road.
