

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – School bags and sport kits, afternoon activities and another trip across town. For busy parents like Reinette Hurter, keeping everyone moving takes time, planning and an increasingly painful fuel budget. The children have places to be. But Mom has one too: the petrol station. But behind the familiar school-run scramble lies a serious concern. When getting to work and back eats into money needed for groceries, electricity and school fees, earning a living can start feeling like an expensive journey in itself.

From pay day to petrol pump... Every kilometre counts

Busy schedules, precious passengers: Reinette Hurter knows the demands of keeping children on the move. From left: Lily Pretorius, Gabby Van Zyl, Hayley Hurter, Reinette Hurter and Mila Hurter.

What are we paying?

Fuel prices increased on Wednesday, 7 October 2026. Published inland benchmark prices are R29.88 per litre for 93 unleaded petrol and R30.25 for 95 unleaded. Diesel wholesale benchmarks are approximately R31.95 for 500ppm and R32.80 for 50ppm. Local pricing zones can differ, and diesel pump prices vary between retailers. At that 95 petrol benchmark, buying 50 litres costs R1,512.50... that is R166.50 more than before October's R3.33-per-litre increase. That is a substantial extra expense before the first school drop-off.

Will relief arrive before the year ends?

Cheaper fuel before the end of 2026 is not guaranteed. Government's 5 October announcement cited higher international prices and shipping costs. A stronger rand could help, but election results alone cannot promise relief at the pumps.

Small plans can save precious kilometres

Nobody can remove every journey from a busy family's diary, but a few changes can help:

- Share the netball run. Chat to other parents whose children attend the same practice. Taking turns once or twice a week can cut duplicate trips and give everyone a little breathing space. Agree on collection times and make sure every child has an appropriate seat and restraint.
- Ease off the accelerator. Leave a little earlier, keep to a sensible speed and accelerate gently. Racing between robots and braking hard wastes fuel.

- Make one trip do more. Collect the children, buy groceries and stop at the pharmacy on one planned route instead of making separate outings.
- Check tyre pressure. Use the manufacturer's recommended pressures and keep maintenance up to date.
- Lighten the load. Remove unnecessary heavy items and unused roof carriers.
- Avoid unnecessary idling. When safely parked for a longer wait, switch off the engine where practical.

A shared lift will not solve the cost-of-living crisis. But it can mean fewer kilometres, another parent getting a break and a little more money staying in the household. With today's fuel prices, "I'll fetch them on Tuesday" might be a very welcome offer.

A LIFE TAKEN AT A FARM GATE

Two accused remain behind bars after Hannetjie van Zyl's death

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Ottosdal – Two men accused of murdering and robbing Johanna "Hannetjie" van Zyl (55) at Doornpan Farm outside Ottosdal remain in custody ahead of their formal bail applications.

According to police spokesperson sergeant Kelebogile Morake, Martin Boitumelo Mosime (28) and Moleko Sekwaage (29) appeared before the Bloemhof Periodical Court on Thursday, 8 October 2026. Both face charges of murder and robbery. The matter was postponed to Thursday, 15 October 2026, for formal bail applications. Both accused were remanded in custody.

Van Zyl was attacked while opening a gate to enter the farm on Monday evening, 5 October. Her husband took her to a hospital in Klerksdorp, where, according to police, she later died from her injuries.

The court proceedings follow an attack that left a family mourning a devastating loss. Platinum Weekly extends its condolences to Hannetjie's husband, family and loved ones. Violence in our farming communities leaves wounds that reach far beyond the scene of an attack.

POLICE WARN

Mineworkers targeted on their way to work

SAPS members at Bojanala FM raised awareness about hitchhiking risks and support available to victims of gender-based violence.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – A lift from a stranger could end in robbery instead of a safe arrival at work. Police are warning mine employees to be especially cautious when hitchhiking between 02:00 and 05:00, following reports of attacks in and around Kanana, Meriting, Seraleng, Paardekraal and along the R510. According to police spokesperson warrant officer Ofentse Mokgadi, victims have reportedly been robbed of their cellphones, with stolen devices allegedly used to access banking applications and transfer money from their accounts. Preliminary information suggests that suspects, sometimes travelling in groups of three or more and using different vehicles, pretend to be heading in the same direction as their intended victims. Those accepting lifts are then allegedly taken to secluded areas and robbed. On Tuesday 6 October 2026, Boitekong SAPS community policing officer sergeant Happy Mafora and gender-based violence (GBV) coordinator sergeant Mammy Tologu conducted a safety awareness campaign to highlight these risks. Police urged employees to use safer, organised transport wherever possible, avoid travelling alone and exercise caution when accepting lifts from unknown motorists. The campaign also addressed GBV concerns, including incidents allegedly linked to liquor outlets. Tologu encouraged responsible drinking and reminded liquor outlet owners to comply with prescribed trading and closing times. She stressed that Boitekong SAPS’s GBV Desk operates 24 hours a day and assists all victims, including men experiencing violence or abuse. She also appealed to parents, guardians and community members to report suspected sexual offences against children immediately. Phokeng SAPS also visited mines in the area that day, directly warning employees about the dangers of hitchhiking and encouraging safer travel arrangements. Police will continue patrols and safety awareness campaigns in affected areas. Mine employees and residents are urged to report suspicious people, vehicles or activities to police.

Faith, hard work and a new chapter at 55

BUSINESSMAN AND PASTOR CAIN NTHAKO TURNS FURTHER EDUCATION INTO A STRONGER FOUNDATION FOR SERVING OTHERS

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – At 55, Galekhutle Cain Nthako has a message for anyone wondering whether the opportunity to learn has passed them by: never give up. The businessman and pastor completed his Certificate in Church Life through Mukhanyo Theological College in 2025 and graduated in 2026, adding a new milestone to a life shaped by faith, leadership and community development. Cain enrolled at the college’s Rustenburg campus in 2025 to strengthen his leadership skills and deepen his understanding, teaching and preaching of the Bible and the gospel. Balancing his studies with business, ministry and community commitments brought challenges, particularly time management, assignments and extensive travelling. Yet he believes the effort has made him a better leader and teacher. “This is an important milestone in my Christian life and in my knowledge of the Bible,” he said. “I have learnt that faith in God without deeds is dead.”

A childhood rooted in faith
Born on 25 June 1971 in Ulco, near Kimberley in the Northern Cape, Cain is the eldest of three children. His childhood included school, soccer, athletics and work as a shepherd, alongside regular church attendance. He also sang in the church choir. His father, whom Cain describes as having served as a preacher for 29 years, and his mother, a church leader, helped establish the values that continue to guide him. “My father always advised me to respect my elders and to love others,” he said. His father taught him that God is their heavenly Father, that no one is greater than God and that Jesus Christ is their Saviour. Cain says these teachings shaped his belief that a Christian way of life offers the best and safest path. With gratitude, he shared that both his parents and all three of their children are still alive. The siblings went on to become a pastor, a technician and a mechanical engineer in the South African Air Force.

Learning to lead and serve
Cain later joined the Apostolic Christian Church, where he was baptised as an adult and appointed as a church leader. He became a pastor in Dobsonville, Soweto, in 2001, before moving to Kimberley and later Bloemfontein, where he says he currently serves in the Apostolic Church. His commitment to ministry eventually led him back to the classroom. Cain speaks warmly of Mukhanyo’s teaching, educational support, love, respect and discipline. He values what he describes as its multinational, non-discriminatory environment, as well as its assessments and guidance in helping students select courses suited to their level.

Putting principles into practice
As managing director of GC Nthako Diamond Mining Project, Cain says his work focuses on developing rural communities through mining and agriculture. He sees a direct connection between his theological education and community development: applying principles of love, peace and honesty, rejecting corruption and greed, avoiding hatred and harm, and working together towards success.

Never too late to begin
Cain’s graduation is another step in a journey he intends to continue. To those who feel too old to study or pursue a new goal, his encouragement is grounded in the faith that has carried him since childhood. “With God, everything is possible. Never give up,” he said. “Pray to God always and trust in Him to overcome. God’s timing is always right, and He is full of grace.”

Pastor and businessman Galekhutle Cain Nthako at his church. His faith continues to guide his ministry, studies and community development work.

Gabby van Zyl showcased bridal elegance in a wedding gown by Idah's Fashions at Rustenburg Fashion Week's tenth-anniversary show.

A decade of dreams, stitched into the spotlight

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Rustenburg Fashion Week marked its tenth anniversary by celebrating the people turning creativity into opportunity. The anniversary programme took place on 2 and 3 October 2026, with the fashion show hosted at Rustenburg Toyota on 3 October. From bridal elegance to striking designer creations, the showcase brought together talent from across the province. Behind the runway glamour lies a decade of work to give emerging designers and models a platform. Founded by Gili Ramalekana in 2016, Rustenburg Fashion Week has independently organised fashion shows while reaching into farms, small towns and townships across North West to identify and uplift talent.

For this year's showcase, the search extended across all four districts: Bojanala Platinum, Dr Kenneth Kaunda, Dr Ruth Segomotsi Mompati and Ngaka Modiri Molema. More than 100 aspiring models attended auditions held during March and April, with 45 selected to take part in the show. The platform brings emerging and established talent together, with a vision of positioning Rustenburg Fashion Week as the province's fashion hub and helping fashion and modelling become meaningful sources of economic opportunity. He thanked Ontlotile Seemela, Xoli Moagi, Mpolokeng Botipe, Tshepo Matseba and Quinton Mohlomi, as well as MCs Dani de Bruyn and Tiisetso Masiike, for their contributions for the Business Networking. The 3 October fashion show showcased the work of:

- Idah Ramalekana | Idah's Fashions
- Destiny Njoko | Thulo Couture
- Keamogetse Matepe | KH25
- Tony D Fashion
- Lebogang Habana | Jean Claude
- Amanda Mondlane | Luchama Fashion
- Abueng Phooko | Abueng Closet
- Tshegofatso Mochubi | Fatso Atelier
- Sune Malan | S-Mari Designs
- Thato Mogomotsi | Kgabang Fabrics and Designs
- Victoria Nswé | Victoria Designs

Ramalekana also acknowledged partners Rustenburg Toyota, Nedbank, Pulse FM 92.9 and the Mmabana Arts, Culture & Sport Foundation. Ten years after its first steps, the platform's purpose remains rooted in its communities: finding talent, opening doors and helping creative dreams become livelihoods.

Beauty Masinga took to the runway in a baby-blue dress by Idah's Fashions during the anniversary showcase at Rustenburg Toyota.

At 13, Christen  turns concern into action

Thirteen-year-old Christen  De Wet gets to work around Laerskool Dawid Brink through her initiative, A Better Place for Children and Families.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – When 13-year-old Christen  De Wet called on her community to help clean up around Laerskool Dawid Brink, she hoped neighbours would join her. When no residents or other children arrived, she rolled up her sleeves alongside her family and got to work anyway. The Grade 6 learner's initiative, A Better Place for Children and Families, grew from a simple wish: to see children playing in cleaner, safer surroundings. Ooseinde holds a special place in Christen 's heart. Her late grandfather raised her mother, Christelle Lowers, there, and Christen  herself lived in the neighbourhood until two months ago. She still attends school there and has family in the area. Now living in Hexriver, where she enjoys seeing children of different ages playing outside in the local park, she wants children in Ooseinde to have similar opportunities. "Ooseinde is close to my heart. I would love to see children playing in a clean area," said Christen . "I want to make a difference here and, eventually, throughout my community." On the Wednesday before the clean-up, Christen  and her mother decided to turn that wish into action. They made pamphlets, distributed them to businesses around the school and invited residents to lend a hand on Saturday, 26 September 2026, from 06:00. They also appealed for refuse bags, gloves, drinking water and transport. Some businesses declined to display the pamphlets, and finding support proved difficult. However, donations from IW Mining Services and Consulting, Ian Lowers and Willem Pelser helped make the clean-up possible. Richardo Francisco also donated bottled water. Christen  was joined by her mother, stepfather, grandmother, two brothers and one of her grandmother's friends. They cleaned from the school's main gate around to the next gate, including the area in front of Alpha and across from the car wash and butchery. Among the rubbish were numerous alcohol bottles and bottle tops, nappies, sanitary waste and broken glass. Particularly disturbing was the discovery of enough discarded syringes and needles to fill two black bags. Laerskool Dawid Brink supported the effort by allowing the group to dispose of the collected rubbish in its skips. For Christelle, her daughter's concern had been evident long before the clean-up "Whenever we drove through Ooseinde, she would ask why people were throwing rubbish into the streets," said Christelle. "One day, with tears in her eyes, she asked whether we could make a difference as a family. I immediately said yes." Although the lack of community turnout hurt, Christen  refused to give up. "She was heartbroken that no one else came, but she still wanted to continue," her mother said. "We believe in her and will support her every step of the way." Christen  hopes to continue the project, but needs help beyond what her family can provide. She is appealing to residents, businesses and the municipality for gloves, refuse bags, masks, volunteers and transport to remove collected rubbish. "I cannot do it alone, and I cannot expect my parents to provide everything," she said. "I hope other children will see that, even though we are young, we can make a difference." To offer assistance or donations, contact Christelle Lowers on 072 630 9753, by phone or WhatsApp.

Less litter, more pride: Our Ward Matters gets it done

A visible difference in Safariuine: Our Ward Matters continued its grass cutting, vegetation clearing and litter collection on Monday, 12 October.

Caring for the neighbourhood: Our Ward Matters tackled overgrown vegetation and litter along Helen Joseph in Safariuine on Tuesday, 6 October.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – A freshly cut verge, a cleared sidewalk and a bag of collected litter may seem like small things. Together, they are making a visible difference as Our Ward Matters (OWM) tackles overgrown spaces and neglected corners across local neighbourhoods. Founded by Ward 15 councillor Andr  van Dyk and led by him and councillor Tanya Rothman, the initiative continues its work in Wards 15, 16 and 17, encouraging residents to take pride in the places they call home.

6-8 October | Clearing the way in Safariuine
Under Van Dyk's planning and supervision, the team cut grass behind the houses along Kwartel Crescent on Tuesday, 6 October, and continued clearing overgrown vegetation in Helen Joseph to improve visibility. Litter collection along Helen Joseph formed part of the day's work. On Wednesday and Thursday, 7-8 October, Rothman led the team through the open veld in Watervalrivier, towards Krokodilrivier and into Helen Joseph. Alongside cutting vegetation, team members painted STOP-sign poles, other road-sign poles and street-name sign poles to make them more visible and presentable. This completed the current round of work in the Rivers area.

12 October | A visible difference, one stretch at a time
Monday's clean-up began at Helen Joseph Bridge and the corner of Arend Road, where the team tidied the road island and roadside and collected rubbish. A second team cut the large open veld from Bosduif Crescent in Arendskloof towards Moorhen. Other members worked on both sides of the road past the BP garage, cutting grass, clearing vegetation and cleaning sidewalks towards Kiepersol.

13 October | Taking pride in Azaleapark and Selly Park
On Tuesday, the team cut overgrown grass on the mountain side of Langeberg Avenue before moving down Drakensberg Avenue, clearing around Kougaberg and cleaning the road. They then attended to stormwater drains next to Selly Park Primary School and collected litter nearby. The day ended at Adelaide Substation, where grass cutting and veld clearing next to Elohim and Corner Heights helped open up the area. Following several incidents of vandalism at the substation, the work aimed to improve visibility and reduce potential veld-fire risks.

HELP KEEP THE PROGRESS GROWING
Keeping these spaces neat takes ongoing work – and ongoing funding. Fuel, brush-cutter line and maintenance, equipment, refuse bags and cleaning materials all come at a cost. OWM is calling on more residents and businesses to contribute, rather than leaving the same supporters to carry the expenses each month. Every donation, big or small, helps the team continue its work, while residents can support that progress by keeping their surroundings clean.

More than a game: 15 years of hoops and hope

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Royal Bafokeng – Six championship games, more than 5,000 spectators and 15 years of giving young people a chance to shine: Royal Bafokeng Basketball (RBB) had plenty to celebrate as its anniversary week reached an exciting finish on Saturday 19 September 2026.

Hosted by Royal Bafokeng Sports, the celebrations ran from 14 to 19 September, bringing together players, coaches, officials, alumni, schools and community members. Beyond the trophies and entertainment, the week celebrated the people whose commitment has helped basketball grow across the Royal Bafokeng Nation.

According to the programme, RBB has reached more than 10,000 young people directly and indirectly over the past 15 years. More than 100 teams from 40 schools participate, while coaches and officials developed through the programme have progressed to national and international levels.

Taking basketball to the community

The week began with school activations at St. Michael Primary, Bubuanjwa Primary, Kana Primary and Mathlware Primary, drawing more than 500 people daily. Demonstrations and entertainment by the Top Gs Dunk Squad, alongside a collaboration with Soweto Basketball Academy, brought plenty of excitement to the school visits.

The celebrations also proved that there is no age limit to joining the action. On 18 September, the Golden Age Basketball Clinic welcomed 120 participants aged 60 and older, encouraging active living, social connection and fun through sport.

That evening, more than 150 guests attended the RBB Gala Dinner, where academic and sporting achievers, alumni and dedicated staff received recognition. RBB alumnus Phenyo Tshwantsho delivered the keynote address, reflecting on his journey through the programme and how sport can help shape young lives. His message prompted calls for more opportunities to engage and inspire the next generation of Royal Bafokeng youth.

Six titles, one unforgettable finish

On 19 September, supporters gathered for the RBB League Finals, with six titles contested across the U14, U16 and U18 boys' and girls' divisions.

The 2026 champions are:

- U14 girls: Kitsong School
- U14 boys: Lebone II College
- U16 girls: Molotlegi Secondary
- U16 boys: Lebone II College
- U18 girls: Thethe Secondary
- U18 boys: Charora Secondary

Lebone II College enjoyed a particularly memorable day, claiming both the U14 and U16 boys' titles.

Basketball guests Zeph Masote and Franck Traoré joined the celebrations, while a live performance by amapiano artist LeeMckrazy brought the anniversary week to an energetic close.

For RBB, the milestone was about more than the final score. It celebrated 15 years of teamwork, opportunity and community pride – and the young people still finding their feet, their confidence and their future on the court.

HAVE YOUR SAY

Do you prefer a voice note over a typed message?

Some love hearing a familiar voice; others would rather read a message than listen to a five-minute story! Voice notes add a personal touch, while typed messages are easy to scan. Do voice notes get your vote?

"I prefer typed messages. Writing gives me time to gather my thoughts, choose my words and express myself clearly. I can make sure my message says exactly what I mean before pressing send."

Jolene Pasino, Rustenburg

"Typed messages get my vote. They're quick to read and offer more privacy when others are nearby. I can scan a message in seconds instead of listening to a voice note that lasts several minutes."

Christianh Rankoko, Rustenburg

POLL

Do you let your pet sleep on your bed?

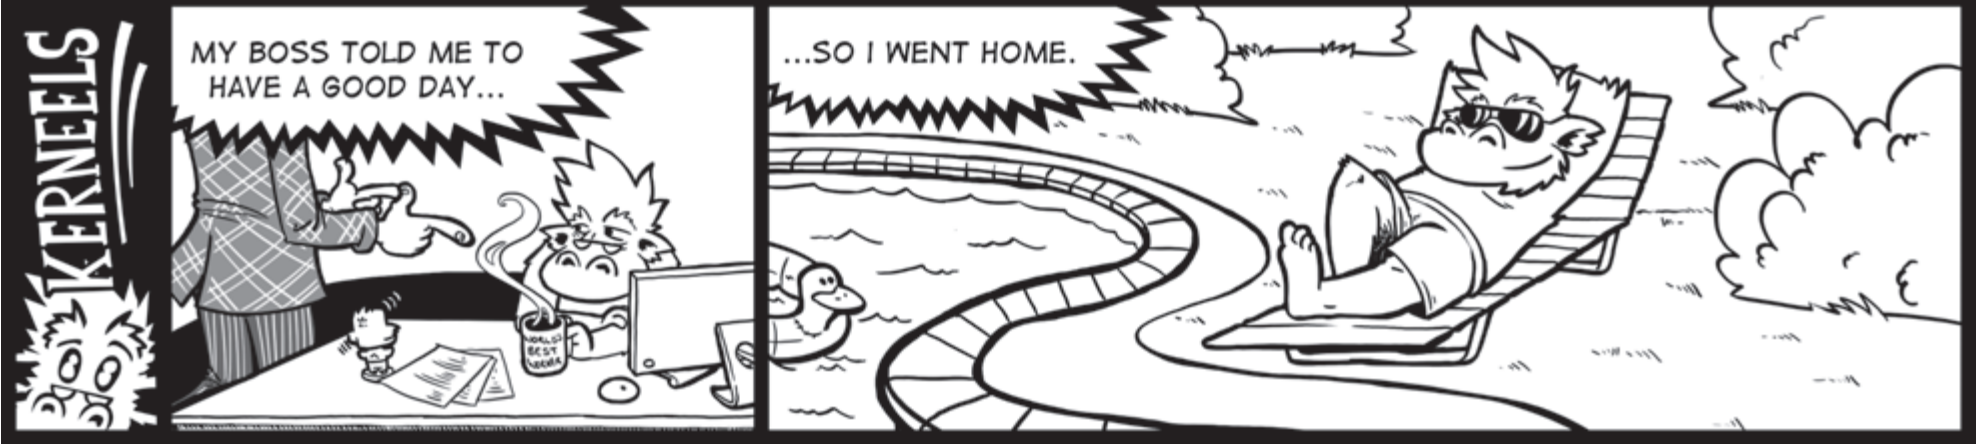

For some, bedtime means cuddling up with a furry friend. Others prefer keeping their pillows free of paws and pet hair. Does your pet have a place beside you, or do they sleep in their own cosy spot? Here's how you can participate. Email us at news@platinumweekly.co.za or WhatsApp your response to 081 579 7000. Include the following:

- Your answer: Yes or No
- Why? We want to hear from you!
- A recent photo – We'd love to publish your pic alongside your answer!
- Your town/city
- Deadline – Be sure to send your response before 12:00 on Monday, 19 October 2026.

Vote results: The outcome of the poll will be featured in our next issue. Be a part of our community's story! P.S.: Don't forget, you can also voice your opinion on our Facebook post about this topic. Join the conversation!

Did you know?

Ever listened to a voice note and thought, "Do I really sound like that?" When you speak, you hear sound travelling through the air and vibrations passing through your skull to your inner ears. This combination can make your voice sound deeper and fuller to you. A recording lacks that internal contribution, so your voice may sound higher or thinner. It is generally closer to what others hear, although microphones and speakers also affect the sound. Your voice hasn't changed... your way of hearing it has!

Chicago miles, Rustenburg smiles!

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Run/Walk For Life Rustenburg members Kay Khoza and Martha Moloto returned to South Africa with Chicago Marathon medals and plenty to smile about after completing the race on Sunday, 11 October 2026.

Kay crossed the finish line in 3:15:36, while Martha recorded 3:33:53 – two excellent performances that made their club proud. Taking runners through 29 vibrant neighbourhoods, the iconic marathon offers a running tour of Chicago's diverse communities, with cheering spectators adding to the excitement.

Run/Walk For Life Rustenburg members Kay Khoza and Martha Moloto proudly celebrated their Chicago Marathon achievements.
